Chapter 3.—OPERATORS' PERMITS

Sec.

40-301. Operators' permits—Application—Examinations, periods for which issued—Lost permits—Age restrictions—To be in possession of operator—Operation without permit prohibited.

40-302. Revocation or suspension of operators' permits—Procedure—New permit after revocation—Non-residents—Penalty.

40-303. Nonresidents exempt from registration—Period of exemption.

§ 40-301 [6: 244]. Operators' permits—Application—Examinations, period for which issued—Lost permits—Age restrictions—To be in possession of operator—Operation without permit prohibited.

(a) Upon application made under oath and the payment of the fee hereinafter prescribed, the commissioners or their designated agent is hereby authorized to issue a motor-vehicle operator's permit to any individual who, after examination, in the opinion of the commissioners or their designated agent, is mentally, morally, and physically qualified to operate a motor vehicle in such manner as not to jeopardize the safety of individuals or property. The commissioners or their designated agent shall cause each applicant to be examined as to his knowledge of the traffic regulations of the District and shall require the applicant to give a practical demonstration of his ability to operate a motor vehicle within a congested portion of the District and in the presence of such individuals as he may authorize to conduct the demonstration, except that upon the renewal of any such operator's permit such examination and demonstration may be waived in the discretion of the director. Should the commissioners or their designated agent believe that the issuance or reissuance of a permit in accordance with the provisions of this chapter may prove a menace to public safety he may, in his discretion, refuse the issuance or reissuance thereof. Operators' permits shall be issued for a period not in excess of three years, and shall be renewable for periods of three years upon compliance with such regulations as the Commissioners or their designated agent may prescribe. The fee for any such permit shall be three dollars. In case of the loss of an operator's permit the individual to whom such permit was issued shall forthwith notify the Commissioners or their designated agent, who shall furnish such individual with a duplicate permit. The fee for each such duplicate permit shall be 50 cents. No operator's permit shall be issued to any individual under 16 years of age; and no such permit shall be issued to any individual 16 years of age or over but under 18 years of age for the operation of any motor vehicle other than a passenger vehicle or a motor cycle or motor bicycle used solely for purposes of pleasure and owned by such individual or his parent or guardian: Provided, That enlisted men of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard shall be issued, without charge, a permit to operate government-owned vehicles, while engaged in official business, upon the presentation of a certificate from their commanding officers to the effect that they are assigned to operate a government vehicle and are qualified to drive, and upon proving to the satisfaction of the director of traffic that they are familiar with the traffic regulations of the District of Columbia.

(b) Each operator's permit shall (1) state the name and address of the holder, together with such other matter as the commissioners or their designated agent may by regulation prescribe, and (2) contain his signature and space wherein the police court judges or their subordinates are required to note convictions of violations of sections 40-605, 40-609, 40-610.

(c) Any individual to whom has been issued a permit to operate a motor vehicle shall have such permit in his immediate possession at all times when operating a motor vehicle in the District and shall exhibit such permit to any police officer when demand is made therefor. Any individual failing to comply with the provisions of this subdivision shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $2 nor more than $40: Provided, That this shall not apply to transient visitors from states in the Union which do not require drivers' permits.

(d) Permits issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter to individuals in possession of operators' permits issued to such individuals in the District prior to May 2, 1925, may be issued with or without the examination and practical demonstration provided in subdivision (a) of this section, as the director may deem advisable.

(e) No individual shall operate a motor vehicle in the District, except as provided in section 40-303, without first having obtained an operator's permit issued under the provisions of this chapter. Provided, That operators of Federal Government-owned vehicles stationed outside of the District of Columbia shall not be required to have or obtain the operators' permits referred to above while operating such vehicles within the limits of the District of Columbia on transient or temporary official business of the Federal Government. Any individual violating any provision of this subdivision shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

(f) Nothing in this chapter shall relieve any individual from compliance with section 47-2331 (e) of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1121, ch. 443, § 7; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 812, ch. 739, § 2; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1226, ch. 258; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, § 2; June 20, 1939, 53 Stat. 850, ch. 231.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Act March 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1121, ch. 443, § 17 provided that § 7 (this section) should take effect sixty days after its enactment.

The act approved January 29, 1913 cited in paragraph (f) amended § 7, paragraph 11, of the act approved July 1, 1902. Section 7 was later amended in its entirety by act of July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 386, so that the same subject matter is now contained in paragraph 31 (e) (§ 47-2431 (e) in this code).

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in §§ 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623 and 11-1407.

AMENDMENTS

Prior to the 1926 amendment, this section provided for the annual renewal of operators' permits and prescribed fees of $1 and $2. The 1926 amendment also added the third sentence in paragraph (a); added "which do not require drivers' permits" at the end of paragraph (c); changed paragraph (d) which prior thereto related to the issuance without charge of temporary permits to expire on March 31, 1936, to persons holding permits issued prior to that act; and reduced the penalty in paragraph (e) from "not more than one year" to "not more than six months."

The act of 1936 also provided, "(g) This act shall become effective immediately upon passage, and promptly thereafter the director shall commence the call of outstanding permits and the reissuance thereof in accordance with the provisions of this act, and shall complete such reissuance within a period of one year."

The 1929 act added the proviso to paragraph (a).

The 1931 act inserted "commissioners or their designated agent" in lieu of "director." This act became effective July 1, 1931.

The 1939 act added the proviso in paragraph (e).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EXCLUSIVE POWERS OF CONGRESS

Congress, as to the District of Columbia, has express power to exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, thus possessing the combined powers of a general and a state government in all cases where legislation is possible. When and how it shall delegate or distribute authority to make detailed regulations under the police power are questions which Congress may determine for itself. LaForest v. Board of Comrs. of District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 396, 92 Fed. (2d) 547).

FINES

Fine of $275 with commitment to jail for sixty days on default of payment, held not excessive. Dorsey v. Peak (58 App. D. C. 64, 24 Fed. (2d) 892).

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

Traffic regulations apply to United States employees, driving government automobiles. Grososon v. District of Columbia (55 App. D. C. 122, 2 Fed. (2d) 924).

There is no exception in favor of the vehicles of the Post Office Department, and the manifest purpose of the acts does not imply such an exception. White v. District of Columbia (55 App. D. C. 197, 4 Fed. (2d) 163).

PERMIT IN POSSESSION

Holder of a permit is required to have it in his immediate possession when operating a motor vehicle and exhibit the same to any police officer when demand is made therefor. Dorsey v. Peak (58 App. D. C. 64, 24 Fed. (2d) 892).

SUSPENSION OF PERMIT

Failure to prove that the permit had not been restored before the date of arrest was immaterial, even though the information contained no averment of it, as such averment was mere surplusage, and the burden of proof respecting it did not rest on the prosecution. Chesevoir v. District of Columbia (58 App. D. C. 268, 29 Fed. (2d) 798).

Action of the Commissioners in suspending petitioner's permit was not based upon illegally delegated power. LaForest v. Board of Comrs. of District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 396, 92 Fed. (2d) 547).

§ 40-302 [6: 250]. Revocation or suspension of operators' permits—Procedure—New permit after revocation—Nonresidents—Penalty.

(a) Except where for any violation of this chapter revocation of the operator's permit is mandatory, the Commissioners or their designated agent may with or without a prior hearing revoke or suspend an operator's permit for any cause which they or their agent may deem sufficient: Provided, That in each case where a permit is revoked or suspended the reasons therefor shall be set out in the order of revocation or suspension: Provided further, That such order shall take effect five days after its issuance unless the holder of the permit shall have filed within such period, written application with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for a review of their order or the order of their agent, and, if upon such review, the Commissioners shall sustain such order, the same shall become effective immediately: Provided further, That application to said Commissioners for a review shall not operate as a stay of such order of the commissioners or their agent when the order has been issued revoking or suspending a permit on account of mental or physical incapacity, for driving under the influence of liquor or narcotic drugs; for manslaughter when an automobile is involved, or for operating a motor vehicle equipped with a smoke screen: Provided further, That any individual whose permit shall be denied, suspended, or revoked by the commissioners or their agent may, within thirty days after such denial, revocation, or suspension is ordered, if application for a review by the commissioners of an order for revocation or suspension has not been filed, or in case such application has been filed, within thirty days after decision of the Commissioners, apply to any justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for a writ of error to review the order of the Commissioners or their agent complained of or the decision of the Commissioners. Said court is authorized to promulgate rules governing the application for the writ, and the record and proceedings thereon, and to affirm, modify, or reverse the order of the Commissioners or their agent or the decision of the Commissioners, where the writ is allowed pursuant hereto; and the decision of said court shall be final: And provided further, That the application to said court for a writ of error shall not operate as a stay of such order of the Commissioners or their agent or the decision of the Commissioners.

(b) In case the operator's permit of any individual is revoked no new permit shall be issued to such individual for at least six months after the revocation except in the discretion of the Commissioners or their designated agent.

(c) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their designated agent, may suspend or revoke the right of any nonresident person as defined in section 40-303, to operate a motor vehicle in the District of Columbia, for any cause they or their agent may deem sufficient, and the proper authority at the place of issuance of the permit, or other authority to operate a motor vehicle shall be notified of such suspension and the reason therefor, immediately: Provided, That such order of suspension or revocation shall take effect ten days after its issuance, and the same be subject to review and appeal in the manner and under the same conditions as are provided for such matters in subsection (a) of this section.

(d) Any individual found guilty of operating a motor vehicle in the District during the period for which his operator's permit is revoked or suspended or for which his right to operate is suspended under this act shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, or imprisoned not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or both. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1121, ch. 443, § 13; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 814, ch. 739, § 3; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, 1428, ch. 317, §§ 2, 4; May 15, 1936, 49 Stat. 1273, ch. 393.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Subsection (c) of this section as amended in 1936 was § 245a of title 6 in the Fifth Supplement to the 1929 Code of the District of Columbia.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623 and 11-1407.

AMENDMENTS

Prior to the 1926 amendment paragraph (a) of this section provided that the director could in his discretion revoke or suspend the operator's permit of any person convicted of a violation but contained no provision for a hearing.

The 1931 amendment substituted "commissioners or their designated agent" for "director"; and in subdivision (a) substituted "five days" for "ten days" in the second proviso; omitted from the second proviso "but if the director or his assistant, such order shall thereupon be vacated;" and added the third proviso. This amendment became effective July 1, 1931.

The 1936 act amended paragraph (c) by adding the proviso and giving the right to revoke for any cause, this right being previously given only upon conviction of a violation.

FOREIGN REGISTRATION AFTER SUSPENSION

One whose operator's permit in the District of Columbia had been revoked was properly convicted of driving in the District during the suspension period though he had become a resident of Virginia and had obtained registration and operator's licenses from that state. District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163, revg. 59 App. D. C. 79, 33 Fed. (2d) 375).

OPERATING VEHICLE AFTER REVOCATION

Conviction for operating a motor vehicle after revocation of license was affirmed, and it was not necessary for the prosecution to show that no new permit had been issued. Chesevoir v. District of Columbia (58 App. D. C. 268, 29 Fed. (2d) 798).

§ 40-303 [6: 245]. Nonresidents exempt from registration—Period of exemption.

(a) The owner or operator of any motor vehicle who is not a legal resident of the District, and who has complied with the laws of any state, territory, or possession of the United States, or of a foreign country or political subdivision thereof, in respect of the registration of motor vehicles and the licensing of operators thereof, shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be exempt from compliance with section 40-301 and with any provision of law or regulation requiring the registration of motor vehicles or the display of identification tags in the District. Such exemption shall cover the period immediately following the entrance of such owner or operator into the District equal to the period for which the Commissioners or their designated agent have previously found that a similar privilege is extended to legal residents of the District by such state, territory, or possession of the United States, or foreign country or political subdivision thereof. The Commissioners or their designated agent shall from time to time ascertain such privileges and cause his findings to be promulgated.

(b) Any operator of a motor vehicle who is not a legal resident of the District and who does not have in his immediate possession an operator's permit issued by a state, territory, or possession of the United States, or foreign country or political subdivision thereof, having motor vehicle reciprocity relations with the District, shall not operate a motor vehicle in the District unless (1) the laws of the state, territory, or possession of the United States, or foreign country or political subdivision thereof, under which the motor vehicle is registered do not require the issuance of a motor vehicle operator's permit or (2) he has submitted to examination within 72 hours after entering the District and obtained an operator's permit in accordance with the provisions of section 40-301. Any individual who violates any provision of this subdivision shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50 or imprisoned not less than 30 days, or both. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1123, ch. 443, § 8; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, § 2.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 17 (a) of the act of March 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, provided that this section should take effect 60 days after its enactment.

AMENDMENT

The 1931 amendment inserted "commissioners or their designated agent" in lieu of "director." This amendment became effective July 1, 1931.

CROSS REFERENCES

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION OF PRIOR ACT

In the first part of this act the word "registration" is applied to the vehicle and the word "licensing" to the operator; and in the latter part the words "licensed or registered" should be treated as used in the same relation as their noun forms in the first part. King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562). This case was in effect overruled on another point by District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

The meaning of this act being doubtful, the District's interpretation thereof as evidenced by its agreement with Virginia as to operation of a motor vehicle in the District by a person of that State should prevail. King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562). This case was in effect overruled on another point by District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

DUTY OF NONRESIDENT TO OBEY REGULATIONS

This act does not relieve a nonresident operator of amenability to valid traffic regulations. King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562). This case was in effect overruled on another point by District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

This section does not exempt a nonresident from compliance with the laws of the District of Columbia when, while a resident of the District, his driver's permit was revoked under § 40-302 and he is subject to punishment under that section. District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163).

EVASION OF REVOCATION

One may be convicted of operating a motor vehicle without a license who procures a Virginia license after his District license has been revoked, and drives in the District during its unexpired period. District of Columbia v. Fred (281 U. S. 49, 74 L. Ed. 694, 50 Sup. Ct. 163, revg. 59 App. D. C. 79, 33 Fed. (2d) 375), and in effect overruling King v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 160, 277 Fed. 562).

Chapter 4.—OWNERS' FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY ACT

Sec.

- 40-416. Saving clause.

§ 40-401 [6:255]. Financial responsibility of owners and operators of motor vehicles for damages—This chapter not to repeal existing traffic laws.

This chapter shall in no respect be considered as a repeal of any of the provisions of the Traffic Acts for the District of Columbia but shall be construed as supplemental thereto. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 166, ch. 89, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The Traffic Acts are sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623 and 11-1407.

§ 40-402 [6:255a]. Suspension of motor-vehicle operator's permit and registration certificate—Proof of ability to respond in damages—Provisions as to chauffeurs, operators, or members of household of nonregistered owners—Judgments or orders to be reported.

The motor-vehicle operator's permit and all of the registration certificates of any person who shall by a final order or judgment have been convicted of or shall have forfeited any bond or collateral given for a violation of any of the following provisions of law, to wit—

Driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs, as provided in section 40-609, commonly known as the Traffic Acts;

Leaving the scene of an automobile accident in which personal injury occurs without making identity known, as provided in section 40-609;

A conviction of an offense in any other State, which if committed in the District of Columbia would be a violation of any of the aforesaid provisions of the Traffic Acts of the District of Columbia; shall be suspended by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent and shall remain so suspended and shall not at any time thereafter be renewed, nor shall any other motor vehicle be thereafter registered in his name until he shall give proof of his ability to respond thereafter in damages resulting from the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle and arising by reason of personal injury to or death of any one person of at least $5,000, and, subject to the aforesaid limit for each person injured or killed, of at least $10,000 for such injury to or the death of two or more persons in any one accident, and for damage to property of at least $1,000 resulting from any one accident. Such proof in said amounts shall be furnished for each motor vehicle owned or registered by such person. If any such person shall fail to furnish said proof, his operator's permit and registration certificates shall remain suspended and shall not at any time thereafter be renewed, nor shall any other motor vehicle be thereafter registered in his name until such time as said proof be given. If such person shall not be a resident of the District of Columbia the privilege of operating any motor vehicle in the District of Columbia and the privilege of operation within the District of Columbia of any motor vehicle owned by him shall be withdrawn until he shall have furnished such proof: Provided, That in case of both residents and nonresidents, however, if it shall be duly established to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners or their designated agent, and the said Commissioners or their designated agent shall so find (a) that any such person so convicted, or who shall have pled guilty or forfeited bond or collateral, was, upon the occasion of the violation upon which such conviction, plea, or forfeiture was based, a chauffeur or motor-vehicle operator, however designated, in the employ of the owner of such motor vehicle; or a member of the same family and household of the owner of such motor vehicle, and (b) that there was not, at the time of such violation, or subsequent thereto, up to the date of such finding, any motor vehicle registered in the District of Columbia in the name of such person convicted, entering a plea of guilty or forfeiting bond or collateral, as aforesaid, then in such event, if the person in whose name such motor vehicle is registered shall give proof of ability to respond in damages, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter (and the said Commissioners or their designated agent shall accept such proof from such person), such chauffeur or other person, as aforesaid, shall thereupon be relieved of the necessity of giving such proof in his own behalf. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which any such judgment or order is rendered or other action taken to forward immediately to the said commissioners or their designated agent a certified copy or transcript thereof, which said certified copy or transcript shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 166, ch. 89, § 2.)

COVERAGE OF INSURANCE

Where policy of liability insurance by its own terms "does not cover any liability for death sustained by named insured" the financial responsibility act was applicable, where the insured was killed in her own automobile driven by another and the administratrix of named insured could not recover. Hepburn v. Pennsylvania Indem. Corp. (109 Fed. (2d) 833).

§ 40-403 [6: 255b]. Suspension of operator's permit and registration certificate—Judgments against nonresidents—Duty of clerk of court to certify copy of judgment to Commissioners—Suspension for other judgment after proof furnished—What constitutes satisfaction of judgment—Permission to pay in installments—Operator deemed to be agent of owner—Withdrawal of nonresident's privilege to drive vehicle after final judgment for damages—Service of process on nonresident.

The operator's permit and all of the registration certificates of any person, in the event of his failure to satisfy every judgment arising from an accident, or accidents, happening subsequently to the effective date of this chapter (August 1, 1935), and which shall have become final by expiration, without appeal, of the time within which appeal might have been perfected or by final affirmance on appeal, rendered against him by a court of competent jurisdiction in the District of Columbia or any State, or in a District Court of the United States, for damages on account of personal injury, or damages to property resulting from the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle by him, his agent, or any other person with the express or implied consent of the owner, shall be forthwith suspended by the said Commissioners or their designated agent upon receiving a certified copy of such final judgment or judgments from the court in which the same is or are rendered showing such judgment or judgments to have been still unsatisfied more than thirty days after the same became final, and shall remain so suspended and shall not be renewed, nor shall any other motor vehicle be thereafter registered in his name while any such judgment remains unstayed, unsatisfied, and subsisting, nor until every such judgment is satisfied or discharged, except by a discharge in bankruptcy, and until the said person gives proof of his ability to respond in damages, as required in section 40-404, for future accidents. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which any such judgment is rendered to forward immediately upon the expiration of said thirty days to the said Commissioners or their designated agent a certified copy of such judgment or a transcript thereof. In the event the defendant is a nonresident, it shall be the duty of the said Commissioners or their designated agent to transmit to the Commissioner of motor vehicles (or officer in charge of the issuance of operators' permits and registration certificates) of the State of which the defendant is a resident a certified copy of the said judgment. If after such proof has been given any other such judgment shall be recovered against such person for any accident occurring before such proof was furnished, and after the effective date of this chapter (August 1, 1935), such permit and certificates shall again be and remain suspended while any such judgment remains unsatisfied and subsisting: Provided, however, That (1) when $5,000 has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount for personal injury to or the death of one person as the result of any one accident; (2) when, subject to the limit of $5,000 for each person, the sum of $10,000 has been credited upon any judgments rendered in excess of that amount for personal injury to or the death of more than one person as the result of any one accident; or (3) when $1,000 has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount for damage to property as the result of any one accident resulting from the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle by such judgment debtor, his agent, or any other person, with his express or implied consent, then and in such event such payment or payments shall be deemed a satisfaction of such judgment or judgments for the purposes of this section only: And provided further, That a judgment debtor to whom this section applies may, for the sole purpose of giving authority to the Commissioners or their designated agent to authorize the judgment debtor to operate a motor vehicle thereafter, on due notice to the judgment creditor, apply to the court in which the trial judgment was obtained for the privilege of paying such judgment in instalments, and the court, in its discretion and without prejudice to any other legal remedies which the judgment creditor may have, may so order, fixing the amounts and times of payment of the instalments. While the judgment debtor is not in default in payment of such instalments, the Commissioners or their designated agent upon his giving proof of ability to respond in damages for future accidents, as herein provided, may, in their discretion, restore or refrain from suspending his operator's permit and registration certificate or certificates; but such permit and certificate or certificates shall be suspended as hereinbefore provided if and when the Commissioners or their designated agent are satisfied that the judgment debtor has failed to comply with the terms of the court order.

Whenever any motor vehicle, after the passage of this chapter, shall be operated upon the public highways of the District of Columbia by any person other than the owner, with the consent of the owner, express or implied, the operator thereof shall, in case of accident, be deemed to be the agent of the owner of such motor vehicle, and the proof of the ownership of said motor vehicle shall be prima facie evidence that such person operated said motor vehicle with the consent of the owner.

If any such motor-vehicle owner or operator shall not be a resident of the District of Columbia, the privilege of operating any motor vehicle in the District of Columbia and the privilege of operation within the District of Columbia of any motor vehicle owned by him shall be withdrawn, while any final judgment procured against him for damages, including personal injury or death caused by the operation of any motor vehicle, in the District of Columbia or elsewhere, shall be unstayed, unsatisfied, and subsisting, for more than thirty days, and until he shall have given proof of his ability to respond in damages for future accidents as required in section 40-404.

The operation by a nonresident or by his agent of a motor vehicle on any public highway of the District of Columbia shall be deemed equivalent to an appointment by such nonresident of the director of vehicles and traffic or his successor in office to be his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful processes in any action or proceedings against such nonresident growing out of any accident or collision in which said nonresident or his agent may be involved while operating a motor vehicle on any such public highway, and said operation shall be a signification of his agreement that any such process against him, which is so served, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon him personally in the District of Columbia. Service of such process shall be made by leaving a copy of the process with a fee of $2 in the hands of the director of vehicles and traffic or in his office, and such service shall be sufficient service upon the said nonresident: Provided, That the plaintiff in such action shall first file in the court in which said action is commenced an undertaking in form and amount, and with one or more sureties, approved by said court, to reimburse the defendant, on the failure of the plaintiff to prevail in the action, for the expenses necessarily incurred by the defendant, including a reasonable attorney's fee in an amount to be fixed by the said court, in defending the action in the District of Columbia: And provided further, That notice of such service and a copy of the process are forthwith sent by registered mail by the plaintiff, or his attorney, to the defendant, and the defendant's return receipt appended to the writ and entered with the declaration, or such notice of such service and a copy of the process may be served upon the defendant in the manner provided by section 13-108. The court in which the action is pending may order such continuances as may be necessary to afford the defendant a reasonable opportunity to defend the action, and no judgment by default in any such action shall be granted until at least twenty days shall have elapsed after service upon the defendant, as hereinabove provided, of a copy of the process and notice of service of said process upon the director of vehicles and traffic. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 167, ch. 89, § 3; August 24, 1937, 50 Stat. 751, ch. 753, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ACCIDENT OCCURRING BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE

The Automobile Financial Responsibility Law cannot be applied to a collision occurring before its effective date. Smith v. Doyle (69 App. D. C. 60, 98 Fed. (2d) 341).

Prior to passage of the statute imposing on the owner of a car liability for the acts of any person who drives it with his consent, a corporation was not liable for an accident of its driver merely because it had entrusted its car to him. Balinovic v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. ((App.-D. C.), 113 Fed. (2d) 505).

In accident occurring before enactment of this section, a corporation was not liable for damages where the driver of its car at the time of the collision was engaged in chasing a traffic violator under direction of a policeman who was riding on the running board. Balinovic v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. ((App.-D. C.), 113 Fed. (2d) 505).

AGENCY BASED ON CONSENT

Congress intended to establish a new rule of liability in which agency is based on consent. Forrester v. Jerman (67 App. D. C. 167, 90 Fed. (2d) 412).

AGENT OF OWNER

Owner of car was liable in damages for injury from accident which occurred when her car was being delivered to her by employee of a garage with which she had a monthly storage and delivery contract. Jones v. King ((App.-D. C.), 113 Fed. (2d) 522).

RESIDENT

Statute does not apply where person was resident of District of Columbia at time of accident and later moved from the jurisdiction. Wood v. White (68 App. D. C. 341, 97 Fed. (2d) 646).

STRICTLY CONSTRUED

Statute is in derogation of common law and must be strictly construed. Wood v. White (68 App. D. C. 341, 97 Fed. (2d) 646).

§ 40-404 [6: 255c]. Proof of ability to respond in damages, what constitutes—Additional certificates for additional vehicles—Certificates not to be canceled except upon ten days' notice to Commissioners—Action on same to be brought in name of District of Columbia—Exemption of such money from attachment or execution.

Proof of ability to respond in damages when required by this chapter may be evidenced by the written certificate or certificates of any insurance carrier, duly authorized to do business within the District of Columbia, or in the case of a nonresident by an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in any of the several states, that it has issued to or for the benefit of the person named therein a motor-vehicle liability policy or policies as defined in section 40-412 which, at the date of said certificate or certificates, is in full force and effect and designating therein by explicit description or by other appropriate reference all motor vehicles with respect to which coverage is granted by the policy certified to. The said commissioners or their designated agent shall not accept any certificate or certificates unless the same shall cover all motor vehicles registered in the name of the person furnishing such proof. Additional certificates as aforesaid shall be required as a condition precedent to the registration of any additional motor vehicle or motor vehicles in the name of such person required to furnish proof as aforesaid. Said certificate or certificates shall certify that the motor-vehicle liability policy or policies therein cited shall not be canceled except upon ten days' prior written notice thereof to the said commissioners or their designated agent.

Such proof may be the bond of a surety company duly authorized to do business within the District of Columbia or a bond with at least two individual sureties, each owning unencumbered real estate in the District of Columbia, approved by a judge of a court of record, and filed with the said Commissioners or their designated agent, which said bond shall be conditioned for the payment of the amounts specified in section 40-402 hereof and shall not be cancelable except after ten days' written notice to the said Commissioners or their designated agent. Such bond in the case where individual sureties are offered shall contain a schedule of the real estate of said sureties and shall constitute a lien in favor of the District of Columbia upon said real estate, which lien shall exist in favor of any holder of any final judgment thereafter rendered on account of damage to property or injury to any person or persons caused by the operation of such person's motor vehicle. Said bond shall be recorded by the principal named therein among the land records of the District of Columbia before the same is filed with the Commissioners or their designated agent. If a final judgment rendered after the filing of the bond as aforesaid against the principal named in the surety or real-estate bond for damages sustained to person or property while said bond remains in force or effect shall not be satisfied within thirty days after its rendition, the judgment creditor may, for his own use and benefit and at his sole expense, bring an action in the name of the District of Columbia against the company or persons executing such bond.

Such proof of ability to respond in damages may also be evidence presented to the said commissioners or their designated agent of a deposit by such person with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia of a sum of money, the amount of which money shall be $11,000. The said clerk shall accept such deposit and issue a receipt therefor. But the said clerk shall not accept a deposit of money where any judgment or judgments, therefor recovered against such person as a result of damages arising from the operation of any motor vehicle, shall not have been paid in full. Such money shall be held by the said clerk to satisfy, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, any execution issued against such person in any suit arising out of damage caused by the operation of any motor vehicle owned or operated by such person. Money so deposited shall not be subject to attachment or execution unless such attachment or execution shall arise out of a suit for damages, including injury to property, and personal injury or death, as a result of the operation of a motor vehicle. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 169, ch. 89, § 4; Aug. 24, 1937, 50 Stat. 751, ch. 753, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 act struck out "over $100 in amount" following "final judgment thereafter rendered on account of damage to property" in the second sentence of the second paragraph.

§ 40-405 [6: 255d]. Commissioners to be notified of cancelation or expiration of insurance or bond—Suspension of permit on failure to furnish other proof of ability before expiration date.

The said Commissioners or their designated agent shall be notified of the cancelation or expiration of any motor-vehicle liability policy of insurance certified under the provisions of this chapter or of any surety or real estate bond at least ten days before the effective date of such cancelation or expiration. In the absence of such notice of cancelation or expiration said policy of insurance shall remain in full force and effect. Upon receipt of such notice of cancelation or expiration the said Commissioners or their designated agent shall require other evidence of ability to respond in damages, and upon failure to furnish the same before the effective date of such cancelation or expiration, the operator's permit and all of the registration certificates of the person failing to comply herewith shall be suspended by the Commissioners or their designated agent and shall remain so suspended until such other evidence of ability to respond in damages shall have been given. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 170, ch. 89, § 5.)

§ 40-406 [6: 255e]. Director of vehicles and traffic to furnish operating record—Fees.

The director of vehicles and traffic shall, upon request, furnish any insurer, person, or surety a certificate abstract of the operating record of any person subject to the provisions of this chapter, which abstract shall fully designate the motor vehicles, if any, registered in the name of such person, and if there shall be no record of any conviction of such person of a violation of any provision of any statute or regulation relating to the operation of a motor vehicle or of any injury or damage caused by such person as herein provided, the said director shall so certify. The said director shall collect for each such certificate the sum of $1. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 170, ch. 89, § 6.)

§ 40-407 [6: 255f]. Director of vehicles and traffic to furnish injured person evidence of ability of owners or operator to respond in damages.

The director of vehicles and traffic shall furnish any person who may have been injured in person or property by any motor vehicle, upon written request, with all information of record in his office pertaining to the evidence of the ability of any operator or owner of any motor vehicle to respond in damages. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 7.)

§ 40-408 [6: 255g]. Suspended person to return operator's permit to director of vehicles and traffic—Duty of Metropolitan Police to secure possession—Penalty for failure to return permit.

Any operator or any owner whose operator's permit or certificate of registration shall have been suspended as in this chapter provided shall immediately return to the director of vehicles and traffic his operator's permit, certificate of registration, and the number plates issued thereunder. If any person shall fail to return to the said director the operator's permit, certificate of registration, and the number plates issued thereunder as provided herein, the said director shall forthwith direct any member of the Metropolitan Police of the District of Columbia to secure possession thereof and to return the same to the office of the said director. Any person failing to return on demand such operator's permit or such certificate and number plates shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $100, and each day such person shall fail to return the same shall constitute a separate offense. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 8.)

§ 40-409 [6:255h]. Authority of Commissioners to cancel evidence of insurance after three years—Substitution of other evidence of ability for money—Return of money.

The said Commissioners or their designated agent may cancel such bond or return such evidence of insurance, or the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia may, with the consent of the said Commissioners or their designated agent, return such money to the person furnishing the same, provided three years shall have elapsed since the filing of such evidence or the making of such deposit, during which period such person shall not have violated any provision of the Traffic Acts referred to in section 40-402 and provided no suit or judgment for damages on account of personal injury or damage to property resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle by him or his agent shall then be outstanding against such person; and the affidavit of such person that he has not so violated the motor vehicle laws and that there are then outstanding against him no suits or judgments for damages as aforesaid, shall be sufficient proof thereof in the absence of evidence to the contrary then before the Commissioners or their designated agent. The said Commissioners or their designated agent may direct the return of any money to the person who furnished the same upon the acceptance and substitution of other evidence of his ability to respond in damages or, at any time after three years from the expiration of the latest registration or permit issued to such person, provided no written notice shall have been filed with the director stating that such suit had been brought against such person by reason of the ownership, maintenance, or operation of a motor vehicle and upon the filing by such person with the said Commissioners or their designated agent of an affidavit that he has abandoned his residence in the District of Columbia or that he has made bona fide sale of any and all motor vehicles owned by him and does not intend to own or operate any motor vehicle in the District of Columbia for a period of one or more years. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 9; Aug. 24, 1937, 50 Stat. 751, ch. 753, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 Act struck out "in excess of $100" after "damage to property" in the first sentence.

§ 40-410 [6:255i]. Exemption of persons required to make other provision for injury or damage.

Any person who by any other law of the District of Columbia is required to make provision for the payment of loss occasioned by injury to or death of persons or damage to property shall, to the extent of such provision so made and not otherwise, be exempt from sections 40-401 to 40-416. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 171, ch. 89, § 10.)

§ 40-411 [6:255j]. Penalty for forging—Evidence of guilt.

Any person who shall forge or, without authority, sign any evidence of ability to respond in damages as required by the said Commissioners or their designated agent in the administration of this chapter shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 172, ch. 89, § 11.)

"Motor-vehicle liability policy," as used in this chapter, shall be taken to mean a policy of liability insurance issued to the person therein named as insured by an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in the District of Columbia, or in the case of a nonresident, by an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in any of the several States, which policy shall designate, by explicit description or by appropriate reference, all motor vehicles with respect to which coverage is intended to be granted by said policy, and shall insure the insured named therein and any other person using or responsible for the use of any such motor vehicle with the consent, express or implied, of such insured, against loss from the liability imposed upon such insured by law or upon such other person for injury to or death of any person, other than such person or persons as may be covered, as respects such injury or death by any Workmen's Compensation Law, or damage to property except property of others in charge of the insured or the insured's employees growing out of the maintenance, use, or operation of any such motor vehicle in the United States of America; or which policy shall, in the alternative, insure the person therein named as insured against loss from the liability imposed by law upon such insured for injury to or death of any person, other than such person or persons as may be covered as respects such injury or death by any Workmen's Compensation Law, or damage to property, except property of others in charge of the insured or the insured's employees, growing out of the operation or use by such insured of any motor vehicle, except a motor vehicle registered in the name of such insured, and occurring while such insured is personally in control, as driver or occupant, of such motor vehicle within the United States of America, to the amount or limit of $5,000, exclusive of interest and costs, on account of injury to or death of any one person, and, subject to the same limit as respects injury to or death of one person, of $10,000, exclusive of interest and costs, on account of any one accident resulting in injury to or death of more than one person; and of $1,000 for damage to property of others, as herein provided, resulting from any one accident; or a binder pending the issuance of any such policy; or an indorsement to an existing policy as hereinafter provided: Provided, That this section shall not be construed as preventing such insurance carrier from granting any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage herein provided for, nor from embodying in such policy any agreements, provisions, or stipulations not contrary to the provisions of this chapter and not otherwise contrary to law: Provided, however, That separate concurrent policies covering, respectively, (a) personal injury or death, as aforesaid, and (b) property damage, as aforesaid, shall be considered a motor-vehicle liability policy within the meaning of this chapter.

No motor-vehicle liability policy shall be issued or delivered in the District of Columbia until a copy of the form of policy shall have been on file with the Superintendent of Insurance for at least thirty days, unless sooner approved in writing by the Superintendent of Insurance, nor if within said period of thirty days the Superintendent of Insurance shall have notified the carrier in writing that in his opinion, specifying the reasons therefor, the form of policy does not comply with the laws of the District of Columbia. The Superintendent of Insurance shall approve any form of policy which discloses the name, address, and business of the insured, the coverage afforded by such policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period, the limit of liability, and the agreement that the insurance thereunder is provided in accordance with the coverage defined in this section as respects personal injury and death or property damage, or both, and is otherwise subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

Such motor-vehicle liability policy shall be subject to the following provisions, which need not be contained therein:

(a) The liability of any company under a motor-vehicle liability policy shall become absolute whenever loss or damage covered by said policy occurs, and the satisfaction by the insured of a final judgment for such loss or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the carrier to make payment on account of such loss or damage. No such policy shall be canceled or annulled as respects any loss or damage by any agreement between the carrier and the insured after the said insured has become responsible for such loss or damage, and any such cancellation or annulment shall be void. Upon the recovery of a final judgment against any person for any such loss or damage, if the judgment debtor was at the accrual of the cause of action insured against liability therefor under a motor-vehicle liability policy, the judgment creditor shall be entitled to have the insurance money applied to the satisfaction of the judgment. But the policy may provide that the insured, or any other person covered by the policy, shall reimburse the company for payments made on account of any accident, claim, or suit involving a breach of the terms, provisions, or conditions of the policy; and further, if the policy shall provide for limits in excess of the limits designated in this section, the insurance carrier may plead against such judgment creditor, with respect to the amount of such excess limits of liability, any defenses which it may be entitled to plead against the insured. Any such policy may further provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other applicable valid and collectible insurance.

(b) The policy, the written application therefor (if any), and any rider or endorsement which shall not conflict with the provisions of this chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

(c) The insurance carrier shall, upon the request of the insured, deliver to the insured for filing, or at the request of the insured shall file direct, with the said commissioners or their designated agent an appropriate certificate as set forth in section 40-404 hereof.

(d) Any carrier authorized to issue motor-vehicle liability policies as provided for in this chapter, may, pending the issuance of such a policy, execute an agreement, to be known as a binder; or may, in lieu of such a policy, issue an endorsement to an existing policy, each of which shall be construed to provide indemnity or protection in like manner and to the same extent as such a policy. The provisions of this section shall apply to such binders and endorsements. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 172, ch. 89, § 12.)

§ 40-413 [6: 255l]. Definitions.

The following words, as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(a) The singular shall include the plural. The masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, as requisite.

(b) "Person" shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, receivers, referees, trustees, executors, and administrators; and shall also include the owner of any motor vehicle as requisite, but shall not include the District of Columbia.

(c) "Motor vehicle" shall include trailers, motor-cycles, and tractors.

(d) "Public highways" shall include any street, road, or public thoroughfare. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 173, ch. 89, § 13.)

§ 40-414 [6: 255m]. Commissioners to make rules and regulations.

The said Commissioners shall make rules and regulations necessary for the administration of this chapter. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 174, ch. 89, § 14.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Rules and regulations generally, § 40-603 and notes.

§ 40-415 [6: 255n]. Plaintiff not prevented from relying upon other processes.

Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the plaintiff in any action at law from relying for security upon the other processes provided by law. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 174, ch. 89, § 15.)

§ 40-416 [6: 255o]. Saving clause.

If any part, subdivision, or section of this chapter shall be deemed unconstitutional, the validity of its remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby. (May 3, 1935, 49 Stat. 174, ch. 89, § 16.)

§ 40-502 [20: 97]. Restrictions on payment of expenses of carriages or vehicles for personal or official use.

No part of any money appropriated by any Act shall be used for purchasing, maintaining, driving, or operating any carriage or vehicle (other than those for the use of the President of the United States, the heads of the Executive Departments, and the Secretary to the President, and other than those used for transportation of property belonging to or in the custody of the United States), for the personal or official use of any officer or employee of any of the Executive Departments or other government establishments at Washington, District of Columbia, unless the same shall be specifically authorized by law or provided for in terms by appropriation of money, and all such carriages and vehicles so procured and used for official purposes shall have conspicuously painted thereon at all times the full name of the Executive Department or other branch of the public service to which the same belong and in the service of which the same are used. (Feb. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 687, ch. 297, § 4.)

§ 40-503 [20: 97]. Section 40-502 made applicable to District of Columbia.

Section 40-502 shall apply to carriages, motor, and other vehicles owned by and used in the several branches of the government of the District of Columbia. (May 18, 1910, 36 Stat. 381, ch. 248, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Ever since 1929, appropriation acts for the District have provided in substance as follows:

"All motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles owned by the District of Columbia shall be used exclusively for 'official purposes' directly pertaining to the public services of said District, and shall be under the direction and control of the commissioners, who may from time to time alter or change the assignment for use thereof or direct the joint or interchangeable use of any of the same by officials and employees of the District, except as otherwise provided in this act; and 'official purposes' shall not include the transportation of officers and employees between their domiciles and places of employment, except as to the commissioners of the District of Columbia and in cases of officers and employees the character of whose duties makes such transportation necessary, and then only as to such latter cases when the same is approved by the commissioners: Provided, That no passenger-carrying automobile, except busses, station wagons, patrol wagons, and ambulances, and except as otherwise specifically authorized in this act, shall be acquired under any provision of this act, by purchase or exchange, at a cost, including the value of a vehicle exchanged, exceeding $650." (July 15, 1939, 53 Stat. 1009, ch. 281, § 1; June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 312, ch. 333, § 1.)

§ 40-504. Police and fire departments—Transfer of vehicles.

No motor vehicles shall be transferred from the police and fire departments to any other branch of the government of the District of Columbia. (July 15, 1939, 53 Stat. 1010, ch. 281, § 1; June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 312, ch. 333, § 1.)

§ 40-601 [6: 241]. District of Columbia Traffic Act.

This chapter may be cited as the "District of Columbia Traffic Act, 1925." (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443, § 1.)

§ 40-602 [6: 242]. Definitions.

When used in this chapter—

(a) The term "motor vehicle" means all vehicles propelled by internal-combustion engines, electricity, or steam, except traction engines, road rollers, and vehicles propelled only upon rails and tracks;

(b) The term "court" means the police court of the District of Columbia;

(c) The term "District" means the District of Columbia;

(d) The term "Commissioners" means the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia;

(e) [Repealed].

(f) The term "person" means individual, partnership, corporation, or association;

(g) The term "park" means to leave any motor vehicle standing on a public highway, whether or not attended;

(h) The term "public highway" means any street, road, or public thoroughfare; and

(i) The term "this chapter" includes all lawful regulations issued thereunder by the commissioners.

(j) The term "vehicle" shall apply to any appliance moved over a highway on wheels or traction tread, including street cars, draft animals, and beasts of burden.

(k) Traffic shall be deemed to include not only motor vehicles but also all vehicles, pedestrians, and animals, of every description. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443, § 2; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 812, ch. 739, § 1; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

This section as enacted contained the following paragraph, "(c) The term 'District of Columbia Code' means the act entitled 'An act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia approved March 3, 1901,' as amended;" this phrase appeared only in the introductory lines of those sections of the act of March 3, 1925, amending that Code.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609, 40-610, 40-612, 40-614, 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623, and 11-1407.

AMENDMENTS

The 1926 act added paragraphs (i) and (j).

The 1931 act repealed a paragraph of this section which provided as follows "(e) The term 'director' means the director of traffic of the District of Columbia." The 1931 act became effective July 1, 1931.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

Term "this act" includes all lawful regulations issued thereunder by the commissioners. Smallwood v. District of Columbia (57 App. D. C. 58, 17 Fed. (2d) 210).

HORSE-DRAWN VEHICLES

The director of traffic is authorized to exclude horse-drawn vehicles from arterial highways or boulevards. District of Columbia v. Wheeler (57 App. D. C. 106, 17 Fed. (2d) 953).

VEHICLES INCLUDED

Vehicles are limited to those that run on the land. McBoyle v. United States (283 U. S. 25, 75 L. Ed. 816, 51 Sup. Ct. 340).

Commercial vehicles with solid tires. Smallwood v. District of Columbia, (57 App. D. C. 58, 17 Fed. (2d) 210).

§ 40-603 [6: 243]. Commissioners authorized to make regulations—Department of Vehicles and Traffic—Director—Congressional tags—Titling—Joint board—Arterial and boulevard highways—Commissioners may prescribe penalties—Publication of regulations—Signs on highways—Prosecutions.

(a) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make, modify, repeal, and enforce usual and reasonable traffic rules and regulations relating to vehicles, and rules and regulations concerning the control of traffic, the registration of motor vehicles, and the issuance and revocation of operators' permits; and to exercise any power or perform any duty imposed on the director of traffic, which office is hereby abolished; and in the administration of the above powers and authority the commissioners may exercise the same through such officers or agents of the District as the commissioners may designate: Provided, That no member of the Metropolitan Police Department may be empowered to perform any function under this chapter other than in the enforcement thereof.

(b) There is established in the government of the District of Columbia a department of vehicles and traffic, which, under the direction of the commissioners, shall have charge of the issuance and revocation of operators' permits, the registration and titling of motor vehicles, the making of traffic studies and plans, the installation and maintenance of traffic signs, signals, and markers, and of such other matters as may be determined by the commissioners. The commissioners shall appoint a director of vehicles and traffic, who shall be in charge of said department, and such other personnel as they may deem necessary to perform the duties thereof and as may be appropriated for by Congress. The salaries of such director of vehicles and traffic and other personnel shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673). The director of vehicles and traffic shall be responsible directly to the commissioners for the faithful performance of his duties and shall be subject to removal by the commissioners for cause.

(c) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make, modify, and enforce reasonable regulations in respect to brakes, horns, lights, mufflers, and other equipment, the inspection of the same; the registering, reregistering, titling, retitling, transferring of titles, and revocation of the certificate of title to motor vehicles and trailers: Provided, That congressional tags shall be issued by the commissioners under consecutive numbers, one to each Senator and Representative in Congress, to the elective officers and disbursing clerks of the Senate and the House of Representatives, the Parliamentarian of the House of Representatives, the attending physician of the Capitol, and the assistant secretaries (one for the majority and one for the minority of the Senate), for their official use, which, when used by them individually while on official business, shall authorize them to park their automobiles in any available curb space in the District of Columbia, except within fire plug, fire house, loading station, and loading platform limitations, and such congressional tags shall not be assigned to or used by others.

(d) The commissioners shall cause to be levied, collected, and paid such fees for titling and retitling as they deem necessary, not to exceed the sum of $1 for each such titling or retitling, and they shall not, after the 1st day of January, 1932, register or renew the registration of any motor vehicle or trailer unless and until the owner thereof shall make application in the form prescribed by the commissioners, under oath, and be granted an official certificate of title for such vehicle. No registration or other fee shall be charged to vehicles owned by the federal or District government or any duly accredited representative of a foreign government. The owner of a motor vehicle or trailer registered in the District of Columbia shall not, after the 1st day of January, 1932, operate or permit or cause to be operated any such vehicle upon any public highway in the District without first obtaining a certificate of title therefor, nor shall any individual knowingly permit any certificate of title to be obtained in his name for any vehicle not in fact owned by him, and any individual violating any provision of this subsection or any regulations promulgated thereunder shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. If the properly designated agent of the commissioners shall determine that an applicant for a certificate of title is not entitled thereto, such certificate of title may be refused, and in that event unless such determination is reversed upon written application to the commissioners by the individual affected, such individual shall be entitled to proceed further as provided under section 40-302 (a), and jurisdiction is conferred upon the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for this purpose: Provided, That reasonable time for hearing be given the applicant in the first instance.

(e) The commissioners may in the administration of this chapter, section or any provision of the Traffic Acts for the District, exercise any power or perform any duty conferred on them by this chapter through such officers and agents of the District as the commissioners may designate. The commissioners are further authorized and empowered to make, modify, repeal, and enforce reasonable rules and regulations in respect to the movement of traffic, speed, length, weight, height, width, routing, and parking of vehicles, and the establishment and location of hack stands: Provided, That the commissioners shall establish and locate parking areas in the vicinity of governmental establishments for use only by members of Congress and governmental officials when on official business: Provided further, That as to all common carriers by vehicle which enter, operate in, or leave the District of Columbia, the power to route such vehicles within the District of Columbia, to regulate their equipment other than that specifically named elsewhere in this chapter, to regulate their schedules and their loading and unloading, to locate their stops, and all platforms and loading zones and to require the appropriate marking thereof, is vested in the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia: Provided further, That whenever any order, rule, or regulation of the Public Utilities Commission shall be made relative to the routing of common carrier vehicles, to the location of their stops, to the establishment or change in location of platforms, loading zones, or other spaces on the public highway to be reserved for any purpose whatsoever, or to the appropriate marking thereof, or whenever any order, rule, or regulation of the District commissioners shall be made which affects such routing, stops, platforms, zones, or spaces, said order, rule, or regulation shall, prior to promulgation, be referred to a joint board to be composed of the commissioners of the District of Columbia and the members of the Public Utilities Commission, which is hereby authorized and created. Such joint board may, by the affirmative action of any three members thereof, adopt rules and regulations which, when promulgated, shall be binding and shall have the full force and effect of law, and the engineer commissioner shall be the chairman of such joint board, and shall have but one vote. Any of said rules and regulations, after reasonable trial and within a reasonable time, may be changed by the joint board upon the request of the commissioners of the District of Columbia or of the Public Utilities Commission.

(f) The commissioners may establish and designate arterial and boulevard highways, regulate the speed of vehicles thereon, and provide for the equipment of any street, road, or highway, with control lights and/or other devices for the regulation of traffic, and make such other regulations with respect to the control of traffic as are deemed advisable.

(g) The District Commissioners are authorized to prescribe within the limitations of this chapter reasonable penalties of fine, or imprisonments not to exceed ten days in lieu of or in addition to any fine, for the violation of any rule or regulation promulgated under the authority of this chapter not otherwise herein provided for. All traffic, motor vehicle, and vehicle regulations not inconsistent herewith adopted and promulgated prior to July 1, 1931, are continued and shall remain in full force and effect until amended, altered, or revoked.

(h) All regulations promulgated under the authority of this chapter, except those made by the Public Utilities Commission under powers given it by Title 43 of this Code, shall, when adopted, be printed in one or more of the daily newspapers published in the District, and no penalty shall be enforced for any violation of any such regulation which occurs within ten days after such publication, except that whenever the commissioners of the District of Columbia deem it advisable to make effective immediately any regulation relating to parking, diverting of vehicular traffic, or the closing of streets to such traffic, the regulation shall be effective immediately upon placing at the point where it is to be in force conspicuous signs containing a notice of the regulation. The placing at or upon the public highway of any sign relating to parking or regulation of traffic, except by the authority of the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent, or of the joint board, is prohibited: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply to any such signs which do not purport to reserve space on the public highways and which the Public Utilities Commission may authorize under the provision of this chapter.

(i) All prosecutions for violations of this chapter, excepting section 40-610, and this act or regulations made and promulgated under the authority of this chapter shall be in the police court of the District of Columbia upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants. (March 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1121, ch. 443, § 6; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 814, ch. 739, § 4; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, §§ 3, 4; Dec. 19, 1932, 47 Stat. 750, ch. 5.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Paragraph (f) of this section as enacted in 1931 contains the further provision at the end "and section 14 of said Traffic Acts is hereby repealed." That section appeared in the 1929 Code of the District of Columbia as section 251 of title 6.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-621, 11-623 and 11-1407.

AMENDMENTS

This section prior to amendment contained four paragraphs and provided for the appointment of a director of traffic, giving him the power to make the various regulations, beginning 50 days after the enactment of the original act, and contained provisions for the publication of such regulations and for the appointment of an additional assistant to the corporation counsel.

The 1926 act added a paragraph substantially the same as present paragraph (i) but contained the additional proviso "That nothing herein contained shall deprive any person of the right of trial by jury."

The 1931 act adopted this section in the form it now exists. This act became effective July 1, 1931.

The 1932 act added that part of the proviso in paragraph (c) following "Representative in Congress" and preceding "for their official use."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Traffic Act, as amended, delegates to the commissioners authority to make rules and regulations in relation to traffic on the public highways, and to the Director of Parks authority to make regulations in relation to traffic on the roads in the public parks within the District; and to provide for punishment for violations by proceedings in the police court at instance of corporation counsel and to exclude United States Attorney from any prosecutions except provision involving smoke-screen felony. Persham v. United States (70 App. D. C. 116, 104 Fed. (2d) 249).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

This section is not unconstitutional as vesting legislative power and unregulated discretion in administrative officers. La Forest v. Board of Comrs. of District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 396, 92 Fed. (2d) 547).

GOVERNMENT-OWNED VEHICLES

Traffic laws of District govern as to mail trucks over orders of Post Office Department. White v. District of Columbia (55 App. D. C. 197, 4 Fed. (2d) 163).

PEDESTRIANS' RIGHT OF WAY

Under the regulations of this act pedestrians are given the right of way at all crosswalks except at controlled crossings. Griffith v. Slaybaugh (58 App. D. C. 237, 29 Fed. (2d) 437).

"PICK-UP AND DELIVERY" OF RAILROADS

In a mandamus action brought by a railroad company to compel the Public Utilities Commission to act on the railroad company's petition for designation of a route for alleged "pick-up and delivery service," relief was denied until the railroad company obtained a certificate of convenience and necessity from the Interstate Commerce Commission. United States ex rel. Arlington & F. Auto R. Co. v. Elgen (68 App. D. C. 392, 98 Fed. (2d) 264).

The question of what constitutes a terminal district is so largely one of fact and so far involves considerations calling for the expert knowledge in technical matters of transportation, that a railroad company seeking by mandamus to require the Public Utilities Commission to designate a route for alleged "pick-up and delivery service" within railroad terminal districts, should pursue its remedy before the Commerce Commission rather than the courts. United States ex rel. Arlington & F. Auto R. Co. v. Elgen (68 App. D. C. 392, 98 Fed. (2d) 264).

PROSECUTION

By (i) last paragraph Congress intended that all prosecutions for violations of the traffic act, except for the violation of the smoke-screen provision in section eleven should be at the instance of the corporation counsel and in the name of the District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. Moyer (68 App. D. C. 98, 93 Fed. (2d) 527).

VALIDITY AND REASONABLENESS

Regulations prohibiting use of vehicles with solid tires on certain arterial streets were valid and reasonable. Smallwood v. District of Columbia (57 App. D. C. 58, 17 Fed. (2d) 210).

Regulations prohibiting speed in excess of 15 miles an hour on certain bridges were valid and reasonable. District of Columbia v. Bailey (57 App. D. C. 151, 18 Fed. (2d) 367).

Regulations which prevent parking of automobiles on certain streets between 2 a. m. and 8 a. m. to enable the snow-removal machinery of the city to function is a reasonable and proper regulation. District of Columbia v. Smith (68 App. D. C. 104, 93 Fed. (2d) 650).

§ 40-604 [6: 243a]. Parking space for Members of Congress.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed to designate, reserve, and properly mark appropriate and sufficient parking spaces on the streets adjacent to all public buildings in such district for the use of Members of Congress engaged on public business. (July 15, 1939, 53 Stat. 1033, ch. 281, § 1; June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 334, ch. 333, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section taken from the Appropriation Act of 1939 was repeated in the Appropriation Act of 1940, and is not part of the Traffic Acts of 1925 (act of Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443) and is therefore not included in the term "this chapter" as used elsewhere herein.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 40-605 [6: 246]. Speeding and reckless driving.

(a) No vehicle shall be operated at a greater rate of speed than permitted by the regulations adopted under the authority of this chapter.

(d) Any individual violating any provision of this section, except where the offense constitutes reckless driving, shall upon conviction for the first offense be fined not more than $25; upon conviction for a second offense committed within one year from the date of conviction of the first offense such individual shall be fined not more than $100; and upon conviction for the third or any subsequent offense committed within one year from the date of conviction of the first offense such individual shall be fined not more than $300 or be imprisoned not more than ninety days, or both. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1123, ch. 443, § 9; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 814, ch. 739, § 5; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1427, ch. 317; June 24, 1936, 49 Stat. 1901, ch. 749.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The act of 1931 became effective July 1, 1931.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-621, 11-623 and 11-1407.

AMENDMENTS

The act of 1925 provided for a speed limit of 22 miles an hour except in outlying districts.

The act of 1926 provided for the regulation of speed in outlying districts.

The act of 1931 amended paragraph (a) as it now exists. The act of 1931 also changed the definition of reckless driving in paragraph (b).

The penalties for reckless driving were originally a fine of $25 to $100 and imprisonment of 10 to 30 days for first offense; and a fine of $100 to $1,000 and imprisonment of 30 days to 1 year for a subsequent offense. The 1931 act removed the lower limits on the fines and imprisonment permitted and included the provision that the subsequent offense must be committed within two years.

The 1936 act raised the upper limits for a first offense to those now provided in this section.

The penalties for other offenses provided by this section were originally a fine of from $5 to $25 for a first offense; a fine of from $25 to $100 for a second offense; and a fine of from $100 to $500 and imprisonment of 30 days to one year for subsequent offenses.

The 1931 act removed the lower limits on the fines and imprisonments and changed the upper limits on third and subsequent offenses as now provided in this section. The 1931 act also included the provisions that subsequent offenses must be committed within one year of the first offense.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

JURY TRIAL

One charged with driving an automobile recklessly, and so as to endanger property and individuals, has a right to a jury trial. District of Columbia v. Colts (282 U. S. 63, 75 L. Ed. 177, 51 Sup. Ct. 52, affg. 59 App. D. C. 224, 38 Fed. (2d) 535).

REGULATIONS OF DIRECTOR OF TRAFFIC

Provisions of this act not in conflict with regulations of director of traffic, as to speed of vehicles on certain bridges and highways. District of Columbia v. Bailey, (57 App. D. C. 151, 18 Fed. (2d) 367).

§ 40-606 [6: 246a]. Negligent homicide.

Any person who, by the operation of any vehicle at an immoderate rate of speed or in a careless, reckless, or negligent manner, but not wilfully or wantonly, shall cause the death of another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or both.

It shall be the duty of the coroner of the District of Columbia, upon any inquisition taken before him which results in the jury finding that negligent homicide, as defined herein, has been committed on the deceased, to require such witnesses as he thinks proper to give recognizance to appear and testify, or in default thereof to be committed to jail for appearance, in either the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or the police court of the District of Columbia, and the coroner shall return to either said court the said inquisition, testimony, and recognizance or order by him taken or given. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 802 (a), as added June 17, 1935, 49 Stat. 385, ch. 266.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section and the next two succeeding sections (§§ 40-607, 40-608) are not part of the Traffic Act of 1925 (act of Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443), and therefore are not included in the term "this chapter" as used elsewhere herein.

CROSS REFERENCE

Though this section was enacted after the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, it would seem that such act is inapplicable by its express provision, § 25-127.

§ 40-607 [6: 246b]. Negligent homicide included in manslaughter where death due to operation of vehicle.

The crime of negligent homicide defined in section 40-606 shall be deemed to be included within every crime of manslaughter charged to have been committed in the operation of any vehicle, and in any case where a defendant is charged with manslaughter committed in the operation of any vehicle, if the jury shall find the defendant not guilty of the crime of manslaughter such jury may, in its discretion, render a verdict of guilty of negligent homicide. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 802 (b), as added June 17, 1935, 49 Stat. 385, ch. 266.)

§ 40-609 [6: 247]. Fleeing from scene of accident—Driving under the influence of liquor or drugs.

(a) Any person operating a motor vehicle, who shall injure any person therewith, or who shall do substantial damage to property therewith and fail to stop and give assistance, together with his name, place of residence, including street and number, and the name and address of the owner of the motor vehicle so operated, to the person so injured, or to the owner of such property so damaged, or to the operator of such other motor vehicle, or to any bystander who shall request such information on behalf of the injured person, or, if such owner or operator is not present, then he shall report the information above required to a police station or to any police officer within the District immediately. In all cases of accidents resulting in injury to any person, the operator of the motor vehicle causing such injury shall also report the same to any police station or police officer within the District immediately.

Any operator whose motor vehicle causes personal injury to an individual and who fails to conform to the above requirements shall, upon conviction of the first offense, be fined not more than $500, or shall be imprisoned not more than six months, or both; and upon the conviction of his second or subsequent offense, shall be fined not more than $1,000, or shall be imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Any operator whose motor vehicle causes substantial damage to any other vehicle or property and fails to conform to the above requirements, shall, upon conviction of the first offense, be fined not more than $100, or be imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both; and for the second or any subsequent offense, be fined not more than $300, or be imprisoned not more than ninety days, or both.

(b) No individual shall, while under the influence of any intoxicating liquor or narcotic drug, operate any motor vehicle in the District. Any individual violating any provision of this subdivision shall upon conviction for the first offense be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both; and upon conviction for the second or any subsequent offense be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. Upon conviction of a violation of any provision of this paragraph the clerk of the court shall certify forthwith such conviction to the designated agent of the commissioners, who shall thereupon revoke the operator's permit of such individual.

(c) Any violation of any provision of law or regulation issued thereunder which is repealed or amended by this chapter and any liability arising under such provisions or regulations may, if the violation occurred or the liability arose prior to such repeal or amendment, be prosecuted to the same extent as if this chapter had not been enacted. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1124, ch. 443, § 10; Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1427, ch. 317, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

This section as amended by act of 1931 became effective July 1, 1931.

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in §§ 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to §§ 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623, and 11-1407.

AMENDMENT

Prior to amendment in 1931 subsection (a) of this section provided for the giving of the information upon striking "any individual or any vehicle" or where the vehicle has been struck by another vehicle and provided only for the giving of information concerning the driver including the registration and operators permit numbers. The 1931 act also added all that part of the first paragraph of subsection (a) beginning with "if such owner or operator is not present."

The penalties provided for in subsection (a) were originally, for personal injury, a fine of $100 to $500 and imprisonment of 60 days to 6 months for a first offense, and a fine of $500 to $1,000 and imprisonment of 6 months to 1 year for a subsequent offense. The 1931 act removed the lower limits of fines and imprisonment. The penalties for damage to a vehicle prior to the 1931 amendment were a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment of not more than six months for a first offense and a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment of not more than one year for a subsequent offense.

The penalties provided for in subsection (b) were originally a fine of from $100 to $500 and imprisonment of 60 days to 6 months for a first offense, and a fine of $200 to $1,000 and imprisonment of 6 months to 1 year for a subsequent offense. The 1931 act removed the lower limits of fines and imprisonment.

The act of 1931 also added the present subsection (c) and included former paragraph (c) as the last sentence in present paragraph (b).

FAILURE TO STOP AND GIVE ASSISTANCE

Fact that defendant stopped and parked her automobile at the nearest available point, when informed of the accident, at a distance not exceeding 150 feet from the point where the collision occurred and furnished all the information, is all that the statute requires. Oden v. District of Columbia (65 App. D. C. 50, 79 Fed. (2d) 175).

While defendant testified that he intended to return and give the assistance and information required, the jury was at liberty to disbelieve him under the circumstances, and to conclude from his conduct, as testified to by the District's witnesses, that he did not so intend. Seher v. District of Columbia (68 App. D. C. 207, 95 Fed. (2d) 118).

§ 40-610 [6: 248]. Smoke screens.

(a) No individual shall knowingly—

(1) Have in his possession any device designed to cause the emission from a motor vehicle of a dense mass of smoke commonly called a smoke screen;

(2) Use or permit the use of any such device in the operation of any motor vehicle; or

(3) Have in his possession or control any motor vehicle equipped with any such device or specially fitted for the attachment thereto of any such device.

(b) Any individual violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than five years. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1124, ch. 443, § 11.)

§ 40-611 [6: 249]. Reporting by garage keeper of cars damaged in accidents.

The individual in charge of any garage or repair shop to which is brought any motor vehicle which shows evidence of having been involved in an accident or struck by bullets shall report to a police station within 24 hours after such motor vehicle is received, giving the make of the motor vehicle, the engine number, the registry number, and the name and address of the owner or operator of such motor vehicle. Any such individual failing so to report shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $25 nor more than $100 for each offense. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1125, ch. 443, § 12.)

§ 40-613 [6: 252]. Control over park system not affected by this chapter.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to interfere with the exclusive charge and control prior to March 3, 1925, committed to the Director of the National Park Service over the park system of the District, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to make and enforce all regulations for the control of vehicles and traffic, and limiting the speed thereof on roads, highways, and bridges within the public grounds in the District, under his control, subject to the penalties prescribed in this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, § 16 (b); July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 835, ch. 760, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623, and 11-1407.

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1926 amended this section by striking out the words "Chief of Engineers" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital."

By Executive Order 6166, June 10, 1933, the office was changed to National Parks, Buildings, and Reservations.

Act of March 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1, abolished National Parks, Buildings, and Reservations and transferred its powers and duties to the National Park Service.

§ 40-614. Repeal and saving clauses.

(a) The provisions of the act entitled "An Act regulating the speed of automobiles in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1906 (34 Stat. 621, ch. 3615), and, in so far as they relate to the regulation of vehicles or vehicle traffic in the District, the provisions of the act entitled "An act to authorize the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to make police regulations for the government of said District," approved January 26, 1887 (24 Stat. 369, ch. 49) and of the joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution to regulate licenses to proprietors of theaters in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved February 26, 1892 (27 Stat. 394, Res. 4, 7) and of the act entitled "An act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1917 (39 Stat. 1064, ch. 160), are repealed. The provisions of section 20 of the Act entitled "An Act to prevent the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1917 (39 Stat. 1129, ch. 165), shall not apply to any person operating any motor vehicle in the District.

(b) Any violation of any provision of law or regulation issued thereunder which is repealed by this chapter and any liability arising under such provisions or regulations may, if the violation occurred or the liability arose prior to such repeal, be prosecuted to the same extent as if this chapter had not been enacted. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1125, ch. 443, § 16 (a) (c).)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Subsections (a) and (b) were respectively subsections (a) and (c) of the act as enacted. The act of 1887 referred to is set forth in §§ 1-224 and 1-225. Subsection (b) of § 16 of the act of 1925 is § 40-613. The act of 1917 referred to has been repealed.

"This chapter" referred to in subsection (b) this section will be found in sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623, and 11-1407.

Section 20 of the act entitled "An act to prevent the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes" was repealed by act of Jan. 24, 1934, 48 Stat. 334, ch. 4, § 28.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Act of March 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, § 17, provided as follows:

"SEC. 17. (a) The following provisions of this act shall take effect sixty days after its enactment: Sections 7 (§ 40-301) and 8 (§ 40-303) and subdivision (a) of section 16 (§ 40-614).

"(b) Except as provided in subdivision (a) of this section and in subdivision (b) of section 6 (§ 40-603), the provisions of this act shall take effect upon its enactment."

§ 40-615 [6: 253]. Separability of provisions.

If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1126, ch. 443, § 18.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

"This chapter" referred to in this section will be found in sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-603, 40-605, 40-609 to 40-615, and as amendments to sections 11-601, 11-616, 11-617, 11-621, 11-623, and 11-1407.

§ 40-616. Parking meters.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to secure and to install experimentally, at no expense to the said District, mechanical parking meters or devices on the streets, avenues, roads, highways, and other public spaces in the District of Columbia under the jurisdiction and control of said commissioners, such installations to be limited to a linear footage not to exceed the total of the perimeters of four normally sized squares in such District; and said commissioners are authorized and empowered to make and enforce rules and regulations for the control of the parking of vehicles on such streets, avenues, roads, highways, and other public spaces, and as an aid to such regulation and control of the parking of vehicles the commissioners may prescribe fees for the privilege of parking vehicles where said meters or devices are installed.

The Commissioners are further authorized and empowered to pay the purchase-price and cost of installation of the said meters or devices from the fees collected, which are hereby appropriated for such purpose, for the fiscal years 1938 and 1939, and thereafter such meters or devices shall become the property of said District, and all fees collected shall be paid to the collector of taxes for deposit in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the revenues of said District. (April 4, 1938, 52 Stat. 192, ch. 62, § 11.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is not part of the Traffic Act of 1925 (act of Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443) and therefore is not included in the term "this chapter" as used elsewhere herein.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 40-617 [6: 254]. Loitering by public cabs.

The loitering of public cabs and hacks or vehicles of all descriptions around or in front of the hotels, theaters, or public buildings in the District of Columbia, either by stopping, except to take on or discharge a passenger, or unnecessarily slow driving, is hereby prohibited, and any driver of any such cab or hack who wilfully causes the same to loiter either by stopping or slow driving as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished in the police court of the District of Columbia by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $40 for such offense. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make any regulations that may be necessary in furtherance of the purpose of this section, and are hereby given authority to revoke the license of the driver of any public hack or cab who is convicted of a violation of this section. (July 11, 1919, 41 Stat. 104, ch. 7, § 12.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is not part of the Traffic Act of 1925 (act of Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1119, ch. 443) and is therefore not included in the term "this chapter" as used elsewhere herein.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

POLICE REGULATIONS

This section supersedes police regulation, art. 4, § 3, adopted April 1918. Willis v. District of Columbia (54 App. D. C. 191, 295 Fed. 1012).

PUBLIC STREET

As the space upon which the cab was standing at the time of the arrest of its driver is stipulated to have been the private property of the Washington Terminal Company, by whose authority and permission he was there, it follows that he was not then upon any public street or avenue, and consequently his presence there did not fall within the purview of an act directed against the improper use of public streets and avenues. Reamy v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 359, 273 Fed. 323).

TAXICABS AT HOTELS

This section does not apply to a taxicab stationed near a hotel which was for the exclusive use of the hotel and its guests, as the cab was under jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission and not of the District Commissioners. Bell v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 351, 273 Fed. 315); Parker v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 356, 273 Fed. 320).

§ 40-701. Definitions.

"Person" shall include one or more individuals, firms or unincorporated associations, or corporations.

"Director" shall mean the director of vehicles and traffic of the District of Columbia, including assistants or agents duly designated by the commissioners.

"Recorder" shall mean the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, including assistants or agents duly designated by the recorder.

"Certificate" shall mean a certificate of title for a motor vehicle or trailer issued by the director.

"Owner" shall mean the person to whom such certificate is issued by the director.

"Lien" shall mean any right or interest in or to, or lien or encumbrance upon any motor vehicle or trailer, or the equipment or accessories affixed or sold to be affixed thereto, in favor of a person other than the owner, except (1) a sale of such motor vehicle or trailer accompanied by delivery of possession and on execution of the assignment on the back of the certificate covering it, or (2) any possessory lien now or hereafter provided by law or any lien acquired in any judicial proceeding.

"Instrument" shall mean any written instrument signed and acknowledged by an owner creating such lien.

"Lien information" shall mean the amount, kind, date of lien, name and address of holder, and recorder's record number, if any. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 736, ch. 527, § 1.)

§ 40-702. Lien to appear on certificate of title—Effect of other liens.

During the time a certificate is outstanding for any motor vehicle or trailer, no lien against such motor vehicle or trailer or any equipment or accessories affixed or sold to be affixed thereto shall be valid except as between the parties and as to other persons having actual notice, unless and until entered on such certificate as hereinafter set forth: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply to a lien or liens in existence on January 1, 1940, against a motor vehicle or trailer for which a certificate is outstanding at the effective date of this chapter, or any equipment or accessories affixed thereto. The provisions of §§ 42-101 to 42-103, of the Code of Laws of the District of Columbia shall not apply to liens recorded as herein provided and a lien shall have no greater validity or effect during the time a certificate is outstanding for the motor vehicle or trailer covered thereby by reason of the fact that the lien has been filed in accordance with said sections or, in case of a conditional sales contract, that the purchase price of the property does not exceed $100. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 736, ch. 527, § 2.)

§ 40-703. Entry of lien—Priority.

In the absence of agreement of all parties affected and in the absence of circumstances estopping a lienholder from insisting upon such rights, lien shall be entered on the certificate by the recorder and shall have priority among themselves in the following order:

(a) If the motor vehicle or trailer has been previously titled or registered in this or some other jurisdiction, unsatisfied liens shown by the previous certificate, title, registry, or proof of ownership shall be entered in the order in which they appear on such previous certificate, title, registry, or proof of ownership.

(b) Liens for which instruments are presented with the application for the certificate.

(c) Liens, where the instruments are presented for recording, together with the certificate, irrespective of the fact that one or more instruments not entered on the certificate may have been previously presented for recording without such certificate.

(d) As between two or more instruments presented for recording without the certificate, the one first presented for recording shall have priority. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 3.)

§ 40-704. Entry of lien—Form and requirements of instrument creating lien—When lien not entered.

An instrument shall be in writing; shall show the name and address of the holder, the trade name and engine number of the motor vehicle or the trade name and serial number, if any, of the trailer; shall be signed by the parties and acknowledged by the owner in the manner provided by law for deeds of real estate. A lien shall not be entered upon a certificate unless (1) the motor vehicle or trailer has been previously titled or registered in this or some other jurisdiction and the lien is shown upon such previous certificate, title, registry, or proof of ownership; or (2) such an instrument is presented for recording pursuant to the provisions of this chapter; or (3) the lien is shown on the application for a certificate, and was created prior to January 1, 1941, or was created while the motor vehicle or trailer was titled or registered in some other jurisdiction. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 4.)

§ 40-705. Liens to be kept by recorder in director's office.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall assign to the recorder space in the office of the director, and the recorder shall furnish and maintain the necessary furniture, equipment, cards hereinafter mentioned, and other supplies and the required personnel for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 5.)

§ 40-706. Liens shown by application for certificate—Entry of lien—Collection of fees—Absence of liens to be shown—Certificate to holder of first lien.

Applications for certificates, in addition to all other matters which may be required by law, shall show under oath whether or not there are any liens against the motor vehicle or trailer or any equipment or accessories affixed thereto and if so, the lien information in the order of its priority, and shall be accompanied by instruments or any other papers necessary to entitle liens to be entered on the certificate. Upon receipt by the recorder from the director of an application for a certificate and accompanying documents, if any, or on the application for a duplicate, the recorder shall compare the statements in the application as to liens with his records and the documents and instruments accompanying the application and if such statements are incorrect or incomplete or if any of the liens shown by the application are not entitled to be entered on the certificate in the same order as they appear on the application the recorder shall return all of said papers to the director and advise him of the reasons therefor. If the statements as to liens are full, true, and complete and all liens shown by the application are entitled to be entered on the certificate in the same order as they appear on the application, the recorder shall stamp on the application the words, "Statements as to liens in accordance with records," a facsimile of his signature, and the date, shall accept all instruments accompanying the application for recording and shall stamp his record number opposite the statement of each lien on the application for certificate. The recorder shall retain the instruments for his permanent file and collect the fees and charges thereon and return the application and all other papers to the director, who shall thereupon deliver same to a representative of the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, stationed in the office of the director. Said representative shall then collect from the applicant or his representative all fees and charges in connection with the issuance of the certificate and shall return said application and papers to the director. The director shall thereupon issue the certificate and where liens are shown on such an application shall stamp upon each of two cards, the size of which shall be fixed by the director, the information stamped by the director on the face of such certificate and shall deliver such certificate, its application, cards, if any, and the identification-tag application to the recorder. If the application for title shows no liens, the recorder shall stamp on the certificate and on the reverse side of that portion of the application for identification tags known as "Collector's Coupon" the words "No Liens Shown By Records" and the date. If the application shows liens, the re-recorder shall stamp aforesaid "Collector's Coupon" with the words "Lien Recorded" and shall enter the lien information on certificate and on each of the said cards. The aforesaid stamping and entering shall be made on the face of the certificate in the space provided for the use of the recorder. The recorder shall then deliver both applications and the papers attached and the certificate to the director, who shall retain the application and the papers attached and shall deliver or mail the certificate to the record holder of the first lien shown thereon or his representative; or if there are no liens, then to the owner or his representative. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 737, ch. 527, § 6.)

§ 40-707. Entry of lien on previously issued certificate.

When it is desired to have a lien entered on a certificate theretofore issued, the instrument and the certificate shall be presented to the recorder in the office of the director and upon the payment of the necessary fees to the representative of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia in the office of the director the recorder shall accept the instruments for recording and unless he has cards covering said motor vehicle or trailer the director shall stamp cards in the manner set forth in section 40-706. The recorder shall enter the lien information on the certificate in the space hereinbefore mentioned and on each of said cards and shall deliver or mail the certificate to the record holder of the first unsatisfied lien shown thereon or his representative. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 738, ch. 527, § 7.)

§ 40-708. Assignment of lien—Form and requirement of assignment—Entry and recording of assignment—Certificate to holder of first lien.

The rights of the holder of an unsatisfied lien shown on a certificate may be assigned by an assignment in writing, which shall show the name and address of the assignee, the trade name and engine number of the motor vehicle, or the trade name and serial number, if any, of the trailer, and the recorder's record number of the instrument, or, if none, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien shall be signed by the holder of the lien and acknowledged by him in the manner provided by law for deeds of real estate. Upon presentation of an assignment and a certificate and the payment of the prescribed fee to the representative of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia in the office of the director, the recorder shall enter upon the face of the certificate and upon each of the cards hereinbefore described the recorder's record number of the lien which is being assigned, or, if no such instrument is on file, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien, the date of the assignment and the words, "Assigned to," and the name and address of the assignee, and the date. The assignment shall be attached to the instrument if the instrument has been filed with the recorder, and, if not, the assignment shall be given a recorder's record number and filed by the recorder and such number shall be entered on the certificate and on each of the cards opposite the entry of the information relative to the assignment. The certificate shall be delivered to the record holder of the first unsatisfied lien shown thereon, or his representative. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 738, ch. 527, § 8.)

§ 40-709. Entry of lien or assignment where certificate is not available—Recorder to obtain certificate.

Whenever it is desired to enter a lien or an assignment upon a certificate and such certificate is not available, upon delivery to the recorder of the instrument or assignment the recorder shall demand that the person possessing the certificate surrender it for the purpose of entering thereon the lien or the assignment and upon surrender of the certificate the recorder shall perform the same acts as in cases where the certificate was presented with the instrument. This section shall not be deemed to affect the priority given under section 40-703 (c) to a lien where the instrument is presented together with the certificate. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 9.)

§ 40-710. Possession of certificate—Satisfaction of liens.

The record holder of the first unsatisfied lien shown upon the certificate shall be entitled to the possession of the certificate and upon satisfaction of his lien he shall, within seventy-two hours, place upon the face of the certificate the recorder's record number of the lien, or, if no such instrument is on file, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien, and in either case the word "satisfied," or its equivalent, and his signature, swear to it before a notary public, and forward or deliver the certificate to the holder of the lien next in priority, or, if none, to the owner or to the person designated in writing by the owner. Upon the satisfaction of any lien other than the first unsatisfied lien shown on the certificate, the record holder of the lien so satisfied shall, within seventy-two hours, make similar entries upon the face of the certificate, and it shall be the duty of the person in possession of the certificate, upon demand, to permit such holder to make said entries. Any person in possession of a certificate shall, upon demand of the recorder, surrender it to the recorder within seventy-two hours for the purpose of entering the lien or assignment thereon. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 10.)

§ 40-711. Satisfaction of lien—Duties of recorder—Procedure when certificate lost.

The recorder, upon receipt of a certificate whereon a lien is marked "Satisfied" as set forth in § 40-710, shall enter on the face of the certificate and on each of the cards described in § 40-706, and on the instrument, if any, filed in the recorder's office as hereinafter provided, his said record number, or, if no such instrument is on file, a brief description sufficient to identify the lien, and in either case the word "released," a facsimile of his signature and the date.

Where for any reason a lien-holder upon satisfaction of his lien has failed to mark the certificate as herein provided and the lien-holder cannot be located, or where the certificate after being so marked has been lost or destroyed and a duplicate certificate issued, the recorder upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to him that the lien has been satisfied shall release it upon the certificate or duplicate certificate, the aforesaid cards and instrument, if any, as above set forth. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 11.)

§ 40-712. Fees.

The fee for recording liens or assignments of liens upon a certificate shall not exceed the sum of 50 cents for each lien on each automobile contained in the instrument. There shall be no fee for releasing. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 12.)

§ 40-713. Recording liens, place and method.

The recorder shall maintain, in the space assigned to him in the office of the director, files wherein he shall file one set of the cards hereinbefore described alphabetically under the name of owner and the other under the trade name and engine number if it covers a motor vehicle, or the trade name and serial number, if any, if it covers a trailer. The recorder shall file the instruments at his main office. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 13.)

§ 40-714. False statements as to liens, violations of law, penalties.

Any person intentionally making a false statement with respect to liens in an application for a certificate, or wilfully violating any of the provisions of this chapter, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants, in the name of the District of Columbia. (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 739, ch. 527, § 14.)

Appropriation is hereby authorized to be made to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and the commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to include in their annual estimates provision for all the expenses of the office of the director and recorder incident to such purposes, and for personnel subject to the limitations of the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673). (July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 740, ch. 527, § 15.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 16 of the act approved July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 740, ch. 528, provided as follows: "The provisions of this act shall become effective January 1, 1941. Nothing herein contained shall affect existing liens on motor vehicles and trailers, or any equipment or accessories affixed thereto recorded prior to the effective date of this act."

§ 41-101 [23: 5]. Limited partnerships—For what purposes to be formed.

Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, or manufacturing business within the District may be formed by two or more persons upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities prescribed in this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1498.)

§ 41-102 [23: 6]. "General and special partners" defined.

Such partnership may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called general partners and who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners are by law, and of one or more persons who shall contribute, in actual cash payments, a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1499.)

§ 41-103 [23: 7]. Number of special partners.

The number of special partners shall in no partnership exceed six. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1500.)

§ 41-104 [23: 8]. Liability of special partners.

The special partners shall not be liable for the debts of the partnership beyond the fund contributed by them to the capital. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1501.)

§ 41-105 [23: 9]. Certificate to be signed.

Persons desirous of forming a limited partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate which shall contain—

First. The name of firm under which such partnership is to be conducted.

Second. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted.

Third. The names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners and their respective places of residence.

Fourth. The amount of capital which each special partner shall have contributed to the common stock.

Fifth. The period at which the partnership is to commence and the period at which it is to terminate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1502.)

§ 41-106 [23: 10]. Acknowledgment and recording.

The certificate shall be acknowledged by the several persons signing the same before a judge of any court in the District, or before any notary public, and such acknowledgments shall be made and certified in the same manner as the acknowledgments of deeds of land, and when so acknowledged and certified shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, and shall be recorded by him at large in a book kept for that purpose, open to public inspection. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1503.)

§ 41-107 [23: 11]. Affidavits to be filed.

At the time of filing the original certificate, with the evidence of the acknowledgment thereof, as directed in section 41-106 an affidavit of one or more of the general partners shall also be filed therewith in the same office, stating that the sums specified in the certificate to have been contributed by each of the special partners to the common stock have been actually and in good faith paid in cash. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1504.)

§ 41-108 [23: 12]. Partnership not formed until certificate and affidavit filed.

No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate shall have been made, acknowledged, filed, and recorded, nor until an affidavit shall have been made and filed, as directed by sections 41-105, 41-106 and 41-107. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1505.)

§ 41-109 [23: 13]. False statements.

If any false statement, not the result of accident or mistake, shall be made in the certificate or affidavit required by sections 41-105, 41-106, and 41-107, all the persons interested in the partnership shall be liable for all the engagements of such partnership as general partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1506.)

§ 41-110 [23: 14]. Publication.

The partners shall publish the terms of the partnership, when registered, three times a week for at least four weeks immediately after such registry in two newspapers to be designated by the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, the first publication to appear within one week after the registry. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1507.)

§ 41-111 [23: 15]. Effect of failure to publish.

If the publication prescribed in section 41-110 be not made, the partnership shall be deemed general. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1508.)

§ 41-112 [23: 16]. Affidavit as to publication.

The affidavits of the publication of the notice required by section 41-110 by the editor or publishers of the newspapers in which the same shall have been published shall be filed with the clerk directing the same, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein contained, the affidavit of any one editor or publisher of each newspaper being sufficient. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1509.)

§ 41-113 [23: 17]. Renewal of partnership.

Every renewal or continuance of a partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration shall be certified, acknowledged, and recorded, and an affidavit of a general partner be made and filed, and notice be given in the manner required by the provisions of this chapter for its original formation. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1510.)

§ 41-114 [23: 18]. General partnership to result from failure to properly renew.

Every partnership which shall be renewed and continued otherwise than as provided in this chapter shall be deemed a general partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1511.)

§ 41-115 [23: 19]. What shall be a dissolution.

Every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1512.)

§ 41-116 [23: 20]. Effect of acts after dissolution.

Every partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership under the provisions of section 41-113. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1513.)

§ 41-117 [23: 21]. Name to be used.

The business of the partnership may be conducted under the name of any one or more of the general partners, and with or without the addition of the word Co. or company, as the parties may determine. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1514.)

§ 41-118 [23: 22]. What names to be used in suits.

In any action or suit brought on any contract or engagement of the partnership, or to enforce any liability of the same, the general partners whose names shall be used in the firm or business shall be the only necessary defendants; and any judgment or decree recovered against such defendants shall have the same legal effect and operation and execution thereon shall be enforced and have like effect against the partnership assets as if the judgment or decree had been recovered against the general partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1515.)

§ 41-119 [23: 23]. Effect of use in firm of name of special partner.

If the name of any special partner shall be used in the firm with his privity, he shall be deemed a general partner. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1516.)

§ 41-120 [23: 24]. Who to transact business.

The general partners only shall transact the business, and if a special partner shall interfere contrary to this provision he shall be deemed a general partner, but he may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns and advise as to their management. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1517.)

§ 41-121 [23: 25]. Withdrawal of capital.

No part of the sum which any special partner shall have contributed to the capital stock shall be withdrawn by him or paid or transferred to him in the shape of dividends, profits, or otherwise, during the continuance of the partnership, but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him if the payment of such interest shall not reduce the original amount of such capital; and if after the payment of such interest any profits shall remain to be divided, he may also receive his portion of such profits. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1416, ch. 854, § 1518.)

§ 41-122 [23: 26]. Reduction of capital.

If it shall appear that by the payment of interest or profits to any special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall be bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of capital, with interest, on being notified thereof. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1519.)

§ 41-123 [23: 27]. Assignment with preferences.

Every sale, assignment, or transfer of any property or effects of a partnership, or of any general partner, made by such partnership or general partner when insolvent or in contemplation of insolvency, or after or in contemplation of the insolvency of any general partner, with the intent of giving preference to any creditor of such partnership or insolvent partner, and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given by such partnership or general partner under the like circumstances and with the like intent, shall be void as against the creditors of such partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1520.)

§ 41-124 [23: 28]. Special partner violating sections 41-122 and 41-123 liable as general partner.

Every special partner who shall violate any of the provisions of sections 41-122 and 41-123 or who shall concur in or assent to any such violation by the partnership or by any individual partner, shall be liable as a general partner. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1521.)

§ 41-125 [23: 29]. Creditors to have preference over special partner.

In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of a partnership no special partner shall, under any circumstances, be allowed to claim as a creditor until the claims of all the other creditors of the partnership shall be satisfied. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1522.)

§ 41-126 [23: 30]. Suits to be against general partners only, in what cases.

All suits respecting the business of the partnership shall be brought by and against the general partners only, subject to the provisions of section 41-118, except in those cases in which provision is made in this chapter that special partners shall be deemed general partners and special partnerships general partnerships, in which cases all persons so becoming general partners may be joined with those originally general partners in any suit brought against such partnerships. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1523.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Parties to action, § 41-118 and notes.

§ 41-127 [23: 31]. Suits against general and special partners may be prosecuted against general partners.

If, in any case or suit brought against general and special partners, it shall appear at the trial of the case that the special partners or any one of them are not liable to the suit of the plaintiff, the court may proceed to judgment or decree against the partners who may appear to be liable, in the same manner as if such partners were the only parties defendant to the suit, excepting that the partners who may be deemed not liable shall recover their legal costs against the plaintiffs. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1524.)

If, in any case or suit brought against general and special partners, the creditor shall recover a judgment or obtain a decree against the general partners only, and shall afterward discover that special partners, or some one or more of them, have become liable as general partners, he may bring a new suit against such special partner or partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1525.)

§ 41-129 [23: 33]. Judgment prima facie evidence—Merger of partnership debt in judgment.

In the suits mentioned in sections 41-127 and 41-128 the judgment recovered shall be prima facie evidence of the amount due by the partnerships, and the partnership debt shall not be merged in any judgment or decree recovered or obtained against any partner or partners as against any other partner or partners. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1526.)

§ 41-130 [23: 34]. Voluntary dissolution.

No dissolution of such partnership by act of the partners shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation, or in the certificate of its renewal, unless in consequence of the death of one of the partners or insolvency of the partnership or of one of the general partners, nor until a notice of such dissolution shall have been filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District, and published once a week for four weeks in two newspapers to be designated by the clerk, which publication may be proved by affidavit, and recorded as hereinbefore prescribed for the publication of the certificate for the formation of such partnership. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1417, ch. 854, § 1527.)

§ 41-131 [23: 35]. Liability of the general partners.

The general partners shall be liable to account to each other and to the special partners for the management of the concern, both at law and in equity. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1418, ch. 854, § 1528.)

Chapter 2.—DISSOLUTION AND PAYMENT OF DEBTS*Sec.

- 41-201. Composition with creditors on dissolution.
- 41-202. Memorandum of exoneration may be furnished—
Use of memorandum in evidence or to release judgment.
- 41-203. Other partners not discharged.
- 41-204. Partners' right of contribution.

§ 41-201 [23: 1]. Composition with creditors on dissolution.

Where a partnership is dissolved, by mutual consent or otherwise, any partner may make a separate composition or compromise with any creditor of the partnership; and such a composition or compromise shall be a full and effectual discharge to the debtor who makes the same, and to him only, of and from all and every liability to the creditor with whom the same is made, according to the terms thereof. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1414, ch. 854, § 1494.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

It is not within the general scope of the authority of one partner to make or endorse negotiable paper in the firm name. Presbrey v. Thomas (1 App. D. C. 171).

§ 41-202 [23: 2]. Memorandum of exoneration may be furnished—Use of memorandum in evidence or to release judgment.

Every such debtor who makes such composition or compromise may take from the creditor with whom he makes the same a note or memorandum, in writing, exonerating him from all and every individual liability incurred by reason of his connection with the partnership, which note or memorandum may be given in evidence by such debtor, in bar of such creditor's right of recovery against him; and if such liability be by judgment, then, on the production and filing with the clerk of the notes or memorandum, the clerk shall enter the judgment as released by the plaintiff as far as the compromising debtor is concerned. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1414, ch. 854, § 1495.)

§ 41-203 [23: 3]. Other partners not discharged.

Such compromise or composition with an individual member of a firm shall not be held to discharge the other partners, nor shall it impair the right of the creditor to proceed against such members of the partnership as have not been discharged; and the members of the partnership so proceeded against shall be permitted to set off any demand against the creditor which could have been set off had the suit been brought against all the individuals composing the firm. Nor shall the compromise or discharge of an individual member of a firm prevent the other members of the firm from availing themselves of any defense that would have been available had this title not been passed, except that they shall not set up the discharge of one individual as a discharge of the other partners, unless it appear that all were intended to be discharged; but the discharge of any such partner shall be deemed a payment to the creditor equal to the proportionate interest of the partner discharged in the partnership concern. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1414, ch. 854, § 1496.)

§ 41-204 [23: 4]. Partners' right of contribution.

Such compromise or composition of a member of a firm with a creditor of such firm shall in no wise affect the right of the other partners to call on the member who makes it for his ratable proportion of any partnership debt which they may be compelled to pay. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1415, ch. 854, § 1497.)

TITLE 42.—PERSONAL PROPERTY

Chap.	Sec.
1. Recordation of instruments.....	42-101

Chapter 1.—RECORDATION OF INSTRUMENTS

Sec.

- 42-101. Recording of bills of sale, chattel mortgages, and deeds of trust.
- 42-102. Instruments relating to chattels need not be transcribed—Instruments retained by recorder.
- 42-103. Conditional sales.

§ 42-101 [25: 177]. Recording of bills of sale, chattel mortgages, and deeds of trust.

No bill of sale, mortgage, or deed of trust to secure a debt of any personal chattels whereof the vendor, mortgagor, or donor shall remain in possession, shall be valid or effectual to pass the title therein, except as between the parties to such instruments and as to other persons having actual notice of it, unless the same be executed, acknowledged, and within ten days from the date of such acknowledgment filed in the office of the recorder of deeds and the said filing of such instrument therein as aforesaid as to third persons not having notice of it as aforesaid shall be operative only from the time within the said ten days when it is delivered to said recorder. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1275, ch. 854, § 546; Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1103, ch. 417.)

ACTUAL NOTICE

The sale is not void as to persons who had "actual notice of it" before their rights accrued. Splain v. B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. (53 App. D. C. 300, 290 Fed. 275).

DATE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

"Record is required within 10 days after * * * the act of acknowledgement. There is nothing in the law which requires that acknowledgment of the instrument be of its date, and, unless the delay in acknowledging be unreasonable and intervening rights accrue during the period of delay the recorded instrument will have the same force and effect as if acknowledged on the date of its execution." R. P. Andrews Paper Co. v. Southern Soda Fountain Co. (46 App. D. C. 84).

Rights under the mortgage do not relate back to the time of the execution of the deed where mortgage was not acknowledged or recorded until after mortgagor had contracted new debts with third parties without notice.

In re Nolan Motor Co., Inc. ((D. C.-D. C.), 25 Fed. Supp. 186).

The code regarding recordation of chattel mortgages does not require acknowledgment simultaneous with the execution thereof. In re Nolan Motor Co., Inc. ((D. C.-D. C.), 25 Fed. Supp. 186).

FAILURE TO DELIVER POSSESSION

Failure to deliver possession to the buyer did not make the sale void, but was a fact to be considered by the jury in determining whether or not the sale was fraudulent. Splain v. B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. (53 App. D. C. 300, 290 Fed. 275).

LANDLORD'S LIEN

Quaere: Whether landlord's lien is embraced within provision requiring recordation of conditional sales contract. R. P. Andrews Paper Co. v. Southern Soda Fountain Co. (46 App. D. C. 84).

UNRECORDED BILL OF SALE

Failure to record bill of sale does not make sale void as to marshal who levied on the property with notice of the transfer of title. Splain v. B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. (53 App. D. C. 300, 290 Fed. 275).

UNRECORDED TRANSFER

Unrecorded transfer is good inter partes. V. G. Fisher Art Co. v. Hutchins (41 App. D. C. 156), citing Colbert v Baetjer (4 App. D. C. 416).

§ 42-102 [25: 178]. Instruments relating to chattels need not be transcribed—Instruments retained by recorder.

It shall not be necessary for the recorder of deeds to spread such instruments upon the records of his office, but the same shall be indexed in the manner as deeds to real estate are indexed, and said instruments shall be kept on file and shall be open to inspection by the public, and shall have the same force and legal effect as if they were actually recorded in the books of said office. For filing and indexing such aforesaid instruments the recorder of deeds shall collect $1 each. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 546a, added Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1103, ch. 417.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section (paragraph 2 of § 546) appeared for the first time in the 1925 act. Paragraph 1 was an amendment to § 546 of D. C. 1901 (§ 42-101 herein).

§ 42-103 [25: 179]. Conditional sales.

No conditional sale of chattels in virtue of which the property is delivered to the purchaser, but by the terms of which the title is not to pass until the price of said chattels is fully paid, where the purchase-price exceeds $100, shall be valid as against third persons acquiring title to said property from said purchaser without notice of the terms of said sale, unless the terms of said sale are reduced to writing and signed by the parties thereto and acknowledged by the purchaser and filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, and said writing shall be indexed as if the purchaser were a mortgagor and the seller a mortgagee of such chattels, and shall be operative as to third persons without actual notice of it from the time of being filed. And for filing and indexing such an instrument, the recorder of deeds shall collect $1. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1275, ch. 854, § 547; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 533, ch. 1329; Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1103, ch. 417.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment added the words "when the purchase price exceeds $100."

The 1925 amendment added the words "where the purchase price exceeds $100," deleted the words "and recorded in the same manner as a chattel mortgage, as hereinabove provided," and inserted in lieu thereof the words "and filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia," deleted the words "so recorded," and inserted in lieu thereof the word "filed" at the end of the first sentence, and added the last sentence.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNEE OF LEASE

Assignee of lease held not third person "acquiring title to said property from said purchaser." Palm v. Bachrach (55 App. D. C. 302, 5 Fed. (2d) 125).

CONSTRUCTION AND APPLICATION

Quaere: Whether creditor of vendee in contract of conditional sale, or of purchaser (without notice) from him, are entitled to the benefits of this section. Baum v. Knabe Mfg. Co. (33 App. D. C. 237).

"Since this statute restricts the rights of property by regulating its use its scope may not be broadened by construction." Gill v. Kahl-Holt Co. (47 App. D. C. 53).

Lease construed as conditional sales agreement. Stern v. Drew (52 App. D. C. 191, 285 Fed. 925, distinguishing Randolph & Co. v. Columbia Graphophone Co. 45 App. D. C. 146). See also Smith v. Gilmore (7 App. D. C. 192), as to determination of intention of parties to such agreements.

ELECTION OF REMEDIES

Election of remedies as affecting rights under conditional bill of sale. Smith v. Gilmore (7 App. D. C. 192)

LANDLORD'S LIEN

Unrecorded conditional sale contract of chattels brought upon leased premises is superior to landlord's lien on chattels. Stern Co. v. Rosenberg (67 App. D. C. 99, 89 Fed. (2d) 843).

ORAL AGREEMENT

An assignee of after-acquired property takes it subject to the conditions with which it is encumbered, notwithstanding that such encumbrance is an oral conditional sales agreement. Gill v. Kahl-Holt Co. (47 App. D. C. 53)

TITLE WITHHELD

"A sale and delivery of personal property on condition that the title remain in the vendor until performance of the condition authorizes the vendor, in case of failure to fulfill the conditions, to repossess himself of the property, not only from the vendee but from those holding under him. * * * Such a condition may exist either in the case of a sale for cash or on time." Minnix Co. v. L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter Co. (33 App. D. C. 357).

Title does not pass until condition is fulfilled. Minnix Co. v. L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter Co. (33 App. D. C. 357). See Wall v. De Mitkiewicz (9 App. D. C. 109).

UNRECORDED CONDITIONAL SALE

When property under conditional sale contracts is reserved in the vendor until the purchase price is paid, such contracts are valid even though unrecorded except as against third persons acquiring title without notice of the terms of sale. Baum v. Knabe Mfg. Co. (33 App. D. C. 237).

Unrecorded conditional sale was valid against judgment, creditor levying upon buyer's property. The provision that it should not be valid against third persons without notice applies only in favor of subsequent purchasers and mortgagees. Higgins v. Central Cigar Co. (59 App. D. C. 9, 32 Fed. (2d) 400).

Unrecorded conditional sale contract superior to levy on an automobile, the latter not transferring any title. C. I. T. Corp. v. Carl (66 App. D. C. 232, 85 Fed. (2d) 809).

WAREHOUSEMAN'S LIEN

Conditional sale contract, not of record, is inferior to warehouseman's lien. Fidelity Storage Co. v. Reliable Stores Corp. (63 App. D. C. 83, 69 Fed. (2d) 569).

The term "pipe-line company" when used in chapters 1-10 of this title includes every corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership, or person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, managing, or controlling the supply of any liquid, steam, or air through pipes or tubing to consumers for use or for lighting, heating, or cooling purposes, or for power. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 976, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

§ 43-122 [26: 22]. Chapters 1-10 of this title applicable to transportation of passengers, freight, or property within the District of Columbia—Construction in connection with Constitution and interstate commerce laws.

Chapters 1-10 of this title shall apply to the transportation of passengers, freight, or property from one point to another within the District of Columbia, and any common carrier performing such service; and chapters 1-10 of this title shall be so applicable and be so construed as to be free from conflict with those provisions of the Constitution of the United States and the laws in pursuance thereof relating to interstate commerce. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 977, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

GARAGE BUSINESS

A taxicab company which has the exclusive right to taxicab passengers from the Washington terminal, and the exclusive right to the taxicab business out from certain hotels, is to this extent, under the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission, but the Commission has no jurisdiction over its garage business, or rates charged on such business. Terminal Taxicab Co. v. Kutz (241 U. S. 252, 60 L. Ed. 984, 36 Sup. Ct. 583).

SINGLE OPERATOR

An operator of a single passenger sedan is not a public utility and does not come under the jurisdiction of an order of Public Utilities Commission requiring financial protection of his patrons. Bell v. Harlan (57 App. D. C. 255, 20 Fed. (2d) 271).

§ 43-123 [26: 23]. Corporations subject to chapters 1-10 of this title.

Corporations formed to acquire property or to transact business which would be subject to the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title, and corporations possessing franchises for any of the purposes contemplated by chapters 1-10 of this title shall be deemed to be subject to the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title, although no property may have been acquired, business transacted, or franchises exercised. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 977, ch. 150, § 8, par. 1.)

Chapter 2.—CREATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION—MEMBERS—COUNSEL—EMPLOYEES

Sec.

- 43-201. Members—Eligibility of Commissioners—Oath.
- 43-202. Quorum—Investigations, inquiries, may be undertaken by any Commissioner.
- 43-203. Acts of prior commission validated.
- 43-204. Corporation counsel as counsel of Commission—Duties—Additional compensation—Employment of additional counsel—Enforcement of orders.
- 43-205. People's counsel—Duties, term of office, salary, qualifications.
- 43-206. Employees—Compensation—Expenses—Expenditures.
- 43-207. Power withdrawn from Interstate Commerce Commission—Rules and regulations of said Commission to remain in force.
- 43-208. Orders as to repairs—Improvement in equipment, service.
- 43-209. Authority of District of Columbia Commissioners to continue—Ordinances and regulations to remain in force until modified by the Public Utilities Commission.

§ 43-201 [26: 126]. Members—Eligibility of Commissioners—Oath.

The Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia shall be composed of three commissioners as follows: (1) The Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, and (2) two persons appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Each of the appointed commissioners shall receive a salary at the rate of $7,500 per annum. Of the two commissioners first appointed after December 15, 1926, one shall be appointed for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years, commencing July 1, 1926. The terms of office of all successors shall expire three years after the expiration of the terms for which their predecessors were appointed; but any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The commission shall at least biennially elect a chairman by a majority vote of its members. No commissioner, other than the said Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, shall, during his term of office, hold any other public office. The commissioners of the District of Columbia shall furnish the Public Utilities Commission with suitable offices and quarters. No person, other than the said Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, shall be eligible to the office of commissioner of the Public Utilities Commission who has not been a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia for a period of at least three years next preceding his appointment or who has voted or claimed residence elsewhere during such period. No person shall be eligible to the office of commissioner of said Public Utilities Commission who is, or who shall have been during a period of five years next preceding his appointment, directly or indirectly interested in any public utility operating, owning, or having an interest in property in the District of Columbia; or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security, or contract of any such public utility. If any such commissioner shall voluntarily become so interested, his office shall ipso facto become vacant; and if any such commissioner shall become so interested otherwise than voluntarily he shall, within a reasonable time, divest himself of such interest, and if he fails to do so his office shall become vacant. Before entering upon the duties of his office each commissioner, the secretary of the commission, the counsel of the commission and every employee of said commission shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office, and shall in addition thereto make oath or affirmation before and file with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia that he is not pecuniarily interested, voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, in any public utility in the District of Columbia. (Dec. 15, 1926, 44 Stat. 920, ch. 8, § 1.)

§ 43-202 [26: 127]. Quorum—Investigations, inquiries may be undertaken by any Commissioner.

A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum to do business, and any vacancy shall not impair the right of the remaining commissioners to exercise all the powers of the commission. Any investigation, inquiry, or hearing within the powers of the commission may be made or held by any commissioner, whose acts and orders, when approved by the commission, shall be deemed to be the order of the commission. The commission shall have power to adopt and publish rules and regulations for the administration of the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title, including the conduct of its investigations, inquires, hearings, and other proceedings. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 995, ch. 150, § 8, par. 97; Dec. 15, 1926, 44 Stat. 921, ch. 8, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment deleted the words "To govern its proceedings and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings pertaining to public utilities" and inserted in lieu thereof the words now following the word "rules" in the last sentence.

ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY

Congress of the United States exercises exclusive legislative powers within the District of Columbia, and the Public Utilities Commission is merely an administrative agency. Patrick v. Smith (60 App. D. C. 6, 45 Fed. (2d) 924)

§ 43-203 [26: 128]. Acts of prior Commission validated.

Sections 43-201 to 43-203 shall not be construed (1) to invalidate any subpoena, valuation, order, rule, regulation, or revocation, or any rescission, alteration, modification, amendment, or suspension thereof issued by the commission prior to the date on which the commissioners first appointed under section 43-201 take office; or (2) to invalidate any complaint served, or any investigation, inquiry, or hearing held or commenced, or any determination, or decision rendered by the commission prior to such date; or (3) to invalidate, abate, or discontinue any action, suit, trial, or proceeding commenced by or against such commission prior to such date. (Dec. 15, 1926, 44 Stat. 921, ch. 8, § 2.)

§ 43-204 [26: 116]. Corporation counsel as counsel of Commission—Duties—Additional compensation—Employment of additional counsel—Enforcement of orders.

The corporation counsel of the District of Columbia shall be the general counsel of the commission and shall receive from and be paid out of the appropriations provided and to be provided for the expenses of the commission in addition to his compensation otherwise provided by law the sum of $1,000 per annum, payable in equal monthly installments. It shall be the duty of the general counsel to represent and appear for the commission in all actions and proceedings involving any question under chapters 1-10 of this title, or under or in reference to any act, order, or proceeding of the commission, and if directed to do so by the commission, to intervene, if possible, in any action or proceeding in which any such question is involved; to commence and prosecute all actions and proceedings directed or authorized by the commission, and to expedite, in every way possible, final and just determination of all such actions and proceedings; to advise the commission and each commissioner, when so requested, in regard to all matters in connection with the powers and duties of the commission and of the members thereof, and generally to perform all duties and services as attorney and counsel to the commission which the commission may reasonably require of him. The assistants to the corporation counsel shall perform such duties relating to matters arising under chapters 1-10 of this title and all other matters as the corporation counsel may prescribe. The commission may, if at any time it deems necessary, employ other attorneys at law as additional assistants to the said general counsel for the performance of such extraordinary legal services for or in behalf of the commission at such special compensation for such additional assistants as the commission may prescribe, which said compensation shall be paid out of the appropriations provided for the expenses of the commission. The said corporation counsel and any of his assistants designated by him or by the commission shall have the right to appear and prosecute any civil, quasi criminal, or criminal case to recover any penalty, forfeiture, fine, or for the imposition of any punishment provided for in chapters 1-10 of this title whether instituted by or on behalf of the United States of America or by or on behalf of the District of Columbia or otherwise, and on every appeal provided by law. The commission may enforce its orders in any case by mandamus or other legal or equitable remedy in any court of competent jurisdiction, and it shall be the duty of the corporation counsel or his assistants to represent the commission in every such proceeding. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 993, ch. 150, § 8, par. 91.)

§ 43-205 [26: 117]. People's counsel—Duties, term of office, salary, qualifications.

There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an additional counsel of the commission to be known as the people's counsel, who—

(1) Shall represent and appear for the people of the District of Columbia at all hearings of the commission and in all judicial proceedings involving the interests of users of the products of or service furnished by public utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission;

(2) Shall represent and appear for petitioners appearing before the commission for the purpose of complaining in matters of rates or service; and

(3) May investigate the service given by, the rates charged by, and the valuation of the properties of, the public utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission.

(b) The term of office of the people's counsel shall be four years, and he shall receive a salary at the rate of $7,500 a year. No person shall be appointed as people's counsel who has not been a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia continuously for a period of at least five years immediately preceding the effective date of his appointment, or who has not been engaged in the actual practice of law before the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia for a period of at least five years. No person shall be eligible to the office of people's counsel who is, or who shall have been during a period of five years next preceding his appointment, directly or indirectly interested in any public utility operating, owning, or having an interest in property in the District of Columbia, or in any stock, bond, mortgage, security, or contract of any such public utility. (Dec. 15, 1926, 44 Stat. 921, ch. 8, § 3.)

§ 43-206 [26: 121]. Employees — Compensation — Expenses—Expenditures.

The commission shall have the power in each and every instance to employ and to prescribe the duties of such officers, clerks, stenographers, typewriters, inspectors, experts, and employees as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of chapters

1-10 of this title, and to fix and pay their compensation within the appropriations provided by Congress subject to the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, ch. 13). The commission is hereby authorized, within the appropriation made by Congress, to incur and pay incidental expenses for postage, printing, blanks, books, law books, books of reference, and periodicals, stationery, binding, rebinding, repairing and preservation of records, desks, office furniture and supplies, traveling expenses of the commission, the commissioners, and every officer, agent, and employee thereof, and all other general expenses reasonably necessary to be incurred in carrying out the purposes of chapters 1-10 of this title. All payments and disbursements, as provided in chapters 1-10 of this title, shall be made by the disbursing officer of the District of Columbia upon proper vouchers, certified as required by the commission; and the commission is hereby also granted power and authority to designate and appoint during its pleasure such officers, clerks, inspectors, and employees of the District of Columbia and members of the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia to perform any of the duties which the commission may from time to time, respectively, assign to them, and to employ any assistance within the limits of the appropriations for its use made by Act of Congress. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 994, ch. 150, § 8, par. 95.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

It is not clear that the last clause of the first sentence was superseded in its entirety by the act of Mar. 4, 1923 (the Classification Law), 42 Stat. 1488, ch. 265.

§ 43-207 [26: 124]. Power withdrawn from Interstate Commerce Commission—Rules and regulations of said commission to remain in force.

The authority vested by law in the Interstate Commerce Commission by virtue of and under the Act of Congress, approved May 23, 1908, entitled "An Act authorizing certain extensions to be made in the lines of the Anacostia and Potomac River Railroad Company, the Washington Railway and Electric Company, the City and Suburban Railway of Washington, and the Capital Traction Company, in the District of Columbia and for other purposes" (35 Stat. 246, ch. 190), shall no longer be exercised by the Interstate Commerce Commission: Provided, That the orders, rules, and regulations made by the Interstate Commerce Commission by virtue of and under the said Act of Congress, approved May 23, 1908, shall continue to be in force until changed, repealed, altered, or amended by the commission created by chapters 1-10 of this title, which said commission is hereby given power and jurisdiction to issue and, at its pleasure, to revoke all permits, or licenses, to carry chapters 1-10 of this title into effect, and its rules and regulations shall be valid and binding on all public-service corporations and on all persons. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 995, ch. 150, § 8, par. 96.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GAS RATES

Commission is without power to fix rates at which gas piped from another State will be supplied to local distributing company. Galloway v. Bell (56 App. D. C. 172, 11 Fed. (2d) 558).

RIGHT TO COMPEL FURNISHING SERVICE

Appellant has no positive right to compel the power company to furnish service to him contrary to its own rules and regulations duly approved by the Commission, the company's right to suspend or discontinue the service in accordance with its notice can neither be controlled nor restrained. Lewis v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (62 App. D. C. 63, 64 Fed. (2d) 701).

§ 43-302 [26:25]. Use of equipment of other companies—Application to commission to require such use in event of disagreement.

Every utility doing business in the District of Columbia having tracks, conduits, subways, poles, wires, switchboards, exchanges, works, or other equipment shall, for a reasonable compensation, permit the use of the same by any other public utility whenever public convenience and necessity require such use, and such use will not result in irreparable injury to the owners or other users of such equipment; nor in any substantial detriment to the service to be rendered by such owners or other users. In case of failure to agree upon such use, or the conditions or compensation for such use, any public utility or any person, firm, copartnership, association, or corporation interested may apply to the commission, and if after investigation the commission shall ascertain that public convenience and necessity require such use and that it would not result in irreparable injury to the owners or other user of such equipment not in any substantial detriment to the service to be rendered by such owners or other users of such equipment, it shall by order direct that such use be permitted and prescribe the conditions and compensation for such joint use. Such use so ordered shall be permitted and such

Whenever any public utility or person shall propose any change in any law relating directly or indirectly to the property or operations of any public utility the said proposed change shall also and at the same time be submitted to the commission, which may take testimony and give a public hearing thereon, and the commission shall recommend such bills as will in its judgment protect the interests of the public and such public utility and transmit the same to the proper committees of the Senate and House of Representatives. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 978, ch. 150, § 8, par. 5.)

§ 43-305 [26: 28]. Commission to ascertain cost of construction, replacement value, outstanding stock—Information to be printed in annual report.

The commission shall ascertain, as soon and as nearly as practicable, the amount of money expended in the construction and equipment of every public utility, including the amount of money expended to procure any right of way; also the amount of money it would require to secure the right of way, reconstruct any roadbed, track, depots, cars, conduits, subways, poles, wires, switchboards, exchanges, offices, works, storage plants, power plants, machinery, and any other property or instrument not included in the foregoing enumeration used in or useful to the business of such public utility, and to replace all the physical properties belonging to the public utility. It shall ascertain the outstanding stock, bonds, debentures, and indebtedness, and the amount, respectively, thereof, the date when issued, to whom issued, to whom sold, the price paid in cash, property, or labor therefor, what disposition was made of the proceeds, by whom the indebtedness is held, so far as ascertainable, the amount purporting to be due thereon, the floating indebtedness of the public utility, the credits due the public utility, other property on hand belonging to it, the judicial or other sales of said public utility, its property or franchises, and the amounts purporting to have been paid, and in what manner paid therefor, and the taxes paid thereon. The commission shall also ascertain in detail the gross and net income of the public utility from all sources, the amounts paid for salaries to officers and the wages paid to its employees, and the maximum hours of continuous service required of each class. Whenever the information required by this section is obtained it shall be printed in the annual report of the commission. In making such investigation the commission may avail itself of any information in possession of any department of the government of the United States or of the commissioners of the District of Columbia. #### § 43-312 [26: 35]. Utilities to have office in the District of Columbia—Books and records of utilities not to be removed from the District of Columbia—Records may be kept at general office of utility.

Each public utility shall have an office within the District of Columbia in which it shall keep all such books, accounts, papers, and records as shall be required by the commission to be kept within the District of Columbia. No books, accounts, papers, or records required by the commission to be kept within the District of Columbia shall be at any time removed from the District of Columbia, except upon such condition as may be prescribed by the Commission: Provided, That public utilities operating in the District of Columbia and elsewhere who have their general or executive offices outside of the District, may continue to keep their books, accounts, records, and so forth, at their executive or general offices, such public utilities being required, however, to produce before the commission such books, accounts, records, and papers from time to time as the commission may order. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 979, ch. 150, § 8, par. 13.)

§ 43-313 [26: 36]. Accounts to be closed annually—Verified balance sheet to be filed with commission—Copy to Congress.

The accounts shall be closed annually on the thirty-first day of December, and a balance sheet of that date promptly taken therefrom. On or before the first day of February following such balance sheet, together with such other information as the commission shall prescribe, verified by an owner or officer of the public utility, shall be filed with the commission, and a copy thereof transmitted to Congress. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 979, ch. 150, § 8, par. 14.)

§ 43-314 [26: 37]. Commission to provide for examination and audit of accounts—Allocation of items to accounts—Authority of agents, accountants, and examiners.

The commission shall provide for the examination and audit of all accounts, and all items shall be allocated to the accounts in the manner prescribed by the commission. The agents, accountants, or examiners employed by the commission shall have authority, under the direction of the commission, to inspect and examine any and all books, accounts, papers, records, and memoranda kept by such public utility. § 43-315 [26: 38]. Depreciation account—Rates of depreciation—Application of depreciation fund.

Every public utility shall carry a proper and adequate depreciation account. The commission shall ascertain and determine what are the proper and adequate rates of depreciation of the several classes of property of each public utility. These rates shall be such as will provide the amounts required over and above the expense of maintenance to keep such property in a state of efficiency corresponding to the progress of the industry. Each public utility shall conform its depreciation accounts to such rates so ascertained and determined by the commission. The commission may make changes in such rates of depreciation from time to time as it may find to be necessary. The commission shall also prescribe rules, regulations, and forms of accounts regarding such depreciation which the public utility is required to carry into effect. The commission shall provide for such depreciation in fixing the rates, tolls, and charges to be paid by the public. All moneys in this fund may be expended in keeping the property of such public utility in repair and good and serviceable condition for the use to which it is devoted, or invested, and, if invested, the income from the investments shall also be carried in the depreciation fund. This fund and the proceeds thereof shall be used for no other purpose than as provided in this section, unless with the consent and by order of the commission. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 979, ch. 150, § 8, par. 16.)

Nothing in chapters 1-10 of this title shall be taken to prohibit a public utility, with the consent of the commission, from providing a sliding scale of rates and dividends according to what is commonly known as the Boston sliding scale, or other financial device that may be practicable and advantageous to the parties interested. No such arrangement or device shall be lawful until it shall be found by the commission, after investigation, to be reasonable and just and not inconsistent with the purposes of chapters 1-10 of this title. Such arrangement shall be under the supervision and regulation of the commission. The commission shall ascertain, determine, and order such rates, charges, and regulations, and the duration thereof, as may be necessary to give effect to such arrangement, but the right and power to make such other and further changes in rates, charges, and regulations as the commission may ascertain and determine to be necessary and reasonable, and the right to alter or amend all orders relative thereto, is reserved and vested in the commission notwithstanding any such arrangement and mutual agreement. § 43-319 [26: 42]. Annual report of commission.

The commission shall publish annual reports showing its proceedings relating to all the public utilities of each kind in the District of Columbia, and such other occasional reports as it may deem advisable. The commission shall also publish in its annual reports the value of all property actually used and useful for the convenience of the public, of every public utility as to whose rates, charges, service, or regulations any hearing has been held by the commission or the value of whose property has been ascertained by it under the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 980, ch. 150, § 8, par. 20.)

§ 43-320 [26: 43]. Commission to fix adequate and serviceable standards—Regulations for testing products, service, and meters.

The commission shall ascertain and fix adequate and serviceable standards for the measurement of quality, pressure, initial voltage, or other condition pertaining to the supply of the product or service rendered by any public utility, and prescribe reasonable regulations for examining and testing such product or service and for the measurement thereof. It shall establish reasonable rules, regulations, specifications, and standards to secure the accuracy of all meters and appliances for measurements, and every public utility is required to carry into effect all orders issued by the commission relative thereto. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 980, ch. 150, § 8, par. 21.)

§ 43-325 [26: 48]. Copy of rate schedule to be available for public inspection.

A copy of so much of said schedules as the commission shall deem necessary for the use of the public shall be printed in plain type and kept on file in every station and office of such public utility where payments are made by the consumers or users, open to the public, in such form and place as to be readily accessible to the public and so as to be conveniently inspected. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 981, ch. 150, § 8, par. 26.)

§ 43-326 [26: 49]. Schedule of joint rates to be filed.

Where a schedule of joint rates or charges is, or may be, in force between two or more public utilities, such schedule shall in like manner be printed and filed with the commission, and so much thereof as the commission shall deem necessary for the use of the public shall be filed in every such station or office, as provided in section 43-325. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 981, ch. 150, § 8, par. 27.)

§ 43-327 [26: 50]. Change in schedule—Notice.

No change shall be made in any schedule, including schedules of joint rates, except upon ten days' notice to the commission, and all such changes shall be plainly indicated upon existing schedules, or by filing new schedules in lieu thereof ten days prior to the time the same are to take effect: Provided, That the commission, upon application of any public utility, may prescribe a less time within which a reduction may be made. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 981, ch. 150, § 8, par. 28.)

§ 43-401 [26: 120]. Existing rates continued—Schedules to be filed—Application to change rates—Review of ruling by District Court.

First, unless the commission shall otherwise order, it shall be unlawful for any public utility within the District of Columbia to demand, collect, or receive a greater compensation for any service than the charge fixed on the lowest schedule of rates for the same service under the law in force on March 4, 1913; second, every public utility in the District of Columbia shall, within thirty days after March 4, 1913, file in the office of the commission copies of all schedules of rates and charges, including joint rates, in force on March 4, 1913; third, any public utility desiring to advance or discontinue any such rate or rates may make application to the commission in writing, stating the advance in or discontinuance of the rate or rates desired, giving the reasons for such advance or discontinuance; fourth, upon receiving such application the commission shall fix a time and place for hearing, and give such notice to interested parties as shall be proper and reasonable; if, after such hearing and investigation, the commission shall find that the change or discontinuance applied for is reasonable, fair, and just, it shall grant the application, either in whole or in part; fifth, any public utility being dissatisfied with any order of the commission made under the provisions of this section may commence a proceeding against it in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in the manner as is in chapters 1-10 of this title provided, which action shall be tried and determined in the same manner as is in chapters 1-10 of this title provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 994, ch. 150, § 8, par. 94.)

LEGISLATIVE INTENT

It is not contemplated that any resident of the District, feeling himself aggrieved, may rush into the courts without first submitting his case to the Public Utilities Commission, whose duty it is primarily to hear and adjust and, if possible, finally dispose of such complaints. Hollis v. Kutz (49 App. D. C. 301, 265 Fed. 451).

§ 43-409 [26: 61]. Commission to notify utility of complaints.

The commission shall prior to such formal hearing notify the public utility complained of that a complaint has been made, and ten days after such notice has been given the commission may proceed to set a time and place for a hearing and an investigation as hereinafter provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 983, ch. 150, § 8, par. 39.)

§ 43-410 [26: 62]. Notice as to hearings—Compulsory attendance of witnesses.

The commission shall give the public utility and the complainant, if any, ten days' notice of the time and place when and where such hearing and investigation will be held and such matters considered and determined. Both the public utility and complainant shall be entitled to be heard and shall have process to enforce the attendance of witnesses. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 983, ch. 150, § 8, par. 40.)

§ 43-411 [26: 63]. Reasonable rates may be ordered—Notice to be given utility affected thereby.

If upon such investigation the rates, tolls, charges, schedules, or joint rates shall be found to be unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, or unjustly discriminatory, or to be preferential or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title, the commission shall have power to determine and by order fix and order to be substituted therefor such rate or rates, tolls, charges, or schedules as shall be just and reasonable. If upon such investigation it shall be found that any regulation, time schedule, act, or service complained of is unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, preferential, unjustly discriminatory, or otherwise in violation of any of the provisions of this section, or if it is to be found that reasonable service is not supplied, the commission shall have power to determine and substitute therefor such other regulations, time schedules, service, or acts and to make such orders respecting and such changes in such regulations, time schedules, service, or acts as shall be just and reasonable. And upon any investigation for the purpose of determining upon and requiring any reasonable extension or extensions of lines or of service that shall promise to be compensatory within a reasonable time, the commission shall have power to fix, determine, and require every such extension or extensions to be made and the terms and conditions upon which the same shall be made: Provided, That no hearing shall be had and no order shall be made respecting such extension or extensions, without notice to the public utility affected thereby, as provided in section 43-410. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 983, ch. 150, § 8, par. 41.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONALITY

The constitutional rights of private consumers of gas are not invaded by rates established by the Public Utilities Commission at a higher rate than is charged to the Government. Hollis v. Kutz (255 U. S. 452, 65 L. Ed. 727, 41 Sup. Ct. 371).

§43-412 [26: 65]. Expenses of investigation or revaluation to be borne by utility—Deposit for costs—Limitation of expenditures in rate and revaluation hearings.

The expenses of any investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding of any nature by the Public Utilities Commission of or concerning any public utility operating in the District of Columbia, and all expenses of any litigation, including appeals, arising from any such investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding, or from any order or action of the said commission, shall be borne by the public utility investigated, valued, revalued, or otherwise affected as a special franchise tax in addition to all other taxes imposed by law, and such expenses with interest at 6 per centum per annum may be charged to operating expenses and amortized over such period as the Public Utilities Commission shall deem proper and be allowed for in the rates to be charged by such utility. When any such investigation, valuation, revaluation, or other proceeding is begun the said Public Utilities Commission may call upon the utility in question for the deposit of such reasonable sum or sums as in the opinion of said commission, it may deem necessary from time to time until the said proceeding or the litigation arising therefrom is completed, the money so paid to be deposited in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the appropriation account known as "miscellaneous trust fund deposit, District of Columbia" and to be disbursed in the manner provided for by law for other expenditures of the government of the District of Columbia, for such purposes as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission. Any unexpended balance of such sum or sums so deposited shall be returned to the utility depositing the same: Provided, That the amount expended by the commission in any valuation or rate case shall not exceed one-half of 1 per centum of the existing valuation of the company investigated, and that the amount expended in all other investigations shall not exceed one-tenth of 1 per centum of the existing valuation for any one company for any one year. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 42; Mar. 3, 1927, 44 Stat. 1351, ch. 304; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 43-711 provides as follows: "If any provisions of §§ 43-412, 43-704 to 43-711 or the application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity of the remainder of said sections and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby."

AMENDMENTS

The act of Mar. 3, 1927, 44 Stat. 1351, ch. 304, added paragraph 42a.

The act of Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 3, struck out both paragraphs 42 and 42a and inserted in lieu thereof a new paragraph 42, reading as above.

The 1935 amendment added the following: "and all expenses of any litigation, including appeals, arising from any such investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding, or from any order or action of the said commission."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FRANCHISE TAX

The application of the rule of assessment provided for in this section does not impose an unconstitutional burden upon the utilities company.

PAYMENT OF EXPENSES

Later statute requiring utility to bear expenses of investigation or revaluation by Public Utilities Commission prevails over a previous statute which requires a utility to pay expenses only where utility is at fault. Washington R. & Elec. Co. v. District of Columbia (64 App. D. C. 243, 77 Fed. (2d) 366).

§ 43-413 [26: 66]. Separate hearings on complaints—Complaints not to be dismissed because of absence of direct damage.

The commission may, in its discretion, when complaint is made of more than one rate or charge, order separate hearings thereon, and may consider and determine the several matters complained of separately and at such times as it may prescribe. No complaint shall of necessity at any time be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 43.)

§ 43-414 [26: 67]. Summary investigation.

Whenever the commission shall believe that any rate or charge may be unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory, or that any reasonable service is not supplied, or that an investigation of any matter relating to any public utility should for any reason be made, it may, on its own motion, summarily investigate the same with or without notice. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 44.)

§ 43-415 [26: 68]. Hearings after summary investigation.

If after making such investigation the commission becomes satisfied that sufficient grounds exist to warrant a formal hearing being ordered as to the matters so investigated, it shall furnish such public utility interested a statement notifying the public utility of the matters under investigation. Ten days after such notice has been given the commission may proceed to set a time and place for a hearing and an investigation as hereinbefore provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 45.)

§ 43-416 [26: 69]. Notice of hearing—Hearing to be conducted as though complaint had been filed.

Notice of the time and place for such hearing shall be given to the public utility and to such other in-interested persons as the commission shall deem necessary, as provided in section 43-410, and thereafter proceedings shall be had and conducted in reference to the matter investigated in like manner as though complaint had been filed with the commission relative to the matter investigated, and the same order or orders may be made in reference thereto as if such investigation had been made on complaint. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 46.)

§ 43-417 [26: 70]. Utility may make complaint.

Any public utility may make complaint as to any matter affecting its own product or service with like effect as though made by the commissioner or upon reasonable complaint as hereinbefore provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 47.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 43-418 [26: 71]. Commissioners and agents may administer oaths, issue subpoenas—Proceeding to punish for contempt.

Each of the commissioners and every agent provided for in section 43-406, for the purposes mentioned in chapters 1-10 of this title, shall have power to administer oaths, certify to official acts, issue subpoenas, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, accounts, papers, records, documents, and testimony. In case of disobedience on the part of any person or persons to comply with any order of the commission or any commissioner, or any subpoena, or on the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may be interrogated before the commission or its agent authorized, it shall be the duty of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or a judge thereof, on application of a commissioner, to compel obedience by attachment proceedings for contempt, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 984, ch. 150, § 8, par. 48.)

§ 43-419 [26: 72]. Witness fees.

Each witness who shall appear before the commission or its agent by its order shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage provided for witnesses in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia on March 4, 1913, which shall be audited and paid in the same manner as fees in criminal cases within the District of Columbia are audited and paid, upon the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witnesses and approved by the chairman of the commission. No witnesses subpoenaed at the instance of parties other than the commission shall be entitled to compensation for attendance or travel unless the commission shall certify that his testimony was material to the matter investigated, and that his attendance as a witness was reasonably necessary. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 49.)

§ 43-420 [26: 73]. Testimony may be taken by deposition.

The commission or any party may, in any investigation, cause the depositions of witnesses residing within or without the District of Columbia to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in District Courts. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 50.)

§ 43-421 [26: 74]. Record of proceedings to be kept—Testimony to be taken stenographically.

A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings had before the commission or its agents on any formal investigation had, and all testimony shall be taken down by a stenographer appointed by the commission. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 51.)

§ 43-422 [26: 76]. Transcript of evidence or proceedings, certified by stenographer, to be received in evidence—Copy of transcript to be furnished without cost.

A transcribed copy of the evidence and proceedings, or any specific part thereof, in any investigation taken by a stenographer appointed by the commission, being certified by such stenographer to be a true and correct transcript of all the testimony in the investigation or of a particular witness, or of other specific part thereof, carefully compared by him with his original notes, and to be a correct statement of the evidence and proceedings had in such investigation so purporting to be taken and transcribed, shall be received in evidence with the same effect as if such reporter were present and testified to the fact so certified. A copy of such transcript shall be furnished on demand, free of cost, to any party to such investigation. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 53.)

§ 43-501 [26: 77]. Assignment of franchise—Acquisition of stocks and bonds of competing utilities.

No franchise nor any right to or under any franchise to own or operate any public utility as defined in chapters 1-10 of this title or to use the tracks of any street railroad shall be assigned, transferred, or leased, nor shall any contract or agreement with reference to or affecting any such franchise or right be valid or of any force or effect whatsoever unless the assignment, transfer, lease, contract, or agreement shall have been approved by the commission in writing. The permission and approval of the commission to the assignment, transfer, or lease of a franchise under this section shall not be construed to revive or validate any lapsed or invalid franchise or to enlarge or add to the powers and privileges contained in the grant of any franchise or to waive any forfeiture. It shall be unlawful for any street railroad corporation, gas corporation, electric corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, or other public utility corporation, directly or indirectly, to acquire the stock or bonds of any other corporation incorporated for or engaged in the same or similar business as it is, unless authorized in writing to do so by the commission, and every contract, transfer, agreement for transfer or assignment of any such stock or bonds without such written authority shall be void and of no effect. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 985, ch. 150, § 8, par. 54.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PURCHASE OF OTHER COMPANIES

Under authority of this paragraph, the Washington Gas Light Company was granted permission by the Public Utilities Commission to purchase the stocks and bonds of various other gas-light companies. Washington Gas Light Co. v. Dann (63 App. D. C. 142, 70 Fed. (2d) 746).

§ 43-502 [26: 78]. Antimerger law.

It shall be unlawful for any foreign public utility corporation, or for any foreign or local holding corporation, or for any local street railroad corporation, gas corporation, electric corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, or any other local public utility corporation, directly or indirectly, to own, control, or hold or vote stock or bonds of any public utility corporation organized under any general incorporation law or special act of the United States or authorized under any law of the United States to do business in the District of Columbia, except as heretofore or hereafter expressly authorized by Congress; and it shall be unlawful for any public utility corporation organized or authorized as aforesaid to sell or transfer any portion of its stock or bonds to any other public utility corporation or holding corporation whatsoever, unless heretofore or hereafter expressly authorized by Congress so to do; and every contract, transfer, agreement to transfer, or assignment by any said public utility corporation organized or authorized as aforesaid of any portion of its stock or bonds without such authority shall be utterly void and of no effect. The District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, on application of the District of Columbia by its commissioners or attorney, or on application of the United States by its proper officer, or on application of any shareholder interested in any such corporations, shall have jurisdiction in equity to dissolve any public utility corporation organized under any general incorporation law or special section of the United States, or authorized under any law of the United States to do business in the District of Columbia, for violation of any of the provisions of this section or of their charters; and further, to require any foreign public utility corporation, or foreign or local holding corporation which owns, holds, or controls, or which shall hereafter own, hold, or control any such stock or bonds contrary to any of the provisions of this section, to sell or dispose of the same and to refrain from voting such stock or bonds: Provided, That in case the allegations in any bill filed in said court relate to the ownership of stock or bonds of a local corporation by any foreign corporation, then it must be shown to the satisfaction of the court that such ownership includes at least twenty per centum of the capital stock of the local corporation.

The inhibitions and restrictions contained in this section are hereby removed, so far and only so far, as they affect the acquisition by any corporation of the stocks or bonds of any of the corporations referred to in section 43-503: Provided, Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this paragraph of this section.

The word "foreign" when used in this section shall be construed to mean foreign to the District of Columbia, and the word "local" when used in this section shall be construed to mean local in the District of Columbia.

Each provision of this section and every part of each provision is hereby declared to be an independent provision, and the holding of any provision or provisions, or part or parts thereof, to be void, ineffective, or unconstitutional for any cause shall not be deemed to affect any other provision or part thereof. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 1006, ch. 150, § 11; Mar. 4, 1925, 43 Stat. 1265, ch. 527, §§ 2, 3.)

AMENDMENT

Act of 1925 provides that the inhibitions and restrictions in this section are thereby removed so far, and only so far, as they affect the acquisition by any corporation of the stocks or bonds of any of the corporations approved by Public Utilities Commission. Congress also reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this act or any provision thereof.

COMPILER'S NOTE

The word "section" in the second sentence of the first paragraph is undoubtedly a misprint for "Act."

Any or all of the street railway companies operating in the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to merge or consolidate, either by purchase or lease by one company of the properties, and/or stocks or securities of any of the others, or by the formation of a new corporation to acquire the properties and/or stocks or securities and to succeed to the powers and obligations of each or any of said companies under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by a vote of a majority in amount of the stock of the respective corporations and as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no merger of said companies shall be finally consummated until the same is approved by a joint resolution of Congress. Such new corporation shall be incorporated under the provisions of chapter 2 of title 29 of this Code, as far as applicable, with issues of stock at a stated par value and/or of no par value, as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission. Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this section or any provision thereof. (Mar. 4, 1925, 43 Stat. 1265, ch. 527, §§ 1, 3.)

STREETCAR MERGER

Paragraph "Second" of the preamble of the joint resolution to authorize merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, approved January 14, 1933, was amended to read as follows by act February 16, 1933, 47 Stat. 819, ch. 94, § 1:

"Second. The New Company shall be incorporated under the provisions of subchapter IV of chapter XVIII of the Code of Law of the District of Columbia and pursuant to an act of Congress entitled 'An Act to permit the merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes', approved March 4, 1925, with power subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission to acquire, construct, own, and operate directly transit properties within the District of Columbia and either directly or through subsidiaries in adjacent States, including the power to acquire, own, and operate the properties to be conveyed to the New Company in accordance with this agreement, and to acquire and own the stock and/or bonds of said companies and of any other company or companies engaged in the transportation of passengers by street railway or bus in the District of Columbia and adjacent States with the power to mortgage its property rights, and franchises, and to conduct such other activities as may be useful or necessary in connection with or incident to the foregoing purposes, including the power to buy, sell, hold, own, and convey real estate within and without the District of Columbia. Said New Company when incorporated shall become and remain subject in all respects to regulation by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia or its successors to the extent of the jurisdiction now or hereafter vested in it or them by law over corporations engaged in the transportation of passengers by street railway or bus within the District of Columbia: Provided, That before they are recorded, the articles of incorporation and/or any amendments thereto shall be approved by the Public Utilities Commission."

Chapter 6.—GAS AND ELECTRIC CORPORATIONS

Sec.

- 43-601. Public Utilities Commission—General powers.
- 43-602. Approval of construction of gas or electric plant.
- 43-603. Inspectors of gas and electric meters—Inspection of meters—Commission to make rules and regulations.
- 43-604. Excessive charges to defeat suit to collect for gas or electricity furnished.
- 43-605. Appointment and removal of inspectors and assistant inspectors of gas and meters.
- 43-606. Inspector of gas and meters to transfer books to commission.

§ 43-601 [26: 80]. Public Utilities Commission—General powers.

The commission shall, within its jurisdiction—

Have general supervision of all gas corporations and electrical corporations having authority under any general or special law or under any charter or franchise to lay down, erect, or maintain wires, pipes, conduits, ducts, or other fixtures in, over, or under the streets, highways, and public places in the District of Columbia for the purpose of furnishing or distributing gas or of furnishing or transmitting electricity for light, heat, or power, or maintaining underground conduits or ducts for electrical conductors, and all gas plants and electric plants owned, leased, or operated by any corporation.

Investigate and ascertain, from time to time, the quality and quantity of gas supplied by persons or corporations; examine or investigate the methods employed by such persons and corporations in manufacturing, distributing, and supplying gas or electricity for light, heat, or power, and in transmitting the same, and have power to order such reasonable improvements as will reasonably promote the public interest, preserve the public health, and protect those using such gas or electricity and those employed in the manufacture and distribution thereof or in the manufacture and operation of the works, wires, poles, lines, conduits, ducts, and systems connected therewith, and have power to order reasonable improvements and extensions of the works, wires, poles, lines, conduits, ducts, and other reasonable devices, apparatus, and property of gas corporations and electrical corporations.

Have power by order to fix from time to time standards for determining the purity or the measurement of the illuminating power of gas to be manufactured, distributed, or sold by persons or corporations for lighting, heating, or power purposes, and to prescribe from time to time the efficiency of the electric supply system, of the current supplied, and of the lamps furnished by the persons or corporations generating and selling electric current, and by order to require the gas so manufactured, distributed, or sold to equal the standards so fixed by it, and to prescribe from time to time the reasonable minimum and maximum pressure at which gas shall be delivered by said persons or corporations. For the purpose of determining whether the gas manufactured, distributed, or sold by such persons or corporations for lighting, heating, or power purposes conforms to the standards of illuminating power, purity, and pressure, and for the purpose of determining whether the efficiency of the electric supply system, of the current supplied, and of the lamps furnished conforms to the orders issued by the commission, the commission shall have power, of its own motion, to examine and investigate the plants and methods employed in manufacturing, delivering, and supplying gas or electricity, and shall have access, through its members or persons employed and authorized by it to make such examinations and investigations, to all parts of the manufacturing plants owned, used, or operated for the manufacture, transmission, or distribution of gas or electricity by any such person or corporation. Any employee or agent of the commission who divulges any fact or information which may come to his knowledge during the course of any such inspection or examination, except in so far as he may be directed by the commission, or by a court or judge thereof, or authorized by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each offense. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 986, ch. 150, § 8, par. 55.)

The commission shall appoint inspectors of gas meters, whose duty it shall be, when required by the commission, to inspect, examine, prove, and ascertain the accuracy of any and all gas meters used or intended to be used for measuring or ascertaining the quantity of gas for light, heat, or power furnished by any person or corporation to or for the use of any person or corporation, and when found to be or made to be correct, the inspector shall seal all such meters and each of them with some suitable device, which device shall be recorded in the office of the commission.

No corporation or person shall furnish, set, or put in use any gas meter which shall not have been inspected, proved, and sealed by an inspector of the commission.

The commission shall appoint inspectors of electric meters, whose duty it shall be, when required by the commission, to inspect, examine, and ascertain the accuracy of any and all electric meters used or intended to be used for measuring and ascertaining the quantity of electric current furnished for light, heat, or power by any person or corporation to or for the use of any person or corporation, and to inspect, examine, and ascertain the accuracy of all apparatus for testing and proving the accuracy of electric meters; and when found to be or made to be correct the inspector shall stamp or mark all such meters and apparatus with some suitable device, which device shall be recorded in the office of the commission. No corporation or person shall furnish, set, or put in use any electric meter the type of which shall not have been approved by the commission or any meter not approved by an inspector of the commission.

Every gas corporation and electrical corporation shall provide, repair, and maintain such suitable premises and apparatus and facilities as may be required and approved by the commission for testing and proving the accuracy of gas and electric meters furnished for use by it, and by which apparatus every meter may be tested.

If any consumer to whom a meter has been furnished shall request the commission in writing to inspect such meter, the commission shall have the same inspected and tested; if the same, on being so tested, shall be found to be more than two per centum defective or incorrect to the prejudice of the consumer, the inspector shall order the gas or electrical corporation forthwith to remove the same and to place instead a correct meter, and the expense of such inspection and test shall be borne by the corporation; if the same, on being so tested, shall be found to be correct, the expense of such inspection and test shall be borne by the consumer.

The commission shall prescribe such rules and regulations to carry into effect the provisions of this section as it may deem necessary and shall fix uniform reasonable charges for the inspection and testing of meters upon complaint. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 987, ch. 150, § 8, par. 57; Apr. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 568, ch. 38.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "four per centum, if an electric meter, or more than" in the fifth paragraph following the word "than" the first time it appears; and deleted the words "if a gas meter" following the words "two per centum" where they appear in said paragraph.

A suitable and impartial person, competent as a chemist, who is not a stockholder or employee in any gas works, shall be appointed by the Public Utilities Commission to be designated and known as inspector of gas and meters, whose duties shall be to test and determine the illuminating power and purity of the gas furnished by any company, person, or persons in the District of Columbia; and to test, prove, and seal all meters that may be hereafter used by them. The inspector shall give bond to the extent of double his annual salary, and shall take an oath or affirmation, before some officer legally qualified to administer the same, that he will faithfully, diligently, and impartially discharge the duties of his office. The appointment and power to remove the inspector of gas and meters and assistant inspectors of gas and meters from office is hereby vested in the commission. All the powers and duties of such inspectors conferred and imposed by statute shall be exercised and performed under the supervision and control of the commission. (June 23, 1874, 18 Stat. 278, 279, ch. 480, §§ 2, 10; Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 987, ch. 150, § 8, par. 59.)

AMENDMENT

The 1913 amendment added the last two sentences.

- 43-709. Authority of Commission to rescind its order after appeal is filed.
- 43-710. Method of review exclusive.
- 43-711. Saving clause.
- 43-712. Production of incriminating evidence compellable, immunity from prosecution.
- 43-713. Commission to furnish certified copies of orders.

§ 43-701 [26: 86]. Schedules to conform to orders of commission—Changes in schedules to be first approved by Commission.

All public utilities to which an order of the commission applies shall make such changes in their schedules on file as may be necessary to make the same conform to said order, and no change shall thereafter be made by any public utility in any such rates, tolls, or charges, or in any joint rate or rates, without the approval of the commission. Certified copies of all other orders of the commission shall be delivered to the public utility affected thereby in like manner, and the same shall take effect within such reasonable time thereafter as the commission shall prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 988, ch. 150, § 8, par. 61.)

§ 43-703 [26: 88]. Rates to be in force and to be prima facie reasonable.

All rates, tolls, charges, time and condition of payment thereof, schedules, and joint rates fixed by the commission shall be in force and shall be prima facie reasonable until finally found otherwise in an action brought for that purpose. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 988, ch. 150, § 8, par. 63.)

§ 43-704 [26: 89]. Application to District Court for instructions—Application for reconsideration.

If at any time the commission shall be in doubt of the elements of value to be by them considered in arriving at the true valuation under the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title, they are authorized and empowered to institute a proceeding in equity in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia petitioning said court to instruct them as to the element or elements of value to be by them considered as aforesaid, and the particular utility under valuation at the time shall be made party defendant in said action.

Any public utility or any other person or corporation affected by any final order or decision of the commission may, within thirty days after the publication thereof, file with the commission an application in writing requesting a reconsideration of the matters involved, and stating specifically the errors claimed as grounds for such reconsideration. No public utility or other person or corporation shall in any court urge or rely on any ground not so set forth in said application. The commission, within thirty days after the filing of such application, shall either grant or deny it. Failure by the commission to act upon such application within such period shall be deemed a denial thereof. If such application be granted, the commission, after giving notice thereof to all interested parties, shall, either with or without hearing, rescind, modify, or affirm its order or decision. The filing of such an application shall act as a stay upon the execution of the order or decision of the Commission until the final action of the Commission upon the application: Provided, That upon written consent of the utility such order or decision shall not be stayed unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. No appeal shall lie from any order of the Commission unless an application for reconsideration shall have been first made and determined. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 988, ch. 150, § 8, par. 64; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 882, ch. 742, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The act of 1935 has completely reworded the provisions of this section for a reconsideration of a final order of the Commission, and omitted reference to precedence over other civil causes, and to liability for costs.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AGREEMENT NOT TO RESELL PRODUCT

Utility may require agreement from user not to remeter and resell current. Lewis v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (62 App. D. C. 63, 64 Fed. (2d) 701).

COMPLAINT AND HEARING

A formal complaint and hearing before the Commission are not necessary conditions precedent to a suit in equity. Hollis v. Kutz (255 U. S. 452, 65 L. Ed. 727, 41 Sup. Ct. 371, affg. 49 App. D. C. 301, 265 Fed. 451).

COSTS ON APPEAL

Appeal taken by the Public Utilities Commission from the order of the District Court of the United States for the District in a rate case was an administrative proceeding and the costs of printing the record and the brief of the Commission upon the appeal were expenses of the proceeding, although the appeal wherein these expenses were incurred was dismissed as a result of changed conditions. Washington R. & Elec. Co. v. District of Columbia (64 App. D. C. 243, 77 Fed. (2d) 366).

LEGISLATIVE INTENT

Congress intended that the court shall revise the legislative discretion of the Commission by considering the evidence and full record of the case and entering the order it deems the Commission ought to have made. Keller v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (261 U. S. 428, 67 L. Ed. 731, 43 Sup. Ct. 445).

§ 43-705 [26: 89a]. Appeal to District Court from certain orders—Precedence over other civil causes—Proceeding when additional evidence proper—Statement to accompany decision—Subsequent appeals—Commission not liable for costs or damages.

The District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any appeal from an order or decision of the Commission. Any public utility or any other person or corporation affected by any final order or decision of the Commission, other than an order fixing or determining the value of the property of a public utility in a proceeding solely for that purpose, may, within sixty days after final action by the Commission upon the petition for reconsideration, file with the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia a petition of appeal setting forth the reasons for such appeal and the relief sought; at the same time such appellant shall file with the Commission notice in writing of the appeal together with a copy of the petition. Within twenty days of the receipt of such notice of appeal the Commission shall file with the clerk of the said court the record, including a transcript of all proceedings had and testimony taken before the Commission, duly certified, upon which the said order or decision of the Commission was based, together with a statement of its findings of fact and conclusions upon the said record, and a copy of the application for reconsideration and the orders entered thereon: Provided, That the parties, with the consent and approval of the Commission, may stipulate in writing that only certain portions of the record be transcribed and transmitted. Within this period the Commission or any other interested party shall answer, demur, or otherwise move or plead. Thereupon the appeal shall be at issue and ready for hearing. All such proceedings shall have precedence over any civil cause of a different nature pending in said court, and the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia shall always be deemed open for the hearing thereof. Any such appeal shall be heard upon the record before the Commission, and no new or additional evidence shall be received by the said court. The said court, or any justice or justices thereof, before whom any such appeal shall be heard, may require and direct the Commission to receive additional evidence upon any subject related to the issues on said appeal concerning which evidence was improperly excluded in the hearing before the Commission or upon which the record may contain no substantial evidence. Upon receipt of such requirement and direction the Commission shall receive such evidence and without unreasonable delay shall transmit to the said court the findings of fact made thereon by the Commission and the conclusions of the Commission upon the said facts.

Upon the conclusion of its hearing of any such appeal the court shall either dismiss the said appeal and affirm the order or decision of the Commission or sustain the appeal and vacate the Commission's order or decision. In either event the court shall accompany its order by a statement of its reasons for its action, and in the case of the vacation of an order or decision of the Commission the statement shall relate the particulars in and the extent to which such order or decision was defective.

Any party, including said Commission, may appeal from the order or decree of said court to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, which shall thereupon have and take jurisdiction in every such appeal. Thereafter the Supreme Court of the United States may, upon a petition for certiorari granted in its discretion, review the said case.

Said Commission shall not, nor shall any of its members, officers, agents, or employees, be taxed with any costs, nor shall they or any of them be required to give any supersedeas bond or security for costs or damages on any appeal whatsoever. Said Commission, or any of its members, officers, agents, or employees, shall not be liable to suit or action or for any judgment or decree for any damages, loss, or injury claimed by any public utility or person, nor required in any case to make any deposit for costs or pay for any service to the clerks of any court or to the marshal of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 65; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 882, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

This section was substituted by the 1935 act for paragraph 65 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided as follows:

"That every proceeding, action, or suit to set aside, vacate, or amend any determination or order of the Commission, or to enjoin the enforcement thereof, or to prevent in any way any such order or determination from becoming effective shall be commenced, and every appeal to the courts or right of recourse to the courts shall be taken or exercised, within one hundred and twenty [120] days after the entry or rendition of such order or determination, and the right to commence any such action, proceeding, or suit, or to take or exercise any such appeal or right of recourse to the courts, shall terminate absolutely at the end of such one hundred and twenty days."

DECISION UNDER PRIOR LAW

Though the burden of proof was upon the party contesting a finding of the Commission, the court must exercise its own judgment where challenged for a mistake of law, failure of evidence or contrary to weight of evidence. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Public Utilities Comm. (51 App. D. C. 77, 276 Fed. 327).

JURISDICTION OF COURTS

Congress may vest in the courts of the District power to review the discretion of a Public Utilities Commission fixing rates for a public service corporation, and enter the order which they deem the commission should have made. Keller v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (261 U. S. 428, 67 L. Ed. 731, 43 Sup. Ct. 445).

VALIDITY

A section of the statute providing for review is not rendered wholly void by the inclusion in it of an invalid provision for ultimate appeal to the Supreme Court. Keller v. Potomac Elec. Power Co. (261 U. S. 428, 67 L. Ed. 731, 43 Sup. Ct. 445).

§ 43-706 [26: 89b]. Appeal limited to questions of law.

In the determination of any appeal from an order or decision of the Commission the review by the court shall be limited to questions of law, including constitutional questions; and the findings of fact by the Commission shall be conclusive unless it shall appear that such findings of the Commission are unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 66; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 883, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1935 amendment inserted the above section in lieu of paragraph 66 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided as follows: "That no injunction shall issue suspending or staying any order of the commission, except upon application to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia or a judge thereof, and only upon notice to the commission and after hearing had."

§ 43-707 [26: 89c]. Orders to remain in force pending appeal—Suspension of order.

All orders and decisions of the Commission shall remain in full effect, except as provided in section 43-704 hereof, unless and until they are suspended, superseded, or rescinded by the Commission or are vacated by lawful order of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia: Provided, That if in any petition made to the said court appealing from an order or decision of the Commission it be alleged that substantial and irreparable property loss would be occasioned to the petitioner by the operation of the said order pending the determination of the said appeal, the court shall set a time and place for hearing upon the said allegation after not less than three days' notice to the Commission (during which period the execution of the order or decision shall be stayed), and the said court may then, upon a clear showing of the irreparable and substantial property loss as alleged, suspend the effective date of the said order. No such suspension shall be for a greater period than sixty days without further order after notice or hearing by the court. In the event of the issuance of an order suspending the operation of any order of the Commission, the court may include therein such provision as it deems advisable for the preservation of records or accounts and the impounding or otherwise securing of moneys necessary to give effect to the order of the Commission in the event the said order is sustained. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 67; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1935 amendment substituted the above section for paragraph 67 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided the procedure formerly followed upon introduction of new evidence.

§ 43-708 [26: 89d]. Certification of question to United States Court of Appeals.

The District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or any justice thereof before whom an appeal from an order of the Commission is pending, may certify to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia any questions or propositions of law concerning which instructions are desired for the proper disposition of the appeal; and thereupon the Court of Appeals may either give binding instructions on the questions and propositions certified or may require that the entire record in the cause be sent up for its consideration, and thereupon shall decide the whole matter in controversy in the same manner as if it had been brought there by writ of error or appeal. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 68; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1913 act substituted the above section for paragraph 68 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which provided procedure formerly followed when the Commission rescinded, altered, modified, or amended its order.

§ 43-709 [26: 89e]. Authority of Commission to rescind its order after appeal is filed.

The Commission may at any time, rescind, alter, modify, or amend its order. If, after appeal is filed, the Commission shall rescind the order or decision appealed from, the appeal shall be dismissed; if it shall alter, modify, or amend the same, such altered, modified, or amended order or decision shall take the place of the original order and the court shall proceed thereon as though the late order had been made by the Commission in the first instance. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 69; Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1913 act substituted the above section for paragraph 69 of § 8 of the 1913 act, which fixed the burden of proof on the party adverse to the Commission.

CROSS REFERENCE

Amendment or revocation of orders, § 43-702 and notes.

§ 43-710 [26: 89f]. Method of review exclusive.

The method of review of the orders and decisions of the Commission provided by paragraphs 43-704 to 43-709, herein, shall be exclusive. (Mar. 4, 1913, ch.

150, § 8, par. 69a, as added Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 884, ch. 742, § 2.)

§ 43-711 [26: 89g]. Saving clause.

If any provisions of sections 43-412, 43-704 to 43-711 or the application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity of the remainder of said sections and of the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 885, ch. 742, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 5 of the act of 1935 provided as follows:

"No proceeding or litigation, except a proceeding involving solely the valuation of the property of any public utility, pending in any court in the District of Columbia on August 27, 1935, shall be affected by any of the provisions hereof."

CROSS REFERENCE

Saving clauses generally, §§ 40-1005, 40-1006.

§ 43-712 [26: 95]. Production of incriminating evidence compellable, immunity from prosecution.

No person shall be excused from testifying or from producing books, accounts, and papers in any proceeding based upon or growing out of any violation of the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title, on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture; but no person having so testified shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he may have testified or produced any documentary evidence: Provided, That no person so testifying shall be exempted from prosecution or punishment for perjury: Provided further, That the immunity hereby conferred shall extend only to a natural person who, in obedience to a subpoena, gives testimony under oath or produces evidence, documentary or otherwise, under oath. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 989, ch. 150, § 8, par. 70.)

Upon application of any person the commission shall furnish certified copies, under the seal of the commission, of any order made by it, which shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 990, ch. 150, § 8, par. 71.)

Chapter 8.—ISSUANCE OF SECURITIES

Sec.

- 43-801. Creation of liens on property of utilities—Supervision by Commission.
- 43-802. Certificate of Commission showing authority to issue stocks to be obtained.
- 43-803. Stocks not to be issued until certificate is recorded.
- 43-804. Stock dividends prohibited.
- 43-805. Issue of stocks for purpose of reorganization or consolidation—Approval of consolidation by Commission.
- 43-806. Application of proceeds of stock.
- 43-807. Stock to be void unless law is complied with.
- 43-808. Penalty for improper issuance or application of stock or proceeds.

§ 43-801 [26: 97]. Creation of liens on property of utilities—Supervision by Commission.

The power to create liens on corporate property by public utilities in the District of Columbia is hereby declared to be a special privilege, the right of supervision, regulation, restriction, and control of which is hereby vested in the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia, and such power shall be exercised according to the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title. ## NOTES TO DECISIONS

CASH DEPOSIT

Utility may require cash deposit from customers unable to establish financial responsibility. Riegel v. Public Utilities Comm. (60 App. D. C. 111, 48 Fed. (2d) 1023).

§ 43-903 [26: 107]. Less than rates not to be charged in consideration of consumer furnishing equipment—Exceptions.

It shall be unlawful for any public utility to demand, charge, collect, or receive from any person, firm, or corporation less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered by said public utility in consideration of the furnishing by said person, firm, or corporation of any part of the facilities incident thereto: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any public utility from renting any facilities incident to the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light, water, or power, or the supply of any liquid, steam, or air, through pipes or tubing, or the conveyance of telegraph or telephone messages, and paying a reasonable rental therefor; or as requiring any public utility to furnish any part of such appliances which are situated in and upon the premises of any consumer or user, except telephone station equipment upon the subscriber's premises, and, unless otherwise ordered by the commission, meters, and appliances for measurements of any product or service. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 991, ch. 150, § 8, par. 82.)

§ 43-904 [26: 108]. Rebates prohibited—Penalty.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to solicit, accept, or receive any rebate, concession, or discrimination in respect to any service in or affecting or relating to any public utility or the production, transmission, delivery, or furnishing of heat, light, water, or power, or any liquid, steam, or air, or the conveying of telegraph or telephone messages within the District of Columbia, or for any service in connection therewith whereby any such service shall, by any device whatsoever or otherwise, be rendered free or at a less rate than that named in the schedules and tariffs in force as provided in this section, or whereby any service or advantage is received other than is in this section specified. Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000 for each offense. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 991, ch. 150, § 8, par. 83.)

§ 43-905 [26: 109]. Penalties for failing or refusing to furnish information, for furnishing false information, for failing to keep proper accounts.

Any officer, agent, or employee of any public utility who shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks, as required by chapters 1-10 of this title, or shall fail or refuse to answer any question therein propounded, or shall knowingly or wilfully give a false answer to any such question, or shall evade the answer to any such question where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or who shall, upon proper demand, fail or refuse to exhibit to the commission or any commissioner or any person authorized to examine the same, any book, paper, account, record, or memoranda of such public utility which is in his possession or under his control, or who shall fail to properly use and keep his system of accounting, or any part thereof, as prescribed by the commission under chapters 1-10 of this title, or who shall refuse to do any act or thing in connection with such system of accounting when so directed by the commission or its authorized representative shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000 for each offense, and a penalty of not less than $500 nor more than $2,000 shall, on conviction, be imposed on the public utility for each such offense when such officer, agent, or employee acted in obedience to the direction, construction, or request of such public utility or any general officer thereof. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 992, ch. 150, § 8, par. 84.)

§ 43-906 [26: 110]. Penalty for failure or refusal to perform duty enjoined or to obey order of commission.

If any public utility shall violate any provision of chapters 1-10 of this title, or shall do any act herein prohibited, or shall fail or refuse to perform any duty enjoined upon it for which a penalty has not been provided, or shall fail, neglect, or refuse to obey any lawful requirement or order made by the commission, or any judgment or decree made by any court upon its application, for every such violation, failure, or refusal such public utility shall forfeit and pay to the District of Columbia the sum of $200 for each such offense. In construing and enforcing the provisions of this section, the act, omission, or failure of any officer, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any public utility acting within the scope of his employment and instructions shall in every case be deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such public utility. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 992, ch. 150, § 8, par. 85.)

Chapter 10.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.

- 43-1001. Utilities to report to Commission accidents upon their premises—Commission may investigate.
- 43-1002. Commission to inquire into neglect or violation of law and have power to enforce all laws affecting utilities.
- 43-1003. Chapters to be liberally construed—Saving clause.
- 43-1004. Number of directors of public utilities.
- 43-1005. Existing laws to remain in force.
- 43-1006. Action pending March 4, 1913, unaffected by chapters 1-10 of this title.
- 43-1007. Right of repeal reserved.

§ 43-1001 [26: 114]. Utilities to report to Commission accidents upon their premises—Commission may investigate.

Every public utility shall, whenever an accident attended with loss of human life or personal injury without loss of human life occurs within the District of Columbia, upon its premises, or directly or indirectly arising from or connected with its maintenance or operation, give immediate notice thereof to the commission. In the event of any such accident, the commission, if it deem the public interest requires it, shall cause an investigation to be made forthwith. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 992, ch. 150, § 8, par. 89.)

§ 43-1002 [26: 115]. Commission to inquire into neglect or violation of law and have power to enforce all laws affecting utilities.

The commission shall inquire into any neglect or violation of the laws or regulations in force in the District of Columbia by any public utility doing business therein, or by the officers, agents, or employees thereof, or by any person operating the plant of any public utility, and shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to enforce the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title as well as all other laws relating to public utilities. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 993, ch. 150, § 8, par. 90.)

CROSS REFERENCE

General provisions for enforcement of laws, rules and regulations, §§ 43-906 to 43-908.

§ 43-1003 [26: 118]. Chapters to be liberally construed—Saving clause.

The provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title shall be interpreted and construed liberally in order to accomplish the purposes thereof, and where any specific power or authority is given the commission by the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title the enumeration thereof shall not be held to exclude or impair any power or authority otherwise in chapters 1-10 of this title conferred on said commission. The commission hereby created shall have, in addition to the powers in chapters 1-10 of this title specified, mentioned, and indicated all additional, implied, and incidental power which may be proper and necessary to effect and carry out, perform, and execute all the said powers herein specified, mentioned, and indicated. A substantial compliance with the requirements of chapters 1-10 of this title shall be sufficient to give effect to all the rules, orders, acts, and regulations of the commission, and they shall not be declared inoperative, illegal, or void for any omission of a technical nature in respect thereto. That each section of chapters 1-10 of this title, and every part of each section, are hereby declared to be independent sections and the holding of any section or sections or part or parts thereof to be void, ineffective, or unconstitutional for any cause shall not be deemed to affect any other section or part thereof. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 993, ch. 150, § 8, par. 92.)

§ 43-1004 [26: 131]. Number of directors of public utilities.

The Board of Directors of every public utility shall consist of not more than fifteen nor less than seven members, within which limitation the membership may be in any case increased or diminished, as the stockholders may from time to time determine. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 996, ch. 150, § 8, par. 100.)

§ 43-1005 [26: 132]. Existing laws to remain in force.

Except as modified or changed by chapters 1-10 of this title and until modified or changed under its provisions, all charters, statutes, laws, ordinances, and regulations in force on March 4, 1913, shall remain and continue to be in full force and effect until altered, amended, or repealed according to law: Provided, That all charters, statutes, acts, and parts of acts, laws, ordinances, and regulations enacted prior to March 4, 1913, inconsistent and repugnant to the provisions of chapters 1-10 of this title, and only so far as inconsistent and repugnant thereto, are hereby repealed. (Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 996, ch. 150, § 8, par. 101.)

Chapter 11.—ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER COMPANIES—SPECIAL ACTS

Sec.

- 43-1101. Extension of overhead wires in Georgetown—Extension of underground conduits in Mount Pleasant.
- 43-1102. Conduits and overhead wires for electric lighting prohibited in streets—House connections authorized.
- 43-1103. Certain existing conduits and overhead wires legalized.
- 43-1104. Electric-lighting wires west of Rock Creek.
- 43-1105. Electric-lighting wires east of Rock Creek.
- 43-1106. Permits for repair, extension, and enlargement of conduits.
- 43-1107. Extension of conduits—Ducts for use of fire and police wires—Maximum price of current—Additional charge for nonpayment of bills.
- 43-1108. Use of conduits of Washington Railway and Electric Company by Potomac Electric Power Company.
- 43-1109. Annual reports to Congress.

§ 43-1101 [26: 172]. Extension of overhead wires in Georgetown—Extension of underground conduits in Mount Pleasant.

The said commissioners may authorize any electric light company existing June 11, 1896, to construct and use under such regulations as the commissioners may fix conduits for the reception of overhead wires existing on said date within the territory formerly known as Georgetown, and to extend the same by an aggregate of not more than one and one-fourth miles of conduit in the same territory. And the United States Electric Lighting Company may extend its underground conduits and wires east of Rock Creek and within the fire limits to Mount Pleasant, and Washington and Columbia Heights under such regulations as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may prescribe. § 43-1103 [26: 174]. Certain existing conduits and overhead wires legalized.

All conduits existing on July 7, 1898, within the fire limits, and all overhead electric light wires existing on July 7, 1898, without the fire limits in the District of Columbia are hereby legalized until otherwise provided by law, and house connections may be made with such overhead electric light wires outside such fire limits. (July 7, 1898, 30 Stat. 664, ch. 571.)

§ 43-1104 [26: 175]. Electric-lighting wires west of Rock Creek.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to issue permits to electric light companies existing on July 8, 1898, in the District of Columbia for the extension of overhead electric wires existing on July 8, 1898, outside the fire limits and west of Rock Creek to be used for lighting purposes only. (July 8, 1898, 30 Stat. 753, Joint Res. No. 59.)

§ 43-1105 [26: 176]. Electric-lighting wires east of Rock Creek.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized, under conditions and regulations to be prescribed by them, to permit the erection of poles and the stringing of overhead wires thereon outside of the fire limits and east of Rock Creek for electric-lighting purposes only. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 602, ch. 1352.)

§ 43-1106 [26: 177]. Permits for repair, extension, and enlargement of conduits.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to grant permits for the repair, enlargement, and extension, under proper regulations, of electric-lighting conduits existing on June 6, 1900, and in every conduit constructed or to be constructed under the provisions of this section, three ducts shall be reserved for the use of the United States and the District of Columbia. (June 6, 1900, 31 Stat. 563, ch. 789.)

§ 43-1107 [26: 194]. Extension of conduits—Ducts for use of fire and police wires—Maximum price of current—Additional charge for nonpayment of bills.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to grant permits for the repair, enlargement, and extension, under proper regulations, of electric-lighting conduits existing on March 3, 1899, and in every conduit constructed or to be constructed under the provisions of this section, three ducts shall be reserved for the use of the United States and the District of Columbia. As a condition for the right to use conduits built prior to March 3, 1899, or built or to be built under the provisions of this section, the electric lighting companies shall be required at all times to furnish to the public and to private consumers in all parts of the District of Columbia standard arc lights of not less than one thousand actual candlepower, at a rate not exceeding seventy-two dollars per annum for each arc light. The maximum price of electric current sold or furnished to any consumer in the District of Columbia shall not exceed ten cents per kilowatt hour. If consumers other than the Government shall not pay monthly electric bills within ten days after the same shall have been presented, said companies may charge and collect from said consumer so failing to pay said bill as aforesaid eleven cents per kilowatt hour for the electric current furnished to said consumer during said month: And provided further, The right to amend, modify, or repeal the privileges granted in this section, and to further limit the prices herein specified, is hereby expressly reserved; any company charging or collecting an amount in excess of the rates prescribed in this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall pay to the District of Columbia the sum of fifty dollars for each and every offense, to be collected as other fines are collected in the District of Columbia. § 43-1302 [19: 122]. Refusal to remove conduits—Penalty.

On violation of any of the provisions or restrictions of section 43-1301 the said Commissioners shall require the permittee, after thirty days' notice, to abandon the use of said conduits or pipes and remove them from the alley or alleys in which they are located, and if said permittee shall neglect or refuse to remove said conduits or pipes and place the surface of the alley in good condition within sixty days after the date of said notice, the said permittee shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars for each and every day that said conduits or pipes are allowed to remain in the alley, or the said alley shall remain out of repair, which fine shall be recovered in the police court of said District, in the name of said District, as other fines and penalties are now recovered in said court. (May 26, 1900, 31 Stat. 218, ch. 587, § 2.)

Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 43-1301 and 43-1302. (May 26, 1900, 31 Stat. 218, ch. 587, § 3.)

§ 43-1304 [19: 130f]. Construction of tunnels and structures in Anacostia River.

The Secretary of War is authorized to permit the construction and operation of any intake and discharge tunnels and/or other structures in the Anacostia River in so far as they affect navigable waters of the United States; and the Director of National Park Service is authorized, in consideration of the above-mentioned quitclaims to the United States, to convey, on behalf of the United States, to the owners of square 667 that portion of square east of 667 lying west of the direct southerly projection of the west line of Half Street as existing on June 15, 1932, north of U Street southwest; and said Director of National Park Service is authorized to permit the construction and operation of any pipe lines and intake and discharge tunnels, upon such terms and conditions as shall be fair and reasonable, under and on any lands owned or claimed by the Government of the United States lying in the above area and/or between the east line of Water Street, or other streets, and the Anacostia River. All areas conveyed by the United States to the owners of square 667 shall thereafter be assessed on the books of the assessor of the District of Columbia the same in all respects as other private properties in the District of Columbia. (June 15, 1932, 47 Stat. 319, ch. 265, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital was changed to Director of National Parks, Buildings and Reservations by Ex. Or. No. 6166, June 10, 1933. This in turn was changed to Director of National Park Service by act of March 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1.

The following laws are not of general application and are deemed to be executed, but are set out as notes so as to make them available. They appeared in the Code of 1929 and Supplement. Sections 124 to 130V were in title 19, of the 1929 code. Sections 107, 107a, 107b and 107c were in title 20 of that code. They are set out as they appeared in that code, retaining the section number and wording.

§ 124. Certain conduits across E and F Streets, southwest, authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to issue a permit to the Terminal Refrigerating and Warehousing Corporation, its successors or assigns, for the laying of an underground conduit and pipes from square 328 across and under E Street southwest, to and into square 327; and traversing all public alleys in said square, and from square 328 across and under F Street southwest, to and into square 329, for refrigerating purposes, under the following conditions, namely: The conduit and pipes therein laid shall be laid in a straight direction at right angles to the building lines of said streets; they shall be located as directed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and be laid under their inspection and the cost of such inspection and the replacing of pavements, curbs, and sidewalks disturbed shall be paid by the parties to whom the permit shall be granted: Provided, That such conduit and pipes shall be used for no purpose other than refrigeration. Congress reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal this section. (Feb. 28, 1931, 46 Stat. 1459, ch. 344.)

§ 125. Pipe lines for use of Griffith-Consumers Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to grant permission to the Griffith-Consumers Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, the owner of square 661 in the city of Washington in the District of Columbia, said square being bounded on the north by R Street, on the south by S Street, on the east by Half Street, and on the west by First Street, its successors and assigns, to lay down, construct, maintain, and use not more than ten pipe lines for the carriage of petroleum and petroleum products from a point or points within said square 661, in and through R Street, due east to Half Street, east, and thence north on Half Street, east, to a point opposite lots 12 or 13 in square east of square 708 (through which said lots the said Griffith-Consumers Company on April 14, 1932, had an easement to run said pipe lines), thence through said lots or any other lots in said square east of square 708 which may be acquired by the said Griffith-Consumers Company or through which it may secure an easement, and to the pierhead line of the Anacostia River. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 1.)

§ 126. Same; regulation and rentals.—All the construction and use provided for in section 125 of this title shall be under such regulations and rentals as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may make and establish in connection therewith. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 2.)

§ 127. Same; title of United States not affected.—No permission granted or enjoyed under sections 125, 126 of this title shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within the above-mentioned streets or affect any right, title, or interest of the United States in or to land within square east of square 708. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 3.)

§ 128. Same; right of repeal reserved.—The Congress reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal sections 125-127 of this title at any time. (Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 99, § 4.)

§ 129. Pipe lines for use of Gulf Refining Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to grant permission to the Gulf Refining Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Texas and registered and doing business in the District of Columbia, to lay down, construct, maintain, and use not more than ten pipe lines for the carriage of petroleum and petroleum products from a point or points within square 662 in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, said square being bounded on the north by R Street, on the south by S Street, on the east by Water Street and South Capitol Street, and on the west by Half Street (west), in and through Water Street, South Capitol Street, in an easterly direction to lot 4 of square south of square 708, which lot is bounded on the north by lands of the Standard Oil Company, on the south by S Street, extended, on the east by Anacostia River, and on the west by South Capitol Street. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 1.)

§ 130. Same; regulation and rental.—All the construction and use provided for in section 129 of this title shall be in accordance with plans approved by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and under such regulations and rentals as the said commissioners may make and establish in connection herewith. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 2.)

§ 130a. Same; title of United States not affected.—No permission granted or enjoyed under sections 129 and 130 of this title shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within the above-mentioned streets, or affect any right, title, or interest of the United States in or to land within square south of square 708. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 3.)

§ 130b. Same; right of repeal reserved.—The Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 129-130a of this title at any time. (June 3, 1932, 47 Stat. 168, ch. 206, § 4.)

§ 130c. Closing of portion of U Street, southwest, authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to close, upon the recommendation of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, that portion of U Street southwest, lying between First Street and Half Street southwest, as may be rendered useless or unnecessary by reason of the construction of an electric light and power plant on squares 665 and 667 adjoining said street: Provided, That the said Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall sell to the abutting property owners the land contained within the portion of said street to be closed for cash at a price not less than the assessed value of contiguous lots, and the money received therefrom paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, and that such lands shall thereafter be assessed on the books of the assessor of the District of Columbia the same in all respects as other private properties in the District. (June 15, 1932, 47 Stat. 318, ch. 265, § 1.)

§ 130d. Closing of portion of Water Street authorized; construction and operation of pipe lines, etc., to Anacostia River.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to close, upon the recommendation of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, that portion of Water Street between U and V Streets southwest; and said commissioners are hereby authorized to give title to the owners of square 667 abutting on Water Street that portion of Water Street so closed lying west of the direct southerly projection of the west line of Half Street as existing on June 15, 1932, north of U Street southwest, upon notification from the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital of the receipt from all claimants in absolute quitclaim deeds to the United States of all lands in square east of 667, east of the direct southerly projection of the west line of Half Street, as existing on June 15, 1932, north of U Street southwest, and such other land as may be acquired by the owners of square 667 in square east of south of 667, subject to the right of said owners to construct and operate any pipe lines and intake and discharge tunnels in or under the same to the Anacostia River, and provided that all of said lands deeded to private owners by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia under this section shall thereafter be assessed on the books of the assessor of the District of Columbia the same in all respects as other private properties in the District of Columbia. (June 15, 1932, 47 Stat. 318, ch. 265, § 2.)

§ 130e. Pipe lines, etc., under streets south of T Street and east of Second Street, southwest.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to grant any and all permits for the construction and operation of any pipe lines and intake and discharge tunnels in or under the public streets, roads, and highways south of T Street southwest and east of Second Street southwest to the Anacostia River as may become necessary in the construction, installation, and operation of any electric lighting and power plant, provided the same will not interfere with the development of other property located within this area. (June 15, 1932, 47 Stat. 319, ch. 265, § 3.)

§ 130g. Pipe lines for use of Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to issue a permit to Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain, repair, renew, and use not more than four underground pipe lines from the parcel of real estate owned by The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company, and leased or to be leased to and occupied by Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company on the northerly side of New York Avenue Northeast, to the parcel of real estate owned by said Pennsylvania Greyhound Transit Company, in square 4038, parcel 142/25, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, across and under New York Avenue Northeast, under the following conditions, namely: Said pipe lines shall be laid, constructed, and located as directed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and under their inspection and the cost of such inspection, and of replacing pavements, curbs, and sidewalks disturbed, shall be paid by the party or parties to whom said permit shall be granted: Provided, That said pipe lines shall be used for the purpose of transporting petroleum and petroleum products, and for no other purpose whatsoever. (Feb. 18, 1935, 49 Stat. 26, ch. 10, § 1.)

§ 130h. Same; regulation and rental.—All the construction and use provided for in section 130g shall be under such regulations and rentals as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may make and establish in connection therewith. (Feb. 18, 1935, 49 Stat. 26, ch. 10, § 2.)

§ 130i. Same; permission not to affect title.—No permission granted or enjoyed under sections 130g or 130h shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within the above-mentioned street. (Feb. 18, 1935, 49 Stat. 26, ch. 10, § 3.)

§ 130j. Same; right of repeal reserved.—Congress reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal sections 130g-130i of this title. (Feb. 18, 1935, 49 Stat. 26, ch. 10, § 4.)

§ 130k. Pipe lines for use of Smoot Sand and Gravel Company; installation authorized.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to grant permission to the Smoot Sand and Gravel Corporation, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, the owner of squares 705, 707, and east of 708, and part of square 708, in the District of Columbia, its successors and assigns, to lay down, construct, maintain, and use pipe lines for the carriage of petroleum and petroleum products from any point or points within any such square or such part of square, in and through Half Street, First Street, P Street, Q Street, R Street, Potomac Avenue, reservation 246 and reservation 247, to any point or points within any such square or such part of square, or to the pierhead line of the Anacostia River. (Apr. 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 162, ch. 84, § 1.)

§ 130m. Same; permission not to affect title.—No permission granted or enjoyed under section 130k or 130l shall vest any right, title, or interest in or to the land within the streets or reservations referred to in section 130k hereof. (Apr. 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 163, ch. 84, § 3.)

§ 130n. Same; right of repeal reserved.—The right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 130k-130m of this title is hereby expressly reserved. (Apr. 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 163, ch. 84, § 4.)

§ 130o. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company; abandonment of substation authorized; repeal of certain laws.—Sections 1-3 of the act approved February 3, 1909 (35 Stat. 593, c. 61), are hereby repealed; and, upon the completion by it of the substitute facilities authorized by section 2 hereof, The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized, without any further or other authority, to abandon and remove the Seventh Street substation built and maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of said act of February 3, 1909, and to abandon the ticket agency and baggage accommodations maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of said act. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 497, ch. 415, § 1.)

§ 130p. Waiting room on platform authorized.—In lieu of the said substation and facilities maintained at the intersection of Seventh Street and C Street Southwest, in the city of Washington. The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized to construct and maintain on the train platform an enclosed waiting room for passengers, with convenient means of ingress and egress leading from and to the street level below. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 2.)

§ 130q. Reversion of property to District of Columbia.—The area in square south of 463 on the map of the city of Washington heretofore used for station purposes shall revert to the District of Columbia upon the completion of these improvements: Provided, That the said Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company shall construct and maintain thereon, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, adequate walkways to the adjacent streets. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 3.)

§ 130s. Decatur Corporation; authority to lay pipe lines.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to grant permission to the Decatur Corporation, a corporation organized in the State of Delaware, owner of that part of square 1067, bounded by L Street Southeast on the north, Fourteenth Street Southeast on the west, Fifteenth Street Southeast on the east, and to the right-of-way of The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad on the south, in the city of Washington in the District of Columbia, its successors and assigns, to lay down, construct, maintain, and use not more than five pipe lines for the carriage of petroleum products from a point or points north of said railroad right-of-way within square 1067, in and through Fifteenth Street Southeast due south to the pier-head line of the Anacostia River. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 895, ch. 753, § 1.)

§ 130t. Same; regulations and rentals.—All the construction and use provided for in section 130s shall be under such regulations and rentals as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may make and establish in connection therewith and all plans and specifications for such construction shall be subject to their approval. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have full authority to designate the location and to cause such repairs or relocation of said pipe lines as the public necessity may require, any such repairs or relocation to be at the expense of the Decatur Corporation, its successors or assigns. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 895, ch. 753, § 2.)

§ 130u. Same; title and interest.—That no permission granted or enjoyed under sections 130s or 130t shall vest any title or interest in or to the land within Fifteenth Street Southeast. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 896, ch. 753, § 3.)

§ 130v. Same; amendment.—The right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 130s-130u is hereby expressly reserved. (Aug. 27, 1935, 49 Stat. 896, ch. 753, § 4.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EXISTING LINES

Under this section the Commissioners of the District might authorize the wires of any "existing telegraph, telephone or electric light company," to be laid under streets and alleys whenever public interest may exercise such authority. Chesapeake & Potomac Tel. Co. v. Manning (186 U. S. 238, 46 L. Ed. 1144, 22 Sup. Ct. 881).

§ 43-1402 [26: 178]. Removal of telephone poles and wires—Area of removal—Duties of Commissioners—Extension of conduits.

All telephone poles and wires attached thereto not the property of the United States or the District of Columbia existing June 20, 1902, upon the streets and avenues within the section of the District of Columbia bounded by a line beginning at Second and B Streets southeast and running thence along B Street south, Third Street west, Missouri Avenue, Sixth Street west, B Street north, Twenty-third Street west, Rock Creek, Cincinnati Street, Columbia Road, Sixteenth Street west (extended), Park Street, Whitney Avenue, Eleventh Street west, R Street north, New Jersey Avenue, C Street north, and Second Street east to the point of beginning, except as hereinafter provided, shall from time to time, as may be prescribed by the Commissioners of said District, be taken down and removed. The work of taking down and removing said poles and wires shall be done under the direction of said Commissioners, and it is hereby made the duty of said Commissioners to enforce compliance with the provisions of sections 43-1402 to 43-1408, inclusive, as expeditiously as may be consistent with the public interests; and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered from time to time to authorize any individual, company, or corporation operating on June 20, 1902, and maintaining a telephone plant or system, partly overhead and partly underground, in the District of Columbia, to extend and enlarge its system of underground conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes in or under any or all of the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, or other public highways in said city and District as may be requisite and necessary for the purposes of sections 43-1402 to 43-1408, inclusive, and for the reception of such other cables and wires as may be reasonably required in the future by the growth of such individual, company, or corporation or to adequately meet the requirements of the public for telephone service. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 393, ch. 1136, § 1.)

AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONERS

Commissioners of the District might authorize wires of telephone, telegraph or electric light company to be laid under streets and alleys whenever public interest may exercise such authority. Chesapeake & Potomac Tel. Co. v. Manning (186 U. S. 238, 46 L. Ed. 1144, 22 Sup. Ct. 881.)

§ 43-1403 [26: 179]. Plans of conduits to be submitted to Commissioners—Permits—Removal of poles—Wires for house connections—Telephone companies.

From time to time any individual, company, or corporation, maintaining and operating on June 20, 1902, a telephone plant or system in said District, partly overhead and partly underground, shall prepare and submit to the said Commissioners a plan or plans, or application or applications, in writing, showing the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, and other public highways in or under which it is proposed to construct conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes, and giving the general dimensions, length, and course thereof, and before any such conduit, subsidiary, or manhole is constructed it shall be necessary to obtain the approval and permission of said Commissioners. Said Commissioners are empowered to require that all proposed conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes shall be constructed in accordance with the approved plan or permit; and upon the approval by said Commissioners of any such plan, or the issuing of any such permit, providing for the construction of underground conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes within the section in said District described in section 43-1402 the construction therein provided for shall be proceeded with diligently, and upon the completion thereof, or as soon thereafter as may be, without impairing the efficiency of the telephone service in said District, the individual, company, or corporation constructing such conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes shall place its cables and wires therein and take down and remove from the streets and avenues in which such conduits are constructed all poles and wires except such as said Commissioners may, in accordance with the provisions of sections 43-1402 to 43-1408, inclusive, permit to remain for the purpose of distributing wires for house connections. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 393, ch. 1136, § 2.)

§ 43-1404 [26: 180]. Penalties.

Any individual, company, or corporation owning and maintaining such poles and wires attached thereto on or over any street or avenue within the section of the District described in section 43-1402 who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to remove the same, as provided in section 43-1403, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars for each and every day during which such failure to remove said poles and wires shall continue, which amount may be recovered by the District of Columbia in any court of competent jurisdiction. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 394, ch. 1136, § 3.)

§ 43-1405 [26: 181]. Erection and maintenance of telephone poles in alleys—Poles outside designated limit—Temporary permits.

Said Commissioners are empowered to authorize the erection and maintenance of poles in the alleys of said city and District and the stringing thereon of telephone conductors from alley poles or housetop fixtures in one square to alley poles or housetop fixtures in another square for the purpose of enabling house connections to be made, and also to authorize the erection of telephone poles in the District of Columbia outside the limits of the section of said District described in section 43-1402 and the stringing thereon of telephone conductors for house connections or for connection with lines outside the District of Columbia; also to authorize the erection of such poles and the stringing thereon of such wires in the streets and avenues of said city and District in the parts thereof in which there are no public alleys, and in such other places as the public interests do not require that the lines be placed underground, or in places where it shall be deemed by said commissioners impracticable to advantageously place or operate such lines underground. During the progress of the work provided for in section 43-1402 said commissioners are also empowered to issue temporary permits for the erection and maintenance of poles and overhead conductors in places where the lines are ultimately to be placed underground, but where the work can not be immediately done because of the greater urgency of work in other localities, or for other reasons satis-

§ 43-1406 [26: 182]. Regulations for inspection—Ducts for use of fire and police wires.

All subways, conduits, manholes, and overhead lines constructed or erected under the provisions of sections 43-1402 to 43-1408, inclusive, shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may from time to time prescribe as to inspection, location, character of conduit construction, and height of poles and wires: Provided, That in all conduits so constructed such space shall be furnished to the District of Columbia as may be necessary for its fire-alarm or police-patrol wires or cables, carrying low potential currents of electricity, free of charge: And provided further, That the number of ducts so reserved in any one conduit shall not be more than three. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 395, ch. 1136, § 5.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 43-1401.

§ 43-1407 [26: 183]. Repairs and renewals.

The said commissioners are empowered to authorize any such individual, company, or corporation owning and operating on June 20, 1902, any lines of street poles and wires and any alley poles or alley-pole line within the District of Columbia and outside of the section described in section 43-1402 to continue to maintain the same, with such repairs and renewals as may be necessary to keep them in good order and condition of repair, and to add thereto such poles and wires as may be necessary for the purpose of making house connections or for connecting with telephone lines outside the District of Columbia. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 395, ch. 1136, § 6.)

§ 43-1408 [26: 184]. Right to alter or repeal reserved.

Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 43-1402 to 43-1408, inclusive. (June 20, 1902, 32 Stat. 395, ch. 1136, § 7.)

§ 43-1409 [26: 185]. Removal of telegraph poles and wires—Duties of Commissioners—Extension of conduits.

All telegraph poles and the wires attached thereto, not the property of the United States or the District of Columbia, upon the streets, avenues and alleys on March 3, 1905 within the fire limits of the District of Columbia, except as hereinafter provided, shall from time to time, as may be prescribed by the commissioners of said District, be taken down and removed. The work of taking down and removing said poles and wires shall be done under the direction of said commissioners, and it is hereby made the duty of said commissioners to enforce compliance with the provisions of sections 43-1409 to 43-1417, inclusive, as expeditiously as may be consistent with the public interests; and the said commissioners are hereby empowered, from time to time, to authorize any company or corporation on March 3, 1905, or thereafter operating and maintaining a telegraph plant or system in the District of Columbia to locate and construct a system of underground conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes in or under any or all of the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, or other public highways in said District, as may be requisite and necessary for the purpose of sections 43-1409 to 43-1417, inclusive, and for the reception of such other conduits, cables, and wires as may be reasonably required in the future by the growth of such company or corporation or its assigns, or to adequately meet the requirements of the public for telegraph service. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 984, ch. 1415, § 1.)

§ 43-1410 [26: 186]. Plans of conduits to be submitted to Commissioners—Permits—Removal of poles—Wires for house connections—Telegraph companies.

From time to time, any company or corporation, or its assigns, on March 3, 1905, or thereafter maintaining and operating a telegraph plant or system in said District, shall prepare and submit to the said commissioners a plan or plans or application or applications, in writing, showing the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, and other public highways in or under which it is proposed to construct conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes, and giving the general dimensions, length, and course thereof; and before any such conduit, subsidiary, or manhole is constructed it shall be necessary to obtain the approval and permission of said Commissioners. Said Commissioners are empowered to require that all proposed conduits, subsidiaries, and manholes shall be constructed in accordance with the approved plan or permit; and upon the approval by said Commissioners of any such plan, or the issuing of any such permit, providing for the construction of underground conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes within the said limits described in section 43-1409, or in such part thereof as said Commissioners shall require and direct, the construction therein provided for shall be proceeded with diligently, and upon the completion thereof, or as soon thereafter as may be without impairing the efficiency of the telegraph service in said District, the company or corporation constructing such conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes shall place its cables and wires therein and take down and remove from the streets and avenues in which such conduits are constructed all poles and the wires thereon, except such as said commissioners may, in accordance with the provisions of sections 43-1409 to 43-1417, inclusive, permit to remain for the purpose of distributing wires for house or other connections. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 985, ch. 1415, § 2.)

§ 43-1411 [26: 187]. Penalties.

Any company or corporation now or hereafter owning and maintaining such poles and wires attached thereto on or over any street or avenue within the said limits described in section 43-1409, which shall willfully neglect or refuse to remove the same, as provided in section 43-1409, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars for each and every day during which such failure to remove said poles and wires shall continue, which amount may be recovered by the District of Columbia in any court of competent jurisdiction. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 985, ch. 1415, § 3.)

§ 43-1412 [26: 188]. Erection and maintenance of telegraph poles in alleys—Poles outside designated limits—Temporary permits.

Said Commissioners are empowered to authorize the erection and maintenance of poles in the alleys of said District, and the stringing thereon of wires or conductors for telegraph purposes from alley poles or house-top fixtures in one square to alley poles or house-top fixtures in another square for the purpose of enabling house connections to be made, and to authorize the erection of poles and the stringing thereon of wires on and upon the streets and avenues of said District in the parts thereof in which there are no public alleys and in such places as the public interests do not require that the lines be placed underground, or in places where it shall be deemed by said commissioners impracticable to advantageously place or operate such lines underground. During the progress of the work provided for in section 43-1409 said commissioners are also empowered to issue temporary permits for the erection and maintenance of poles and overhead conductors in places where the lines are ultimately to be placed underground, where the work can not be immediately done because of the greater urgency of work in other localities, or for other reasons satisfactory to said commissioners; but in issuing such temporary permits said commissioners shall bear in mind the purpose and policy of sections 43-1409 to 43-1417, inclusive, which is to cause to be removed from the streets and avenues within the said limits described in section 43-1409 all poles and wires attached thereto, except as hereinbefore provided, as expeditiously as may be without interfering with or impairing the efficiency of the telegraph service in said District and without denying to the public reasonable telegraph facilities. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 985, ch. 1415, § 4.)

§ 43-1413 [26: 189]. Conduits in public parks or reservations.

Any officer of the United States Government charged with the care, maintenance, and supervision of any public park or reservation may grant permission to any company or corporation maintaining and operating a telegraph plant or system in said District on March 3, 1905, or thereafter, upon application being made therefor, to construct conduits, subsidiaries, or manholes in said park or reservation, under such reasonable regulations as said officer may prescribe, unless, in the judgment of said officer, said construction will result in injury to the United States or its properties. (Mar. 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 986, ch. 1415, § 4a.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

By this act Congress enacted that the Commissioners of the District shall have the power to lay water mains, pipes, fireplugs, and hydrants for the public safety, comfort, or health. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521); Wight v. Davidson (181 U. S. 371, 45 L. Ed. 900, 21 Sup. Ct. 616.)

§ 43-1502 [20: 1372]. Water department—Operations of to be under direction of Engineer's Office.

The operations of the water department of the District of Columbia shall be under the direction of the engineer's office of the District, subject to the control of the commissioners. (July 1, 1882, 22 Stat. 143, ch. 263, § 2.)

§ 43-1503 [20: 1373]. Water supply—Rules and regulations.

Full power is given to the commissioners to supply the inhabitants of the District with the Potomac water from the aqueduct mains or pipes laid in the streets and avenues by the United States; and to make all laws and regulations for the proper distribution of the same, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and to the control of the Chief of Engineers, as provided in title 40, section 51, of the Code of Laws of the United States. The supply of Potomac water may be extended to points in the District beyond the limits of Washington upon like terms and conditions as are provided by law for the supply of the same in that city. (R. S., D. C., § 195; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2; June 11, 1878, 20 Stat. 103, ch. 180, § 3; June 10, 1879, 21 Stat. 9, ch. 16; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

JURISDICTION

United States possesses complete jurisdiction, both of a political and municipal nature, over the District of Columbia. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521).

§ 43-1504 [20: 1374]. Fiscal year of water department.

The fiscal year of the water department of the District of Columbia shall conform to the regular fiscal year of the General Government; the rates shall be levied and collected annually. (July 1, 1882, 22 Stat. 144, ch. 263, § 2.)

§ 43-1505 [20: 1375]. Water-main taxes and rents to be uniform.

Water-main taxes and water rents shall be uniform in said District. (June 10, 1879, 21 Stat. 9, ch. 16.)

§ 43-1506 [20: 1376]. Water registrar.

The water registrar shall perform such duties connected with the water department of the District as may be proper and necessary, under the direction of the commissioners. He shall give bonds for the faithful performance of his duty in the sum of ten thousand dollars. (Leg. Assem., Aug. 23, 1871, ch. 108, § 16; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2; June 11, 1878, 20 Stat. 103, ch. 180, § 3.)

CROSS REFERENCE

General limitations on power of Commissioners, § 1-801.

§ 43-1507 [20: 1377]. Prevention of water waste.

In order to prevent unnecessary waste of Potomac water, and in order to more fully enforce the laws in relation to the distribution of the same, the Chief of Engineers is authorized, after giving notice, to shut off the water when such notice shall be disregarded from any places where a waste of water is occurring. (R. S., D. C., § 214.)

§ 43-1508 [20: 1378]. Use of Potomac water for mechanical and manufacturing purposes.

The use of Potomac water for mechanical and manufacturing purposes, or for private fountains, street and pavement washers, shall be allowed only when, in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers, it will not be detrimental to the general distribution of water in the District of Columbia. (R. S., D. C., § 215; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145.)

§ 43-1509 [20: 1379]. Water supply in large quantities to be determined by meters maintained by consumers.

The supply of water to all manufacturing establishments, hotels, livery-stables, and other places requiring a large quantity, shall be determined by meters erected and maintained at the expense of the consumer. (R. S., D. C., § 216.)

§ 43-1510 [20: 1380]. Water mains and service sewers erected at discretion of Commissioners—Costs assessed against abutting property.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed, whenever in their judgment the same may be necessary for the public safety, health, comfort, or convenience, to construct water mains and service sewers in any street, avenue, road, or alley in the District of Columbia; and the assessor of said District shall levy assessments for the same against abutting property in the amount and manner hereinafter prescribed. Special assessments generally, § 47-1101 et seq.

§ 43-1511 [20: 1381]. Assessments for water mains.

For laying or constructing water mains in the District of Columbia assessments shall be levied at the rate of three dollars per linear front foot against all lots or land abutting upon that part of the street, avenue, road, or alley in which a water-main shall be laid, and for laying or constructing service sewers in the District of Columbia assessments shall be levied at the rate of one dollar per linear front foot against all lots or land abutting upon that part of the street, avenue, road, or alley in which a sewer shall be laid: Provided, That assessments for water mains and service sewers in the case of lots or parcels of land not more than one hundred feet in depth shall be levied upon the fronts or rears of such lots or parcels of land, and not upon both the fronts and rears of such lots or parcels of land; but lots or parcels of land more than one hundred feet in depth, except corner lots, shall be assessed upon both their fronts and rears when water-mains or service sewers are laid abutting the same: Provided, That corner lots shall be assessed for water-mains and service sewers only on their short fronts with a depth of not exceeding one hundred feet; any excess of the other front over one hundred feet shall be subject to assessment, as hereinbefore provided: Provided, That the areas of all lots or parcels of land which have been assessed for water mains by the square foot under any previous Act of Congress, or of the late legislative assembly of the District of Columbia, shall not be again assessed for water mains: Provided further, That when the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall deem it advantageous to lay water mains or service sewers on each side of any street, avenue, road, or alley assessments shall be levied at the rate, within the time and in the manner in this section provided for, against the lots abutting the side of the street, avenue, road, or alley in which the water-main or service sewer is laid. (Aug. 11, 1894, 28 Stat. 275, ch. 253; Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 244, ch. 1417, § 2; Dec. 22, 1927, 45 Stat. 11, ch. 5; July 3, 1930, 46 Stat. 989, ch. 848.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1904 replaced the act of 1894 and included assessments for service sewers as well as water-mains.

Act of 1927 provided that rates of assessment in effect on June 30, 1927, for laying or constructing water mains and service sewers in the District of Columbia under provisions of act of 1904 should continue in effect during the remainder of the fiscal year 1928 and thereafter.

Act of 1930 increased the rate previously in effect.

NOTES TO DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR ACT

ASSESSMENT IN EXCESS OF COST

Assessment exceeding actual cost of the work is not bad where the laying of the main was a part of a water-system and the assessment included a fund to keep the system in efficient repair. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521).

FRONTAGE RULE INAPPLICABLE

If the paving of an avenue be treated as an original improvement, converting a highway into a paved city street, its constitutional infirmities are emphasized by reason of the existence of physical conditions forbidding any equal, fair, or equitable application of the frontage rule of taxing benefits. If considered as a repair of the avenue, in the form of repaving, its validity must be condemned on the theory that it taxes individual property fronting on the improvement for all or fixed portion of the expense, to exemption of all other property in the municipality. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525).

NECESSITY AND BENEFITS OF WORK

This act must be deemed conclusive alike of the question of the necessity of the work, and of the benefits as against abutting property; and to open such questions for review by the courts, on the petition of any and every property holder, would create endless confusion; and when questions submitted to Commission, the inquiry becomes in its nature judicial. Parsons v. District of Columbia (170 U. S. 45, 42 L. Ed. 943, 18 Sup. Ct. 521); Wight v. Davidson (181 U. S. 900, 45 L. Ed. 900, 21 Sup. Ct. 616).

POWERS OF CONGRESS

Congress has the power to provide for assessments in the District of Columbia for the opening of streets. Wight v. Davidson (181 U. S. 371, 45 L. Ed. 900, 21 Sup. Ct. 616).

Congress of the United States has the entire control over the District for every purpose of government. Sims v. Rives (66 App. D. C. 24, 84 Fed. (2d) 871).

§ 43-1512 [20: 1382]. Assessor to give notice of assessments.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall give notices as herein provided of the levying of assessments for water mains and service sewers. Assessments shall be levied within sixty days after the completion of the main or service sewer, and the owner or owners affected by such assessments shall be notified that the same have been levied by a notice which shall be served upon the owner of the lot or parcel of land if he or she be a resident of the District of Columbia, and his or her residence be known. If the owner be a nonresident or his or her residence be unknown, the notice shall be served on his or her agent or tenant. The service of such notice, where the owner or his or her agent or tenant resides in the District of Columbia, shall be personal or by leaving the same with some person of suitable age, either a member of his family or in his employ, at the residence or place of business of such owner, agent, or tenant; and return of such service, stating the manner thereof, shall be made in writing under oath and filed in the office of the assessor of the District of Columbia. If there be no agent or tenant known to said assessor, and the owner or owners be not residents of the District of Columbia, or if the owner be a resident of the District of Columbia and can not be found therein, and no person of suitable age as aforesaid can be found at his or her residence or place of business, notice shall be given by advertisement once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published in said District, and in said publication of said notice each several piece of property shall be described in a separate paragraph, and the cost of such advertisement shall be added to the amount of said assessment and collected in the same manner that said assessment is collected. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 245, ch. 1417, § 3.)

§ 43-1513 [20: 1383]. Water main and service sewer assessments payable in three installments.

Assessments for water mains and service sewers shall be payable in three equal installments, the first of which shall be due and payable without interest within thirty days from date of service of notice or of the last publication of notice as the case may be, the second within one year, and the third within two years from the date of assessment, and interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be charged on all amounts which shall remain unpaid at the expiration of thirty days from the date of service of notice or last publication as the case may be; but the owner of the property assessed may, at his option, at any time after the levying of such assessment, pay the same in full: Provided, That if any installment of any assessment for water main or service sewer levied under the provisions of sections 43-1510 to

§ 43-1514 [20: 1384]. Assessment of property in county of Washington for water mains and service sewers.

Property in the county of Washington, not subdivided into blocks or lots, or both, shall not be assessed for water mains or service sewers until subdivided: Provided, That where houses are built on any unsubdivided land and connection is made with a water main or service sewer, assessment shall be made as herein provided for in the case of subdivided property by assessing a frontage of fifty feet on each side of said connection with a depth of one hundred feet, except that no double assessment shall be levied; said assessment to be levied within sixty days after said connection is made; and if such unsubdivided land is thereafter subdivided into blocks or lots, such lots shall be assessed as herein provided as to subdivided lands, but the fifty feet on each side of said connection, with a depth of one hundred feet, shall not be again assessed: Provided further, That assessments at the rate and in the manner herein provided for shall be levied against each lot or parcel of land abutting any water main or service sewer in all subdivisions of land, within sixty days after the recording of such subdivision in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia, except in cases where said lots or parcels of land have been previously assessed for the same main or service sewer. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 5.)

§ 43-1515 [20: 1385]. Relevying assessments when assessments declared void.

The assessor of the District of Columbia is hereby authorized and directed in cases where water-main assessments, or assessments for service sewers, may be quashed, canceled, set aside, or declared void by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or may otherwise be canceled or set aside, by reason of an imperfect or erroneous description of the lot or parcel of ground against which the same shall have been levied, by reason of such tax or assessment not having been authenticated by the proper officer or by reason of a defective return of service of notice, or for any technical reason other than the right of the authorities of the District of Columbia to levy assessment or lay the main or service sewer in respect of which assessment was levied, to relevy such assessment at the rate and in the manner provided for in sections 43-1510 to 43-1517, inclusive: Provided, That such reassessment shall be made within sixty days from date of such cancellation. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 7.)

§ 43-1516 [20: 1386]. Disposal of funds received by collector of taxes.

All sums received by the collector of taxes under the provisions of sections 43-1510 to 43-1517, inclusive, on account of assessments levied for the construction of service sewers shall be credited to the appropriation under which the sewer was constructed for the fiscal year in which such sums shall be received. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 8.)

§ 43-1517 [20: 1387]. Definition—Service sewer.

A service sewer within the meaning of the provisions of sections 43-1510 to 43-1517, inclusive, shall be a sewer with which connection may be directly made for the purpose of providing sewerage facilities to abutting property, and such sewers shall be so indicated on the records of the sewer division of the engineer department of the District of Columbia. (Apr. 22, 1904, 33 Stat. 246, ch. 1417, § 9.)

§ 43-1518 [20: 1388]. Refund of overpaid assessments.

In all cases where a water-main has heretofore been or may hereafter be laid in a public street or way, and in order to secure the laying of such main the cost or a part thereof has been paid to the District of Columbia prior to the laying of said main by any person or corporation, there shall be repaid from time to time to such person or corporation, out of the collections from the assessment for such main, all of the amounts so paid over and above the assessment chargeable against the land owned or controlled by said person or corporation. (June 2, 1900, 31 Stat. 252, ch. 612, § 2.)

§ 43-1520 [20: 1390]. Water rents—Rates.

The following schedule of water rents in the District of Columbia shall be fixed by the commissioners of said District:

For the use of water for domestic purposes through unmetered services, $9.85 per annum for all tenements two stories high, or less, with a front width of sixteen feet, or less; for each additional front foot or fraction thereof greater than one-half, 62 cents; and for each additional story or part thereof, one-third of the charges as computed above. For business places that are not required to install meters under existing regulations, the rates in effect June 30, 1930, to be increased by 40 per centum per annum. For the use of water through metered services, a minimum charge of $8.75 per annum for seven thousand five hundred cubic feet of water, and 7 cents per one hundred cubic feet for water used in excess of that quantity. For water for building construction purposes when not supplied through a meter, 6 cents per one thousand brick and 3 cents per cubic yard of concrete, with a minimum charge of $1 for each separate building project. All water required for purposes which are not covered by the foregoing classifications shall be paid for at such rates as may be fixed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (July 3, 1930, 46 Stat. 988, ch. 848.)

§ 43-1521 [20: 1391]. Commissioners to have authority to collect water rates in advance.

The commissioners have authority to provide for the collection of water rates, in advance or otherwise, from the owner or occupants of all buildings or establishments using the water; and to provide for stopping the supply of water to any dwelling or establishment upon a failure to pay the rate, and to carry into full effect the provisions of this chapter. (R. S., D. C., § 197; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2; June 11, 1878, 20 Stat. 103, ch. 180, § 3.)

§ 43-1522 [20: 1392]. Water rates not to be a source of revenue.

The water rates levied in the District of Columbia shall never be a source of revenue other than as a means of keeping up to said District a supply of water, but shall constitute a fund exclusively for the maintenance, management, and repair of the system of water-distribution. (R. S., D. C., § 198; July 12, 1876, 19 Stat. 87, ch. 180, § 18; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1876 extended water taxes, water rents, and taxation for water mains, over all parts of the District of Columbia.

Act of 1885 extended points of water supply beyond Washington and Georgetown.

§ 43-1523 [20: 1393]. Water tax to be a fund to defray cost of water distribution.

The water tax authorized to be levied and collected by the provisions of this chapter shall constitute a fund to be used exclusively to defray the cost of distribution of the water, including all necessary fixtures and machines connected with such distribution. (R. S., D. C., § 203.)

§ 43-1524 [20: 1394]. Water rents from Washington Aqueduct to be applied to improvement of same.

All water rents derived from the Washington Aqueduct shall be applied to the improvement and repair of the same, and for no other purpose. (R. S., D. C., § 217.)

§ 43-1525 [20: 1395]. Fire plug tax.

To aid in the erection, maintenance, and efficiency of fire-plugs, a special annual tax may be levied on all buildings in the City of Washington within five hundred feet of any main water-pipe, into which, or the premises connected therewith, the water has not been introduced, and the owners or occupants of which do not pay any annual water-rate in accordance with law. (R. S., D. C., § 205; June 17, 1890, 26 Stat. 159, ch. 428.)

§ 43-1526 [20: 1396]. Rates.

The fire-plug tax shall be levied with reference to the value of the building so taxed, and shall not be more than five dollars nor less than one dollar per year. (R. S., D. C., § 206.)

§ 43-1527 [20: 1397]. To cease upon introduction of water.

Whenever the water is introduced, in conformity with law, into any building or premises, the fire-plug tax thereon shall cease. (R. S., D. C., § 207.)

§ 43-1528 [20: 1398]. Levy upon discontinuance of water service.

Whenever water is discontinued from any building or premises into which it has been introduced, such building shall be subject to the fire-plug tax from the date of the discontinuance of the water. (R. S., D. C., § 208.)

§ 43-1529 [20: 1399]. Water not to be diverted beyond District.

Except as provided in sections 43-1530 and 43-1531 no portion of the water conveyed or to be conveyed through or by means of the Washington Aqueduct, or any appurtenance thereof, shall be diverted to the supply or use of any building, premises or establishment located outside of the limits of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1893, 27 Stat. 544, ch. 199.)

§ 43-1530 [20: 1400]. Commissioners authorized to deliver water in nearby Maryland—Contract.

For the protection of the health of the residents of the District of Columbia and the employees of the United States Government residing in Maryland near the District of Columbia boundary, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, upon the request of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, a body corporate, established by chapter 313 of the acts of 1916 of the State of Maryland, or upon the request of its legally appointed successor, are authorized to deliver water from the water-supply system of the District of Columbia to said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its successor for distribution to territory in Maryland within the Washington Suburban Sanitary District as designated in the aforesaid act, or any amendment thereto, and to connect District of Columbia water-mains with water-mains in the state of Maryland at such points at or near the District of Columbia line as may be agreed upon from time to time by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, under the conditions hereinafter named, namely:

That before such connections shall be made the said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its legally-appointed successor shall secure authority from the Legislature of the state of Maryland to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners of the District of Columbia outlining the conditions under which the service is to be rendered.

The agreement between the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its legally appointed successor shall provide, among other things—

First. That the meters on each of said connections shall be located within the District of Columbia and shall remain under the jurisdiction of the commissioners of the District of Columbia.

Second. The rates at which water will be furnished, said rates to be based on the actual cost to the United States and the District of Columbia of delivering water to the points designated above, including an interest charge at 4 per centum per annum and a suitable allowance for depreciation.

Third. That payments for water so furnished shall be made through the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia at such times as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may direct, said payments to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as other water rents collected in the District of Columbia are deposited.

Fourth. That at no time shall the amount of water furnished the said Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission or its successor exceed the amount that can be spared without jeopardizing the interests of the United States or of the District of Columbia.

Fifth. That the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have at all times the right to investigate the distribution system in Maryland, and if, in their opinion, there is a wastage of water they shall have the right to curtail the supply to said sanitary district to the amount of such wastage. (Mar. 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1043, ch. 160; June 30, 1930, 46 Stat. 838, ch. 764; Apr. 14, 1932, 47 Stat. 79, ch. 100.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section, after having been amended by the act of June 30, 1930, 46 Stat. 838, ch. 764, was repealed and reenacted as set out in the text by the act of 1932.

§ 43-1531 [20: 1401]. Delivery of water to Arlington County, Virginia.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized, in his discretion and subject to the approval of the Chief of Engineers, upon the request of the board of supervisors of Arlington County, Virginia, to permit the delivery of water from the Federal water supply pumping station at the Dalecarlia Reservoir to the Arlington County sanitary district, created by an act of the General Assembly of the state of Virginia, of March 15, 1922, and to connect the force main of said pumping station with the water main in Arlington County at the southerly end of the Chain Bridge:

Provided, That all expenses of installing said connection and its appurtenances and any subsequent changes therein shall be borne by said Arlington County, which shall pay such charges for the use of such water as may be determined from time to time in advance by the Secretary of War, the payments to be made at such time and under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, all payments for the use of water to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as other water rents collected in the District of Columbia are deposited: And provided further, That the Secretary of War may revoke at any time any permit for the use of said water that may have been granted. (Apr. 14, 1926, 44 Stat. 251, ch. 140, § 1.)

§ 43-1532 [20: 1402]. Acquisition of land and right of way for pipe lines.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to acquire by purchase or condemnation all necessary lands, easements, and rights of way for pipe lines within the District of Columbia to connect the force main of said pumping station with the water main in Arlington County as herein authorized. (Apr. 14, 1926, 44 Stat. 252, ch. 140, § 2.)

§ 43-1533 [20: 1403]. Potomac water to be furnished to charitable institutions without charge.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to furnish Potomac water without charge to charitable institutions and such institutions as receive annual appropriations from Congress, to an amount to be fixed in each case by the said commissioners, not to exceed a rate of one hundred gallons per day for each inmate of said institutions; and for all water used beyond such an amount, to be ascertained by water meters installed and maintained at the expense of the consumer, the institution shall be charged at the prevailing rate for the use of water in the District of Columbia, which shall be collected in the manner prescribed for the collection of water rents. The said commissioners are further authorized to furnish Potomac water without charge to churches to an amount to be fixed in each case by the said commissioners, and any amount used in excess of the amount allowed, to be ascertained in the manner aforesaid, shall be charged and collected as hereinbefore described. For the purposes of this section a charitable institution is one whose objects are primarily eleemosynary; and nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to include educational institutions other than charity schools wholly supported by voluntary contributions or institutions supported wholly or in part by Congressional appropriation. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 742, ch. 742, § 1.)

§ 43-1534 [20: 1404]. Unlawful tapping of water pipe—Penalty.

The unlawful tapping of any water pipe laid down in the District by authority of the United States is a misdemeanor and an indictable offense; and any person convicted of such offense in the criminal court of the District shall be subject to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year. (R. S., D. C., § 218.)

§ 43-1535 [20: 1405]. Chief of Engineers to inform United States attorney for District of Columbia of all violations.

It is the special duty of the Chief of Engineers to bring to the notice of the attorney of the United States for the District of Columbia, or to the grand jury, any infraction of section 43-1534. (R. S., D. C., § 219.)

§ 43-1536 [20: 1406]. Penalty for damaging or defacing water pipes.

Every person who maliciously breaks, injures, defaces, or destroys any main or pipe, bend, branch, valve, hydrant, service-pipe, or any other fixture used for the distribution of water throughout the streets and avenues, or for its introduction into the houses, tenements, or buildings of the District of Columbia, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the District jail for not more than two years. (R. S., D. C., § 220; Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The 1885 act provides: "And hereafter the supply of Potomac water may be extended to points in the District beyond the limits of Washington and Georgetown upon like terms and conditions as are provided by law for the supply of the same in those cities."

§ 43-1537 [20: 1407]. Mains or pipes—Laying for use of public buildings.

No greater number of main pipes of the Washington Aqueduct shall be laid at the expense of the United States than are sufficient to furnish the public buildings, offices, and grounds with the necessary supply of water. The cost of any main pipe, for the supply of water to the inhabitants of Washington, must be paid by the District of Columbia, in the manner provided by law. (R. S., U. S., § 1805; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The 1895 act provides in part: "All general laws, ordinances and regulations of the city of Washington be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to that part of the District of Columbia formerly known as the city of Georgetown."

§ 43-1538 [20: 1408]. Unauthorized opening.

No person, unless by consent of the Chief of Engineers, shall tap or open the mains or pipes laid or hereafter to be laid by the United States, under a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $500. (R. S., U. S., § 1803.)

44-103. Disposition of proceeds of sale.
44-104. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company—Abandonment of substation authorized—Repeal of certain laws.
44-105. Waiting-room on platform authorized.
44-106. Reversion of property to District of Columbia—Adequate walkways provided.
44-107. Right of repeal reserved.

§ 44-101 [19: 86]. Sale of unclaimed freight.

Whenever any freight, baggage, or other property transported by a common carrier to, or deposited with a common carrier at, any point in the District of Columbia, shall remain unclaimed by the owner or consignee, or the charges thereon shall remain unpaid for the space of six months after arrival at the point to which the same shall have been directed or transported, or after deposit as aforesaid, and the owner or person to whom the same is consigned, or by whom the same shall have been deposited, shall, after notice of such arrival, or after notice to take away such property so deposited, neglect or refuse to receive the same and pay the charges thereon within such period of six months, then it shall be lawful for such carrier to sell such freight, baggage, or other property at public auction, after giving three weeks' notice of the time and place of sale, once a week for three successive weeks, in a newspaper published in the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1289, ch. 854, § 642.)

§ 44-102 [19: 87]. Disposition of property under court order.

Upon the application of such carrier, verified by affidavit, to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia holding a special term, setting forth that the place of residence of the owner or consignee of any such freight, baggage, or other property is unknown, or that such freight, baggage, or other property is of such perishable nature, or so damaged, or showing any other cause that shall render it impracticable to give the notice or delay the sale for the period provided in section 44-101, then it shall be lawful for such court to make an order authorizing the sale of such freight, baggage, or other property upon such terms as to notice as the nature of the case may admit of and to such court shall seem meet: Provided, That in case of perishable property the affidavit and proceedings required and authorized by this section may be had before the municipal court in cases where the value of the property involved does not exceed one thousand dollars. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1289, ch. 854, § 643; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 534, ch. 1329; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134; Mar. 3, 1921, 41 Stat. 1310, ch. 125, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of 1902 added at the end of this section of the 1901 act the words "in cases where the value of the property involved does not exceed three hundred dollars."

Act of 1909 changed the name from justice of peace court to municipal court of the District of Columbia.

Act of 1921 amended this section by changing the end thereof from "three hundred dollars" to "one thousand dollars."

§ 44-103 [19: 88]. Disposition of proceeds of sale.

The residue of moneys arising from any such sale, under either section 44-101 or 44-102, after deducting the amount of charges, including charges for transportation, the cost of handling and storage, demurrage, and the costs and expenses of proceedings to authorize the sale, and of advertising and sale, shall be paid to the owner of such freight, baggage, or other property on demand. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1289, ch. 854, § 644.)

§ 44-104 [19: 130o]. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company—Abandonment of substation authorized—Repeal of certain laws.

Upon the completion by it of the substitute facilities authorized by section 44-105 hereof, The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized, without any further or other authority, to abandon and remove the Seventh Street substation built and maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of Act of February 3, 1909 (35 Stat. 593, ch. 63), and to abandon the ticket agency and baggage accommodations maintained by it pursuant to the requirements of said Act. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 497, ch. 415, § 1.)

§ 44-105 [19: 130p]. Waiting room on platform authorized.

In lieu of the said substation and facilities maintained at the intersection of Seventh Street and C Street Southwest, in the city of Washington, The Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company is authorized to construct and maintain on the train platform an enclosed waiting room for passengers, with convenient means of ingress and egress leading from and to the street level below. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 2.)

§ 44-106 [19: 130q]. Reversion of property to District of Columbia—Adequate walkways provided.

The area in square south of 463 on the map of the City of Washington heretofore used for station purposes shall revert to the District of Columbia upon the completion of these improvements: Provided, That the said Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company shall construct and maintain thereon, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, adequate walkways to the adjacent streets. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 3.)

§ 44-107 [19: 130r]. Right of repeal reserved.

Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal sections 44-104 to 44-106. (July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 498, ch. 415, § 4.)

PAVING REGULATIONS—REPEAL

All provisions of law making it incumbent upon any street-railway company to bear the expense of policemen at street railway crossings and intersections, the laying of new pavement, the making of permanent improvements, renewals, or repairs to the pavement of streets and public bridges, and the permanent improvements, renewals, or repairs to public bridges over which the streetcar lines operate, are hereby repealed, such repeal to be effective on the date the unification herein authorized becomes operative: Provided, That the Capital Transit Company herein provided for shall bear the entire cost of paving, repairs, or replacements incident to track repairs, replacements, or changes made at a time when the street or bridge is not being paved, and shall bear one-half the cost of other paving, repaving, or maintenance of paving between its track and for two feet outside the outer rails, and shall bear the excess cost of construction and maintenance of public bridges: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall relieve said Capital Transit Company from liability for street paving as owner of real estate apart from right-of-way occupied by its tracks as provided by section 8 of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917, and for other purposes," approved September 1, 1916, as amended to date. (Jan. 14, 1933, 47 Stat. 759, ch. 10, § 3.)

§ 44-202 [26: 122]. Street railways to furnish sufficient cars—Power, equipment, appliances, and service—Rules and regulations—Penalties.

Every street railroad company or corporation owning, controlling, leasing or operating one or more street railroads within the District of Columbia shall on each and all of its railroads supply and operate a sufficient number of cars, clean, sanitary, in good repair, with proper and safe power, equipment, appliances and service, comfortable and convenient, and so operate the same as to give expeditious passage, not to exceed fifteen miles per hour within the city limits or twenty miles per hour in the suburbs, to all persons desirous of the use of the said cars, without crowding said cars. The Public Utilities Commission is hereby given power to require and compel obedience to all of the provisions of this section, and to make, alter, amend and enforce all needful rules and regulations to secure said obedience; and said commission is given power to make all such orders and regulations necessary to the exercise of the powers herein granted to it as may be reasonable and proper; and such railroad companies or corporations, their officers and employees, are hereby required to obey all the provisions of this section, and such regulations and orders as may be made by said commission. Any such company or corporation, or its officers or employees, violating any provision of this section, or any of the said orders or regulations made by said commission, or permitting such violation, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars. And each day of failure or neglect on the part of such company or corporation, its officers or employees, to obey each and all of the provisions and requirements of this section, or the orders and regulations of the commission made thereunder, shall be regarded as a separate offense. (May 23, 1908, 35 Stat. 250, ch. 190, § 16.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

As originally enacted, the words "not to exceed fifteen miles per hour within the city limits or twenty miles per hour in the suburbs" after the words "expeditious passage" were included. These speed limits have been superseded by various traffic regulatory laws. See §§ 40-602 (j), 40-603, 40-605.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION OF ACT

This act does not repeal the Act of Congress March 3, 1905, 33 Stat. 1001 (§ 44-205), but on the contrary both are capable of concurrent enforcement. Washington R. & Elec. Co. v. District of Columbia (56 App. D. C. 134, 10 Fed. (2d) 999).

PROSECUTIONS, CORPORATION COUNSEL

Prosecutions under this section should be conducted by the corporation counsel in the name of the District of Columbia. United States v. Capital Trac. Co. (38 App. D. C. 469).

§ 44-203 [26: 123]. Prosecutions to be by information.

Prosecutions for violations of any of the provisions of sections 44-202, 44-206, and 44-207 shall be on information of the Public Utilities Commission filed in the police court by or on behalf of the commission. (May 23, 1908, 35 Stat. 250, ch. 190, § 17; Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 995, ch. 150, § 8, par. 96.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The 1908 act was worded "provisions of this act." This act contained 18 sections of which four (§§ 4, 15, 16 and 17) are contained in this code as §§ 44-206, 44-207, 44-202, 44-203, respectively.

AMENDMENT

The original act contained the words "Interstate Commerce Commission" which have been replaced herein by the words "Public Utilities Commission" in view of the 1913 act.

FURNISHING TRANSPORTATION FOR PERSONS ON OFFICIAL BUSINESS

The Commissioners are authorized, in their discretion, to furnish necessary transportation in connection with strictly official business of the District of Columbia by the purchase of street car and bus fares from appropriations contained in this act: Provided, That the expenditures herein authorized shall be so apportioned as not to exceed a total of $11,100: Provided further, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not include the appropriations herein made for the fire and police departments. (July 15, 1939, 53 Stat. 1010, ch. 281, § 1; June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 312, ch. 333, § 1.)

§ 44-214 [26: 166a]. Reduced fares for school children.

The Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia is empowered and directed to fix reduced fares for school children not over eighteen years of age, going to and from school on street railway and bus lines in the District of Columbia, under such reasonable rules and regulations as the commission may establish: Provided, That such reduced fares shall not exceed three cents. (Feb. 25, 1931, 46 Stat. 1419, ch. 302.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of January 14, 1933, 47 Stat. 759, ch. 10, § 1, par. 19, provides: "The Public Utilities Commission shall fix the rate of fare at 3 cents for school children not over eighteen years of age, going to and from public, parochial, or like schools in the District of Columbia, and shall establish rules and regulations governing the use thereof: Provided, That upon the acceptance of this agreement by the parties and the completion of the unification, the provisions of the act entitled 'An act to provide for the transportation of school children in the District of Columbia at a reduced fare,' approved February 27, 1931, shall become inoperative." The figure "27" was contained in the original. It obviously should be 25.

Chapter 3.—PASSENGER MOTOR VEHICLES FOR HIRE

Sec.

44-301. Passenger motor vehicles for hire to carry insurance—Exceptions—Sinking fund.

§ 44-301 [20: 1731a]. Passenger motor vehicles for hire to carry insurance—Exceptions—Sinking fund.

The Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia is hereby directed to require any and all corporations, companies, associations, joint-stock companies or associations, partnerships, and persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, operating, controlling, managing, or renting any passenger motor vehicles for hire in the District of Columbia, except as to operations licensed under paragraph (b) of section 44-2331, and except such common carriers as have been expressly exempted from the jurisdiction of the Commission, to file with the Commission for each motor vehicle to be operated a bond or bonds, policy or policies, of liability insurance or certificate of insurance in lieu thereof in a solvent and responsible surety or insurance company authorized to do business in the District of Columbia, conditioned for the payment to any person of any judgment recovered against such corporations, companies, associations, joint-stock companies or associations, partnerships, and persons, their lessees, trustees, or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, or renters of their cabs, for death or for injury to any person or injury to any property, or both, caused in the operation, maintenance, use, or by reason of the defective construction of such motor cabs or other vehicles. Any such bond or undertaking or policy of liability insurance shall be in such form and on such terms or conditions as the Commission may direct: Provided, That such bond or policy may limit the liability of the surety or insurer on any one judgment to $5,000 for bodily injuries or death and $1,000 for damage to or destruction of property, and all judgments recovered upon claims arising out of the same subject of action to $10,000 for bodily injuries or death and $1,000 for damages to or destruction of property, to be apportioned ratably among the judgment creditors according to the amount of their respective judgments. Any such policy of liability insurance shall be issued only by such insurance companies as may have been authorized to do business in the District of Columbia, and any such bond or undertaking shall be secured by a corporate surety approved by the Superintendent of Insurance of the District of Columbia. The Superintendent of Insurance of the District of Columbia shall be empowered to make all reasonable rules and regulations relating to the writing of taxicab insurance and shall be empowered to govern the maximum rates to be charged on such insurance. No such bond or policy of insurance may be canceled unless not less than twenty days prior to such cancellation or termination notice of intention so to do has been filed in writing with the Commission unless cancellation is for nonpayment of premiums, in which event five days' notice as above provided shall be given. It shall be unlawful to operate any vehicle subject to the provisions of this paragraph unless such vehicle shall be covered by an approved bond or policy of liability insurance as provided herein. The Public Utilities Commission shall have the power to make all reasonable rules and regulations which, in its opinion, are necessary to make effective the purposes of this section.

Any owner of a public vehicle required hereby to file a bond or policy of insurance may, in lieu thereof:

(a) File with the Public Utilities Commission a blanket bond, or a blanket policy of liability insurance, in an amount to be approved by said Commission, but not to exceed $75,000, conditioned as required by this chapter, and covering all vehicles lawfully displaying the trade name or identifying the design of any individual, association, company or corporation.

(b) Create and maintain a sinking fund in such amount as the Public Utilities Commission may require, but not in excess of $75,000, and deposit the same, in trust, for the payment of any judgment recovered against such owner, as provided in this chapter, with such person, official or corporation as said commission shall designate.

Provided, That should any such owner elect to comply with the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, such owner shall first file with the Public Utilities Commission an admission of liability, in conformity with the principle of respondent superior for the tortious acts of the driver or drivers of such vehicle or vehicles aforesaid as shall be driven with the trade name or identifying design of such owner.

Any cash or collateral deposit and/or any sinking fund herein provided for shall be exempt from attachment or levy for any obligation or liability of the depositor thereof, save as herein provided.

Within the meaning of this paragraph, the word "owner" shall include any corporation, company, association, joint-stock company or association, partnership or person, and the lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, permitting his, their or its trade name and/or identifying design to be displayed upon vehicles governed by this section.

Any violation of this section or of the regulations lawfully promulgated thereunder shall be deemed a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, and/or cancellation of license.

This section shall become effective sixty days after final passage. (June 29, 1938, 52 Stat. 1233, ch. 809.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The word "respondent" in the proviso clause probably should be "respondeat."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Distinction between wording of this act and § 2, 34 Stat. 415. Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. Interstate Commerce Comm. (221 U. S. 612, 55 L. Ed. 878, 31 Sup. Ct. 621).

This act relates solely to commerce. Southern R. Co. v. Taylor (57 App. D. C. 21, 16 Fed. (2d) 517, cert. den. 273 U. S. 767, 71 L. Ed. 882, 47 Sup. Ct. 571).

The intent of Congress in the enactment of this statute, was plainly to create liability on the part of the carriers to their employees and to curtail a part of the defenses which were before legal. Malloy v. Northern Pac. R. Co. ((C. C.-Wash.), 151 Fed. 1019).

Act prospective in operation. Winfree v. Northern P. R. Co. ((C. C.-Wash.), 164 Fed. 698, affd. 173 Fed. 65, 44 L. R. A. (N. S.) 841 and 227 U. S. 296, 57 L. Ed. 518, 33 Sup. Ct. 273).

This case distinguishes the extent of liability under this act and that of the act of 1908 (U. S. Comp. St. Supp., p. 1148). Taylor v. Southern R. Co. ((C. C.-Ga.), 178 Fed. 380).

ASSUMPTION OF RISK

This act is so far as assumption of risk is concerned, as applied to the District of Columbia is superseded by section 4 of the act of April 22, 1908. Washington Terminal Co. v. Sampson (53 App. D. C. 179, 289 Fed. 577).

Assumed risk. Malloy v. Northern Pac. R. Co. ((C. C.-Wash.), 151 Fed. 1019).

ELEVATOR IN OFFICE BUILDING

Railroad company operating elevator in office building held not a "common carrier." Southern R. Co. v. Taylor (57 App. D. C. 21, 16 Fed. (2d) 517, cert. den. 273 U. S. 767, 71 L. Ed. 882, 47 Sup. Ct. 571).

INSURANCE CONTRACTS

Insurance contracts as a defense. Philadelphia, B. & W. R. Co. v. Schubert (224 U. S. 603, 56 L. Ed. 911, 32 Sup. Ct. 589).

INTERSTATE COMMERCE

"Interstate" and "intrastate" commerce. Hall v. Louisville & N. R. Co. ((C. C.-Fla.), 157 Fed. 464).

The question of the creation of right of action, by State of by Federal act, depends on whether the carrier is engaged in interstate or intrastate commerce. Hall v. Louisville & N. R. Co. ((C. C.-Fla.), 157 Fed. 464).

NOT REPEALED BY EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY ACT

Insofar as it applies to the District of Columbia and the Territories this act was not repealed by the Employers' Liability Act of April 22, 1908, 35 Stat. 65, ch. 149. Walsh v. Alaska S. S. Co. (101 Wash. 295, 172 Pac. 269).

PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

Right of action to personal representatives. Winfree v. Northern Pac. R. Co. ((C. C. A. 9), 173 Fed. 65, 44 L. R. A. (N. S.) 841, affd. 227 U. S. 296, 57 L. Ed. 518, 38 Sup. Ct. 273).

TERRITORIES

United States District Court in Territory of New Mexico had jurisdiction of cases arising under this act. Santa Fe Cent. R. Co. v. Friday (232 U. S. 694, 58 L. Ed. 802, 34 Sup. Ct. 468, affg. 16 N. Mex. 434, 120 Pac. 316).

Unconstitutional as applied to Oklahoma. Chicago, R. I. & P. R. Co. v. Holliday (45 Okla. 536, 145 Pac. 786).

VESSELS

Not applicable to marine torts within admiralty jurisdiction. Alaska S. S. Co. v. McHugh (268 U. S. 23, 69 L. Ed. 825, 45 Sup. Ct. 396).

This act does not have the same effect as regards ship owners engaged in coastwise trade in Alaska as it does in the District of Columbia. Alaska S. S. Co. v. McHugh (268 U. S. 23, 69 L. Ed. 825, 45 Sup. Ct. 396).

Act does not apply to vessels generally. Pawnee ((D. C.-Mich.), 205 Fed. 333).

Applies to action for death of sailor from injuries received on vessel used as common carrier in Alaska. Sandstrom v. Pacific S. S. Co. ((C. C. A. 9), 260 Fed. 661).

This act (June 11, 1906), where territorially applicable, embraces carriers by water and modifies or repeals inconsistent admiralty or maritime laws. Walsh v. Alaska S. S. Co. (101 Wash. 295, 172 Pac. 269).

This act (June 11, 1906), applies to the case of a seaman, employed on a vessel engaged in commerce within the Territory of Alaska and between ports thereof and of the State of Washington, who was injured while unloading a cargo at an Alaskan port. Walsh v. Alaska S. S. Co. (101 Wash. 295, 172 Pac. 269).

§ 44-402 [19: 82]. Contributory negligence no bar to recovery.

In all actions brought against any common carriers to recover damages for personal injuries to an employee, or where such injuries have resulted in his death, the fact that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery where his contributed negligence was slight and that of the employer was gross in comparison, but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee. All questions of negligence and contributory negligence shall be for the jury. (June 11, 1906, 34 Stat. 232, ch. 3073, § 2.)

Chapter 1.—CONVEYABLE ESTATES AND METHODS OF CONVEYANCE

Sec.

45-101. Present, future, vested, and contingent interests conveyed by deed or will.
45-102. Perpetuities—Excepting charitable uses.
45-103. Chattels real.
45-104. Estates created by deed or will.
45-105. Conveyance of land held adversely.
45-106. Conveyance of term in excess of one year must be by deed or will.

§ 45-101 [25: 111]. Present, future, vested, and contingent interests conveyed by deed or will.

Any interest in or claim to real estate whether entitling to present or future possession and enjoyment, and whether vested or contingent, may be disposed of by deed or will, and any estate which would be good as an executory devise, may be created by deed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 512; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "at common law" which came after "would be good as."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PERMANENCE

Once title vests, it stays vested until it passes by grant, by descent, by adverse possession or by some operation of law such as escheat or forfeiture; but title does not pass by inaction on the part of the owner. Faulks v. Schrider (69 App. D. C. 137, 99 Fed. (2d) 370).

§ 45-102 [25: 112]. Perpetuities—Excepting charitable uses.

Except in the case of gifts or devises to charitable uses, every future estate, whether of freehold or leasehold, whether by way of remainder or without a precedent estate, and whether vested or contingent, shall be void in its creation which shall suspend, or may by possibility suspend, the power of absolute alienation of the property, so that there shall be no person or persons in being by whom an absolute fee in the same, in possession, can be conveyed, for a longer period than during the continuance of not more than one or more lives in being and twenty-one years thereafter. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1023.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Rule against perpetuities held inapplicable. Hopkins v. Grimshaw (165 U. S. 342, 41 L. Ed. 739, 17 Sup. Ct. 401).

The provisions of this section are made applicable to personalty as well as realty by § 45-823. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

AGREEMENT OF PARTIES

A decree affecting rights under will will be reversed on agreement of parties to enter decree in accordance with agreement. McDonald v. Maxwell (56 App. D. C. 287, 12 Fed. (2d) 822).

ALIENATION OF ACCUMULATIONS

There is in the District of Columbia no specific statutory limitation upon restraint on alienation of accumulations. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

The common law, insofar as it permits accumulation of income from a testamentary trust which is to terminate with the death of the testator's two nieces, involving the accumulation of a huge sum of money for a period probably in excess of sixty years, is obsolete and repugnant to our conditions, and therefore not applicable in the District of Columbia. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

ALTERNATIVE CONTINGENCY

If the testator distinctly makes his gift over to depend upon what is sometimes called an alternative contingency, or upon either of two contingencies, one of which may be too remote and the other cannot be, its validity depends upon the event. Wills v. Maddox (45 App. D. C. 128, cert. den. 240 U. S. 640, 61 L. Ed. 541, 37 Sup. Ct. 113).

"CHARITABLE TRUST" DEFINED

One of the distinguishing elements of a charitable trust is the indefiniteness permitted as to beneficiaries. so that a trust to be used for assisting deserving applicants for admission to a home, who are unable to furnish necessary money, is valid. Washington Loan & Trust Co. v. Hammond (51 App. D. C. 260, 278 Fed. 569).

DEVISE TO TRUSTEES

Devise to trustees held not to create a perpetuity, that is, not to be a limitation upon the property beyond the period of a life or lives in being and twenty-one years. Ould v. Washington Hosp. (95 U. S. 303, 24 L. Ed. 450).

In suit involving validity of a devise of real estate to foreign cemetery association in trust, for care of lot in District of Columbia, such trust is valid by principle of comity and equity will not allow trust to fall for want of trustee and if necessary will appoint a trustee to carry it into effect. Iglehart v. Iglehart (26 App. D. C. 209, affd. 204 U. S. 478, 51 L. Ed. 575, 27 Sup. Ct. 329).

Where testator left residuary estate to trustees to invest and reinvest for 21 years after death of two nieces, to pay annuities from the income and reinvest the remainder, the trustees had at all times power to alienate, and the trust did not violate the statute relating to restraint on alienation. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

GIFTS TO CHARITABLE USES

"Gifts to charitable uses do not come within the purview of the law against perpetuities." Washington Loan & Trust Co. v. Hammond (51 App. D. C. 260, 278 Fed. 569).

POWER TO ALIENATE SUSPENDED

Where trustees under a will have at all times the power to alienate, the trust does not violate provisions of this section, and the possibility of suspension of the power of alienation because of infancy or disability of beneficiaries at date of distribution does not invalidate the trust, such suspension being made by law and not by the will. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

SECTIONS CONSTRUED

This section and § 669 (§ 27-113) can be harmonized and construed together—this section applying to cases other than those specially provided for in § 669 (§ 27-113). Iglehart v. Iglehart (204 U. S. 478, 51 L. Ed. 575, 27 Sup. Ct. 329, affg. 26 App. D. C. 209).

TRUST CREATED BY WILL

Trust created by will held void except as to one provision, as an attempt to create a perpetuity. Landram v. Jordan (203 U. S. 56, 51 L. Ed. 88, 27 Sup. Ct. 17, affg. 25 App. D. C. 291).

§ 45-103 [25: 113]. Chattels real.

The provisions aforesaid as to future estates shall apply to limitations of chattels real as well as to freehold estates, so that the absolute ownership of a term for years and power to dispose of the same shall not be suspended for a longer period than the absolute power of alienation in respect to a fee simple. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1024.)

§ 45-104 [25: 114]. Estates created by deed or will.

Subject to the provisions aforesaid, a freehold estate as well as a chattel real may be created by deed or will to commence at a future day, absolutely or conditionally; an estate for life may be created in a term for years and a remainder limited thereon; a remainder of freehold or for years, either vested or contingent, may be created expectant on the determination of a term for years, and a fee may be limited on a fee upon a contingency which must happen, if at all, within the period herein prescribed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1025.)

§ 45-105 [25: 115]. Conveyance of land held adversely.

Any person claiming title to land may convey his interest in the same, notwithstanding there may be an adverse possession thereof. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 513.)

§ 45-106 [25: 116]. Conveyance of term in excess of one year must be by deed or will.

No estate of inheritance, or for life, or for a longer term than one year, in any real property, corporeal or incorporeal, in the District of Columbia, or any declaration or limitation of uses in the same, for any of the estates mentioned, shall be created or take effect, except by deed signed and sealed by the grantor, lessor, or declarant, or by will. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1267, ch. 854, § 492; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out at the end thereof the words "and acknowledged in the manner herein provided" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "or by will."

CROSS REFERENCE

Statute of frauds, § 12-301.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ESTOPPEL

"Where one of two contracting parties has been induced or allowed to alter his position on the faith of a contract within the statute, to such an extent that it would be fraud on the part of the other party to set up its invalidity, courts of equity hold that the clear proof of the contract and of the acts of part performance will take the case out of the operation of the statute, if the acts of part performance were clearly such as to show that they are properly referable to the parol agreement." Kresge v. Crowley (47 App. D. C. 13).

LEASES—ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Lease for rooms in office building was perfectly valid conveyance as between the parties to it, and the parties to this action, although not acknowledged as required by this section, as amended. Munsey Trust Co. v. Alexander (59 App. D. C. 369, 42 Fed. (2d) 604).

LEASES—COVENANT OF RENEWAL

Where lessor had only a life estate, the rights under the lease expired with her, and the remaindermen, by accepting rent after her death, are not estopped to defend against the covenant of renewal in the lease. Velati v. Dante (39 App. D. C. 372, cert. den. 227 U. S. 679, 57 L. Ed. 700, 33 Sup. Ct. 462).

LEASES—NOT UNDER SEAL

Although contract for lease of office rooms was not under seal, it was entitled to specific performance, lessor having spent considerable money in remodeling and lessee having occupied for two years. Hoffman v. F. H. Duehay, Inc. (62 App. D. C. 206, 65 Fed. (2d) 839).

LEASES—TENANTS IN COMMON

A lease for eight years (with privilege of renewal) by one tenant in common is void as to the other tenants who did not sign and seal the lease. The acknowledgment of the lessor was not and could not have been as agent or attorney for her co-owners. Velati v. Dante (39 App. D. C. 372, cert. den. 227 U. S. 679, 57 L. Ed. 700, 33 Sup. Ct. 462).

No amount of acquiescence by the remaining tenants could affect their rights, in the absence of power in the lessor to act as trustee for them, in the execution of the lease. Velati v. Dante (39 App. D. C. 372, cert. den. 227 U. S. 679, 57 L. Ed. 700, 33 Sup. Ct. 462).

Chapter 2.—INTERPRETATION OF INSTRUMENTS

Sec.

- 45-201. Words of inheritance unnecessary.
- 45-202. Words "grant" or "bargain and sell" pass whole estate.
- 45-203. Remainder to heirs—Rule in Shelley's case abolished.
- 45-204. Posthumous children.
- 45-205. Die without issue or without leaving issue refers to time of death.

§ 45-201 [25: 131]. Words of inheritance unnecessary.

No words of inheritance shall be necessary in a deed or will to create a fee simple estate; but every conveyance or devise of real estate shall be construed and held to pass a fee simple estate or other entire estate of the grantor or testator, unless a contrary intention shall appear by express terms or be necessarily implied therein. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 502.)

§ 45-202 [25:132]. Words "grant" or "bargain and sell" pass whole estate.

The word "grant," and the phrase "bargain and sell," or any other words purporting to transfer the whole estate shall be construed to pass the whole estate and interest in the property described, unless there be limitations or reservations showing a different intent. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 503; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "of the grantor" which appeared after the words "and interest of."

§ 45-203 [25:133]. Remainder to heirs—Rule in Shelley's case abolished.

Where a remainder shall be limited to the heirs or heirs of the body of a person to whom a life estate in the same premises shall be given, the persons, who, on the termination of the life estate, shall be the heirs or the heirs of the body of such tenant for life shall be entitled to take in fee simple as purchasers by virtue of the remainder so limited. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1027.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PRIOR LAW

Where death of decedent occurred in 1900, before enactment of statute, the common-law rule applied. Noyes v. Parker (68 App. D. C. 13, 92 Fed. (2d) 562).

§ 45-204 [25:134]. Posthumous children.

Where a future estate shall be limited to heirs, or issue, or children, posthumous children shall be entitled to take in the same manner as if living at the death of their parent; and a future estate depending on the contingency of the death of any person without heirs, or issue, or children shall be defeated by the birth of a posthumous child of such person. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1028.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Other provisions concerning rights of posthumous children, §§ 18-103, 18-714.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

UNBORN CHILDREN

"A child en ventre sa mère is deemed to be in esse, for the purpose of taking a remainder, or any other estate or interest which is for his benefit, whether by descent, by devise, or under the statute of distribution." Craig v. Rowland (10 App. D. C. 402).

§ 45-205 [25:135]. Die without issue or without leaving issue refers to time of death.

In any deed or will of real or personal estate in the District of Columbia, executed after Mar. 3, 1901, the words "die without issue," or the words "die without leaving issue," or the words "have no issue," or other words which may import either a want or failure of issue of any person in his lifetime or at the time of his death, or an indefinite failure of his issue, shall be construed to mean a want or failure of issue in the lifetime or at the time of the death of such person, and not an indefinite failure of his issue, unless a contrary intention shall appear in the instrument. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 504.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EFFECTIVE DATE OF DEVISE OVER

Under a devise to one person in fee and in case he should die under age and without issue to another in fee, the devise over takes effect upon the death at any time of the first devisee under age and without children. Herrell v. Herrell (47 App. D. C. 30).

Chapter 3.—FORMS—COVENANTS AND WARRANTIES

Sec.

- 45-301. Forms of instruments.
- 45-302. Deeds of corporations—Formal requisites—Acknowledgment.
- 45-303. Covenant binds covenantor and privies in favor of covenantee and privies without so stating.

§ 45-302 [25:142]. Deeds of corporations—Formal requisites—Acknowledgment.

The deed of a corporation shall be executed by having the seal of the corporation attached and being signed with the name of the corporation, by its president or other officer, and shall be acknowledged as the deed of the corporation by an attorney appointed for that purpose, by a power of attorney embodied in the deed or by one separate therefrom, under the corporate seal, to be annexed to and recorded with the deed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 497; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "chief" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "other."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

POWER OF ATTORNEY

Deed of corporation, signed by vice president with power of attorney to act for the corporation, held valid. Eggleston v. Wayland (56 App. D. C. 77, 10 Fed. (2d) 642).

SEAL OF CORPORATION

Lease containing seal of corporation and signed by its vice president, held valid though not acknowledged. Munsey Trust Co. v. Alexander (59 App. D. C. 369, 42 Fed. (2d) 604).

§ 45-303 [25:143]. Covenant binds covenantor and privies in favor of covenantee and privies without so stating.

When, in any deed, the word "covenant" is used, such word shall have the same effect as if the covenant was expressed to be by the covenantor, for himself, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives, and shall be deemed to be with the grantee or lessee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 505; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, began as follows: "When, in a deed conveying real estate, the words 'the said * * * covenants' are used."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SUBSEQUENT OWNERS

Similar restrictive covenants contained in deeds from the owner of a subdivision to all purchasers, inure to the benefit of the several purchasers and subsequent owners thereof. McNeil v. Gary (40 App. D. C. 397).

§ 45-304 [25:144]. General warranty.

A covenant by the grantor, in a deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed," or a grant of real estate in which the granting words are followed by the words "with general warranty," shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives will warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 506.)

§ 45-305 [25:145]. Special warranty.

A covenant by a grantor, in a deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed," or a grant of real estate in which the granting words are followed by the words "with special warranty," shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, de-visees, and personal representatives will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns against the claims and demands of the grantor and all persons claiming or to claim by, through, or under him. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 507.)

§ 45-306 [25: 146]. Covenant of quiet enjoyment.

A covenant by the grantor, in a deed of land, "that the said grantee shall quietly enjoy said land," shall have the same effect as if he had covenanted that the said grantee, his heirs, and assigns, shall, at any and all times after Mar. 3, 1901, peaceably and quietly enter upon, have, hold, and enjoy the land conveyed by the deed or intended to be so conveyed, with all the rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and to receive the rents and profits thereof, to and for his and their use and benefit, without any eviction, interruption, suit, claim, or demand whatsoever by the said grantor, his heirs or assigns, or any other person or persons whatever. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 508.)

§ 45-307 [25: 147]. Covenant against having encumbered land.

A covenant by a grantor, in a deed of land, "that he has done no act to encumber said land," shall be construed to have the same effect as if he had covenanted that he had not done or executed or knowingly suffered any act, deed, or thing whereby the land and premises conveyed, or intended so to be, or any part thereof, are or will be charged, affected, or encumbered in title, estate, or otherwise. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 509.)

§ 45-308 [25: 148]. Covenant for further assurances.

A covenant by a grantor, in a deed of land, "that he will execute such further assurances of said land as may be requisite," shall have the same effect as if he had covenanted that he, his heirs or devisees, will, at any time, upon any reasonable request, at the charge of the grantee, his heirs or assigns, do, execute, or cause to be done and executed, all such further acts, deeds, and things, for the better, more perfectly and absolutely conveying and assuring the lands and premises conveyed unto the grantee, his heirs and assigns, as intended to be conveyed, as by the grantee, his heirs or assigns, or his or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised, or required. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 510.)

§ 45-309 [25: 149]. Warranty by life tenant void as to heir.

All warranties which shall be made by any tenant for life, of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, the same descending or coming to any person in reversion or remainder, shall be void and of none effect, and likewise all collateral warranties, of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, by any ancestor, who has no estate of inheritance in possession in the same shall be void against the heir. (4 Ann, ch. 16, § 21, 1705; Kilty Rep., 246; Alex. Br. Stat. 662; Comp. Stat., D. C., 496, § 33.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section sets forth a British statute continued in force by virtue of the act of March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, § 1). It was obviously impossible to modernize the language of this statute.

Chapter 4.—ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Sec.

- 45-401. Acknowledgment by attorney.
- 45-402. Acknowledgment in the District.
- 45-403. Acknowledgment out of District.
- 45-404. Acknowledgment in foreign country.
- 45-405. Acknowledgments in Guam, Samoa, and Canal Zone.
- 45-406. Acknowledgments in Philippine Islands and Puerto Rico.
- 45-407. Certain irregular acknowledgments validated.
- 45-408. Certain defective acknowledgments and executions validated.
- 45-409. Acknowledgments by married women.
- 45-410. Power of attorney by married woman.
- 45-411. Absence of acknowledgment.
- 45-412. Acts of Congress and law of Maryland cumulative as to deeds prior to January 1, 1902.

§ 45-401 [25: 150]. Acknowledgment by attorney.

No deeds of conveyance of either real or personal estate by individuals shall be executed or acknowledged by attorney. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 498.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ENTRY INTO POSSESSION

A lease for more than one year will be valid when the tenant enters into possession and expends large sums of money, notwithstanding the invalidity of the lease under the provision of this section that no deed may be executed by attorney. Kresge v. Crowley (47 App. D. C. 13).

POWER OF ATTORNEY BEFORE 1901 CODE

When power of attorney was given by two persons jointly to acknowledge deed for the grantor, which power was executed by one of them only, such defective acknowledgment was corrected by acts of Congress April 20, 1838, and March 3, 1865. Hevner v. Matthews (4 App. D. C. 380).

Power of attorney to sell and convey land of married woman and husband and acknowledged by them was valid both by statute and common law. The Civil War did not revoke such power although principals resided in insurrectionary States. Williams v. Paine (7 App. D. C. 116, affd. 169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279).

§ 45-402 [25: 151]. Acknowledgment in the District.

Acknowledgment of deeds may be made in the District of Columbia before any judge of any of the courts of said District, the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or any notary public, or the recorder of deeds of said District, and the certificate of the officer taking the acknowledgment shall be to the following effect:

I, A B, a notary public (or other officer authorized) in and for the District of Columbia, do hereby certify that C D, party to a certain deed bearing date on the ----- day of -----, and hereto annexed, personally appeared before me in said District, the said C D being personally well known to me as (or proved by the oath of credible witnesses to be) the person who executed the said deed, and acknowledged the same to be his act and deed.

Given under my hand and seal this ---- day of -----
A. B. [Seal.]

(Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1267, ch. 854, § 493; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment struck out the words "such acknowledgment" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "acknowledgment of deeds."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EVIDENCE TO IMPEACH—NOTARY TAKING ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The evidence to impeach the acknowledgment to a deed for fraud must be clear and convincing. Ford v. Ford (27 App. D. C. 401). Quære: Whether the act of a notary in taking an acknowledgment is a judicial act or merely ministerial. See, however, Hitz v. Jenks (123 U. S. 297, 31 L. Ed. 156, 8 Sup. Ct. 143).

OMISSION OF WORDS

Quære: Whether an acknowledgment is sufficient if the words "do hereby certify" as recited in the statute, are omitted. Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

Also, as to omission of formal statement that grantor acknowledged "the same to be his act and deed." Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

A deed is fatally defective which omits to state that the grantor was personally known to the officer or that his identity had been proved by the oath of credible witnesses, and which fails to identify the instrument by recital of its date. The recordation of an instrument so acknowledged is erroneous and of no effect as constructive notice. Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

PRIMA FACIE PROOF

"The true view is that the certificate of acknowledgment is prima facie proof of the facts it contains, if within the officers' range, but is open to rebuttal, between the parties, by proof of gross concurrent mistake or fraud. In favor of purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, it is conclusive as to all matters which it is the duty of the acknowledging officer to certify, if he has jurisdiction. As to all other persons it is open to dispute." Ford v. Ford (27 App. D. C. 401).

§ 45-403 [25: 152]. Acknowledgment out of District.

When any deed or contract under seal is to be acknowledged out of the District of Columbia, but within the United States, the acknowledgment may be made before any judge of a court of record and of law, or any chancellor of a State, any judge or justice of the Supreme, District, or Territorial courts of the United States, any justice of the peace or notary public: Provided, That the certificate of acknowledgment aforesaid, made by any officer of the State or Territory not having a seal, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the register, clerk, or other public officer that the officer taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he professed to be. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1267, ch. 854, § 495; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329; Mar. 3, 1911, 36 Stat. 1167, ch. 231, §§ 289, 291.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment amended the Act of Mar. 3, 1901, by striking out the words "relating to land" after the word "seal" and also by striking out a second proviso which stated "that a certificate by any such register, clerk, or other public officer, in the form prescribed by the laws of the State or Territory in which such certificate is made or customarily used therein, shall be a sufficient certificate for the purposes of this section."

Act of March 3, 1911, amended Act of June 30, 1902, by striking out the word "circuit" after the word "Supreme."

§ 45-404 [25: 153]. Acknowledgment in foreign country.

Deeds made in a foreign country may be acknowledged before any judge or notary public, or before any secretary of legation or consular officer, or acting consular officer of the United States, as such consular officer is described in section 51, title 22, of the Code of Laws of the United States; and when the acknowledgment is made before any other officer than a secretary of legation or consular officer or acting consular officer of the United States, the official character of the person taking the acknowledgment shall be certified in the manner prescribed in section 45-403. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 496; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by changing the section numbers of the Code of Laws of the United States.

§ 45-405 [25: 154]. Acknowledgments in Guam, Samoa, and Canal Zone.

Deeds and other instruments affecting land situate in the District of Columbia may be acknowledged in the islands of Guam and Samoa or in the Canal Zone before any notary public or judge, appointed therein by proper authority, or by any officer therein who has ex officio the powers of a notary public: Provided, That the certificate by such notary in Guam, Samoa, or the Canal Zone, as the case may be, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the governor or acting governor of such place to the effect that the notary taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he purported to be; and any deeds or other instruments affecting lands so situate, so acknowledged since the 1st day of January, 1905, and accompanied by such certificate shall have the same effect as such deeds or other instruments hereafter so acknowledged and certified. (June 28, 1906, 34 Stat. 552, ch. 3585.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 48, §§ 1358, 1432.

§ 45-406 [25: 155]. Acknowledgments in Philippine Islands and Puerto Rico.

Deeds and other instruments affecting land situate in the District of Columbia may be acknowledged in the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico before any notary public appointed therein by proper authority, or any officer therein who has ex officio the powers of a notary public: Provided, That the certificate by such notary in the Philippine Islands or in Porto Rico, as the case may be, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the executive secretary of Porto Rico, or the governor or Attorney-General of the Philippine Islands to the effect that the notary taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he purported to be. (Mar. 22, 1902, 32 Stat. 83, ch. 273; Mar. 2, 1917, 39 Stat. 968, ch. 145, § 54.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 22, 1902, was amended by striking out the words "or any territory of the United States" after the word "Columbia" and also by changing provision from Attorney General of "Porto Rico" to "Executive-Secretary of Porto Rico."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 48, §§ 742 and 1019.

§ 45-407 [25: 156]. Certain irregular acknowledgments validated.

All acknowledgments of deeds and other instruments of writing under seal made prior to March 3, 1879, in a foreign country, before any secretary of legation, consul, or consular officer of the United States, for lands lying in the District of Columbia, are hereby validated and confirmed, and the same, and the records of the said deeds and instruments, if the said deeds and instruments have been recorded, are declared to be as good and effectual, in behalf of the grantees therein named, and all persons claiming through or under them, as if the said acknowledgments and records had been respectively made and recorded under the provisions of existing laws: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to divest just rights already acquired in good faith by creditors of or purchasers from the grantors in such deeds or instruments. (Mar. 3, 1879, 20 Stat. 353, ch. 174.)

§ 45-408 [25: 157]. Certain defective acknowledgments and executions validated.

All deeds and acknowledgments recorded in the land records of the District prior to January 1, 1902, of any of the following designated classes shall, in favor of parties in actual possession, claiming under and through such deeds, be deemed and held and are declared to be of the same effect and validity to pass the fee simple or other estate intended to be conveyed, and bar dower in the real estate therein mentioned, as if such deeds had in all respects been executed, acknowledged, proved, certified, and recorded according to law, namely:

First. All deeds executed and acknowledged by married women, their husbands having signed and sealed the same, for conveying any real estate, or interest therein, situated in the District;

Second. All acknowledgments of deeds by married women, whether they executed the deed or not, for the purpose of releasing their claims to dower in the lands described therein, situated in the District, in which acknowledgments the form prescribed by law was not followed;

Third. All deeds executed and acknowledged by an attorney in fact duly appointed for conveying real estate situated in the District;

Fourth. All deeds executed and acknowledged, or only acknowledged by such attorney in fact, for conveying real estate situated in the District, as to which the acknowledgment was made before officers different from those before whom proof of the power of attorney was made, and as to which the power of attorney was proved before only one justice of the peace;

Fifth. All deeds for the purpose of conveying land situated in the District, acknowledged out of the District, before a judge of a United State court, or before two aldermen of a city, or the chief magistrate of a city, or before a notary public or other officer;

Sixth. All deeds for the purpose of conveying land situated in the District, acknowledged by an attorney in fact, duly appointed, or by an officer of a corporation, duly authorized, who acknowledged the same to be his act and deed, instead of the act and deed of the grantor or of the corporation; and

Seventh. All deeds for the purpose of conveying land situated in the District to which there was not annexed a legal certificate as to the official character of the officer or officers taking the acknowledgment. (R. S., D. C., § 459; Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1270, ch. 854, § 515; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added at the end of the paragraph numbered fifth the words "or other officer."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PRIOR LAW

Under laws of Maryland, in force in the District of Columbia in 1859, it was competent for a married woman to execute with her husband a power of attorney to convey her lands therein, which, when acknowledged by her according to the statute relating to the acknowledgment by married women of deeds conveying their real property in the District, thereby became a valid and sufficient instrument to authorize the conveyance by attorney. Williams v. Paine (169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279, affg. 7 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45-409 [25: 158]. Acknowledgments by married women.

In all cases mentioned in section 45-408 the certificate of acknowledgment by a married woman made prior to April 10, 1869, must show that the acknowledgment was made "apart" or "privily" from her husband, or use some other term importing that her acknowledgment was made out of his presence, and also that she acknowledged or declared that she willingly executed or that she willingly acknowledged the deed, or that the same was her voluntary act, or to that effect. (R. S., D. C., § 460; Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1270, ch. 854, § 516; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment inserted after the word "woman," the words "made prior to April 10, 1869."

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 45-408. Williams v. Paine (169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279, affg. 7 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45-410 [25: 159]. Power of attorney by married woman.

When the power of attorney mentioned in section 45-408 was executed by a married women, the same shall be effectual and sufficient if there is such an acknowledgment of the same as would be sufficient, under the provisions of section 45-409 to pass her estate and interest therein were she a party executing the deed of conveyance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1270, ch. 854, § 518; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "is" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "was," also by striking out the words "this chapter" and inserting in lieu thereof the section numbers corresponding to those given above.

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 45-408. Williams v. Paine (169 U. S. 55, 42 L. Ed. 658, 18 Sup. Ct. 279, affg. 7 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45-411 [25: 160]. Absence of acknowledgment.

No deed or conveyance of squares or lots of public land in the city of Washington, made in pursuance of law prior to January 1, 1902, by the commissioner of public buildings or any other authorized officer, shall be deemed invalid in law for the want of an acknowledgment by the commissioner or other authorized officer before such judicial officers, as deeds of real property made between individuals are required by law to be acknowledged. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1269, ch. 854, § 514; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "to March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-three" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "to the adoption of this Code (January 1, 1902)."

§ 45-412 [25: 161]. Acts of Congress and law of Maryland cumulative as to deeds prior to January 1, 1902.

In all cases of deeds executed and acknowledged prior to January 1, 1902, the Acts of Congress approved May 31, 1832 (4 Stat. 520, ch. 112), and April 20, 1838 (5 Stat. 226, ch. 57), in reference to the acknowledgment and recording of deeds of lands situated in the District, shall be taken and construed as cumulative with the Acts of Maryland on the same subject in force in the District at the passage thereof, and an acknowledgment made and certified in compliance with any one of said Acts, and before any officer authorized by either of said Acts to take an acknowledgment, whether in or out of the District, shall be good and effectual. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 520; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting before the word "the" the words "in all cases of deeds executed and acknowledged prior to the adoption of this Code (January 1, 1902)."

Chapter 5.—EFFECTIVE DATE AND RECORDING OF DEEDS

Sec.

- 45-501. When deeds take effect.
- 45-502. Deed first recorded has priority.
- 45-503. Instruments not executed or acknowledged according to law not to be recorded.
- 45-504. Record of deeds as evidence.
- 45-505. Bonds and contracts.
- 45-506. Maps and plats not to be recorded.

§ 45-501 [25: 171]. When deeds take effect.

Any deed conveying real property in the District, or interest therein, or declaring or limiting any use or trust thereof, executed and acknowledged and certified as provided in sections 30-216, 45-106, 45-302, 45-401 to 45-404 and delivered to the person in whose favor the same is executed, shall be held to take effect from the date of the delivery thereof, except that as to creditors and subsequent bona fide purchasers and mortgagees without notice of said deed, and others interested in said property, it shall only take effect from the time of its delivery to the recorder of deeds for record. (Apr. 29, 1878, 20 Stat. 39, ch. 69; Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 499; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

In the fourth line, the 1901 code said "provided as aforesaid." The sections thereof that preceded this section were §§ 492-498 which are compiled herein as §§ 30-216, 45-106, 45-302, and 45-401 to 45-404.

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901 (the 1901 Code) was amended by excluding after the word "effect" the words "and pass the title in the property conveyed to said person from the date of the acknowledgment, provided the same be recorded within three months from said date."

CROSS REFERENCE

Criminal penalty for recording instrument by one who has no color of title, § 22-1302.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

An assignment of rents is not a transfer of an estate in the land, for the owner may transfer the rents and still retain his entire interests in the land. Commercial Credit Co. v. Campbell (64 App. D. C. 64, 74 Fed. (2d) 468).

"CREDITORS," CONSTRUED

"Creditors mentioned (in this section) mean creditors who in the interval of time have fastened upon the property for the payment of their debts, and not general creditors." Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

CREDITORS HAVING ACTUAL NOTICE

The delivery of a deed for record is not a prerequisite to its validity as against creditors having actual notice of its existence. Staples v. Warren (46 App. D. C. 363, distinguishing Dulany v. Morse, 39 App. D. C. 523) (as to a conveyance constituting a preference under the bankruptcy act).

DEED WITHHELD FROM RECORD

When deed of trust was not recorded until several weeks after the judgment of the bank was recovered, and there was no evidence that the bank ever had actual notice of its existence until after execution was issued and levied, the conveyance would be ineffectual against the bank, or any purchaser at the sale under that judgment. Hitz v. National Metropolitan Bank (111 U. S. 722, 28 L. Ed. 577, 4 Sup. Ct. 613).

"The fact that a deed once delivered is withheld from record for a long period or until the death of the grantor, either at or without the request of the latter, has no effect to impair its effect as a conveyance of title or to operate any extinguishment." Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76), citing Fitzgerald v. Wynne (1 App. D. C. 107); Bunten v. American Security & Trust Co. (25 App. D. C. 226).

DELIVERY ESSENTIAL; OBJECT OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT

"The act of delivery is essential to the existence of any deed, bond, or note. Although drawn and signed, so long as it is undelivered, it is a nullity; not only does it take effect only by delivery, but also only on delivery." Atlas Portland Cement Co. v. Fox (49 App. D. C. 292, 265 Fed. 444, 266 Fed. 1021, quoting from Young v. Clarendon Tp. 132 U. S. 340, 33 L. Ed. 356, 10 Sup. Ct. 107). "The statute is merely one of notice. As stated by Chief Justice Alvey, in Fitzgerald v. Wynne (1 App. D. C. 107): 'The great object of the statutes in requiring deeds of conveyance to be acknowledged and recorded is to prevent the practice of fraud upon creditors and purchasers—to furnish the means of notice and protection to innocent third parties.' To prevent fraud and furnish notice when? At the time the credit is extended or the claim reduced to judgment, on the strength of the debtor's apparent title. Not before the title was acquired, but during its record existence."

GENERAL INTENT OF REGISTRY

General intent of the statutes of registry is to protect innocent persons against prejudice from secret conveyances, by providing means through which they can know the condition of titles; that where they acquire such knowledge by means other than registry, they do not stand in need of such protection, and do not, as a general rule, come within the purview of the statutes; and that the statutes will be so construed unless their terms exclude such construction. Manogue v. Bryant (15 App. D. C. 245).

ILLEGAL RECORDING

"The record of an instrument that is not permitted by law to be recorded, or that is not proved for record as required by law, is constructive notice to no one." Clark v. Harmer (5 App. D. C. 114).

JUDGMENT CREDITORS

"Judgment creditors" are within meaning of the statute, but this applies only to cases where the credit has been extended or judgments have been secured while the record title remained in the debtor. Atlas Portland Cement v. Fox (49 App. D. C. 292, 265 Fed. 444; for dissenting opinion, see 266 Fed. 1021).

JUDGMENT LIENS

Judgment liens extend to all lands "held under apparently perfect legal title by the judgment debtor at the time of the rendition of the judgment, notwithstanding the same might be subject to some secret trust, capable of being placed upon record." American Sav. Bank v. Eisminger (35 App. D. C. 51).

NOTICE NOT REQUIRED

"One is not required to take notice of everything which is put upon the records of the Land Office, even concerning his own property. One who has acquired title is entitled to rest upon his rights; nothing afterwards put upon record, otherwise than by himself or his procurement, can legally affect those rights." Armstrong v. Ashley (22 App. D. C. 368, affd. 204 U. S. 272, 51 L. Ed. 482, 27 Sup. Ct. 270).

NOTICE OF PRIOR EQUITY

"A purchaser with notice of a prior equity superior to the rights of his grantor takes his place and is bound to do that which in equity his grantor was bound to do." Kresge v. Crowley (47 App. D. C. 13).

NOTICE REQUIRED

"One who deals with land is required to take notice of all conveyances on record at the time at which he deals with it." Armstrong v. Ashley (22 App. D. C. 368, affd. 204 U. S. 272, 51 L. Ed. 482, 27 Sup. Ct. 270). See also Sis v. Boarman (11 App. D. C. 116).

PARTICULAR FORM NOT REQUIRED

"No particular form or ceremony is essential to the effective delivery of a deed. Words or acts showing an intention that the deed shall be complete and operative constitute a good delivery." Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76).

POSSESSION PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE

Possession by the grantee is prima facie evidence of delivery. Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76). See also, Carusi v. Savary (6 App. D. C. 330).

PRIORITY OF JUDGMENT CREDITOR

A judgment creditor who files a bill in equity to sell the equitable interest of the judgment debtor in real property, has priority over a grantee claiming under a deed executed before (but not filed for record until after) the filing of the bill. Ohio Nat. Bank v. Berlin (26 App. D. C. 218).

RECORDING AS TO THIRD PARTIES

"The requirement consists in the duty imposed upon the grantee to record, or suffer the penalty prescribed * * * of having the instrument * * * declared a nullity. * * * Though optional with the grantee as to certain parties as to innocent purchasers and creditors it is required for his protection." Dulany v. Morse (39 App. D. C. 523).

RECORDING OF TRUST DEED FROM STRANGER

Recordation of deed of trust from a stranger to the record title is not constructive notice that the grantor is the grantee of last record owner. Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

SUPERIOR EQUITIES OF PRIOR SPECIFIC LIEN

"A judgment, being but a general lien, must be subordinated to the superior equities of a prior specific lien * * *. The judgment creditor stands in the place of his debtor, and can only take the property of his debtor subject to the equitable charges to which it was justly liable in the hands of the debtor at the time of the rendition of the judgment." Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

SUPERSEDING PRIOR ACT

This section superseded prior recording act and applies to all instruments unrecorded at time of its passage. Dulany v. Morse (39 App. D. C. 523).

TRUSTEE IN BANKRUPTCY

Trustee in bankruptcy does not, under our recording statutes, take the property as an innocent purchaser, but "subject to all equities, liens, or encumbrances, whether created by operation of law or by the bankrupt, which existed against the property in the hands of the bankrupt." Crosby v. Ridout (27 App. D. C. 481).

UNEXPRESSED CONDITION

"A deed cannot be delivered to the grantee upon a condition not expressed in the instrument." Walker v. Warner (31 App. D. C. 76), citing Newman v. Baker (10 App. D. C. 197); Bieber v. Gans (24 App. D. C. 517).

§ 45-502 [25: 172]. Deed first recorded has priority.

When two or more deeds of the same property are made to bona fide purchasers for value without notice, the deed or deeds which are first recorded according to law shall be preferred. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 500.)

§ 45-503 [25: 173]. Instruments not executed or acknowledged according to law not to be recorded.

The recorder shall not accept for record or record any instrument which shall not be executed and acknowledged agreeably to law by the person or party therein granting or contracting with respect to his right, title, or interest in the land therein described. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 555; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 533, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the ending which stated that "and the knowledge by any person of the fact of such record shall not be either constructive or actual notice of the existence of such instrument."

ILLEGAL RECORDING

"The record of an instrument that is not permitted by law to be recorded, or that is not proved for record as required by law, is constructive notice to no one." Clark v. Harmer (5 App. D. C. 114).

INSTRUMENTS TO BE RECORDED

"He is by law required to receive and file, or receive and record * * * such instruments as have been duly executed, and which purport on their face to be of the nature of instruments entitled to be filed or recorded." Dancy v. Clark (24 App. D. C. 487).

MANDAMUS TO COMPEL RECORDATION

Use of mandamus to compel recordation. Dancy v. Clark (24 App. D. C. 487).

VALIDITY OF INSTRUMENTS

Recorder has no jurisdiction to pass on validity of instruments presented for record. Dancy v. Clark (24 App. D. C. 487).

§ 45-504 [25: 174]. Record of deeds as evidence.

The record or a copy thereof of any deed recorded, as mentioned in sections 45-408 and 45-409, shall be evidence thereof, in the same manner and shall have the same effect as if such deed had been originally executed, acknowledged, and recorded according to law. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 519; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "and" and substituting the word "or" so that it shall read "the record or a copy."

CROSS REFERENCE

Introduction into evidence, §§ 14-401, 14-402.

§ 45-505 [25: 175]. Bonds and contracts.

Any title bond or other written contract in relation to land may be acknowledged, certified, and recorded in the same manner and with like effect as to notice as deeds for the conveyance of land. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1268, ch. 854, § 501; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 531, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "as deeds for the conveyance of land" which followed the word "manner."

§ 45-506 [25: 176]. Maps and plats not to be recorded.

It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to record any map or plat of the subdivision of land in the District of Columbia in the office of the recorder of deeds for said District, whether such map or plat be attached to a deed or other document or is offered separately for record. (Aug. 24, 1894, 28 Stat. 501, ch. 329.)

Chapter 6.—MORTGAGES AND DEEDS OF TRUST

Sec.

- 45-601. Mortgages and deeds of trust executed, acknowledged, and recorded same as deeds.
- 45-602. How to be recorded.
- 45-603. Estate of mortgagee or trustee conveyed.
- 45-604. Survival of title.
- 45-605. In suit for money secured by mortgage or for ejectment, the money due may be paid into court and mortgagee required to release and discharge mortgage.
- 45-606. In foreclosure suits court may upon motion by defendant, and admission of right of plaintiff, make a final decree without suit being brought to regular hearing.
- 45-607. Foreclosure—Exceptions to payment into court.
- 45-608. Infant trustee or mortgagee may convey on petition to court by mortgagor, beneficiary, or guardian.
- 45-609. Infant trustee or mortgagee may be compelled by order of court to make conveyance and assurance.
- 45-610. Mortgagee may redeem prior mortgage.
- 45-611. Appointment of trustee to sell in event of death of mortgagee or trustee.
- 45-612. Defenses against foreclosure.
- 45-613. Replacement of deceased trustee.
- 45-614. Appointment of new trustee to sell in event of refusal or inability to act or removal of trustee from District, or for other good cause.
- 45-615. Terms of sale.
- 45-616. Sale of property and deficiency decree in personam—Same relief in re vendor's lien.
- 45-617. Creditor buying.
- 45-618. Expenses and commissions.
- 45-619. Release after death of mortgagee or trustee.
- 45-620. Non compos mentis trustee or mortgagee or committee may by order of the chancellor make conveyance or assurance of mortgaged lands.

§ 45-601 [25: 191]. Mortgages and deeds of trust executed, acknowledged, and recorded same as deeds.

Mortgages and deeds of trust to secure debts, conveying any estate in land, shall be executed and may be acknowledged and recorded in the same manner as absolute deeds; and they shall take effect both as between the parties thereto and as to others, bona fide purchasers and mortgagees and creditors, in the same manner and under the same conditions as absolute deeds. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 521; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, read as follows: "Mortgages and deeds of trust to secure debts, conveying any estate in land, in order to be effectual, shall be executed and recorded in the same manner as absolute deeds; and they shall take effect and pass title to the property conveyed, both as between the parties thereto and as to others, bona fide purchasers and mortgagees and creditors, in the same manner and under the same conditions as absolute deeds."

CROSS REFERENCE

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Deed declared a mortgage. Dulany v. Morse (39 App. D. C. 523).

§ 45-602 [25: 192]. How to be recorded.

It shall be the duty of the recorder of deeds to record all such mortgages and deeds of trust in the same manner as absolute deeds. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 523; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the ending which stated "and, after each mortgage, to leave a blank space wherein may be recorded any assignment or release of said mortgage."

§ 45-603 [25: 193]. Estate of mortgagee or trustee conveyed.

The legal estate conveyed to a mortgagee, his heirs and assigns, or to a trustee to secure a debt, his heirs and assigns, shall be construed and held to be a qualified fee simple, determinable upon the release of the mortgage or deed of trust, as hereinafter provided, or the appointment of a new trustee by judicial decree for the causes hereinafter mentioned: Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall prevent the passing of an absolute and unqualified estate in fee-simple under a deed made by the mortgagee or trustee in pursuance of the powers conferred by the mortgage or deed of trust. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1271, ch. 854, § 522; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by adding proviso.

CROSS REFERENCE

Removal of trustee, see § 45-614.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

MORTGAGEE OUT OF POSSESSION

Mortgagee out of possession has no such interest as will permit him to have partition; "much less is the beneficiary under a deed of trust entitled to have partition; for he has no estate whatever, and no possibility even of a right of possession. Nor has the trustee in the deed any such right * * *." Sis v. Boarman (11 App. D. C. 116).

POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEES

Powers and duties of trustees in deeds of trust as to time of sale and price of property are more restricted than trustees for distribution and partition, and the duties of the first type of trustees are measured by the deed of trust. Anderson v. White (2 App. D. C. 408).

Powers and duties of trustees are measured by terms of instrument appointing them, and they do not have the same discretion in exercise of duties as other trustees. Wheeler v. McBlair (5 App. D. C. 375, affd. 172 U. S. 643, 43 L. Ed. 1182, 19 Sup. Ct. 882).

RECOVERY OF POSSESSION BY MORTGAGEE

Mortgagee and mortgagor do not stand in relation of landlord and tenant, and mortgagee, after default, may not recover possession under Landlord and Tenant Act of the District, but must bring ejectment or foreclosure. Willis v. Eastern Trust & Banking Co. (169 U. S. 295, 42 L. Ed. 752, 18 Sup. Ct. 347).

SALE OF MORTGAGED REALTY

A proposed contract of sale of mortgaged realty, in good faith, and in which mortgagor will participate, does not violate this section. Pearson v. Small (65 App. D. C. 243, 82 Fed. (2d) 849).

TRUSTEE HOLDS LEGAL TITLE

Trustee holds legal title and a deed by it conveyed whatever title it had. Chesapeake Beach R. Co. v. Washington, P. & C. R. Co. (199 U. S. 247, 50 L. Ed. 175, 26 Sup. Ct. 25), affg. (23 App. D. C. 587).

"The estate of the trustee is a naked legal title without any beneficial interest whatever * * * and they have always held the legal title in strict subordination to the beneficial interest of the debtor and creditor in the transaction." Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

TRUSTEES SALES FOR PARTITION OR DISTRIBUTION

In making a sale the trustee must not place himself in a position where his personal interest conflicts with his duty. Jackson v. Smith (254 U. S. 586, 65 L. Ed. 418, 40 Sup. Ct. 10, revg. 48 App. D. C. 565).

Difference between rule applicable to cases of sales by trustees for partition or distribution and sales under ordinary trust to secure loans and enforceable upon stipulated terms. In the former, interests of the beneficiaries are identical, and trustee is charged with absolute duty to arrange and conduct sale; in the latter it is duty of trustee to conduct sale in manner and upon notice prescribed in the trust. Smith v. Jackson (48 App. D. C. 565, revd. on other grounds, 254 U. S. 586, 65 L. Ed. 418, 40 Sup. Ct. 10).

Sale by a trustee substituted for the survivor of two trustees, who refused to act, is valid, without there being a substitute for the deceased trustee. Stokes v. Hinden (66 App. D. C. 34, 85 Fed. (2d) 200).

§ 45-604 [25: 194]. Survival of title.

Whenever a mortgage or deed of trust to secure a debt is executed to two or more mortgagees or trustees in fee simple, upon the death of any one or more of them the legal title and the trust attached to it shall be held to survive to the survivor or survivors and the heirs of the last survivor, subject to the provisions aforesaid. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1272, ch. 854, § 533.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE

The wording indicates no intention that a trustee should be substituted for each of the original Trustees, where there are more than one, but only for the surviving trustee. Stokes v. Hinden (66 App. D. C. 34, 85 Fed. (2d) 200).

§ 45-605 [25: 195]. In suit for money secured by mortgage or for ejectment, the money due may be paid into court and mortgagee required to release and discharge mortgage.

Where any action shall be brought on any bond for payment of the money secured by mortgage, or performance of the covenants therein contained, or where any action of ejectment shall be brought in any court of record by any mortgagee or mortgagees, his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for the recovery of the possession of any mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and no suit shall be then depending in any court of equity, for or touching the foreclosure or redeeming of such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments; if the person or persons having right to redeem such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and who shall appear and become defendant or defendants in such action, shall at any time, pending such action, pay unto such mortgagee or mortgagees, or, in case of his, her, or their refusal, shall bring into court where such action shall be depending, all the principal monies and interest due on such mortgage, and also all such costs as have been expended in any suit or suits at law or in equity upon such mortgage (such money for principal, interest, and costs to be ascertained and computed by the court where such action is or shall be depending, or by the proper officer by such court to be appointed for that purpose) the monies so paid to such mortgagee or mortgagees, or brought into such court, shall be deemed and taken to be in full satisfaction and discharge of such mortgage, and the court shall and may discharge every such mortgagor, or defendant, of and from the same accordingly; and shall and may, by rule or rules of the same court, compel such mortgagee or mortgagees, at the costs and charges of such mortgagor or mortgagors, to assign, surrender, or reconvey such mortgaged lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and such estate and interest, as such mortgagee or mortgagees have or hath therein, and deliver up all deeds, evidences, and writings, in his, her, or their custody, relating to the title of such mortgaged lands, tenements, and hereditaments, unto such mortgagor or mortgagors, who shall have paid or brought such monies into the court, his, her, or their heirs, executors, or administrators, or to such other person or persons, as he, she, or they, shall for that purpose nominate or appoint. (7 Geo. 2, ch. 20, § 1, 1734; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 726; Comp. Stat., D. C., p. 395, § 1.)

§ 45-606 [25: 196]. In foreclosure suits court may upon motion by defendant, and admission of right of plaintiff, make a final decree without suit being brought to regular hearing.

Where any bill or bills, suit or suits, shall be filed, commenced, or brought in the court of equity, by any person or persons having or claiming any estate, right, or interest, in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, under or by virtue of any mortgage or mortgages thereof, to compel the defendant or defendants in such suit or suits (having or claiming a right to redeem the same) to pay the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such suit or suits, the principal money and interest due on any such mortgage, or the principal money and interest due on such mortgage, together with any sum or sums of money due on any encumbrance or specialty, charged or chargeable on the equity of redemption thereof, and in default of payment thereof, to foreclose such defendant or defendants of his, her, or their right or equity of redeeming such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments; such equity court, where such suit or suits shall be depending, upon application made to such court by the defendant or defendants in such suit, having a right to redeem such mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments, aments, and upon his or their admitting the right and title of the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such suit, may and shall at any time or times, before such suit or cause shall be brought to hearing, make such order or decree therein, as such court or courts might or could have made therein, in case such suit or cause had then been regularly brought to hearing before such court or courts; and all parties to such suit or suits shall be bound by such order or decree so made, to all intents and purposes, as if such order or decree had been made, by such court, at or subsequent to the hearing of such cause or suit. (7 Geo. 2, ch. 20, § 2, 1734; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 727; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 396, § 2.)

§ 45-607 [25:197]. Foreclosure — Exceptions to payment.

Sections 45-605, 45-606 or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to any case where the person or persons, against whom the redemption is or shall be prayed, shall (by writing under his, her, or their hands, or the hand of his, her, or their attorney, agent, or solicitor, to be delivered before the money shall be brought into such court at law, to the attorney or solicitor for the other side) insist, either that the party praying a redemption has not a right to redeem, or that the premises are chargeable with other or different principal sums, than what appear on the face of the mortgage, or shall be admitted on the other side; nor to any case where the right of redemption to the mortgaged lands and premises in question in any cause or suit shall be controverted or questioned by or between different defendants in the same cause or suit; nor shall be any prejudice to any subsequent mortgagee or mortgagees, or subsequent encumbrancer. (7 Geo. 2, ch. 20, § 3, 1734; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 728; Comp. Stat., D. C., p. 397, § 3.)

§ 45-608 [25:198]. Infant trustee or mortgagee may convey on petition to court by mortgagor, beneficiary, or guardian.

It shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons, under the age of one and twenty years, by the direction of the court of chancery, signified by an order made upon hearing all parties concerned, on the petition of the person or persons for whom such infant or infants shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagor or mortgagors, guardian or guardians of such infant or infants, or person or persons entitled to the monies secured by or upon any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any infant or infants are or shall be seized or possessed by way of mortgage, or of the person or persons entitled to the redemption thereof, to convey and assure any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in such manner as the said court of chancery shall, by such order so to be obtained, direct, to any other person or persons; and such conveyance or assurance so to be had and made, as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the said infants or infant were, at the time of making such conveyance, or assurance, of the full age of one and twenty years. (7 Ann. ch. 19, § 1, 1703; Kilty's Rep. 247; Alex. Br. Stat. 679; Comp. Stat., D. C., p. 79, § 13.)

§ 45-609 [25:199]. Infant trustee or mortgagee may be compelled by order of court to make conveyance and assurance.

All and every such infant or infants, being only trustee or trustees, mortgagee or mortgagees, as aforesaid, shall and may be compelled by such order so, as aforesaid, to be obtained, to make such conveyance or conveyances, assurance or assurances, as aforesaid, in like manner as trustees or mortgagees of full age are compellable to convey or assign their trust, estates, or mortgages. (7 Ann. ch. 19, § 2, 1708; Kilty's Rep. 247; Alex. Br. Stat. 680; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 79, § 14.)

§ 45-610 [25:200]. Mortgagee may redeem prior mortgage.

If it so happen there be more than one mortgage at the same time made, by any person or persons to any person or persons, of the same lands and tenements, the several late or under mortgagees, his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, shall have power to redeem any former mortgage or mortgages, upon payment of the principal debt, interest, and costs of suit, to the prior mortgagee or mortgagees, his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns; any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. (4 and 5 W. and M., ch. 16, § 4, 1692; Kilty's Rep. 242; Alex. Br. Stat. 579; Comp. Stat., D. C. 237, § 26.)

§ 45-611 [25:201]. Appointment of trustee to sell in event of death of mortgagee or trustee.

In case of the death of a sole mortgagee or trustee, or the last survivor of several, if the debt secured by the mortgage or deed of trust shall not have been paid, the party entitled thereto may file a petition in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, setting forth under oath the execution of the mortgage or deed of trust, the death of the mortgagee or trustee, and the fact that the debt secured by the said mortgage or deed of trust remains unpaid, and such other fact as may be necessary to entitle the petitioner to the relief prayed, and praying for the appointment of a trustee to execute the trusts of the said mortgage or deed of trust. It shall not be necessary to make the heirs at law or devisees of the deceased mortgagee or trustee parties to such proceeding. The court may thereupon lay a rule upon the debtor or parties whose property is bound by said mortgage or deed of trust, unless they shall voluntarily appear and admit the allegations of the petition, to show cause, under oath, on or before the 10th day, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, after the service of such rule, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. If said party or parties can not be found in said District, service of said rule shall be by publication, according to the practice in equity in said court. If no cause be shown, notwithstanding the service of said rule, against the prayer of said petition, the court may determine in a summary way whether said debt remains unpaid, and if satisfied thereof the said court may, by decree, appoint a new trustee in the place of the deceased mortgagee or trustee, and vest in him all the title at law and in equity, and all the powers that had been conveyed to and vested in the deceased mortgagee or trustee. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1272, ch. 854, § 534; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting after the words "heirs at law" the words "or devisees."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

Quaere: Whether this section and § 538 of the Code (§ 45-614) were intended to supersede the former course of procedure in equity for the removal and appointment of trustees. Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

NEW TRUSTEES APPOINTED

Where trustees appointed under deed of trust died, new trustees were appointed to execute the trusts, and were invested with all the powers which had been conveyed to the deceased trustees. Dawson v. Taylor (55 App. D. C. 237, 4 Fed. (2d) 430).

NO PROVISION REQUIRING NOTICE

The statute does not contain a provision requiring notice, actual or constructive, to all parties in interest. Totten v. Harlowe (66 App. D. C. 373, 88 Fed. (2d) 755).

PUBLICATION UPON ABSCONDING TRUSTEE

Publication need not be had upon an absconding trustee, whose whereabouts is unknown. Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

TRUSTEES' REFUSAL TO PERFORM

Trustees' "refusal or disability to perform the trust is the equivalent in equity of a renunciation of the legal estate." Marshall v. Kraak (23 App. D. C. 129).

§ 45-612 [25: 202]. Defenses against foreclosure.

If matter of defense against the foreclosure of said mortgage or the enforcement of said deed of trust be set up in answer to said rule, the further proceedings shall be according to the practice in equity after answer filed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1273, ch. 854, § 535.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FORECLOSURE

Foreclosure may be had by proceeding in equity, without calling on trustees to sell under power of sale in deed of trust. Utermehle v. McGreal (1 App. D. C. 359, revd. on other grounds, 167 U. S. 688, 42 L. Ed. 326, 17 Sup. Ct. 961).

On petition by holder of note secured by mortgage to participate in proceeds of sale of mortgaged property in foreclosure proceedings instituted by holder of other note, the bar of limitation, or lapse of time, does not apply as in case of an action on the note, but to the remedy for the enforcement of an equitable right in land under the mortgage; hence the same period that would bar an ejectment is required. Cropley v. Eyster (9 App. D. C. 373).

LIMITATIONS OR LACHES

Upon the ground of lapse of time alone, there is no room for the joint application of the statute of limitations and the doctrine of laches where they would conflict with each other, and the equitable doctrine would have the effect of reducing the statutory period of limitations. Sis v. Boarman (11 App. D. C. 116).

§ 45-613 [25: 203]. Replacement of deceased trustee.

In case of the death of any trustee appointed as aforesaid without having executed the trusts of the mortgage or deed of trust, a like proceeding to that provided for in section 45-611 may be had to appoint a successor to him in the said trusts. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1273, ch. 854, § 536.)

§ 45-614 [25: 204]. Appointment of new trustee to sell in event of refusal or inability to act or removal of trustee from District, or for other good cause.

In case of the refusal of any trustee named in a deed of trust to secure a debt to accept the trusts thereby created, or of his resignation of said trust after accepting the same, which is hereby allowed, or of his removal from the District of Columbia, or of his inability to act, or for any other good cause shown, it shall be lawful for any party interested in the execution of such trusts to apply to said court by petition, setting forth the appropriate facts and asking for the appointment of a new trustee in his place, and a like proceeding shall be had for the appointment of such trustee as in the case of the death of a trustee, as directed in sections 45-611 and 45-619 of this title: Provided, That any rule to show cause issued in such case shall be served upon the existing trustee, as provided in said sections. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 538; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "said trust being executed" and also by striking out at the end of said section the words "well as upon the parties interested in the trust, if he and they can be found within the said District" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "provided in said sections."

DISCRETION OF COURT

Where deed of trust named first and second successor trustees, one of whom was in jail and the other awaiting trial, the court could in its reasonable discretion appoint a new trustee. Wright v. Pitts (62 App. D. C. 217, 66 Fed. (2d) 197).

§ 45-615 [25: 205]. Terms of sale.

If the length of notice and terms of sale are not prescribed by the mortgage or deed of trust, or be not left therein to the judgment or discretion of the mortgagee or trustee, any person interested in such sale may apply to the court, before such sale is advertised, to fix the terms of sale and determine what notice of sale shall be given. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 539; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out at the end thereof the words "which terms shall be such as to secure to the creditor the payment of his debt in cash as nearly as may be consistent with justice; and the determination of the court in the premises shall be binding on all parties in interest."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

JUDICIAL SALE DISTINGUISHED

Where trustee appointed by the court to succeed surviving trustee who refused to serve made a sale, such sale was not a judicial sale within meaning of Judicial Sales Act (U. S. C., title 28, §§ 847-849), but a sale in accordance with the terms of the trust and the question of notice is governed by this section. Stokes v. Hinden (66 App. D. C. 34, 85 Fed. (2d) 200).

§ 45-616 [25: 206]. Sale of property and deficiency decree in personam—Same relief in re vendor's lien.

In all cases of application to said court to foreclose any mortgage or deed of trust, the equity court shall have authority, instead of decreeing that the mortgagor be foreclosed and barred from redeeming the mortgaged property, to order and decree that said property be sold and the proceeds be brought into court to be applied to the payment of the debt secured by said mortgage; and if, upon a sale of the whole mortgaged property, the net proceeds shall be insufficient to pay the mortgage debt, the court may enter a decree in personam against the mortgagor or other party to the suit who is liable for the payment of the mortgage debt for the residue of said debt remaining unsatisfied after applying to said debt the proceeds of such sale: Provided, That the complainant would be entitled to maintain an action at law or suit in equity for said residue; which decree shall have the same effect and be enforced by execution in the same manner as a judgment at law. And in suits to enforce a vendor's lien on real estate for unpaid purchase money similar relief may be given by a decree of sale and a decree in personam for the unsatisfied residue of the purchase money due. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1204, ch. 854, § 95.)

JUDICIAL SALE DISTINGUISHED

Where trustee under deed of trust obtained leave of court in receivership proceeding to sell real estate, such sale did not constitute a judicial sale. Huffines v. American Security & Trust Co. (63 App. D. C. 224, 71 Fed. (2d) 345).

PRIOR LAW

Prior to enactment of this act, R. S. § 803 applied to foreclosure of mortgages in the District of Columbia. Dodge v. Freedman's Sav. & Trust Co. (106 U. S. 445, 27 L. Ed. 206, 1 Sup. Ct. 335); Shepherd v. Pepper (133 U. S. 626, 33 L. Ed. 706, 10 Sup. Ct. 438).

§ 45-617 [25: 207]. Creditor buying.

If a creditor, for the payment of whose debt property shall be sold under a deed of trust, shall become the purchaser at such sale, he shall be entitled to credit the amount of the purchase money against the debt, and shall be only required to pay to the trustee the excess of the purchase money over his debt, together with such additional amount as may be necessary to defray the expenses of the sale. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 544.)

CREDITOR AS PURCHASER

When the creditor becomes a purchaser at the sale, he is entitled to credit the amount of the purchase money to the debt. Orlove v. National Sav. & Trust Co. (68 App. D. C. 387, 98 Fed. (2d) 259); Kosters v. Hoover (69 App. D. C. 66, 98 Fed. (2d) 595).

LIABILITY FOR PROFITS FROM UNLAWFUL SALE

Attorneys who knowingly confederated with receiver held liable for all profits resulting from purchase at foreclosure sale and resale of property, with interest and costs. Jackson v. Smith (254 U. S. 586, 65 L. Ed. 413, 41 Sup. Ct. 200, revg. 48 App. D. C. 565).

§ 45-618 [25: 208]. Expenses and commissions.

Among the lawful expenses of a sale under a mortgage or deed of trust is to be allowed a commission on the proceeds of sale to the mortgagee or trustee. Where the mortgage or deed of trust does not fix the rate of commission the mortgagee or trustee shall be allowed a commission of five per centum on the first five hundred dollars and three per centum on the balance of the purchase money actually paid by the purchaser at any sale, and one and one-half per centum on the amount of the purchase money not paid into the hands of the mortgagee or trustee, but credited on the debt, when the creditor becomes a purchaser.

When the property is lawfully advertised for sale under a mortgage or deed of trust, and the sale is prevented by payment of the debt or is suspended or postponed by arrangement between the parties interested, the trustee shall be entitled to a commission of one per centum on the amount of the debt secured in addition to the expenses incurred by him, and he shall be entitled to such allowance as often as such advertisement shall be made necessary by the default of the debtor: Provided, That if a sale shall actually take place under any such advertisement, he shall not be entitled to more than one such allowance in addition to his commission on the proceeds of an actual sale. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1274, ch. 854, § 545.)

§ 45-619 [25: 209]. Release after death of mortgagee or trustee.

In case of the death of a sole mortgagee or trustee or the last survivor of several, as aforesaid, if the debt secured by the mortgage or deed of trust shall have been paid, and it is desired by the party paying the same to obtain a deed of release, the said party may file a petition in said District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, setting forth, under oath, the execution of said mortgage or deed of trust, the death of the mortgagee or trustee, the payment of the debt, and any other fact necessary to entitle the petitioner to the relief prayed, and praying for the appointment of a trustee in the place of the deceased mortgagee or trustee to execute a deed of release of said mortgage or deed of trust. It shall not be necessary to make the heirs or devisees of the deceased mortgagee or trustee a party to such proceeding. The court may thereupon lay a rule upon the creditor secured by said mortgage or deed of trust, unless he shall voluntarily appear and admit the allegations of the petition, to show cause, under oath, on or before the 10th day, exclusive of

Sundays and legal holidays, after the service of said rule, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted. If said party can not be found in said District, service of said rule shall be by publication according to the practice in equity in said court. If no cause be shown, notwithstanding the service of said rule, against the prayer of the petition, the court may determine in a summary way whether said debt has been paid, and if satisfied thereof may, by decree, appoint a trustee in the place of the deceased mortgagee or trustee and invest in him the title, in law and in equity, that was in the deceased mortgagee or trustee, for the purpose of executing a deed of release as aforesaid. If matter of defense against the prayer for a release of said mortgage or deed of trust be set up in answer to said rule, the further proceedings shall be according to the practice in equity after answer filed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1273, ch. 854, § 537; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 532, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting after the word "heirs" the words "or devisees."

§ 45-620 [25: 210]. Non compos mentis trustee or mortgagee or committee may by order of the chancellor make conveyance or assurance of mortgaged lands.

It shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons, being idiot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, or for the committee or committees of such person or persons, in his, her, or their name or names, by the direction of the chancellor, signified by an order made, upon hearing all parties concerned, on the petition of the person or persons, for whom such person or persons, being idiot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagor or mortgagors, or of the person or persons intitled to the monies secured by or upon any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any such person or persons being idiot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, is or are, or shall be seized or possessed by way of mortgage, or of the person or persons intitled to the redemption thereof, to convey and assure any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in such manner as the chancellor shall, by such order so to be obtained, direct, to any other person or persons; and such conveyance or assurance, so to be had and made as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the said person or persons being idiot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, was or were, at the time of the making such conveyance or assurance, of sane mind, memory, and understanding, and not idiot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, or had by him, her, or themselves executed the same. All and every person and persons being idiot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, and only trustee or trustees, mortgagee or mortgagees, as aforesaid, or the committee and committees of all and every such person and persons, being idiot, lunatick, or non compos mentis, and only such trustee or mortgagee as aforesaid, shall and may be impowered and compelled, by such order so as aforesaid to be obtained, to make such conveyance or conveyances, assurance or assurances, as aforesaid, in like manner as trustees or mortgagees of sane memory are compellable to convey, surrender, or assign their trust estates or mortgages. (4 Geo. 2, ch. 10, §§ 1 and 2, 1731; Kilty's Rep. 249; Alex. Br. Stat. 700; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 78, § 11.)

RECORDER OF DEEDS, LEASE OF OFFICE SPACE

The recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia is hereby authorized to lease one additional floor in the Century Building, located at 412 Fifth Street Northwest, Washington, District of Columbia, consisting of nine rooms, for the use and occupancy of his office; and he is authorized and directed to pay for said use and occupancy, out of the fees and emoluments of his office, not to exceed $1,500 per annum. (Mar. 4, 1923, 42 Stat. 1531, ch. 292.)

§ 45-702 [25: 222]. Deputy recorder—Duties.

The recorder of deeds is authorized to appoint a deputy recorder, and all deeds of conveyance, leases, powers of attorney, and other written instruments required to be filed and recorded, and all copies of instruments and records and certificates authorized by law, filed, recorded, made, and certified by the deputy recorder shall have the same legality, force, and effect as if performed by the recorder. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1275, ch. 854, § 549.)

§ 45-703 [25: 223]. Second deputy—His duties and powers.

The recorder of deeds is authorized to appoint a second deputy recorder, who may do and perform any and all acts which the recorder is authorized to do, and all such acts by the said second deputy recorder shall have the same legality, force, and effect as if performed by the recorder; the compensation of said second deputy recorder to be at the rate of $2,000 per annum. And with the approval of the Attorney General of the United States, the recorder of deeds may from time to time fix the number and compensation of all other employees of his office: Provided, That the employees of said office shall not be in excess of the number actually necessary for the proper conduct of said office of the recorder of deeds: Provided, however, That the compensation of the first deputy recorder of deeds and that of the second deputy recorder of deeds shall not be changed except by Act of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1102, ch. 416.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of March 2, 1927, 44 Stat. 1301, provided that for the fiscal year 1928 the personal services in the office of the recorder of deeds should be paid in accordance with the Classification Act. A similar provision for the year 1929 is contained in the act of May 21, 1928, 45 Stat. 649.

§ 45-704 [25: 224]. Vacancy.

In case of a vacancy in the office of the recorder by death, resignation, or other cause the deputy recorder shall act until a recorder shall be duly appointed and qualified. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 550; Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out proviso which stated that "no additional expense shall be incurred by the District for said deputy and no other fees shall be allowed than are now provided by law."

§ 45-705 [25: 225]. Public records to be open for inspection.

All public records which have reference to or in any way relate to real or personal property in the District of Columbia, whether the same be in the office of the recorder of deeds or in some other public office in the District of Columbia, shall be open to the public for inspection free of charge. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1277, ch. 854, § 556.)

§ 45-706 [25: 226]. Typewritten records.

The recorder of deeds is authorized and empowered to purchase and use in his office, for the recording of deeds and other instruments of writing required by law to be recorded in said office, typewriting machines, to be paid for as appropriations may be made from time to time; and all deeds and other instruments of writing entitled by law to be recorded in said office which shall be recorded by typewriting machines are hereby declared to be legally recorded.

The recording of all instruments filed for record in the office of the recorder of deeds shall be done with book typewriter, except in those cases where, on account of the character of the work, the use of a pen shall be found by the recorder to be necessary. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 551; June 27, 1906, 34 Stat. 489, ch. 3553.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, did not contain the second paragraph of this section.

§ 45-707 [25: 227]. Certain records to be recopied—Expense.

The recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia is authorized and directed to recopy such of the records in his office as may, in his judgment and that of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of its justices appointed by it for that purpose, need recopying in order to preserve the originals from destruction: Provided, That the expense thereof shall not in any one fiscal year exceed the sum of one thousand dollars certified to by the said District Court, or by one of its justices appointed by it for that purpose, and audited and allowed by the General Accounting Office. (Feb. 26, 1907, 34 Stat. 994, ch. 1636; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304.)

AMENDMENT

The 1921 act substituted "general accounting office" for "accounting officer of the Treasury."

§ 45-708 [10: 14]. Fees of recorder of deeds.

The legal fees for the services of the recorder shall be as follows:

For filing, recording, and indexing, or for making certified copy of any instrument containing two hundred words or less, $1, and 20 cents for each additional hundred words, to be collected at the time of filing, or when the copy is made.

For each certificate and seal, 50 cents.

For searching records extending back two years or less next preceding current date, 50 cents, and 15 cents for each additional year, to be paid by the party for whom the search may be made.

For recording a plat or survey, 20 cents for each course such survey may contain.

For recording a town plat, 25 cents for each lot such plat may contain.

For taking any acknowledgment, 50 cents.

For filing and indexing a bill of sale of chattels, or a mortgage or deed of trust thereof, or a conditional bill of sale of chattels or any release or satisfaction of any such, $1.50.

For filing and indexing any other paper required by law to be filed in his office, 50 cents.

In addition to the fees herein required, all corporations hereafter incorporated in the District of Columbia shall pay to the recorder of deeds at the time of the filing of the certificate of incorporation 50 cents on each thousand dollars of the amount of capital stock of the corporation as set forth in its said certificate: Provided, however, That the fee so paid shall not be less than $50: Provided further, That the recorder of deeds shall not file or record any certificate of organization of any incorporation until it has been proved to his satisfaction that all the capital stock of said company has been subscribed for in good faith, and not less than 10 per centum of the par value of the stock has been actually paid in cash, and the money derived therefrom is then in the possession of the persons named as the first board of trustees. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1276, ch. 854, § 552; Feb. 4, 1905, 33 Stat. 689, ch. 299; June 17, 1935, 49 Stat. 384, ch. 265.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1905 amendment added the last paragraph.

The 1935 amendment raised the various fees and added the eighth paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ENTRANCE FEE

Entrance fee is not a tax, but compensation for a privilege applied for and granted, and it does not represent either property or business being done, it is immaterial that in fixing its amount no apportionment is made between the property owned or the business done within the State and that owned or done elsewhere. Atlantic Ref. Co. v. Virginia (302 U. S. 22, 82 L. Ed. 24, 58 Sup. Ct. 75).

Entrance fee is not a charge laid upon interstate commerce; nor a charge furtively directed against interstate commerce, and it should apply to foreign corporations as well as domestic. Atlantic Ref. Co. v. Virginia (302 U. S. 22, 82 L. Ed. 24, 58 Sup. Ct. 75).

This section does not deprive foreign corporation of its property without due process as the entrance fee is not measured by property, either within or without the jurisdiction. Atlantic Ref. Co. v. Virginia (302 U. S. 22, 82 L. Ed. 24, 58 Sup. Ct. 75).

§ 45-709 [25: 228]. Fees and emoluments of recorder of deeds deposited with collector of taxes.

All of the fees and emoluments of the office of recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia shall be paid at least weekly to the collector of taxes for the District of Columbia for deposit in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia. (Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 1.)

§ 45-710 [25: 229]. Estimates for annual appropriations—Building, equipment and supplies.

The annual estimates of appropriations for the government of the District of Columbia shall include estimates of appropriations for the operation and maintenance of the office of the recorder of deeds. And appropriations are hereby authorized for a suitable record building for the office of the recorder of deeds, and for personal services, rentals, office equipment, office supplies, and such other expenditures as are essential for the efficient maintenance and conduct of such office. (Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 2.)

§ 45-802 [25: 262]. Fee simple estates—Estates tail abolished.

All estates of inheritance, including such as were formerly estates tail, shall be adjudged estates in fee simple. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1350, ch. 854, § 1012.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FEE TAIL CONVERTED INTO FEE-SIMPLE ESTATE

Devise held to create estate tail, and, therefore, under Maryland Act of 1786, converted into fee simple. Dengel v. Brown (1 App. D. C. 423).

Devise held to convey fee. Young v. Norris Peters Co. (27 App. D. C. 140); Atkins v. Best (27 App. D. C. 148).

Where a will gave to the granddaughter of testatrix real property until she should marry or attain the age of twenty-one years in either of which events, whichever happened first, the property was given to the granddaughter and her children, but if the granddaughter died before she attained the full age of twenty-one years without having been married, or if she married and died without leaving a child or children, then to testatrix' son, and the daughter married at twenty-four, had a son who predeceased her, she took a fee-simple title. Young v. Munsey Trust Co. (72 App. D. C. 73, 111 Fed. (2d) 514).

§ 45-803 [25: 263]. Absolute or qualified.

An estate in fee simple may be either absolute or qualified, as to one and his heirs during an existing condition of things of uncertain duration. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1013.)

§ 45-804 [25: 264]. Freeholds—Chattels real—Chattel interests.

Estates of inheritance and estates for life shall continue to be denominated freeholds, and estates for years shall be chattels real; estates at will or by sufferance shall be chattel interests, but shall not be liable, as such, to sale under execution; and all estates may be subject to conditions precedent or subsequent. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1014.)

§ 45-805 [25: 265]. Estates pur autre vie.

An estate for the life of a third person, whether limited to heirs or otherwise, shall be deemed a freehold only during the life of the grantee or devisee, but after his death it shall be deemed a chattel real and be a part of his personal estate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1015.)

§ 45-806 [25: 266]. Estates classified—Possession—Expectancy.

Estates are either in possession or in expectancy. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1016.)

§ 45-807 [25: 267]. Estate in possession.

An estate in possession exists when the owner has an immediate right to the possession of the land. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1017.)

§ 45-808 [25: 268]. Estate in expectancy.

An estate in expectancy is either a reversion or a future estate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1018.)

§ 45-809 [25: 269]. Reversions.

A reversion is the residue of an estate left in the grantor who has conveyed, or in the heirs of the deviser who has devised a particular estate less than his own, and which residue returns to his or their possession on the expiration of the particular estate. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1019.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 16-501. Camp v. Boyd (35 App. D. C. 159, affd. 229 U. S. 530, 57 L. Ed. 1317, 33 Sup. Ct. 785).

§ 45-810 [25: 270]. Future estates.

A future estate is one limited to commence at a future day, either without the intervention of a precedent estate or after the expiration or determination of a precedent estate created at the same time and by the same conveyance or devise. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1020.)

§ 45-811 [25: 271]. Remainder and conditional limitation.

If it is to commence upon the full expiration of such precedent estate, it is a remainder and may be transferred by that name. If it is to commence on a contingency which, if it happen, will abridge or determine such precedent estate before its expiration, it shall be known as a conditional limitation. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1021.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 45-812 [25: 272]. Vested and contingent future estates.

A future estate is vested when there is a person in being who would have an immediate right to the possession of the land upon the expiration of the intermediate or precedent estate, or upon the arrival of a certain period or event when it is to commence in possession. It is contingent when the person to whom or the event upon which it is limited to take effect in possession or become a vested estate is uncertain. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1351, ch. 854, § 1022.)

ADVERBS OF TIME CONSTRUED

"Adverbs of time—as where, there, after, from, etc.—in a devise of a remainder are construed to relate merely to the time of the enjoyment of the estate, and not the time of the vesting in interest." Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443). See also Vogt v. Vogt (26 App. D. C. 46); Johnson v. Washington Loan & Trust Co. (33 App. D. C. 242, affd. 224 U. S. 224, 56 L. Ed. 741, 32 Sup. Ct. 421); Breneman v. Herdman (35 App. D. C. 27).

EXPRESS OR IMPLIED TERMS

Where "the absolute power of disposal was given in express and unequivocal terms, or clearly and unmistakably implied, to the first taker, the remainder over was void." Montgomery v. Brown (25 App. D. C. 490).

VESTED AND CONTINGENT ESTATES DISTINGUISHED

Distinction between vested and contingent remainder. Fields v. Gwynn (19 App. D. C. 99). See also O'Brien v. Dougherty (1 App. D. C. 148); Richardson v. Penicks (1 App. D. C. 261); Marshall v. Augusta (5 App. D. C. 183); Craig v. Rowland (10 App. D. C. 402); Hauptman v. Carpenter (16 App. D. C. 524); Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443).

VESTING FAVORED

"The law favors the vesting of estates, and is inclined to treat conditions as subsequent rather than precedent." Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443).

Estates will be held to vest at the earliest possible moment, in absence of testamentary intent to contrary. Green v. Gordon (38 App. D. C. 443).

§ 45-813 [25: 273]. Alternative future estates.

Two or more future estates may be created to take effect in the alternative, so that if the first in order shall fail to vest the next in succession may be substituted for it and take effect accordingly. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1026.)

§ 45-814 [25: 274]. Expectant estates not to be defeated.

No expectant estate can be defeated or barred by any alienation or other act of the owner of the intermediate or precedent estate, nor by any destruction of such precedent estate, by disseizin, forfeiture, surrender, merger, or otherwise, except when such destruction is expressly provided for or authorized in the creation of such expectant estate; nor shall an expectant estate thus liable to be defeated be on that ground adjudged void in its creation. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1029.)

DOWER RIGHTS IN EXPECTANT ESTATE

This section and § 1030 (§ 45-815) do not change the common-law rule that a widow is not entitled to dower in lands to which her husband had a remainder in fee, if he predeceases the life tenant. Tolty v. Tolty (40 App. D. C. 587).

§ 45-815 [25: 275]. Expectant estate descendible and alienable.

Expectant estates shall be descendible, devisable, and alienable in the same manner as estates in possession. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1030.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See notes to § 45-814.

§ 45-816 [25: 276]. Tenancies in common and joint tenancies.

Every estate granted or devised to two or more persons in their own right, including estates granted or devised to husband and wife, shall be a tenancy in common, unless expressly declared to be a joint tenancy; but every estate vested in executors or trustees, as such, shall be a joint tenancy, unless otherwise expressed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1031; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 538, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by adding at the end thereof the words "unless otherwise expressed."

PRIOR LAW

Construction of conveyance to two or more persons prior to adoption of code, see O'Brien v. Dougherty (1 App. D. C. 148) (devise to a class); Carroll v. Reidy (5 App. D. C. 59) (to husband and wife as tenants in common); Alsop v. Fedarwisch (9 App. D. C. 408); Seitz v. Seitz (11 App. D. C. 358).

Where the death of the testator occurred before the enactment of the code, the common law applied. Noyes v. Parker (68 App. D. C. 13, 92 Fed. (2d) 562).

Conveyances to husband and wife, their heirs and assigns forever, prior to adoption of this section, created a tenancy by the entirety, unaffected by the married woman's act. Blount v. United States (59 Ct. Cls. 328).

ESTATES BY ENTIRETIES

Estates by the entireties still exist in the District of Columbia in both personalty and realty. Flaherty v. Columbus (41 App. D. C. 525). See also Marshall v. Lane (27 App. D. C. 276), reforming a deed to create tenancy in common instead of estate of entireties. See opinion of Hoehling J., in Settle v. Settle (56 App. D. C. 50, 8 Fed. (2d) 911, 43 A. L. R. 1079), holding that conveyance to husband and wife "as joint tenants" creates tenancy by entireties.

This section does not abolish common-law tenancies by entireties. Settle v. Settle (56 App. D. C. 50, 8 Fed. (2d) 911, 43 A. L. R. 1079).

TENANCIES IN COMMON

Where brother and sister were engaged in a joint business venture regarding a piece of property, the title being in her name solely as a matter of convenience, they were in effect tenants in common. Sheehy v. O'Donoghue (68 App. D. C. 127, 94 Fed. (2d) 252).

§ 45-817 [25: 277]. Coparcenary estates abolished.

There shall be no estate in coparcenary in the District, and where two or more persons inherit from an intestate they shall be tenants in common. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1343, ch. 854, § 956.)

CROSS REFERENCES

See § 45-816.

§ 45-818 [25: 278]. Estates for years.

An estate for a determined period of time is an estate for years. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1032.)

§ 45-819 [25: 279]. Estates from year to year.

An estate expressed to be from year to year shall be good for one year only. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1033.)

HOLDING OVER

A lease for one year, with a provision that unless the premises are vacated on the day of the expiration of the term, the lessee shall become a tenant for another year, creates a tenancy for one year only, and the tenant holding over becomes a tenant at sufferance. Morse v. Brainerd (42 App. D. C. 448). See also Soper v. Myers (45 App. D. C. 286).

§ 45-820 [25: 280]. Estates by sufferance.

All estates which by construction of the courts were estates from year to year at common law, as where a tenant goes into possession and pays rent without an agreement for a term, or where a tenant for years, after the expiration of his term, continues in possession and pays rent and the like, and all verbal hireings by the month or at any specified rate per month, shall be deemed estates by sufferance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1034; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 538, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the word "hirings" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "hireings."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EXPIRATION OF LEASE

Where in lease tenant agreed to pay insurance, and paid same beyond term of lease, such payment did not extend the lease and he was tenant by sufferance. Forster v. Elliot (52 App. D. C. 107, 282 Fed. 735).

Tenants in possession of property under a lease which had expired were tenants by sufferance. Weaver v. Koester (54 App. D. C. 80, 294 Fed. 1011).

Tenant under six months' lease becomes tenant by sufferance on its expiration, notice of renewal having been verbal and not written. National Cafés v. Elite Laundry Co. (57 App. D. C. 178, 18 Fed. (2d) 828).

Tenant on expiration of one-year lease became tenant by sufferance, and entitled to thirty days' notice to vacate. H. L. Rust Co. v. Drury (62 App. D. C. 329, 68 Fed. (2d) 167).

VERBAL RENTING BY MONTH

This section of the code provides that all verbal hirings by the month, or at any specified rate per month, shall be deemed estates by sufferance. Boss v. Hagan (49 App. D. C. 106, 261 Fed. 254, 8 A. L. R. 1508).

§ 45-821 [25: 281]. Estates from month to month or from quarter to quarter.

An estate may be from month to month or from quarter to quarter, or, as otherwise expressed, it may be by the month or by the quarter, if so expressed in writing. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1035.)

§ 45-822 [25: 282]. Estates at will—When terminated.

An estate at will is one held by the joint will of lessor and lessee, and which may be terminated at any time, as herein elsewhere provided, by either party; and such estate shall not exist or be created except by express contract: Provided, however, That in case of a sale of real estate under mortgage or deed of trust or execution, and a conveyance thereof to the purchaser, the grantor in such mortgage or deed of trust, execution defendant, or those in possession claiming under him, shall be held and construed to be tenants at will, except in the case of a tenant holding under an unexpired lease for years, in writing, antedating the mortgage or deed of trust. NOTICE AND TIME TO REMOVE PEACEABLY

Congress did not intend a remedy too expeditious to be fair, and recognized the justice of giving a former owner of real estate, or his tenant, when sold out under a mortgage or deed of trust, a reasonable notice and time peaceably to remove himself and his belongings from the property sold. Thornhill v. Atlantic Life Ins. Co. (63 App. D. C. 184, 70 Fed. (2d) 846).

§ 45-823 [25: 283]. Provisions applicable to personal property.

All the provisions of this chapter and of sections 45-102 to 45-104, 45-203, 45-204, shall apply to personal property generally except where from the nature of the property they are inapplicable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1352, ch. 854, § 1036, as added by June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 538, ch. 1329.)

  - 45-925. Lease made pursuant to section 45-924 valid.
  - 45-926. Accruals from renewals of leases, property of lunatic—Unapplied part at death of lunatic treated as real property, unless lunatic be tenant for life, then personal property.
  - 45-927. Lunatic or infant, or guardian or committee, under order of court, may surrender and take new leases.
  - 45-928. Expenses and costs of renewal chargeable against interest of infant or lunatic.
  - 45-929. Renewed leases shall be to the same uses, trusts, charges, incumbrances, devises, and conditions as surrendered leases were.
  - 45-930. Surrendered and renewed lease of lunatic or infant valid.
  - 45-931. Surrender for new lease good without surrender of under leases—Under leases continue unaffected—All rights and remedies to continue.
  - 45-932. Assignee of reversion.
  - 45-933. Grants of remainders, reversions, and rents good without attornment—Payment of rent without notice valid.
  - 45-934. Fraudulent attornment void—Possession not changed by such attornment—Attornment pursuant to judgment excepted.

§ 45-901 [25: 311]. When notice to quit not necessary.

When real estate is leased for a certain term no notice to quit shall be necessary, but the landlord shall be entitled to the possession, without such notice, immediately upon the expiration of the term. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1218.)

§ 45-902 [25: 312]. Notices to quit—Month to month.

A tenancy from month to month, or from quarter to quarter, may be terminated by a thirty days' notice in writing from the landlord to the tenant to quit, or by such a notice from the tenant to the landlord of his intention to quit, said notice to expire, in either case, on the day of the month from which such tenancy commenced to run. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1219.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DATE NOTICE TERMINATES

While the landlord is not required to specify in the notice the date of the termination of the notice, having done it he is bound by that date. Merritt v. Thompson (53 App. D. C. 233, 289 Fed. 631).

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

A notice to quit which describes the property in the same manner as in defendant's lease, and which gives more than 30 days' notice, held to be sufficient. Bliss v. Duncan (44 App. D. C. 93).

RECEIPT OF RENT AFTER NOTICE

"The receipt of rent by a landlord, after notice to quit, of rent for a new term or part thereof, amounts to a waiver of his right to demand possession under that notice * * *. But the receipt of rent for the current month, pending the notice to quit, cannot have that effect." Byrne v. Morrison (25 App. D. C. 72).

Acceptance of rent to November 30 is not a waiver of a notice to quit expiring on December 1. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001). See Byrne v. Morrison (25 App. D. C. 72).

THIRTY-DAY NOTICE

Thirty-day notice, expiring on the day of the month from which the tenancy is alleged by defendant to run, is sufficient, whether estate be from month to month or by sufferance. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001).

Sundays and half holidays on Saturdays under section 1389 (§ 28-616) are not excluded in computing the time given in the notice. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001).

Notice is not bad because it gives 31 days' notice. McCoy v. Duehay (51 App. D. C. 363, 279 Fed. 1001), citing Boss v. Hagan (49 App. D. C. 106, 261 Fed. 254).

A notice dated and served July 1, requiring tenant to vacate on July 31, is insufficient. "By the rule of interpretation, excluding the first day and including the last, there was not full 30 days." Merritt v. Thompson (53 App. D. C. 233, 289 Fed. 631).

§ 45-903 [25: 313]. Tenancy at will—Notice for termination.

A tenancy at will may be terminated by thirty days' notice in writing by either landlord or tenant. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1220.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NOTICE TO FORMER OWNER

Congress did not intend a remedy too expeditious to be fair, and recognized the justice of giving a former owner of real estate, or his tenant, when sold out under a mortgage or deed of trust, a reasonable notice and time to peaceably remove himself and his belongings from the property sold. Thornhill v. Atlantic Life Ins. Co. (63 App. D. C. 184, 70 Fed. (2d) 846).

§ 45-904 [25: 314]. Tenancy by sufferance—When terminated.

A tenancy by sufferance may be terminated at any time by a notice in writing from the landlord to the tenant to quit the premises leased, or by such notice from the tenant to the landlord of his intention to quit on the 30th day after the day of the service of the notice. If such notice expires before any periodical instalment of rent fall due, according to the terms of the tenancy, the landlord shall be entitled to a proportionate part of such instalment to the date fixed for quitting the premises. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1221.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

MASTER AND SERVANT RELATIONSHIP

Where the servant was to do certain work, and while performing the same he was to occupy the premises without charge, the relationship was master and servant, not landlord and tenant. Turner v. Mertz (55 App. D. C. 177, 3 Fed. (2d) 348, 39 A. L. R. 1140).

NOTICE GENERALLY

A notice to terminate a tenancy by sufferance is sufficient which requires tenant to quit "at the end of 30 days from the date of service" upon him, instead of on the thirtieth day thereafter. Hayden v. Filippone (51 App. D. C. 246, 278 Fed. 329).

NOTICE IN WRITING

A notice served on tenant personally, wherein he is described as "Wm." instead of Richard, and giving him the required length of time in which to vacate is sufficient under this section. "The proceedings in landlord and tenant cases are informal, and if the substantial rights of both parties are preserved, a departure from strict procedure may be ignored." Creel v. Adams (49 App. D. C. 306, 265 Fed. 456).

To terminate a tenancy by sufferance, notice in writing must be given. Beyer v. Smith (59 App. D. C. 32, 32 Fed. (2d) 423, cert. den. 280 U. S. 557, 74 L. Ed. 613, 50 Sup. Ct. 17).

PROPERTY USED FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES

Where plaintiff served defendant notice to quit using language of statute, and said also, "The said premises being necessary for me for my immediate personal occupancy"; such notice is sufficient whether the property was being used for business purposes or not. Weaver v. Koester (54 App. D. C. 80, 294 Fed. 1011).

§ 45-905 [25: 315]. Notice not to be recalled.

Neither landlord nor tenant, after giving notice as aforesaid, shall be entitled to recall the notice so given without the consent of the other party, but after the expiration of the notice given by the tenant as aforesaid the landlord shall be entitled to the possession as if he had given the proper notice to quit; and after the expiration of the notice given by the landlord as aforesaid the tenant shall be entitled to quit as if he had given the proper notice of his intention to quit. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1222; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 542, ch. 1329.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by inserting after the word "if," the word "he."

§ 45-906 [25: 316]. Service of notice.

Every notice to the tenant to quit shall be served upon him personally, if he can be found, and if he can not be found it shall be sufficient service of said notice to deliver the same to some person of proper age upon the premises, and in the absence of such tenant or person to post the same in some conspicuous place upon the leased premises. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1223.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DELIVERY TO MINOR SON

A notice delivered by landlord to tenant's son, 17 years of age, at her request, and the same delivered to her by the boy, is served substantially in compliance with the statute. Hockman v. Shreve (50 App. D. C. 140, 269 Fed. 482).

DELIVERY TO TENANT'S WIFE

A landlord left notice to quit with tenant's wife, with a request that she deliver it to him, which was done. "There is nothing in this (section) which requires that the landlord in person or an officer shall make the service. It may be made by any person acting for the landlord. In this case the wife, at the request of the landlord, handed the notice to the tenant, and thus he was personally served. * * * In the case of a notice to quit, service by any person is enough, so long as the tenant receives the notice in time to allow the statutory period of vacate." Hardebeck v. Hamilton (50 App. D. C. 113, 268 Fed. 703).

§ 45-907 [25: 317]. Refusal to quit, double rent.

If the tenant, after having given notice of his intention to quit as aforesaid, shall refuse, without reasonable excuse, to surrender possession according to such notice, he shall be liable to the landlord for rent at double the rate of rent payable according to the terms of tenancy for all the time that the tenant shall so wrongfully hold over, to be recovered in the same way as the rent accruing before the termination of the tenancy. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1224.)

§ 45-908 [25: 318]. Agreement as to notice.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the parties to a lease, by agreement in writing, from substituting a longer or shorter notice to quit than is above provided or to waive all such notice. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1236.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FAILURE OF RENT—NOTICE WAIVED

Defendant agreed that in the event he should not pay the rent when due he should not be entitled to any notice to quit, the usual thirty days' notice being expressly waived; such contract was specifically authorized by this section. H. L. Rust Co. v. Drury (62 App. D. C. 329, 68 Fed. (2d) 167).

§ 45-909 [25: 319]. Recovery of real and personal property leased together.

Whenever real and personal property shall be leased together, as, for example, a house with the furniture contained therein, the landlord, either in an action of ejectment or in the summary proceeding for possession, before the municipal court provided for in sections 11-701 to 11-749 of this Code may have a judgment for recovery of the personalty as well as for the recovery of the realty. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1235; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by changing name of court from justice of peace to municipal court.

§ 45-910 [25: 320]. Ejectment or summary proceedings.

Whenever a lease for any definite term shall expire, or any tenancy shall be terminated by notice as aforesaid, and the tenant shall fail or refuse to surrender possession of the leased premises, the landlord may bring an action of ejectment to recover possession in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia; or the landlord may bring an action to recover possession before the municipal court, as provided in sections 11-701 to 11-749 of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1225; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by changing name of court from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

NOTICE TO FORMER OWNER

Congress did not intend a remedy too expeditious to be fair, and recognized the justice of giving a former owner of real estate, or his tenant, when sold out under a mortgage or deed of trust, a reasonable notice and time to peaceably remove himself and his belongings from the property sold. Thornhill v. Atlantic Life Ins. Co. (63 App. D. C. 184, 70 Fed. (2d) 846).

§ 45-911 [25: 321]. Arrears of rent and double rent.

In either case the landlord may join with his claim for recovery of the possession of the leased premises a claim for all arrears of rent accrued to the termination of the tenancy, and, when the tenant has given the notice, for double rent from the termination of the tenancy to the verdict, or judgment, if the trial be by the court and for damages for waste: Provided, That in such action before the municipal court the amount so claimed shall be within its jurisdiction. If judgment for possession be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, he shall be entitled, at the same time, to a judgment for said arrears of rent, and for said double rent, as the case may be, to the date of the verdict or judgment as aforesaid, and for damages for waste. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1382, ch. 854, § 1226; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 542, ch. 1329; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENTS

Act of March 3, 1901, was amended by striking out the words "for possession" following the words "by the court."

Act of February 17, 1909, changed name from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LESSEE BREACHING COVENANT

Where lessee had breached covenant against subletting and lessor returned check for rent payment but lessee had continued in possession, lessor was entitled to a judgment for possession and rent. Merritt v. Kay (54 App. D. C. 152, 295 Fed. 973).

§ 45-912 [25: 322]. Consolidation of actions.

If actions be brought separately, either in said District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or in the municipal court, for arrears of rent and for the possession, they may be afterwards consolidated and one judgment rendered in them for the possession and also for the rent. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1227; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of February 17, 1909, changed name from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

§ 45-913 [25: 323]. Procedure to eject married woman who is a tenant.

In all cases in which a married woman is or shall hereafter be a tenant of real estate in this District, and has defaulted in the payment of rent therefor or has made other default, it shall be lawful for the landlord to make such re-entry or bring such action for recovery of the demised premises as he or she might do if the lessee were a feme sole and had contracted for the payment of said rents or the performance of other acts and to suffer such re-entry to be made upon default therein. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1376, ch. 854, § 1169.)

§ 45-914 [25: 324]. Plea of title.

If, in an action in the municipal court to recover possession the defendant shall plead a title in himself or in some person under whom he claims, not derived from the plaintiff, the further proceeding therein shall be as directed in sections 11-701 to 11-749 of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1228; Feb. 17, 1909, 35 Stat. 623, ch. 134.)

AMENDMENT

Act of February 17, 1909, changed name from "justice of peace" to "municipal court."

§ 45-915 [25: 325]. Landlord's lien for rent.

The landlord shall have a tacit lien for his rent upon such of the tenant's personal chattels, on the premises, as are subject to execution for debt, to commence with the tenancy and continue for three months after the rent is due and until the termination of any action for such rent brought within said three months. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1229.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CLAIM IN BANKRUPTCY

A landlord has a lien for rent on property of a bankrupt on leased premises, which may be enforced by making claim in bankruptcy. In re Caplan ((D. C.-Md.), 23 Fed. (2d) 680).

DURATION OF LIENS

Landlord's lien, once it attached, continued to attach no matter in whose hands the chattels may have come, unless displaced by removal of goods or sale in regular course of business, and sale of stock in mass which was not removed did not displace the lien. Fowler v. Rapley (15 Wall. (82 U. S.) 328, 21 L. Ed. 35).

LIEN SURRENDER OF LEASE

Surrender of lease and wrongful eviction of tenant by landlord as a defense to action for rent, see Okie v. Person (23 App. D. C. 170). See also Richmond v. Cake (1 App. D. C. 447); Hume v. Riggs (12 App. D. C. 355).

PRIORITY

Lien of landlord, so far as respects chattels on the premises, was entitled to priority over deeds of trust, unless the statutory lien was displaced. Beall v. White (94 U. S. 382, 24 L. Ed. 173).

When the landlord is attempting to enforce a lien against chattels of lessee, which chattels were purchased on a conditional sales contract, his lien must be consistent with title and he cannot prevail against vendor of chattels even though conditional sales contract was not recorded. Stern Co. v. Rosenberg (67 App. D. C. 99, 89 Fed. (2d) 843).

SECURED LIEN

Landlord to whom chattels are delivered as security for payment of rent "had a lien on the property for the payment of his rent, which was something more than the tacit lien given to a landlord by the statute" and his possession cannot be disturbed without previous payment of the claim. Brown v. Petersen (25 App. D. C. 359).

TIME OF ATTACHMENT OF LIEN

Landlord's lien attached to chattel the moment it was placed upon the premises, and as long as it remained on premises the lien continued until each instalment of rent became due and for three months thereafter, and then ceased as to that instalment. Webb v. Sharp (13 Wall. (80 U. S.) 14, 20 L. Ed. 478).

The landlord's lien for rent commences with the tenancy, and is superior to chattel mortgage given by tenant thereafter. Spilman v. Geiger (61 App. D. C. 164, 58 Fed. (2d) 890).

§ 45-916 [25: 326]. Lien—How enforced.

The said lien may be enforced—

First. By attachment, to be issued upon affidavit that the rent is due and unpaid; or, if it be not due, that the defendant is about to remove or sell some part of said chattels.

Second. By judgment against the tenant and execution, to be levied on said chattels, or any of them, in whosoever hands they may be found.

Third. By action against any purchaser of said chattels, with notice of the lien, in which action the plaintiff may have judgment for the value of the chattels purchased by the defendant not exceeding the rent in arrear. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1230.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See note to § 45-915.

§ 45-917 [25: 327]. How attachment enforced.

Such attachment may be issued in any action for the recovery of the possession of the leased premises by the landlord, in which the rent in arrear, or double rent, or both, shall be claimed as aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for any officer to whom the writ of attachment shall be delivered to be executed to break open an outer or inner door when necessary to the execution of the same. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1383, ch. 854, § 1231.)

§ 45-918 [25: 328]. Property subject to lien for rent not to be taken on execution without first paying all rent due.

No goods or chattels whatsoever, lying or being in or upon any messuage, lands, or tenements, which are or shall be leased for life or lives, term of years, at will, or otherwise, shall be liable to be taken by virtue of any execution on any pretence whatsoever, unless the party at whose suit the said execution is sued out, shall before the removal of such goods from off the said premises, by virtue of such execution or extent, pay to the landlord of the said premises, or his bailiff, all such sum or sums of money as are or shall be due for rent for the said premises at the time of the taking such goods or chattels by virtue of such execution: Provided, The said arrears of rent do not amount to more than three months' rent, and in case the said arrears shall exceed three months' rent, then the said party, at whose suit such execution is sued out, paying the said landlord, or his bailiff, three months' rent, may proceed to execute his judgment as he might have done before the making of this section; and the marshal is hereby impowered and required to levy and pay to the plaintiff as well the money so paid for rent, as the execution money. (8 Ann. ch. 14, § 1, 1709; Kilty's Rep. 248; Alex. Br. Stat. 681; Comp. Stat. D. C., 325, § 41.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 45-919 [25: 329]. Distress not void because of irregularity—Party not trespasser ab initio—Special damages only recoverable—Tender of amends defeats recovery.

Where any distress shall be made for any kind of rent justly due, and any irregularity or unlawful act shall be afterwards done by the party or parties distraining, or by his, her, or their agents; the distress itself shall not be therefore deemed to be unlawful, nor the party or parties making it be deemed a trespasser or trespassers ab initio; but the party or parties aggrieved by such unlawful act or irregularity shall or may recover full satisfaction for the special damage he, she, or they shall have sustained thereby, and no more, in an action of trespass or on the case at the election of the plaintiff or plaintiffs: Provided always, That where the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover in such action, he, she, or they shall be paid his, her, or their full costs of suit, and have all the like remedies for the same as in other cases of costs: Provided nevertheless, That no tenant or tenants, lessee or lessees, shall recover in any action for any such unlawful act or irregularity as aforesaid, if tender of amends hath been made by the party or parties distraining, his, her, or their agent or agents, before such action brought. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, §§ 19 and 20, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 741, 742; Comp. Stat. D. C., 334, §§ 66, 67.)

§ 45-920 [25: 330]. Fraudulent removal, conveyance, or concealment of property to defeat lien subjects guilty party to forfeiture of double value of such property.

If any tenant or lessee shall fraudulently remove and convey away his or her goods or chattels, or if any person or persons shall wilfully and knowingly aid or assist any such tenant or lessee in such fraudulent conveying away or carrying off of any part of his or her goods or chattels, or in concealing the same; all and every person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay to the landlord or landlords, lessor or lessors, from whose estate such goods and chattels were fraudulently carried off as aforesaid, double the value of the goods by him, her or them respectively carried off or concealed as aforesaid; to be recovered by action of debt in any court of record. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 3, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 732; Comp. Stat. D. C., 329, § 53.)

§ 45-921 [25: 331]. Representatives of life tenant may recover from under-tenant proportion of rent.

Where any tenants for life shall happen to die before or on the day, on which any rent was reserved or made payable upon any demise or lease of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which determined on the death of such tenant for life, the executors or administrators of such tenant for life shall and may in an action on the case recover of and from such under-tenant or under-tenants of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, if such tenant for life die on the day on which the same was made payable the whole, or if before such day then a proportion, of such rent according to the time such tenant for life lived, of the last year, or quarter of a year or other time in which the said rent was growing due as aforesaid, making all just allowances or a proportionable part thereof respectively. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 15, 1738; Kilty's Rept. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 739; Comp. Stat. D. C. 333, § 64.)

§ 45-922 [25: 332]. Debt may be brought for instalments of rent under lease for life.

It shall and may be lawful for any person or persons, having any rent in arrear, or due upon any lease or demise for life or lives, to bring an action or actions of debt for such arrears of rent, in the same manner they might have done, in case such rent were due, and reserved upon a lease for years. (8 Ann, ch. 14, § 4, 1709; Kilty's Rept. 248; Alex. Br. Stat. 682; Comp. Stat. D. C., 325, § 42.)

§ 45-923 [25: 333]. Action of case for use and occupation—Parol agreement evidence of quantum of damages.

It shall and may be lawful to and for the landlord or landlords, where the agreement is not by deed, to recover a reasonable satisfaction for the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, held or occupied by the defendant or defendants, in an action on the case, for the use and occupation of what was so held or enjoyed; and if in evidence on the trial of such action any parol demise or any agreement (not being by deed) whereon a certain rent was reserved shall appear, the plaintiff in such action shall not therefor be nonsuited, but may make use thereof as an evidence of the quantum of the damages to be recovered. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 14, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 738; Comp. Stat. D. C., 333, § 63.)

In all cases where any lunatic is or shall be intitled, or has right to renew any lease or leases made or granted, or to be made or granted, for the life or lives of one or more person or persons, or for any term or number of years, absolute or determinable on the death of one or more person or persons, or otherwise; it shall and may be lawful to and for such lunatic, or his or her guardian or guardians, committee or committees, of his estate, in his, her, or their name or names, by the direction of the chancellor, signified by an order made on hearing all parties concerned, upon petition, in a summary way, from time to time, to accept of a surrender or surrenders of such lease or leases; and to make and execute to any person or persons, bodies politic, or corporate or collegiate, aggregate or sole, a new lease or leases of the premises comprised in such lease or leases so to be surrendered by virtue of this section, for and during such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years, determinable upon such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years absolute, as was or were mentioned or contained in such lease or leases so surrendered, at the making thereof, or otherwise, as the chancellor for the time being, by any such order, so to be obtained as aforesaid, shall direct. (11 Geo. 3, ch. 20, § 1, 1771; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 791; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 74.)

§ 45-925 [25: 335]. Lease made pursuant to section 45-924 valid.

All and every such lease or leases so to be made or executed as aforesaid, shall be and be deemed as good and valid, and effectual in the law, to all intents and purposes, as if such lunatic was at the time of making or executing thereof of sane mind, and had executed the same in his or her own proper person. (11 Geo. 3, ch. 20, § 2, 1771; Kilty's Rept. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 791; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 75.)

§ 45-926 [25: 336]. Accruals from renewals of leases, property of lunatic—Unapplied part at death of lunatic treated as real property, unless lunatic be tenant for life, then personal property.

All fines, premiums, foregifts, and sums of money, which shall or may be had, received, or paid for, or on account of the renewing of any such lease or leases as aforesaid, shall (after a deduction of all necessary incident charges and expenses) be paid to the guardian or guardians, committee or committees, of the said lunatic, and be applied and disposed of for the benefit of such lunatic, in such manner as the chancellor shall direct: but, upon the death of such lunatic or lunatics, all such sum or sums of money as shall arise by such fines, premiums, or foregifts, or so much as shall remain unapplied for the benefit of such lunatic or lunatics, at his, her or their death, shall, as between the representatives of the real and personal estates of all such lunatics, be considered as real estate, unless such lunatic or lunatics shall be tenants for life only; and then the same shall be considered as personal estate. (11 Geo. 3, ch. 20, § 3, 1771; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 792; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 76.)

In all cases where any person under the age of twenty-one years, or any lunatic, is or shall become interested in or intitled to any lease or leases made or granted, or to be made or granted, by any person or persons, bodies politick, corporate or collegiate, aggregate or sole, for the life or lives of one or more person or persons, or for any term of years, either absolute or determinable upon the death of one or more person or persons or otherwise, it shall and may be lawful for such person under the age of twenty-one years, or for his or her guardian or guardians, or other person or persons on his or her behalf, and for such lunatick, or his or her guardian or guardians, committee or committees of the estate, or other person or persons on his or her behalf, to apply to the court of chancery by petition or motion, in a summary way, and by the order and direction of the said court made, upon hearing all parties concerned, such person under the age of twenty-one years, and such lunaticks, or person or persons appointed by the said courts respectively, by deed or deeds only, shall and may be enabled, from time to time, to surrender such lease or leases, and accept and take, in the name, and for the benefit of such person under the age of twenty-one years, or lunatick, one or more new lease or leases of the premises comprised in such lease or leases surrendered by virtue of this section for and during such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years, determinable upon such number of lives, or for such term or terms of years absolute, as was or were mentioned or contained in such lease or leases so surrendered, at the making thereof respectively, or otherwise as the said court shall respectively direct. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 1, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 788; Comp. Stat. D. C., 335, § 70.)

§ 45-928 [25: 338]. Expenses and costs of renewal chargeable against interest of infant or lunatic.

All and every sum and sums of money and other consideration, paid or advanced by any such guardian, trustee, committee or other person, for or on account of the renewal of any such lease or leases, and all reasonable charges incident thereto, shall be paid out of the estate or effects of the infant or lunatick for whose benefit the said lease or leases shall be renewed, or shall be a charge and incumbrance upon the leasehold premisses, together with interest for the same, as the said court shall direct and determine. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 2, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 789; Comp. Stat. D. C., 335, § 71.)

§ 45-929 [25: 339]. Renewed leases shall be to the same uses, trusts, charges, incumbrances, devises, and conditions as surrendered leases were.

The respective leases to be so renewed, shall operate, and be to the same uses, and be liable to the same trusts, charges, incumbrances, dispositions, devises and conditions, as the leases to be, from time to time, surrendered as aforesaid, were or would have been subject to, in case such surrender had not been made. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 3, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 790; Comp. Stat. D. C., 335, § 72.)

§ 45-930 [25: 340]. Surrendered and renewed lease of lunatic or infant valid.

Every such surrender, and such lease or leases granted thereupon, shall be, and be deemed as valid and legal, to all intents and purposes, as if such surrender had been made by and on the behalf of a person of full age, or sane mind. (29 Geo. 2, ch. 31, § 4, 1756; Kilty's Rep. 253; Alex. Br. Stat. 790; Comp. Stat. D. C., 336, § 73.)

§ 45-931 [25: 341]. Surrender for new lease good without surrender of under leases—Under leases continue unaffected—All rights and remedies to continue.

In case any lease shall be duly surrendered, in order to be renewed, and a new lease made and executed by the chief landlord or landlords, the same new lease shall, without a surrender of all the under leases, be as good and valid, to all intents and purposes, as if all the under leases derived thereout had been likewise surrendered at or before the taking of such new lease; and all and every person and persons in whom any estate for life or lives, or for years, shall, from time to time, be vested by virtue of such new lease, and his, her, and their executors and administrators, shall be intitled to the rents, covenants, and duties, and have like remedy for recovery thereof, and the under lessees shall hold and enjoy the messuages, lands, and tenements, in the respective under leases, comprised, as if the original leases, out of which the respective under leases are derived, had been still kept on foot and continued, and the chief landlord and landlords shall have, and be intitled to, such and the same remedy, by distress or entry in and upon the messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments comprised in any such under lease, for the rents and duties reserved by such new lease, so far as the same exceed not the rents and duties reserved in the lease, out of which such under lease was derived, as they would have had in case such former lease had been still continued, or as they would have had, in case the respective under leases had been renewed under such new principal lease. (4 Geo. 2, ch. 28, § 6, 1731; Kilty's Rep. 249; Alex. Br. Stat. 708; Comp. Stat. D. C., 328, § 50.)

§ 45-932 [25: 342]. Assignee of reversion.

The grantee or assignee of the reversion of any leased premises shall have the same right of action against the lessee, his personal representatives, heirs, or assigns, for rent or for any forfeiture or breach of any covenant or condition in the lease which the grantor or assignor might have had; and the assignee of the lessee shall have the same rights of action against the lessor, his grantee, or assignee, upon any covenants in the lease which the lessee might have had against the lessor. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1384, ch. 854, § 1234.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

COVENANT AGAINST SUBLETTING

Covenant against subletting runs with the land and may be enforced by assignee of reversion. Bailey v. Allan E. Walker & Co. (53 App. D. C. 307, 290 Fed. 282).

NEW OWNERS' ACTION FOR RENT, USE, AND OCCUPATION

When the new owners purchased the property, they acquired the same right of action for rent, or for use and occupation, against the lessee, if holding over his term, which the original owner had. Selden v. Lee (55 App. D. C. 164, 3 Fed. (2d) 335).

§ 45-933 [25: 343]. Grants of remainders, reversions, and rents good without attornment—Payment of rent without notice valid.

All grants or conveyances of any manors or rents, or of the reversion or remainder of any messuages or lands, shall be good and effectual, to all intents and purposes, without any attornment of the tenants of any such manors, or of the land out of which rent shall be issuing, or of the particular tenants upon whose particular estates any such reversions or remainders shall and may be expectant or depending, as if their attornment had been had and made: Provided, nevertheless, That no such tenant shall be prejudiced or damaged by payment of any rent to any such grantor or conusor, or by breach of any condition for nonpayment of rent, before notice shall be given to him of such grant by the conusee or grantee. (4 Ann. ch. 16, §§ 9 and 10, 1705; Kilty's Rep. 246; Alex. Br. Stat. 660, 661; Comp. Stat. D. C., 496, §§ 31 and 32.)

§ 45-934 [25: 344]. Fraudulent attornment void—Possession not changed by such attornment—Attornment pursuant to judgment excepted.

All and every fraudulent attornment and attornments of any tenant or tenants of any messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, shall be absolutely null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever; and the possession of their respective landlord or landlords, lessor or lessors, shall not be deemed or construed to be any wise changed, altered, or affected by any such attornment or attornments: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to vacate or affect any attornment made pursuant to and in consequence of some judgment at law, or decree or order of a court of equity, or made with the privity and consent of the landlord or landlords, lessor or lessors, or to any mortgagee after the mortgage is become forfeited. (11 Geo. 2, ch. 19, § 11, 1738; Kilty's Rep. 251; Alex. Br. Stat. 737; Comp. Stat. D. C., 332, § 60.)

§ 45-1001 [25: 391]. Definition.

A power is an authority to do some act in relation to lands or the creation of estates therein or of charges thereon which the owner granting or reserving such power might himself lawfully perform. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1037.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Power of surviving trustee to execute power of sale, § 18-606.

§ 45-1002 [25: 392]. General power.

A power is general where it authorizes the alienation in fee, by means of a conveyance, will, or charge, of the lands embraced in the power to any alienee whatever. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1038.)

§ 45-1003 [25: 393]. Special power.

A power is special—

First. Where the persons or class of persons to whom the disposition of the lands under the power is to be made are designated.

Second. Where the power authorizes the alienation, by means of a conveyance, will, or charge, of a particular estate or interest less than a fee. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1039.)

§ 45-1004 [25: 394]. Beneficial power.

A general or special power is beneficial where no person other than the grantee has, by the terms of its creation, any interest in its execution. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1040.)

§ 45-1005 [25: 395]. Effect of absolute power to owner of particular estate.

Where an absolute power of disposition, not accompanied by any trust, shall be given to the owner of a particular estate for life or years, such estate shall be changed into a fee, absolute in respect to the rights of creditors and purchasers but subject to any future estates limited thereon in case the power should not be executed or the lands should not be sold for the satisfaction of debts. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1041.)

§ 45-1006 [25: 396]. Effect of such power to one without particular estate.

Where a like power of disposition shall be given to any person to whom no particular estate is limited, such person shall also take a fee, subject to any future estates that may be limited thereon but absolute in respect to creditors and purchasers. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1042.)

§ 45-1007 [25: 397]. Effect where no remainder on particular estate.

In all cases where such power of disposition is given and no remainder is limited on the estate of the grantee of the power, such grantee shall be entitled to an absolute fee. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1043.)

§ 45-1008 [25: 398]. Construction of power to particular tenant to devise the inheritance.

Where a general and beneficial power to devise the inheritance shall be given to a tenant for life or for years, such tenant shall be deemed to possess an absolute power of disposition, within the meaning and subject to the provisions of sections 45-1005 to 45-1007. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1044.)

§ 45-1009 [25: 399]. Right of grantor to reserve power.

The grantor in any conveyance may reserve to himself any power, beneficial or in trust, which he might lawfully grant to another, and every power thus reserved shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter as if granted to another. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1045.)

§ 45-1010 [25: 400]. Liability of beneficial powers in equity.

Every special and beneficial power shall be liable, in equity, to the claims of creditors, and the execution of the power may be decreed for the benefit of the creditors entitled. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1046.)

§ 45-1011 [25: 401]. General powers in trust.

A general power is in trust when any person or class of persons other than the grantee of such power is designated as entitled to the proceeds, or any portion of the proceeds or other benefits to result from the alienation of the lands, according to the power. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1047.)

§ 45-1012 [25: 402]. Special powers in trust.

A special power is in trust—

First. When the disposition which it authorizes is limited to be made to any person or class of persons other than the grantee of such power.

Second. When any person or class of persons other than the grantee is designated as entitled to any benefit from the disposition or change authorized by the power. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1353, ch. 854, § 1048.)

§ 45-1013 [25: 403]. Trust powers imperative.

Every trust power, unless its execution or non-execution is made expressly to depend on the will of the grantee, is imperative and imposes a duty on the grantee the performance of which may be compelled in equity for the benefit of the parties interested. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1049.)

§ 45-1014 [25: 404]. Selection under trust powers.

A trust power does not cease to be imperative where the grantee has the right to select any and exclude others of the persons designated as the objects of the trust. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1050.)

§ 45-1015 [25: 405]. Group of beneficiaries to take equally unless otherwise directed—Trustee with discretion may allot all to one person.

Where a disposition under a power is directed to be made to or among or between several persons, without any specifications of the share or sum to be allotted to each, all the persons designated shall be entitled to an equal proportion. But when the terms of the power import that the estate or fund is to be distributed between the persons so designated, in such manner or proportions as the trustee of the power may think proper, the trustee may allot the whole to any one or more of such persons in exclusion of the others. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1051.)

§ 45-1016 [25: 406]. Execution of trust powers for benefit of creditors and assignees.

The execution in whole or in part of any trust power may be decreed in equity for the benefit of the creditors or assignees of any person entitled to compel its execution when the interest of the objects of such trust is assignable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1052.)

§ 45-1017 [25: 407]. Manner of executing powers.

No power can be executed except by some instrument in writing, which would be sufficient in law to pass the estate or interest intended to pass under the power if the person executing the power were the actual owner. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1053.)

§ 45-1018 [25: 408]. Power by grant may not be executed by will.

Where a power to dispose of lands is confined to a disposition by devise or will, the instrument of execution must be a will duly executed; and where a power is confined to a disposition by grant it can not be executed by will, although the disposition is not intended to take effect until after the death of the party executing the power. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1054.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Wills, §§ 19-107 and 19-203.

§ 45-1019 [25: 409]. Instrument will be deemed execution of power if grantee had no other right to make it.

Every instrument executed by the grantee of a power conveying an estate or creating a charge, which such grantee would have no right to convey or create unless by virtue of his power, shall be deemed a valid execution of the power, although such power be not recited or referred to therein. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1354, ch. 854, § 1055.)

Chapter 11.—SALE OF CONTINGENT AND LIMITED INTERESTS

Sec.

- 45-1101. Sale of contingent interests.
- 45-1102. Application for sale by verified bill in equity showing all facts.
- 45-1103. Proceeds of sale of contingent interest held as real property.
- 45-1104. Sale of all limited interests.

§ 45-1101 [25: 421]. Sale of contingent interests.

Where real estate is limited to one or more for life, with a contingent limitation over to such issue of one or more of the tenants for life as shall be living at the death of their parent or parents, and the deed or will does not prohibit a sale, said court may, on the application of the tenants for life, and if the court shall be of opinion that it is expedient to do so, order a sale of such estate and decree to the purchaser an absolute and complete title in fee simple. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 97.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AUTHORITY OF COURT

This section clothed the court with authority to sell a restricted and particular class of limited estates, and was therefore special legislation, the specific provisions of which had to be given effect as against the more general and more comprehensive provisions of § 100 (§ 45-1104) on the same subject matter. Simon v. Simon (58 App. D. C. 158, 26 Fed. (2d) 530).

BOND OF TRUSTEE

Bond of trustee for sale of property of a minor for re-investment purposes may not be attacked as invalid by the surety. United States ex rel. Hine v. Morse (218 U. S. 493, 54 L. Ed. 1123, 31 Sup. Ct. 37, revg. 29 App. D. C. 433).

§ 45-1102 [25: 422]. Application for sale by verified bill in equity showing all facts.

Any application for such sale shall be by bill, verified by the oath of the party or parties, in which all the facts shall be distinctly set forth upon the existence of which it is claimed that such sale should be decreed, which facts shall be proved by competent testimony. All of the issue embraced in the limitation who are in existence at the time of the application shall be made parties defendant, together with all who would take the estate in case the limitation over should never vest; and minors of the age of fourteen years or more shall answer in proper person under oath, as well as by guardian ad litem, and all evidence shall be taken upon notice to the parties and the guardian ad litem. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 98.)

§ 45-1103 [25: 423]. Proceeds of sale of contingent interest held as real property.

The proceeds of sale of said real estate shall be held under the control and subject to the order of the court, and shall be invested under its order and supervision upon real and personal security, and the same shall, to all intents and purposes, be deemed real estate and stand in the place of the real estate from the sale of which they are derived, and as such be subject to the limitations of the deed or will. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 99.)

§ 45-1104 [25: 424]. Sale of all limited interests.

Wherever one or more persons shall be entitled to an estate for life or years, or a base or qualified fee simple, or any other limited or conditional estate in lands, and any other person or persons shall be entitled to a remainder or remainders, vested or contingent, or an interest by way of executory devise in the same lands, on application of any of the parties in interest the court may, if all the parties in being are made parties to the proceeding, decree a sale or lease of the property, if it shall appear to be to the interest of all concerned, and shall direct the investment of the proceeds so as to inure in like manner as provided by the original grant to the use of the same parties who would be entitled to the land sold or leased; and all such decrees, if all the persons are parties who would be entitled if the contingency had happened at the date of the decree, shall bind all persons, whether in being or not, who claim or may claim any interest in said land under any of the parties to said decree, or under any person from whom any of the parties to such decree claim, or from or under or by the original deed or will by which such particular, limited, or conditional estate, with remainders or executory devises, were created. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1205, ch. 854, § 100.)

PRIOR TO ENACTMENT OF CODE

Equity had no jurisdiction to decree sale of lands of a lunatic for the purpose of better investment. Clark v. Mathewson (7 App. D. C. 382).

Chapter 12.—USES AND TRUSTS

Sec.

- 45-1201. The legal estate in cestui que use.
- 45-1202. Where several are jointly seized of lands to the use of any so seized, the latter shall be deemed to have the possession and seizin of same.
- 45-1203. Purchaser for value.

§ 45-1201 [25: 481]. The legal estate in cestui que use.

Where lands, tenements, or hereditaments are conveyed or devised to one person, whether for years or for a freehold estate, to the use of or in trust for another, no estate or interest, legal or equitable, shall vest in the trustee, but the person entitled, according to the true intent and meaning of such instrument, to the actual possession of the property and the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, in law or in equity, shall be deemed to have a legal estate therein of the same quality and duration and subject to the same conditions as his beneficial interest, except where the title of such trustee is not merely nominal but is connected with some power of actual disposition or management of the property conveyed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1432, ch. 854, § 1617.)

See note to § 45-309.

§ 45-1302 [25: 492]. Waste not to be committed except with license in writing—Damages and amercement for waste.

Fermors, during their terms, shall not make waste, sale or exile of house, or woods, nor of any thing belonging to the tenements, that they have to ferm, without special license had by writing of covenant, making mention, that they may do it; which thing if they do, and thereof be convict, they shall yield full damage, and shall be punished by amercement grievously. (52 Hen. 3, ch. 23, § 2, 1267; Kilty's Rep. 209; Alex. Br. Stat. 46-47; Comp. Stat. D. C., 318, § 19.)

§ 45-1303 [25: 493]. Reversioner may forfeit lease for waste of tenant, though he has assigned to another.

Because that diverse people in times past have let their lands and tenements to divers persons, that is to say, some for term of life or of another man's life, and some for term of years, the said tenants have oftentimes let and granted their estate which they had in the same lands and tenements, to many persons, to the intent that they in the reversion, that is to say, their lessors, their heirs, or their assigns, might not have knowledge of their names, and after the said first tenants continually occupy the said lands and tenements, and thereof take the profits to their proper use, and in the said lands and tenements commit waste and destruction, to the disheritance of them in the reversion: It is ordained and established, that they in the reversion in such case may have and maintain a writ of waste against the said tenants for term of life, of another's life, or for years, and so recover against them the place wasted, and their treble damages, for the waste by them done, as they ought to have done for the waste committed by them before the said grant and lease of their estate. Provided always, that this ordinance hold not place, but where the first tenants before the lease and grant of their said estates, in the manner and form abovesaid, were unpunishable of waste; and also where after the said grant and lease the said first tenants of the said lands and tenements take the profits at the time of the waste done, to their own proper use. (11 Hen. 6, ch. 5, § 1, 1433; Kilty's Rep. 227; Alex. Br. Stat. 243; Comp. Stat. D. C., 320, § 26.)

§ 45-1304 [25: 494]. Joint tenant or tenant in common against cotenant.

Any joint tenant or tenant in common may maintain an action for waste committed by his cotenant, or in a suit for a partition, or a sale for purpose of partition may have said waste charged against the share of the cotenant committing the same. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1433, ch. 854, § 1622.)

§ 45-1401 [20: 1970]. Enactment and prohibition clause.

That on and after ninety days from the date of enactment of this chapter it shall be unlawful in the District of Columbia for any person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation (foreign or domestic) to act as a real-estate broker, real-estate salesman, business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, or to advertise or assume to act as such, without a license issued by the Real Estate Commission of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 787, ch. 760, § 1; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1352, ch. 664, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words "or business-chance salesman."

Exempted from operation of Money Lender License Law, § 26-610.

§ 45-1402 [20: 1971]. Definitions—Exceptions.

Whenever used in this chapter "real-estate broker" means any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation (foreign or domestic) who, for another and for a fee, commission, or other valuable consideration, or who, with the intention or in the expectation or upon the promise of receiving or collecting a fee, commission, or other valuable consideration, lists for sale, sells, exchanges, purchases, rents, or leases or offers or attempts or agrees to negotiate a sale, exchange, purchase, lease, or rental of an estate or interest in real estate, or collects or offers or attempts or agrees to collect rent or income for the use of real estate, or negotiates or offers or attempts or agrees to negotiate, a loan secured or to be secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance upon or transfer of real estate, or who is engaged in the business of erecting houses or causing the erection of houses for sale on his, their, or its land and who sells, offers, or attempts to sell such houses, or who, as owner or otherwise and as a whole or partial vocation, sells, or through solicitation, advertising, or otherwise, offers or attempts to sell or to negotiate the sale of any lot or lots in any subdivision of land comprising ten lots or more: Provided, however, That this definition shall not apply to the sale of space for advertising of real estate in any newspaper, magazine, or other publication. A "business-chance broker" within the meaning of this chapter is any person, firm, partnership, association, copartnership, or corporation who for a compensation or valuable consideration sells or offers for sale, buys or offers to buy, leases or offers to lease, or negotiates the purchase or sale or exchange of a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business for others.

"Real-estate salesman" means a person employed by a licensed real-estate broker to list for sale, sell, or offer for sale, to buy or offer to buy, or to negotiate the purchase or sale, or exchange of real estate, or to negotiate a loan on real estate, or to lease or rent or offer to lease, rent, or place for rent, any real estate, or collect or offer or attempt to collect rent or income for the use of real estate.

"Business-chance salesman" means any person employed by a licensed business-chance broker to list for sale, sell, or offer for sale, to buy or offer to buy, to lease or offer to lease, or to negotiate the purchase or sale or exchange of a business, business opportunity, or good will of an existing business for or in behalf of such business-chance broker.

Persons employed by a licensed broker in a clerical capacity or in subordinate positions who receive a fixed compensation and who receive no additional commission or compensation for specific acts of renting or leasing real estate and who do not sell or exchange, or offer or attempt to sell or exchange, real estate or a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business shall not be required to obtain licenses.

One act for a compensation or valuable consideration of buying or selling real estate for or of another, or offering for another to buy, sell, or exchange real estate, or leasing, renting, or offering to lease or rent real estate, or negotiating or offering to negotiate a loan secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance upon or transfer of real estate, except as herein specifically excepted, shall constitute a person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation performing, or offering, or attempting to perform any of the acts enumerated herein, a real-estate broker, unless such act shall be performed or offered or attempted to be performed by a person for and in behalf of a real-estate broker in which event such act shall constitute such person a real-estate salesman.

One act for a compensation or valuable consideration of buying, selling or leasing or exchanging a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business for or of another, or offering for another to buy, sell, exchange, or lease a business, business opportunity, or the good will of a business, except as herein specifically excepted, shall constitute the person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation performing or offering or attempting to perform any of the acts enumerated herein, a business-chance broker, unless such act shall be performed or offered or attempted to be performed by a person for or on behalf of a business-chance broker, in which event such act shall constitute such person a business-chance salesman.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to receivers, referees, administrators, executors, guardians, trustees, or other persons appointed or acting under the judgment or order of any court; or public officers while performing their official duty, or attorneys at law in the ordinary practice of their profession; nor to any person, copartnership, association, or corporation, who, as owner or lessor, shall perform any of the acts aforesaid with reference to property owned or leased by them, or to the regular officers and employees thereof, with respect to the property so owned or leased, where such acts are performed in the regular course of, or as an incident to, the management of such property and the investments therein, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Every provision of this chapter applying specifically to an applicant or application for a license as a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman, and to a real-estate license, and to a licensee licensed as a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman, and to anyone acting in the capacity of a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman without a license, shall likewise apply in a similar manner, respectively, to every applicant and application for a license as a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman, and to every business-chance license, and to every licensee licensed as a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman, and to anyone acting in the capacity of a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman without a license. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 787, ch. 760, § 2; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1352, ch. 664, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added in the first paragraph the words beginning "or who is engaged" and continuing to the colon before the words "Provided, however"; deleted the following words which concluded the first paragraph, "as a whole or partial vocation"; deleted the following words which concluded the second paragraph, "for or in behalf of such real-estate broker"; added the third paragraph; deleted from the fourth paragraph the words "as collectors, or in similar subordinate and administrative positions" and inserted in lieu thereof the words that now follow the word "capacity" and conclude the paragraph except the last seven words; added in the fifth paragraph the words "or negotiating or offering to negotiate a loan secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other incumbrance upon or transfer of real estate" and the words beginning "unless such act" and concluding the said paragraph; added the sixth paragraph; added in the seventh paragraph the words beginning "nor to any person" and concluding the said paragraph; and, added the eighth paragraph.

§ 45-1403 [20: 1972]. Real Estate Commission created—Membership—Seal—Records—Compensation.

There is hereby created the Real Estate Commission of the District of Columbia. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall appoint two persons, not more than one of whom shall have been actively engaged in or closely connected with the business or vocation of real-estate broker or real-estate salesman within five years immediately prior to appointment, who shall serve as members of said Real Estate Commission of the District of Columbia. In addition thereto, the assessor of the District of Columbia shall serve, ex-officio, as a member of said Real Estate Commission but without added compensation for his services as such. One member of said Commission shall be appointed for a term of one year; one member shall be appointed for a term of two years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; thereafter the term of the members of said Commission shall be for three years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Members to fill vacancies shall be appointed for the unexpired term. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia may remove members of the Real Estate Commission at any time for cause.

The assessor, ex-officio, shall be the chairman of said Real Estate Commission, which is hereby authorized and empowered to elect a treasurer of said Commission and to do all things necessary and convenient for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated from time to time by the Commissioners.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall employ and remove at their pleasure a secretary and such assistants as shall be deemed necessary to discharge the duties imposed by the provisions of this chapter and shall prescribe their duties and fix their compensation in accordance with the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall provide for the use of the Real Estate Commission such office space, furniture, stationery, fuel, light, and other proper conveniences as shall be reasonably necessary for carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

The Commission shall adopt a seal with such design as it may prescribe engraved thereon by which it shall authenticate its proceedings. Copies of all records and papers in the office of the Commission, duly certified and authenticated by the seal of said Commission, shall be received in evidence in all courts equally and with like effect as the original. The Commission shall keep a record of all its proceedings and a complete stenographic record of all hearings authorized under this chapter.

All records kept in the office of the Commission under authority of this chapter shall be open to public inspection under reasonable rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commission.

The compensation of members of the Commission, except the ex officio member, shall be $10 each for personal attendance at each meeting, but shall not exceed for any member $1,500 per annum.

The payment of such allowance shall be made from any unexpended balance in the treasury of said Commission remaining on June 30 of the year during which the services have been rendered, and if the unexpended balance is insufficient to meet the total amount of such allowance the rate of compensation shall be reduced to a rate which will permit payment from such unexpended balance. Such expenses shall in no event exceed the total receipts; and if at the close of each fiscal year any funds unexpended in excess of the sum of $1,000 shall be paid into the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no expenses incurred under this chapter shall be a charge against the funds of the United States or the District of Columbia.

All fees and charges payable under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the treasurer of the Commission. The Commission is hereby authorized to refund any license fee or tax, or portion thereof, erroneously paid or collected under this chapter.

It shall be the duty of the auditor of the District of Columbia to audit the accounts of the Commission at the end of each fiscal year and make a report thereof in writing to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. The said auditor shall have free access to all books of accounts, papers, and records of the said Commission.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make and enforce, revise, or repeal whatever reasonable regulations may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 788, ch. 760, § 3; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act amended the seventh paragraph to read as it now appears. This paragraph in the 1937 act read as follows, "Each member of the Commission, except the ex-officio member, shall receive an allowance at the rate of $10 for each day of seven hours such member is actually engaged in the performance of duties as a member of the Commission: Provided, however, That no member shall receive in any one year a sum greater than $2,000."

§ 45-1404 [20: 1973]. Qualifications for license.

No license under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued to any person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years, nor to any person who cannot read, write, and understand the English language; nor until the Commission has received satisfactory proof that the applicant is trustworthy and competent to transact the business of a real-estate broker or real-estate salesman or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman in such a manner as to safeguard the interests of the public: Provided, however, That a salesman shall have six months from the date of the issuance of his original license to prove his competency, and failure to prove his competency to the satisfaction of the Commission within that period will automatically cancel his original license or any renewal thereof.

In determining competency, the Commission shall require proof that every applicant for a license has a general and fair understanding of the obligations between principal and agent, as well as of the provisions of this chapter; and that an applicant for a license as a real-estate broker has a fair understanding of the general purposes and effect of deeds, mortgages, and contracts for the sale or leasing of real estate, and of elementary real-estate practices; and that an applicant for a license as a business-chance broker has a fair understanding of the general purposes and effect of bills of sale, chattel mortgages and trusts, and the provisions of the law governing sales in bulk.

No license shall be issued to any person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation whose application has been rejected in the District of Columbia or any State within three months prior to date of application, or whose real-estate license has been revoked in the District of Columbia or any State within one year prior to date of application. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 789, ch. 760, § 4; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words "or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman" and the proviso in the first paragraph; rearranged the wording of the first part of the second paragraph and added the words beginning "and that an applicant," the second time the said words appear, and concluding the said paragraph.

§ 45-1405 [20: 1974]. Application for license—Requirements—Location of business—Members—Individual broker's and real-estate salesman's license—Bond—Form, conditions.

Every applicant for a license under the provisions of this chapter shall apply therefor in writing upon blanks furnished by the Real Estate Commission.

The application of every person for a real-estate broker's license or a real-estate salesman's license shall be accompanied by the recommendation of at least two residents of the District of Columbia, real-estate owners, who have owned real estate in the District of Columbia for a period of at least one year and who are not related to the applicant but who have personally known the applicant for a period of at least six months prior to the date of application, which recommendation shall certify that the applicant bears a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness, fair dealing, and competency, and recommend that a license be granted to the applicant.

The application of every firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation for a real-estate broker's license shall state the location of the place or places for which said license is desired and set forth the period of time, if any, which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding date of application, accounting for such entire period. Such applications shall also state the name and residence of each individual member or officer of said applicant who actively participates in the brokerage business thereof.

The application of every individual member or officer of a firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation for a real-estate broker's license shall state the full name and residence address of the applicant and the full name and business address of the firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation with which he is or will be associated, the length of time he has been so associated, and in what capacity. Such application shall also state the period of time, if any, during which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have resided and all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding date of application, accounting for such entire period.

The application of each person for an individual real-estate broker's license shall state the full name of the applicant, his business address, and residence address. Such application shall also state the period of time, if any, during which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have resided and all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding the date of application, accounting for such entire period.

The application of every person for a real-estate salesman's license shall state the full name of the applicant, his residence address, and the name and business address of the real-estate broker by whom he is or will be employed. Such application shall also state the period of time, if any, during which said applicant has been engaged in the real-estate business, together with a complete list of all former places where the applicant may have resided and all former places where the applicant may have been engaged in any business for a period of thirty days or more during the five years preceding the date of application, accounting for such entire period. Such application shall be accompanied by a written statement by the broker by whom the applicant is employed or is about to be employed, stating that in his opinion the applicant is honest, truthful, and of good reputation, and recommending that the license be granted to the applicant.

Every application for a license under the provisions of this chapter shall be sworn to by the applicant and shall be accompanied by the license fee herein prescribed. In the event that the Commission does not approve the application for a license the fee shall be returned to the applicant.

Every application for a license shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of $2,500 in the case of a broker and $1,000 in the case of a salesman, running to the District of Columbia executed by a surety company duly authorized to do business in the District of Columbia: Provided, however, That no bond shall be required of any firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation when the application of every member or officer of such firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation actively participating in the brokerage business thereof is accompanied by a bond as provided for in this section. Said bond shall be in form approved by the Commission, and conditioned that the applicant shall conduct himself and his business in accordance with the requirements of this chapter; and for his failure so to do any person aggrieved thereby shall have, in addition to his right of action against the principal thereof, a right to bring suit against the surety on said bond either alone or jointly with the principal thereon, and to recover in an amount not exceeding the penalty of the bond any damages sustained by reason of any act, representation, transaction, or conduct of the principal which may be prohibited by this chapter or enumerated as one of the causes for suspension or revocation of a license granted hereunder. If a recovery be had on any bond the licensee shall restore the bond to its original amount.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impose upon the surety on any such bond a greater liability than the total amount thereof or the amount remaining unextinguished by any prior recovery or recoveries as the case may be.

No suit or action against the surety on any such bond shall be brought later than one year from the accrual of the cause of action thereon. The surety may terminate its liability under such bond by giving thirty days' written notice thereof, served either personally or by registered mail, to the principal and to the Commission; and upon giving such notice the surety shall be discharged from all liability under such bond for any act or omission of the principal occurring after the expiration of thirty days from the date of service of such notice. Unless on or before the expiration of such period the principal shall duly file a new bond in like amount and conditioned as the original in substitution of the bond so terminated, the license of the principal shall likewise terminate upon the expiration of such period. Upon making any payment on account of its bond, the surety shall immediately notify the Commission.

In the event the surety becomes insolvent or a bankrupt, or ceases to do business or ceases to be authorized to do business in the District of Columbia, the principal shall, within ten days after notice thereof, given by the Commission, duly file a new bond in like amount and conditioned as the original and if the principal shall fail so to do the license of such principal shall terminate.

The Commission, with due regard to the paramount interest of the public, may require other reasonable proof of the honesty, truthfulness, and integrity of the applicant. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 789, ch. 760, § 5; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "executed by two good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Commission, or" following the word "Columbia" as said word first appears in the eighth paragraph; and, added the eleventh paragraph.

CROSS REFERENCE

Refund of fees generally, § 47-1018.

§ 45-1406 [20: 1975]. Procedure when license refused.

The Commission, after an application in proper form has been filed, shall, before refusing to issue a license, set the application down for a hearing and determination as provided in section 45-1409. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 791, ch. 760, § 6.)

§ 45-1407 [20: 1976]. Details relating to license.

The Commission shall cause to be issued to each licensee a license in such form and size as shall be prescribed by the Commission. Every license shall show the name and address of the licensee, and if licensee is a member or officer of a firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation, the full name and address of such firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation shall also be shown on said license. Licenses issued to real-estate salesmen shall in addition show the name and address of the real-estate broker by whom the said salesmen is or will be employed. Each license shall have imprinted thereon the seal of the Commission, and in addition to the foregoing shall contain such matter as shall be prescribed by the Commission. The license of each real-estate salesman shall be delivered or mailed to the real-estate broker by whom such real-estate salesman is employed and shall be kept in the custody and control of such broker. It shall be the duty of each real-estate broker to conspicuously display his license in his place of business.

At any time within six [6] months, but not thereafter, after the issuance of an original license the Commission may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint, in writing, of any person, provided such complaint, or such complaint together with evidence, documentary or otherwise, presented therewith, shall make out a prima facie case that the licensee is unworthy to hold such license, notify the licensee, in writing, that the question of his honesty, competency, truthfulness, and integrity will be reopened and determined de novo. Such written notice may be served by delivery thereof personally to the licensee or by mailing same by registered mail to the last known business address of the licensee. Thereupon the Commission may require and procure further proof of the licensee's trustworthiness and competency, and if such proof shall not be satisfactory such license shall be recalled and shall thereafter be null and void. Upon the recall of any such license it shall be the duty of the licensee to surrender to the Commission such license.

The fee for an original broker's license and every renewal thereof shall be $30: Provided, however, That the fee for an original broker's license and every renewal thereof for individual members, partners, and officers of firms, partnerships, and corporations shall be $30 for the first member, partner, or officer to be designated by the firm, partnership, or corporation and $10 for each additional member, partner, or officer of such firm, partnership, or corporation.

No fee shall be charged for any original license or renewal thereof issued to any firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation all of whose members or officers actively participating in the brokerage business thereof have been issued a broker's license.

The fee for an original real-estate salesman's license and every annual renewal thereof shall be $10.

The fees provided herein for any original license shall be reduced by one-half in all cases where the application for such original license is filed between January 1 and July 1 of any year.

Every license shall expire on the 1st day of July of each year, except that the original or initial licenses, first issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on the 1st day of July, 1938, subject, however, to revocation as hereinbefore provided.

The Commission shall cause to be issued a new license for each ensuing year, in the absence of any reason or condition which might warrant the refusal of the granting of a license, upon receipt of the written request of the applicant and the annual fee therefor, as herein required: Provided, however, That an applicant who, on or before July 1, fails to file said written request and pay the annual fee must comply with all the provisions of this chapter applicable to an original applicant except that the Commission may waive the requirement of furnishing proof of competency. The revocation of a broker's license shall automatically suspend every salesman's license granted to any person by virtue of his employment by the broker whose license has been revoked, pending a change of employer and the issuance of a new license. Such new license shall be issued without charge if granted during the same license year in which the original license is granted.

No person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman, or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman, within the District of Columbia shall bring or maintain any action in the courts of the District of Columbia for the collection of compensation for any services performed as a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman or a business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, or enforcement of any contract relating to real estate without alleging and proving that such person, firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation was a duly licensed real-estate broker or real-estate salesman, or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, at the time the alleged cause of action arose.

Every broker licensed hereunder shall maintain a place of business in the District of Columbia. If a broker maintains more than one place of business within the District of Columbia, a duplicate license shall be issued to such broker for each branch office maintained; and there shall be no fee charged for any such duplicate license.

When a broker changes the location of his principal place of business he must immediately notify the Commission in writing and return to the Commission his license together with the licenses of all salesmen in his employ, and the Commission shall issue a new license to the broker and to each of the salesmen without charge. Failure to notify the Commission and to return his license when the location of his principal place of business is changed, will automatically cancel the broker's license and the licenses of all salesmen in his employ. However, new licenses for the unexpired term may be issued by the Commission without the payment of any additional fee, provided a written request therefor accompanied by a new bond is filed.

When any real-estate salesman shall be discharged or shall terminate his employment with the real-estate broker by whom he is employed it shall be the duty of such real-estate broker to immediately deliver or mail by registered mail to the Commission such real-estate salesman's license. The real-estate broker shall at the time of delivering or mailing such real-estate salesman's license to the Commission, address a communication by registered mail to the last-known residence address of such real-estate salesman, which communication shall advise such real-estate salesman that his license has been delivered or mailed to the Commission. A copy of such communication to the real-estate salesman shall accompany the license when mailed or delivered to the Commission. It shall be unlawful for any real-estate salesman to perform any of the acts contemplated by this chapter, either directly or indirectly, under authority of said license from and after three days following such delivery or mailing of the said license by said broker to the Commission.

When a salesman shall be discharged or shall terminate his employment with the broker by whom he is employed, it shall be the duty of such salesman to immediately notify the Commission, and it shall be unlawful for him to perform any of the acts contemplated by this chapter either directly or indirectly from and after such termination of employment until such time as he has been employed by another licensed broker and a license has been reissued him by the Commission.

There shall be no additional fee for the reissuance of a salesman's license necessitated by the change of employers nor shall such change work a revocation or require a renewal of the salesman's bond.

A license issued to an individual cannot be transferred to another individual. However, an individual licensed as a broker may, upon written request to the Commission, change his status to that of an individual broker or to that of a partner of a partnership, or to that of an officer of a corporation, for any unexpired term of his license, without the payment of any additional fee, and such change shall not work a revocation or require a renewal of the bond of any such broker. This provision shall not be applicable to any real-estate broker in respect to a change of license to that of a business chance broker or vice versa.

No license shall be issued to any firm, partnership, association, or corporation unless every individual member, partner or officer of such firm, partnership, association, or corporation who actively participates in the brokerage business thereof is licensed as a broker. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 791, ch. 760, § 7; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1354, ch. 664, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the figure "$50" and inserted in lieu thereof the figure "$30," and added the rest of the third paragraph; added the sixth paragraph; added the proviso on the end of the first sentence of the eighth paragraph; added the words "or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman" as they appear in the ninth paragraph; deleted the words "real estate" as they appeared in the 1937 act as the second and third words of the first sentence and the third and fourth words of the second sentence of the tenth paragraph; reworded the eleventh paragraph to provide as it now appears, the former paragraph having provided that notice be given "by each licensee" and not having provided for a new bond; and, added the thirteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth paragraphs.

§ 45-1408 [20: 1977]. Suspension or revocation of license—Causes enumerated.

The Commission may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint in writing of any person, provided such complaint or such complaint together with evidence, documentary or otherwise, presented in connection therewith, makes out a prima facie case, investigate the conduct of any real-estate broker or real-estate salesman, or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman, and shall have the power to suspend or to revoke any license issued under the provisions of this chapter, at any time where the licensee has by false or fraudulent representation obtained a license, or where the licensee, in performing or attempting to perform any of the acts mentioned herein, has—

(a) Made any substantial misrepresentation;

(b) Made any false promises of a character likely to influence, persuade, or induce;

(c) Pursued a continued and flagrant course of misrepresentation, or making of false promises through agents or salesmen, or advertising or otherwise;

(d) Acted for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge of all parties for whom he acts;

(e) Accepted a commission or valuable consideration as a real-estate salesman or as a business-chance salesman for the performance of any of the acts specified in this chapter from any person, except the broker under whom he is licensed;

(f) Represented or attempted to represent a real-estate broker or a business-chance broker other than the employer, without the express knowledge and consent of the employer;

(g) Failed, within a reasonable time, to account for or to remit any money, valuable documents, or other property coming into his possession which belong to others;

(h) Demonstrated such unworthiness or incompetency to act as a real-estate broker or real-estate salesman or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman as to endanger the interests of the public;

(i) While acting or attempting to act as agent or broker, purchased or attempted to purchase any property or interest therein for himself, either in his own name or by use of a straw party, without disclosing such fact to the party he represents;

(j) Been guilty of any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character from that hereinbefore (prior to Aug. 25, 1937) specified, which constitutes fraudulent or dishonest dealing;

(k) Used any trade name or insignia of membership in any real-estate organization of which the licensee is not a member;

(l) Disregarded or violated any provisions of this chapter;

(m) Guaranteed or authorized or permitted any broker or salesman to guarantee future profits which may result from the resale of real property, or a business, business opportunity, or the goodwill of any existing business;

(n) Placed a sign on any property offering it for sale or for rent or offering it for sale or rent without the written consent of the owner or his authorized agent;

(o) Accepted a compensation from more than one party to a transaction without the knowledge of all the parties to the transaction; or

(p) Failed to restore the bond to its original amount after a recovery on the bond as provided in section 45-1405. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 793, ch. 760, § 8; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1356, ch. 664, § 8.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words "or business-chance broker or business-chance salesman" in the first paragraph; added the words "or as a business-chance salesman," and deleted the words "except an employer who is a licensed real-estate broker" and inserted in lieu thereof the last eight words in paragraph (e); added the word "or a business-chance broker" in paragraph (f); deleted the word "salesman" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "real-estate salesman or a business-chance broker or a business-chance salesman" in paragraph (h); inserted paragraph (i) in lieu of the former paragraph which read, "Paid or offered to pay a commission or valuable consideration to any person for acts or services in violation of this act, with knowledge of such violation or where reasonable diligence has not been exercised to acquire such knowledge;" added the words "or a business, business opportunity, or the goodwill of any existing business" at the end of paragraph (m); changed the verbs in paragraph (m) and (n) from the present to the past participle; and, inserted paragraph (o) in lieu of the former paragraph which read, "Soliciting, selling, or offering for sale real property by offering free lots, or conducting lotteries, or contests, or offering prizes for the purpose of influencing a purchaser or prospective purchaser of real property." (See second paragraph of § 45-1414 added thereto by the 1939 act which made this deletion.)

§ 45-1409 [20: 1978]. Hearing before suspension—Court review—Appeal.

The Commission shall, before denying an application for license, or before suspending or revoking any license, set the matter down for a public hearing, and at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing it shall notify the applicant or licensee in writing of any charges made and shall afford said applicant or licensee an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in reference thereto. Such written notice may be served by delivery of same personally to the applicant or licensee or by mailing same by registered mail to the last-known business address of such applicant or licensee. If said applicant or licensee be a salesman the Commission shall also notify the broker employing him, or whose employ he is about to enter, by mailing notice by registered mail to the broker's last-known address. The hearing on such charges shall be at such time and place as the Commission shall prescribe. The Commission shall have the power to issue subpoenas or take testimony of any person by deposition in the same manner as prescribed by law in judicial procedure in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in civil cases. It shall also have the power to require the production of books, records, papers, and documents by subpoena or otherwise. Any party to any hearing before the Commission shall have the right to the attendance of witnesses in his behalf at such hearing upon making request therefor to the Commission and designating the person or persons sought to be subpoenaed. If the Commission shall determine that any applicant is not qualified to receive a license, a license shall not be granted to said applicant, and if the Commission shall determine that any licensee is guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of §§ 45-1401 to 45-1418 this chapter, his or its licenses shall be suspended or revoked. All evidence before and findings of fact made by the Commission and questions of law involved in any final decision or determination of the Commission shall be subject to review by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia upon a writ of certiorari, mandamus, appeal, or by any other method permissible under the rules and practices of said court or the laws of the District of Columbia, and the said court may make such further orders with respect thereto as justice may require: Provided, however, That application is made by the aggrieved party to the court within thirty days after any determination by the Commission or within sixty days after formal request shall be made upon it for action. Such application shall operate as a stay of any action or finding of the Commission revoking or suspending a license, and until final decision by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia such licensee shall have the right to continue in business.

An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the said court on any such appeal on the same terms and conditions as an appeal is taken in civil actions.

Any party to the proceedings desiring it shall be furnished with a copy of such stenographic notes, upon the payment to the Commission of such reasonable fee as it shall, by general rule or regulation, prescribe. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 794, ch. 760, § 9.)

§ 45-1410 [20: 1979]. Provisions applicable to nonresident brokers and salesmen.

A nonresident of the District of Columbia may become a real-estate broker or a real-estate salesman in the District of Columbia by conforming to all of the conditions of this chapter, except that the application of such person for a license need not be accompanied by the recommendation of real-estate owners in the District of Columbia prescribed in paragraph 2 of section 45-1405, but in lieu thereof the Commission shall require the filing of like recommendations by similarly qualified real-estate owners of property in the state, territory, or county of such applicant's residence, and with the further exception that a nonresident of the District of Columbia need not maintain a place of business within the District of Columbia if he is licensed in and maintains a place of business in the state in which he resides.

(2) The Commission may recognize, in lieu of the recommendation and statements otherwise required by this chapter to accompany an application for a license, the valid and existing license issued to a nonresident to act as a real-estate broker or salesman by any state having a law for the licensing of such brokers and salesmen similar to this chapter, upon payment of the license fee prescribed by this chapter and the filing by the applicant with the commission of a duly authenticated copy of applicant's license issued by such state: Provided, however, That every nonresident applicant shall file an irrevocable consent that suits and actions may be commenced against such applicant in the proper courts of the District of Columbia by the service of any process or pleadings authorized by the laws of the United States applying to the District of Columbia on the secretary of the Commission, said consent stipulating and agreeing that such service of such process or pleadings on said secretary shall be taken and held in all courts to be as valid and binding as if due or personal service had been made upon said applicant in the District of Columbia. Said instrument containing such consent shall be duly acknowledged and if made by a corporation shall be authenticated by the seal thereof. All such applications, except from individuals, shall be accompanied by a duly certified copy of the resolution of the proper officers or managing board, authorizing the proper officer to execute the same. In case any process or pleadings mentioned in this chapter are served upon the secretary of the Commission, it shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be filed in the office of the Commission and the other immediately forwarded by registered mail to the residence address given by the applicant against which said process or pleadings are directed: And provided further, That every nonresident of the District of Columbia shall file a bond in form and contents the same as is required of applicants under section 45-1405. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 795, ch. 760, § 10; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1357, ch. 664, § 9.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words beginning "and with the further" and concluding the first paragraph.

§ 45-1411 [20: 1980]. Power to obtain evidence.

Each member of the Commission and its duly authorized representatives may administer oaths to witnesses.

In case of the refusal of any person to comply with any subpoena issued hereunder or to testify to any matter regarding which he may lawfully be interrogated, the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or any judge thereof, on application of any member of the Commission, shall issue an order requiring such person to comply with such subpoena and to testify or either, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 11.)

§ 45-1412 [20: 1981]. Further exemptions—Exceptions.

It shall not be necessary for any trustee or auctioneer acting under authority of a power of sale in a mortgage, deed of trust, or similar instrument securing the payment of a bona fide debt nor any bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, or any land-mortgage or farm-loan association, organized under the laws of the United States, when engaged in the transaction of business within the scope of its corporate powers and provided by law, to obtain a license under this chapter.

The exemption contained in this section shall not apply to any bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, or any land-mortgage or farm-loan association, which for another and for a compensation, performs any of the acts defined herein as the acts of a real-estate broker or business-chance broker in connection with any property, wherein such bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, land-mortgage or farm-loan association has no fiduciary interest such as receiver, referee, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 12; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1357, ch. 664, § 10.)

§ 45-1413 [20: 1982]. List of licensees to be published.

The Commission shall publish at least annually a list of the names and addresses of all licensees licensed by it under the provisions of this chapter and of all persons whose license has been suspended or revoked within one year, together with a succinct report of its work during the year. Such list shall be mailed by the Commission to any person in the District of Columbia upon request. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 13.)

§ 45-1414 [20: 1983]. Fraudulent transfers or loans.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation to enter into or become a party to any contract, agreement, or understanding, or in any manner whatsoever to consider, combine, conspire, or act with another or others, (a) to execute a deed conveying real property in the District of Columbia that is not a bona fide sale but is instead a simulated sale of such property executed for the purpose and with the intent of misleading others as to the value of such property, and which in fact does so mislead and/or defraud others, to their detriment; or (b) to execute a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property situated in the District of Columbia that does not in fact represent security for a bona fide indebtedness, but which is in reality a simulated transaction, executed for the purpose and with the intent of misleading or deceiving others as to the value of the property and which does mislead, deceive, or defraud others to their detriment.

It shall be unlawful within the District of Columbia for any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation, foreign or domestic, either as owner or otherwise, to offer, give, award, or promise, or to use any method, scheme or plan offering, giving, awarding, or promising free lots in connection with the sale or the offering for sale or an attempt to sell or negotiate the sale of any real estate or interest therein, wherever situated, for the purpose of attracting, inducing, persuading, or influencing a purchaser or a prospective purchaser; or to offer, promise, or give prizes of any name or nature for attendance at or participation in any sale of real estate, by auction or otherwise.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation knowingly to pay a fee, commission, or compensation to anyone for the performance within the District of Columbia of any service or act defined in this chapter as the act of a real-estate broker, real-estate salesman, business-chance broker, or business-chance salesman, who was not duly licensed as such at the time such service or act was performed: Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to the division of commission by a broker licensed hereunder with a nonresident cooperating broker. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 14; Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1357, ch. 664, § 11.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the second and third paragraphs.

§ 45-1415 [20: 1934]. License revoked on conviction of crime.

Where during the term of any license issued by the Commission the licensee shall be convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction in the District of Columbia or any State (including Federal courts) of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy to defraud, or other like offense or offenses and a duly certified or exemplified copy of the record in such proceedings shall be filed with the Commission, the Commission shall revoke forthwith the license by it theretofore issued to the licensee so convicted.

In the event that any licensee shall be indicted in the District of Columbia or any State or Territory (including Federal courts) for forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy to defraud, or like offense or offenses, and a certified copy of the indictment be filed with the Commission, or other proper evidence thereof be to it given, the Commission shall have authority, in its discretion, to suspend the license issued to such licensee pending trial upon such indictment.

No license shall be issued by the Commission to any person known by it to have been, within five years theretofore, convicted of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy to defraud, or other like offense or offenses, or to any copartnership of which such person is a member, or to any association or corporation of which said person is an officer, director, or employee, or in which as a stockholder such person has or exercises a controlling interest either directly or indirectly. In the event of the revocation or suspension of the license issued to any member of a copartnership, or to any officer of an association or corporation, the license issued to such copartnership, association, or corporation, shall be revoked by the Commission, unless, within a time fixed by the Commission, where a copartnership, the connection therewith of the member whose license has been revoked shall be severed and his interest in the copartnership and his share in its activities brought to an end, or where an association or corporation, the offending officer shall be discharged and shall have no further participation in its activity. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 796, ch. 760, § 15.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 45-1416 [20: 1985]. Penalties—Prosecutions.

Any person or corporation violating any provision of this chapter shall upon conviction thereof, if a person, be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment for a term not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; and, if a corporation, be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of a corporation, or member, employee, or agent of a firm, partnership, copartnership, or association, who shall personally participate in or be accessory to any violation of this chapter by such firm, partnership, copartnership, association, or corporation, shall be subject to the penalties herein prescribed for individuals.

This chapter shall not be construed to release any person, partnership, association, or corporation from civil liability or criminal prosecution under the laws applying to the District of Columbia.

All prosecutions for violation of this chapter shall be begun in the police court of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia and under the direction and charge of the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia. The corporation counsel of the District of Columbia and his assistants shall also be counsel for the Commission in all suits to which it may be a party, and shall advise the Commission and at its request attend any and all hearings which it may hold in the performance of its duties hereunder. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 797, ch. 760, § 16.)

§ 45-1417 [20: 1985a]. Bond required for renewal of licenses.

No license heretofore issued under the authority of this chapter, where the application therefor was accompanied by a bond which does not conform with the requirements of said chapter as amended hereby, shall be reissued or renewed unless the application for such reissuance or renewal shall be accompanied by a bond in accordance with this chapter as amended by this Act. (Aug. 10, 1939, 53 Stat. 1358, ch. 664, § 12.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words "This Act" refer to the act of August 10, 1939, cited to the text of the various sections of this chapter which it amends.

§ 45-1418 [20: 1986]. Saving clause.

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or requirement of this chapter is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof. The Congress of the United States hereby declares that it would have passed this chapter, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and requirement thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, phrases, or requirements be declared unconstitutional or invalid. (Aug. 25, 1937, 50 Stat. 798, ch. 760, § 17.)

§ 46-103 [8: 253]. Eligibility for aid—Age—Residence—Liability of relatives for.

In order that any person who shall have become blind while a resident of the District of Columbia may be entitled to aid under the provisions of this chapter such person must be at least sixteen years of age and a resident of the District of Columbia for one year next preceding his application for aid hereunder: Provided, That in order that any person whose blindness originated while he was not a resident of the District of Columbia may be entitled to aid hereunder, such person must be at least twenty-one years of age and must have been a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia for a period of five years during the nine years immediately preceding the filing of his application for aid hereunder and must have resided in the District of Columbia continuously for at least one year immediately preceding the date of the application: And provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal or render void, so far as blind persons are concerned, any existing statutes which create or define a liability on the part of certain persons to support and provide for poor relatives. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 744, ch. 639, § 3.)

§ 46-104 [8: 254]. Application for aid—Affidavit—Contents.

To receive aid under this chapter, the applicant shall file his application with the Board or its designated agency, accompanied by an affidavit signed by himself stating his age, sex, places of residence during the period stipulated in the District of Columbia, his financial resources, and incomes, the name and address of his next of kin, degree of blindness, how long blind, what employment he has had, his general physical condition, and such other information as the Board or its designated agency may designate. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 745, ch. 639, § 4.)

§ 46-105 [8: 255]. Evidence of blindness—Amount of aid—Appeal from agency.

No aid shall be granted hereunder until the board or its designated agency is satisfied from the evidence of at least two reputable citizens of the District of Columbia that they know the applicant has the residential qualifications to entitle him to the aid asked for, and from the evidence of a duly licensed and practicing oculist whose duty it shall be to describe the condition of the applicant's eyes and to testify to his blindness, which evidence shall be in writing subscribed to by such witnesses, subject to the right of cross-examination by either the Board or its designated agency; and if the Board or its designated agency is satisfied by such testimony that the applicant is entitled to aid hereunder, it shall, without delay, allow such sum as it finds needed: Provided, That no aid shall be furnished any individual with respect to any period with respect to which he is receiving old-age assistance: Provided further, That in the case of a blind dependent child living with its parents or parent such aid shall not exceed $30 per month: And provided further, That any agency designated by the Board hereunder shall transmit to the Board a record of its actions in granting or refusing to grant aid to each blind applicant, and any blind applicant who is dissatisfied with the finding of such agency regarding his application for aid, may appeal to the Board who shall grant such applicant a full hearing, after reasonable notice, and shall then consider the application; and, if a majority of the Board in attendance at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall find that the applicant is entitled to aid under the provisions of this chapter, they shall then and there award such aid as they deem proper. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 745, ch. 639, § 5.)

§ 46-106 [8: 256]. Aid to blind person—Increase or decrease of allowance—Appeal—Aid pending appeal.

The Board or its designated agency shall investigate annually, or oftener, the qualifications of blind persons who receive aid hereunder, and may increase or decrease the allowance within the limits prescribed by this chapter; or if said designated agency is satisfied that any person receiving aid under this chapter is not entitled to such aid, it shall discontinue such aid and shall forthwith notify such person and the Board of such action: Provided, however, That the person receiving such aid may take an appeal to the Board from such action as if it were an original application for aid: And provided further, That such an appeal must be filed within sixty days from the notification by the designated agency to the beneficiary hereunder of the intended reduction or discontinuance of aid. If any such appeal be filed, the said aid shall be restored pending the findings of the board on said appeal. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 745, ch. 639, § 6.)

§ 46-107 [8: 257]. Blind person receiving aid not to solicit alms.

No persons shall be eligible to receive aid under the provisions of this chapter who, after receiving said aid publicly solicits alms in any manner, either by wearing, carrying, or exhibiting signs denoting blindness for the securing of alms, or by any signs calling attention to blindness exhibited on wares and merchandise, or the carrying of receptacles for the purpose of securing alms, or the doing of the same by proxy or by stationary or house-to-house begging, or any other means of publicly securing aid. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 7.)

§ 46-108 [8: 258]. Aid to blind person to cease on removal from District of Columbia—Temporary absence.

Any person qualifying for and receiving aid hereunder who removes himself from the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia and thereby ceases to be a resident shall no longer be entitled to the benefits and aid under the provisions of this chapter. Absence for a reasonable length of time, as designated by the Board, shall not work a forfeiture hereunder. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 8.)

§ 46-109 [8: 259]. Refusal to work—Refusal to submit to treatment.

The benefits hereof shall not be granted to any person between the ages of sixteen and fifty-five years who, having no occupation and being both physically and mentally capable of some useful occupation, or of receiving vocational or other training, refuses for any reason to engage in such useful occupation, or refuses to avail himself of such vocational or other training: Provided, That no person shall be entitled to the benefits of this chapter who shall refuse to submit to any treatment or operation for blindness when such treatment or operation is recommended by three examining oculists and approved by the Board or its designated agency. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 9.)

§ 46-110 [8: 260]. No benefits when intentional destruction of eyesight—Loss of eyesight through crime or vicious habits.

No person shall be eligible to the benefits of this chapter who shall hereafter either intentionally deprive himself of his eyesight or assist in the destruction thereof by others; or hereafter shall lose his eyesight during the perpetration of a criminal offense; or shall hereafter lose his eyesight by reason of vicious habits. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 10.)

§ 46-111 [8: 261]. Liability of relatives for aid to blind person—Agency authorized to recover amount paid.

The kindred of any person otherwise entitled to aid under the provisions of this chapter, in line and degree of spouse, father, child, or grandchild, living in the District of Columbia and of sufficient ability so to do shall be bound to support such person, in the order above named and in proportion to their respective ability. If at any time during the continuance of aid the Board of Commissioners, or its designated agency has reason to believe that a spouse, father, child, or grandchild is reasonably able to assist him, it shall be empowered to bring suit, after notifying such person of the amount of such aid, against such spouse, father, child, or grandchild to recover the amount of such aid provided under this chapter, or such part thereof as such spouse, father, child, or grandchild was reasonably able to pay. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 11.)

§ 46-112 [8:262]. Deduction of aid to blind persons from estates of assisted persons—Transfer of property to Board or agency as security.

At the death of a recipient of aid under this chapter, or of the last survivor of a married couple either one of whom have received aid, the total amount of aid since the first grant, together with simple interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, shall be deducted and allowed by the proper courts out of the proceeds of his property as a preferred claim against the estate of the person so assisted, and refunded to the Treasurer of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, leaving the balance for distribution among the lawful heirs in accordance with law: Provided, That upon sufficient cause, such as mismanagement, failure to keep in repair, or the inability of any recipient of aid properly to manage his property, the designated agency of the Board may demand the assignment or transfer of such property, or a proper part thereof, upon the first grant of such aid, or at any time thereafter that it deems advisable for the purpose of safeguarding the interest of any applicant or for the protection of the funds of the District of Columbia. Such agency shall establish such rules and regulations regarding the care, management, transfer, and sale of such property as it deems advisable and shall provide for the return of the balance of the claimant's property into his hands whenever the assistance is withdrawn or the claimant ceases to request it. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 746, ch. 639, § 12.)

§ 46-113 [8:263]. Penalty for fraud in obtaining allowance for blind person.

Any person who attempts to obtain, or obtains, by false representation, fraud, or deceit, any allowance under this chapter, or who receives any allowance knowing it to have been fraudulently obtained, or who aids or assists any person in obtaining or attempting to obtain an allowance by fraud, shall upon conviction in the police court of the District of Columbia be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 13.)

§ 46-114 [8:264]. Appropriation for — Accounts — Appointment of one to stand in loco parentis.

In order to carry out the provisions of this chapter there is authorized to be appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1936, the sum of $75,000, payable from the revenues of the District of Columbia, and for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1937, and annually thereafter, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall include in the estimate of appropriations for said District of Columbia, such an amount as may be necessary for this purpose; and the Board shall assign such personnel in the employ of the District of Columbia as may be necessary to administer this chapter and said Board or its designated agency shall keep and render separate account of the funds expended and separate statistical reports of the persons aided, under the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That whenever necessary said Board shall appoint an acceptable member of the personnel to stand in loco parentis to any minor qualifying for aid hereunder. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 14.)

§ 46-115 [8:265]. Board of Commissioners—Cooperation with Social Security Board.

The Board of Commissioners or its designated agency is hereby authorized and directed to cooperate in all necessary respects with the Social Security Board of the United States Government in the administration of this chapter, and to accept any sums allotted or apportioned by such Board as are available under the provisions of the Social Security Act. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 15.)

§ 46-116 [8:266]. Care for blind—Liberal construction—Saving clause.

The provisions of this chapter are to be liberally construed to effect its objects and purposes, and if any section, subsection, or subdivision of this chapter is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this chapter. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 639, § 16.)

§ 46-201 [8:281]. Old-age assistance—Definitions.

The care and assistance of aged persons who are in need and whose physical or other condition or disabilities seem to render permanent their inability to provide properly for themselves is hereby declared to be a special matter of public concern and a necessity in promoting the public health and welfare. To provide such care and assistance at public expense a system of old-age assistance is hereby established for the District of Columbia. The term "assistance" whenever used in this chapter shall be construed to include relief, aid, care, or support. The pronoun

"he" or "his" when used herein shall be construed to include persons of either sex. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 747, ch. 640, § 1.)

§ 46-202 [8: 282]. Eligibility—Age—Residence requirements—Other relief not given except medical aid.

Assistance may be granted only to an applicant who (a) is a citizen of the United States; (b) has attained the age of sixty-five years or upward; (c) has resided in the District of Columbia for five years or more within the nine years immediately preceding application for assistance, and who has resided therein continuously for one year immediately preceding the said application; (d) is not at the time of making application an inmate of any prison, jail, workhouse, insane asylum, or any other public reformatory or correctional institution; (e) is not a habitual tramp or beggar; (f) has no child or other person financially able to support him and legally responsible for his support; and (g) has not made a voluntary assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of qualifying for such assistance.

During the continuance of the old-age assistance no recipient shall receive any other relief from the District of Columbia except for medical and surgical and nursing care. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 748, ch. 640, § 2.)

§ 46-203 [8: 283]. Agency to administer old-age assistance—Amount—Reference to Home for Aged and Infirm—Hearing and Review.

The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall administer old-age assistance under this chapter through such agent or agency as it may designate. It shall prescribe the form of and print and supply the blanks for applications, reports, and affidavits, and such other forms as it may deem advisable, and shall make rules and regulations necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this chapter, and shall make and render any and all reports required by the federal Social Security Board or otherwise authorized or required by law. The amount of the assistance which any such person shall receive, and the manner of providing it, shall be determined by the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency, with due regard to the conditions existing in each case. The Board of Commissioners may, in lieu of the assistance herein provided, refer any applicant to the Board of Public Welfare for admission to the Home for Aged and Infirm, whenever, in the judgment of the said Commissioners, such action may be in the public interest or in the best interest of the applicant. Any applicant for old-age assistance whose claim for initial relief or modification of relief is denied may apply to the agency designated by the Commissioners for the administration of this chapter for hearing and review of said claim and the determination of the designated agency on such appeal shall be final except that the Commissioners of the District of Columbia in their discretion may grant a further review of the matters embraced in the aforesaid application.

If, in the opinion of the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency, the recipient is incapable of taking care of himself or his money, it may direct the payment to any responsible person for the benefit of the pensioner, or may suspend payment if deemed advisable. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 748, ch. 640, § 3.)

§ 46-208 [8: 288]. Change or suspension of old-age assistance.

All assistance under this chapter shall be reviewed from time to time as frequently as may be required by the rules hereunder formulated. After such further investigation as may be deemed necessary the amount and manner of assistance may be changed or the assistance may be withdrawn if it is found that the recipient's circumstances have changed sufficiently to warrant such action, and all cases in which relief is being extended shall be reviewed every six months. It shall be within the power of the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency at any time to cancel and revoke assistance and to suspend payments for such periods as it may deem proper. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 8.)

§ 46-209 [8: 289]. Inquiry into old-age assistance improperly obtained.

If at any time the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency has reason to believe that any assistance has been improperly obtained, it shall cause special inquiry to be made. If, on inquiry it appears that it was improperly obtained, it shall be canceled. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 9.)

§ 46-210 [8: 290]. Old-age assistance obtained by fraud—Penalty.

Any person, who by means of a wilfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation, or other fraudulent device, obtains or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain (a) assistance to which he is not justly entitled; (b) a larger amount of assistance than that to which he is justly entitled; (c) payment of any forfeited installment grant; (d) or aids or abets in the buying or in any way disposing of the property of an old-age assistance recipient, without the consent of the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $500 or imprisoned for a period not to exceed six months, or both. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 10.)

§ 46-211 [8: 291]. Liability of relatives for support—Suit to recover.

The kindred of any person otherwise entitled to old-age assistance under the provisions of this chapter, in line and degree of spouse, father, child, or grandchild, living in the District of Columbia and of sufficient ability so to do shall be bound to support such person, in the order above named and in proportion to their respective ability. If at any time during the continuance of old-age assistance the Board of Commissioners or its designated agency has reason to believe that a spouse, father, child, or grandchild is reasonably able to assist him, it shall be empowered to bring suit, after notifying such person of the amount of old-age assistance, against such spouse, father, child, or grandchild to recover the amount of assistance provided under the chapter, or such part thereof as such spouse, father, child, or grandchild was reasonably able to pay. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 11.)

§ 46-212 [8: 292]. Estate of recipient liable for assistance—Transfer of property to Board as security.

At the death of recipient of an old-age assistance, or of the last survivor of a recipient married couple, the total amount of assistance since the first grant, together with simple interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, shall be deducted and allowed by the proper courts out of the proceeds of his property as a preferred claim against the estate of the person so assisted, and refunded to the Treasurer of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, leaving the balance for distribution among the lawful heirs in accordance with law: Provided, That upon sufficient cause, such as mismanagement, failure to keep in repair, or the inability of any recipient of assistance properly to manage his property, the designated agency of the Commissioners may demand the assignment or transfer of such property, or a proper part thereof, upon the first grant of such assistance, or at any time thereafter that it deems advisable for the purpose of safeguarding the interest of an applicant or for the protection of the funds of the District of Columbia. Such agency shall establish such rules and regulations regarding the care, management, transfer, and sale of such property as it deems advisable and shall provide for the return of the balance of the claimant's property into his hands whenever the assistance is withdrawn or the claimant ceases to request it. If the District of Columbia collects from the estate of any recipient of old-age assistance any amount with respect to old-age assistance furnished him under this chapter, one-half of the net amount so collected shall be paid to the United States in accordance with the provisions of title 42, sections 301-306, Supplement V, of the Code of the Laws of the United States. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 749, ch. 640, § 12.)

§ 46-213 [8: 293]. Appropriation for old-age assistance.

Congress shall appropriate annually and make available to the order of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia such sums as may be needed to pay the share of the District of Columbia for old-age assistance, provided under this chapter together with a sufficient sum to defray its share of the administrative expenses to be incurred in connection therewith, and include such sums in the annual District of Columbia Appropriation Act. Should the sum so appropriated, however, be expended or exhausted during the year for the purposes for which it was appropriated, additional sums shall be appropriated by Congress as occasion demands to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 750, ch. 640, § 13.)

§ 46-214 [8: 294]. Expenses for old-age assistance to be paid as other expenses.

All necessary expenses incurred by the District of Columbia in carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the District of Columbia are paid. (Aug. 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 750, ch. 640, § 14.)

§ 46-215 [8: 295]. Board of Commissioners—Cooperation with Federal Social Security Board.

The Board of Commissioners or its designated agency is hereby authorized and directed to cooperate in all necessary respects with the Social Security Board of the United States Government in the administration of this chapter, and to accept any sums allotted or apportioned by such Board as are available under the provisions of Title 42, chapter 7, Supplement V, of the Code of the Laws of the United States. ## § 46-301 [8: 311]. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise—

(a) The term "employer" means the District, and every individual and type of organization for whom services are performed under a contract of employment.

(b) The term "employment" means any service, of whatever nature, including employment in interstate commerce, performed after December 31, 1935, within the United States, by any individual under any contract of hire, oral or written, express or implied, so long as the greater part, as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it, of the service performed under such contract is performed within the District, except—

(1) domestic service in a private home;

(2) casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business;

(3) service performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of twenty-one in the employ of his father or mother;

(4) service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States which is (A) wholly owned by the United States or (B) exempt from the tax imposed by section 1600 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States (U. S. C., title 26) by virtue of any other provision of law: Provided, That in the event that the Congress of the United States, on or before Oct. 17, 1940, has permitted or in the event that the Congress of the United States shall permit States to require any instrumentalities of the United States (except such as are (A) wholly owned by the United States, or (B) exempt from the tax imposed by section 1600 of the Internal Revenue Code (U. S. C., title 26) by virtue of any other provision of law), to make contributions to an unemployment fund under a State unemployment compensation law, then, to the extent so permitted by Congress, and from and after the date as of which such permission becomes effective, or January 1, 1940, whichever is the later, all of the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to such instrumentalities in the same manner, to the same extent, and on the same terms as to all other employees, individuals, and services: Provided further, That if the District of Columbia should not be certified by the Social Security Board under section 1603 of the Internal Revenue Code (U. S. C., title 26, § 1603) for any year, the payments required of any instrumentality of the United States or its employees with respect to such year shall be refunded by the District Unemployment Compensation Board in accordance with the provisions of section 46-304 (f).

(5) service performed in the employ of a Senator, Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, insofar as such service directly assists him in carrying out his legislative duties;

(6) service performed in the employ of the District as a school officer or teacher, or as a member of the police or fire department, or by an individual who is subject to the act entitled "An Act for the retirement of employees in the classified Civil Service, and for other purposes," approved May 22, 1920 (title 5, chapter 14, of the Code of the Laws of the United States), as amended and

(7) service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

(8) service performed in the employ of an employer as defined in the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (U. S. C., title 45, §§ 351-367) and service performed as an employee representative as defined in said Act. This amendment shall not be construed to affect the payment of unemployment benefits at any time with respect to any period prior to July 1, 1939, based upon employment performed prior to July 1, 1939;

(9) service performed by an individual under the age of eighteen in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(10) service performed by an individual for a person as an insurance agent or as an insurance solicitor, if all such service performed by such individual for such person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission.

(c) The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value, as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it, of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash. Whenever gratuities are received by an individual in the course of his employment from persons other than his employer, the Board, under regulations prescribed by it, shall determine the average amount of such gratuities generally received by individuals performing services of that nature, and the amount so determined shall, for the purpose of the contributions required and the benefits provided under this chapter, be included as a part of the wages of such individual: Provided, That such term "wages" shall not include that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to any individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year and after December 31, 1939.

(d) "Benefit year" with respect to any individual means the fifty-two-consecutive-week period beginning with the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual first files a valid claim for benefits, and thereafter the fifty-two-consecutive-week period beginning with the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual next files a valid claim for benefits after the termination of his last preceding benefit year. Any claim for benefits made in accordance with section 46-311 (a) shall be deemed to be a "valid claim" for the purposes of this subsection if the individual has during his base period been paid wages for employment by employers equal to not less than whichever is the lesser of (1) twenty-five times his weekly benefit amount, and (2) $250.

(e) An individual shall be deemed unemployed in any week during which no earnings are payable to him, or in any week of less than full-time work if the earnings payable to him with respect to such week are less than his weekly benefit amount.

(f) "Earnings" means all remuneration payable for personal services, including wages, commissions, and bonuses and the cash value of all remuneration payable in any medium other than cash whether received from employment, self-employment, or any other work. Gratuities received by an individual in the course of his work shall be treated as earnings. The reasonable cash value of all remuneration payable in any medium other than cash, and a reasonable amount of gratuities shall be estimated and determined in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Board.

(g) The phrase "dependent relative" means a mother, father, stepmother, stepfather, brother, or sister, who, because of age or physical disability, is unable to work, or a child under sixteen years of age, or a child who is unable to work because of physical disability, who is wholly or mainly supported by the individual receiving the benefit.

(h) The term "Board" means the District Unemployment Compensation Board established by section 46-315.

(i) The term "District" means the District of Columbia.

(j) The term "benefits" means the payments to unemployed individuals provided for in section 46-307.

(k) The term "week" means the period commencing at 12:01 o'clock ante meridian Sunday and ending at 12 o'clock midnight the following Saturday.

(l) The term "month" means calendar month; except that for the purpose of computing the contributions payable with respect to any calendar month, and for that purpose only, such calendar month shall be deemed, if, and to the extent that individuals are paid on a weekly basis, to be the period covered by all the weeks which commence within such calendar month.

(m) The phrase "Unemployment Trust Fund" means the Unemployment Trust Fund established by title 42, section 1104, Supplement V, of the Code of the Laws of the United States.

(n) The phrase "employment office" means a free public employment office or branch thereof in the District, or elsewhere.

(o) "Base period" means the first four out of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of the individual's benefit year.

(p) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to transfer from the account of the District of Columbia in the unemployment trust fund to the railroad unemployment insurance account in the unemployment trust fund, an amount equal to the "preliminary amount" and an amount equal to the "liquidating amount," whenever such amounts, respectively, have been determined, with respect to the District of Columbia, pursuant to title 45, section 363 of the Code of the Laws of the United States. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 946, ch. 794, § 1; Feb. 13, 1936, 49 Stat. 1138, ch. 68; June 23, 1936, 49 Stat. 1888, ch. 726, § 9; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1112, ch. 680, § 14; Apr. 22, 1940, 54 Stat. 149, ch. 127, § 1; July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 730, ch. 524, § 1; Oct. 17, 1940, 54 Stat. 1204, ch. 898, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

In paragraph (h), the 1935 act refers to the Board established by § 15 of that act (§ 46-314 herein). However, the Board is established by § 16 (§ 46-315 herein).

Section 2 of the act approved July 2, 1940, provided as follows:

TRANSITION PROVISIONS

"(a) As used in this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise—

"(1) 'old law' means the unemployment-compensation law prior to its amendment by this title;

"(2) 'new law' means the unemployment-compensation law as amended by this title;

"(3) 'effective date' means the date upon which the new law becomes effective; and

"(4) 'continuous period of compensable unemployment' means a period of unemployment beginning prior to and continuing up to and after the effective date in the case of an individual who, prior to the effective date, has filed a claim for benefits for a week or weeks of unemployment in such period: Provided, That the individual has satisfied the requirements of paragraph 2 of subsection (a) of section 10 of the old law and has not exhausted his rights to benefits pursuant to subsection (b) of section 8 of the old law prior to the effective date.

"(b) Except as otherwise specifically provided in subsection (c) of this section, the new law shall be exclusively applicable with respect to any individual on and after the effective date. No provision of the old law shall be construed to limit or extend the rights of any individual as fixed by the new law, after the new law becomes exclusively applicable with respect to such individual as provided in this section.

"(c) With respect to any individual who is unemployed during a continuous period of compensable unemployment (as defined in paragraph 4 of subsection (a) of this section) sections 1 (d), 8 (a) (insofar as it relates to the determination of the weekly benefit rate for total unemployment), 8 (b), 8 (c), 8 (d), and 10 (a) (2) of the old law shall be exclusively applicable until the expiration of such continuous period of compensable unemployment.

"(d) Upon application by an employer, filed pursuant to suitable regulations by the Board, the Board shall determine the extent to which the employer's contributions paid for the first six months of the calendar year 1940 were in excess of his contributions due for said period under the new law and shall make an adjustment for that amount, without interest, solely in connection with subsequent contributions by him."

AMENDMENTS

Paragraph (7) in subsection (b) was added by the act of Feb. 13, 1936. It was amended by act of June 23, 1936, to read as above. As originally enacted it read: "(7) Service performed in the employ of the following: All religious institutions and schools maintained by them; colleges or universities, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual."

Paragraph (8) of subsection (b) was added by act of June 25, 1938. Paragraph (p) [(b)] was also added by the last-mentioned act.

Paragraph (9) in subsection (b) was added by the act of April 22, 1940. Section 2 of this last-mentioned act provided that said paragraph (9) should "be effective January 1, 1940."

Act of July 2, 1940, added paragraph (b) (10), and the proviso to subsection (c), and substituted subsections (d), (e), and (f) as above for the former subsections which provided as follows:

"(d) The phrase 'weekly wage' as applied to any individual who has been engaged in employment for at least thirty hours in each of twenty-six or more weeks within the period of one hundred and four weeks ending with the week in which such individual was last engaged in employment, means the sum obtained by dividing the total of the wages earned in all the weeks within such period in which he was engaged in employment at least thirty hours by the number of such weeks; and, as applied to any individual who has not been engaged in employment for at least thirty hours in each of twenty-six or more weeks within such period of one hundred and four weeks, means the sum obtained by dividing the total of the wages earned in such period by the total number of weeks within such period in which he was engaged in employment.

"(e) The phrase 'totally unemployed' means that the individual concerned has performed in the particular week no services whatsoever for which remuneration (of any nature whatsoever) is payable, has not engaged in any self-employment, and is found by the Board to have been unable to engage in any self-employment in which he was formerly engaged.

"(f) The phrase 'partially unemployed' means that the individual concerned has failed to earn in the particular week remuneration (of any nature whatsoever) of at least $2 more than the benefit he would be entitled to receive under this Act with respect to such week if totally unemployed and otherwise eligible."

Other amendments made by act of July 2, 1940, were as follows: In subsection (g) the words "or a child who is unable to work because of physical disability" were inserted following the words "sixteen years of age"; in subsection (n), the words "or elsewhere," were inserted after the word "District" and the rest of the sentence omitted. The new subsection (o) was also added by this act.

Act of October 17, 1940, substituted paragraph (4) as above for the former paragraph (4) which read as follows: "(4) service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States." Section 2 of this act provided as follows: "This act shall be effective as of January 1, 1940: Provided, however, That any employer required to make retroactive payment of any contributions shall be given thirty days from the enactment of this Act within which to make such retroactive payments without incurring any penalty for the late payment of such contributions and all interest charges shall commence one month from the date of the enactment of this Act."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

Subdivision (p) is in U. S. C., title 45, § 364.

§ 46-302 [8: 312]. District Unemployment Fund.

There is hereby established the District Unemployment Fund, into which shall be paid all contributions received or collected pursuant to this chapter and from which shall be paid all benefits provided for under this chapter. The Fund shall be managed and controlled by the Board in the manner provided in this chapter; and the Board shall keep complete and accurate accounts of the status of the Fund, and shall include a statement of such status in its yearly report to Congress. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 947, ch. 794, § 2.)

§ 46-303 [8: 313]. Employer contributions.

(a) Every employer who employs one or more individuals in any employment shall for each month, beginning with the month of January 1936, pay contributions equal to the following percentages of the total wages payable (regardless of the time of payment) with respect to such employment by him during such month:

(1) With respect to employment during the calendar year 1936 the rate shall be 1 per centum;

(2) With respect to employment during the calendar year 1937 the rate shall be 2 per centum;

(3) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1938 and 1939, the rate shall be 3 per centum;

(b) Every employer who employs one or more individuals in any employment shall, beginning with the month of January 1940, pay 2.7 per centum of the total wages paid with respect to such employment.

(c) The Board shall for each calendar year, commencing with the second six months of the calendar year 1942, on the basis of the unemployment hazard attached to employment by the respective employers, (1) segregate the employers into classes, and (2) determine the rate of contribution, which shall not be less than 1½ per centum nor more than 4 per centum, to be paid by the employers of each such class: Provided, That in any such year the rate of contribution applicable to any employer shall be 2.7 per centum unless there shall have been at least three calendar years throughout which benefits were payable with respect to any individual in his employ who became unemployed and was eligible for compensation, and the estimated total contributions payable by all employers in any such calendar year shall not be less than 2.7 per centum of the estimated wages with respect to which such contributions are paid. In making such classifications the Board shall take into account all relevant and measurable factors which it deems to have a bearing on the unemployment hazard attached to employment by any employer, and shall apply such form of classification or such rating system as in its judgment is best calculated to rate individually the unemployment hazard most equitably for each employer or group of employers, and to encourage the stabilization of employment. The standards to be used as a basis of such classification for each calendar year shall be adopted by the Board at least sixty days prior to January 1 of such year, and shall be published in at least two newspapers of general circulation in the District once each week for three successive weeks during the month of November of the year preceding such January 1. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 947, ch. 794, § 3; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 731, ch. 524, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

In paragraph (a) (3) the 1940 amendment struck out the following words: “, and 1940.”; struck out paragraph (a) (4); in paragraph (b) struck out the letter “(b)” and inserted in lieu thereof the letter “(c)” and added a new paragraph (b); in the original paragraph (b) struck out the words “calendar year 1941” and substituted in lieu thereof “second six months of the calendar year 1942”, substituted the word “paid” for the word “payable”, and changed the figure “3” to “2.7.”

§ 46-304 [8: 314]. Method of paying employer contributions—Refunds.

(a) The contributions required by section 46-303 shall be paid to and collected by the Board, and shall, immediately upon collection, be paid into the District Unemployment Fund.

(b) Contributions shall become due and be payable at such time and in accordance with such regulations as the Board may prescribe. No extension of the time for filing any return or for the payment of the contributions shall be allowed to any employer. All moneys so required to be paid to and collected by the Board shall be subject to audit by the District Auditor.

(c) If the contributions are not paid when due, there shall be added, as part of the contributions, interest at the rate of 1 per centum per month from the date the contributions became due until paid.

(d) In the event of the dissolution, insolvency, bankruptcy, composition, or assignment for benefit of creditors, of any employer, contributions then or thereafter due from such employer under this section shall have priority over all other claims, except taxes due the United States or the District, and wages (not exceeding $250 with respect to any individual) due for employment performed within the six months preceding such event.

(e) In payment of any contribution, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent.

(f) Refunds.—If not later than one year after the date on which any contributions or interest thereon became due an employer who has paid such contributions or interest thereon shall make application for an adjustment thereof in connection with subsequent contribution payments, or for a refund thereof because such adjustment cannot be made, and the Board shall determine that such contributions or interest or any portion thereof was erroneously collected, the Board shall allow such employer to make an adjustment thereof, without interest, in connection with subsequent contribution payments by him, or if such adjustment cannot be made, the Board shall refund said amount, without interest, from the clearing account or benefit account upon checks issued by the Board or its duly authorized agent. For like cause and within the same period, adjustment or refund may be so made on the Board's own initiative. Should benefits have been paid based upon work records filed by the employer, claiming an adjustment or refund, such benefit should be disregarded for purposes of figuring such adjustment or refund, and any such benefit payments already having been made at the time of the refund, based upon records filed with this Board by such employer, shall to that extent be allowed and shall not be deemed to have been paid erroneously: Provided, That applications with respect to adjustments or refunds for the years 1936, 1937, 1938, and 1939 may be made within one year from July 1, 1940. All refunds paid pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to a prior audit by the District Auditor. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 948, ch. 794, § 4; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 731, ch. 524, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 3 of Title I of the said 1940 act is as follows: “This title shall take effect as of 12:01 antemeridian, July 1, 1940.”

AMENDMENTS

The above paragraph (b) was substituted for (b) of the 1935 act. The old section read as follows:

“(b) Not later than the fifteenth day after the close of each month, every employer shall make a return of and shall pay the contributions which shall have accrued with respect to wages payable with respect to employment by him within such month. Each such return shall be made under oath (except where the amount of the contribution payable is less than $10), shall be filed with the Board, and shall contain such information and be made in such manner as the Board may by regulations prescribe. No extension of the time for filing the return or for payment of the contributions shall be allowed to any employer.”

Paragraph (f) was added by the 1940 act.

For effect of amendment, see note to § 46-301.

§ 46-305 [8: 316]. Appropriations.

There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the District for each fiscal year such sum as may be necessary to permit the District to pay the contributions required of it under this chapter. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 949, ch. 794, § 6.)

§ 46-306 [8: 317]. Deposit in Unemployment Trust Fund.

All moneys received in the District Unemployment Fund from sources other than the Unemployment Trust Fund shall be immediately paid over to the Secretary of the Treasury to the credit of the Unemployment Trust Fund to be held in trust for the District upon the terms and conditions provided in title 42, section 1104, Supplement V, Code of the Laws of the United States. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 949, ch. 794, § 7.)

§ 46-307 [8: 318]. Amount and duration of benefits.

(a) On and after January 1, 1938, benefits shall become payable from the benefit account of the District Unemployment Fund. All benefits shall be paid through employment offices, in accordance with such regulations as the Board may prescribe.

(b) An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the amount appearing in column B in the table set forth in this subsection on the line on which in column A of such table appears the total wages for employment paid to such individual by employers during that quarter of his base period in which such wages were the highest.

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT TABLE

$368.01 to $391.00-----	17	250
$391.01 and over-----	18	250

(c) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less the earnings (if any) payable to him with respect to such week. For the purpose of this subsection, the term "earnings" shall include only that part of the remuneration payable to him for such week which is in excess of 40 per centum of his weekly benefit amount for any week. Such benefit, if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the next higher multiple of $1.

(d) Any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to nineteen times his weekly benefit amount or one-half of the wages for employment paid to such individual by employers during his base period, whichever is the lesser.

(e) Dependent's Allowance.—In addition to the benefits payable under subsections (b) and (c) of this section, each individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week $1 for each dependent relative, but not more than $3 shall be paid to an individual as dependent's allowance with respect to any one week of unemployment, nor shall any weekly benefit which includes a dependent's allowance be paid in the amount of more than $18. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 949, ch. 794, § 8; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 732, ch. 524, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The section as contained in the 1935 act provided as follows:

"(a) Subject to the provisions of subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the Board shall pay, from the District Unemployment Fund, to every eligible individual (1) with respect to each week, commencing with the week beginning January 2, 1938, in which such individual was totally unemployed, a week's benefit, which shall be an amount, computed to the nearest half-dollar, equal to 40 per centum of his weekly wage, plus 10 per centum of such weekly wage if he has a dependent spouse, plus an additional 5 per centum of such weekly wage for each dependent relative: Provided, That in no case shall the amount paid to any such individual for any week exceed $15, or 65 per centum of his weekly wage, whichever is the lesser; and (2) with respect to each week commencing with the week beginning January 2, 1938, in which such individual was partially unemployed, an amount which when added to the total amount of remuneration (of any nature whatsoever) payable for services performed by such individual during such week, will total $2 more than the week's benefit to which he would be entitled if totally unemployed during such week.

"(b) With respect to unemployment occurring within any period of fifty-two weeks, benefits shall be payable to every eligible unemployed individual (1) in the ratio of one-third of a week's benefit to each credit week which occurred within the period of one hundred and four weeks ending with the week in which he was last engaged in employment, until a total amount equivalent to sixteen times a week's benefit has been paid to him; and (2) after such total has been paid, in the ratio of one-twentieth of a week's benefit to each credit week which occurred within the period of two hundred and sixty weeks ending with the week in which he was last engaged in employment.

"(c) All payments of benefits under this section shall be charged, in accordance with the applicable ratio, against the earliest credit week or part thereof available for such purpose.

"(d) As used in this section, the term 'credit week' means a week in which the individual concerned performed some employment, against which no benefits have been charged, and with respect to which no benefits were paid to the individual: Provided, That any week occurring within the customary school vacation period shall not be counted as a credit week in the case of any individual who attended a school, college, or university in the last preceding school term, and returns to a school, or college, or university at the end of such vacation period."

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 46-308 [8: 319]. Method of paying benefits.

Each week the Board shall requisition, from the moneys to the credit of the District in the Unemployment Trust Fund, the amount required to pay the benefits accruing with respect to such week. Upon receipt of the amount requisitioned, the Board shall deposit it as part of the District Unemployment Fund in the Treasury of the United States as a special deposit to be used solely to pay the benefits provided in this chapter. All payments of benefits shall be made by checks drawn by the Board, shall be made at the employment offices designated by the Board, and shall be subject to a post, but not a prior, audit by the District auditor. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 950, ch. 794, § 9.)

§ 46-309 [8: 320]. Eligibility for benefits.

(a) An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if it has been found by the Board—

(1) that he has filed a claim for benefits in the form and at the time prescribed, and at the employment office designated, by the Board;

(2) that he has during his base period been paid wages for employment by employers equal to not less than the amount appearing in column "C" of the table in section 46-307 (b), on the line on which in column "B" his weekly benefit amount appears;

(3) that he is physically able to work;

(4) that he is available for work and has registered and inquired for work at the employment office designated by the Board, with such frequency and in such manner as the Board may by regulations prescribe: Provided, That failure to comply with this condition may be excused by the Board upon a showing of good cause for such failure;

(5) that he has been unemployed for a waiting period of not more than two weeks. No week shall be counted as a week of unemployment for the purposes of this subsection—

(A) unless it occurs within the benefit year which includes the week with respect to which he claims payment of benefits: Provided, That this requirement shall not interrupt the payment of benefits for consecutive weeks of unemployment: And provided further, That the week or the two consecutive weeks immediately preceding a benefit year, if part of one uninterrupted period of unemployment which continues into such benefit year, shall be deemed (for the purposes of this subsection only) to be within such benefit year as well as within the preceding benefit year;

(B) if benefits have been paid with respect thereto; and

(C) unless the individual was eligible for benefits with respect thereto as provided in this section and section 46-310, except for the requirements of this paragraph; and

(6) that the total or partial unemployment in such week is not directly due to a strike or jurisdictional labor dispute still in active progress in the establishment where he is partially employed or was last employed.

(b) Copies of the regulations prescribed by the board pursuant to paragraph (4) shall be furnished by the board to each employer; and each employer shall post one of such copies on each of his premises in a conspicuous and easily accessible place and shall furnish a copy to each individual who leaves his employ. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 950, ch. 794, § 10; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 733, ch. 524, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1940 amendment inserted the present paragraphs (2) and (5). In the 1935 act they appeared as follows: "(2) that he has performed employment in at least thirteen weeks within the period of fifty-two weeks ending with the week in which he was last engaged in employment;"

"(5) that he has been totally unemployed and otherwise eligible for benefits under this act for a waiting period of at least three weeks with respect to which he received no benefits, prior to the week for which he claims benefits; and for the purpose of computing such waiting period, two weeks of partial unemployment shall be counted as one week of total unemployment. Such weeks of unemployment need not be consecutive but may be accumulated over the period of fifty-two weeks prior to the week for which he claims benefits; and * * *"

§ 46-310 [8: 321]. Disqualification for benefits.

(a) An individual who has left his work voluntarily without good cause, as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it, shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to the week in which he so left nor with respect to the three weeks immediately following.

(b) An individual who has been discharged for misconduct occurring in the course of his work, proved to the satisfaction of the Board, shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to the week in which such discharge occurred nor with respect to such additional number of weeks immediately following (not less than one nor more than six) as the Board may determine, under regulations prescribed by it, in proportion to the degree of such misconduct.

(c) If an individual otherwise eligible for benefits fails, without good cause as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it, either to apply for new work found by the Board to be suitable when notified by any employment office, or to accept any such work when offered to him, he shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to the week in which such failure occurred nor with respect to the three weeks immediately following. In determining whether or not work is suitable within the meaning of this subsection the Board shall consider (1) the physical fitness and prior training and experience of the individual, (2) the distance of the place of work from the individual's place of residence, and (3) the risk involved as to health, safety, or morals. Benefits shall not be denied to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions: (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute; (2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; (3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

(d) If an individual under twenty-one years of age otherwise eligible for benefits fails, without good cause as determined by the Board under regulations prescribed by it, to attend courses at a vocational or other school when recommended by the manager of the employment office or by the Board and such courses are available at public expense, he shall not be eligible for benefits with respect to any week in which such failure occurred. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 951, ch. 794, § 11.)

§ 46-311 [8: 322]. Determination of claims—Appeal—Record of proceedings—Refusal to obey—Subpena—Fees.

(a) As soon as possible after an individual has filed a claim for benefits, an agent of the board designated by it for such purpose shall determine whether or not such individual is entitled thereto and, if such individual is found to be so entitled, shall determine the week with respect to which payments will commence and the amount of the payments per week. Upon such determination, the agent shall give notice thereof to such individual and to his most recent employer, and benefits shall be paid or denied accordingly; but either party may file an appeal to the Board from such determination within ten days after such notification was delivered to him or mailed to him at his last-known address, and in the event that any such appeal is filed, no benefits shall be paid to the individual until the appeal shall have been finally decided by the Board.

(b) Upon the filing of any such appeal, the Board shall appoint, in its discretion, either an examiner regularly employed by it on a salary basis or an appeal tribunal, to hold hearings at which both parties shall be given opportunity to present evidence and to be heard. In the conduct of such hearings, the parties shall not be bound by rules of evidence or other technical rules of procedure, but the examiner or appeal tribunal, as the case may be, shall use due diligence to ascertain the true facts of the case.

(c) On the basis of the evidence presented at such hearings, the examiner or appeal tribunal, as the case may be, shall make a finding of the facts of the case and shall render a decision in accordance therewith. Each such decision shall automatically become the decision of the board and effective as such as of the 10th day following the date such decision was rendered, unless, before such 10th day, upon petition of either party under regulations prescribed by the Board or upon its own motion, the Board has affirmed, reversed, or modified such decision, or has set it aside and ordered a rehearing or the taking of additional evidence before the same or a different examiner or appeal tribunal, or the Board. All decisions rendered by the Board affirming, reversing, or modifying any decision of an examiner or appeal tribunal shall become effective immediately.

(d) Each appeal tribunal shall consist of an examiner regularly employed by the Board on a salary basis and a representative of employees and a representative of employers designated by the Board. No such representative shall be regularly employed by the Board or have any financial interest, direct or indirect, in the case. In no case shall the hearings proceed unless the examiner designated as a member of the appeal tribunal is present; and, if either or both of such representatives fail to appear for any such hearing, the examiner shall proceed to hear the case. Each such representative shall be paid such sum, not in excess of $10, as the Board shall by regulations prescribe, for each day on which he actively engaged, or was present and prepared to engage, in the conduct of any such hearings.

(e) In the discharge of the duties imposed by this section, any member of the Board and any duly authorized examiner shall have power to administer oaths, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the disputed claim.

(f) A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at every hearing on any such claim shall be taken down by a stenographer, but shall not be transcribed except upon order of the Board or in the event of an appeal pursuant to section 46-312 hereof. Upon any such appeal, a copy of all the testimony and of the finding of facts upon which the Board's decision was based shall be filed with the court, and the facts so found shall, if supported by the evidence, be binding on the court.

(g) In the case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the Board may invoke the aid of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records. Such court may issue an order requiring such person to appear before the Board or officer designated by the Board, there to produce records, if so ordered, or to give testimony touching the matter in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. Any person who shall, without just cause, fail or refuse to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records, if in his power so to do, in obedience to the subpoena of the Board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or both.

(h) No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the Board or in obedience to the subpoena of the Board or any member thereof or any officer designated by it, or in any cause or proceeding instituted by the Board, on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subject to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

(i) Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall be allowed fees at a rate fixed by the Board. Such fees and all other expenses of proceedings involving disputed claims shall be deemed part of the expense of administering this chapter. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 951, ch. 794, § 12.)

§ 46-312 [8: 323]. Court review.

(a) Within thirty days after the decision of the Board has become final, either party may appeal to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia from such decision. Upon the filing of any such appeal, notice thereof shall be served upon the Board by the appellant. Such appeals shall be heard by the Court at the earliest possible date and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases. It shall not be necessary on any such appeal to enter exceptions to the rulings of the Board and no bond shall be required for entering such appeal. In no event shall an appeal act as a supersedeas.

(b) An appeal may be taken from a decision of such court to the United States Court of Appeals for the District. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 953, ch. 794, § 13.)

§ 46-313 [8: 324]. Administration—Civil service.

(a) The Board is hereby authorized and directed to administer the provisions of this chapter. Subject to the Civil Service Act, the Board is further authorized to employ such officers, examiners, accountants, attorneys, experts, agents, and other persons, and to make such expenditures, as may be necessary to administer this chapter, and to authorize any such person to do any act or acts which could lawfully be done by the Board. The Civil Service Commission is hereby authorized and directed to confer a competitive classified civil-service status upon those employees performing services for the Board upon July 1, 1940: Provided, That (1) such employees are certified by the Board as having rendered satisfactory service for not less than six months; (2) that they qualify in such appropriate noncompetitive examination as may be prescribed by the Civil Service Commission: Provided, however, That all employees certified by the Board in accordance with condition (1) hereof shall automatically be eligible to take such noncompetitive examination; (3) that they are citizens of the United States; and (4) that they are not disqualified by any provision of section 3 of civil-service rule V. The Board may, in its discretion, require bond from any of its employees engaged in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The Board is further authorized to prescribe all regulations which may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such regulations shall become effective five days after they have been published in a newspaper of general circulation in the District.

(c) The Board shall each year, not later than February 1, submit to Congress a report covering the administration and operation of this chapter during the preceding calendar year, and containing such recommendations as the Board wishes to make.

(d) The Board shall, whenever it believes that a change in the contribution or benefit rates is necessary to protect the solvency of the fund, at once recommend such change to Congress if in session.

(e) The Board is hereby authorized and directed, in the administration of this chapter, to cooperate to the fullest practicable extent with the Social Security Board created by the Social Security Act; to make such reports in such form and containing such information as the Social Security Board may from time to time require, and to comply with such provisions as the Social Security Board may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports; and to comply with the regulations prescribed by the Social Security Board governing the expenditure of such sums as may be allotted and paid to the District under title 42, sections 501-503, Supplement V, of the Code of the Laws of the United States for the purpose of assisting in administering this chapter. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 953, ch. 794, § 14; June 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 733, ch. 524, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The word "Title" refers to Title I of the 1940 act that amends this section.

Section 3 of Title I of 1940 act is as follows: "This title shall take effect as of 12:01 antemeridian, July 1, 1940."

Section 3 of Civil Service Rule V referred to in subsection (a) is as follows:

"3. Disqualifications.—The Commission may, in its discretion, refuse to examine an applicant for appointment or reinstatement or to certify an eligible for any of the following reasons: (a) Dismissal from the service for delinquency, inefficiency, or misconduct; (b) physical or mental unfitness for the position for which he applies: Provided, That the Commission may, in its discretion, exempt from the physical requirements established for any position a disabled honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine upon a certificate of the United States Veterans' Administration attesting that he has completed an appropriate and sufficient rehabilitatory course of training for the duties of the class of positions in which employment is sought; And provided further, That the Commission, may in its discretion, waive the physical requirements in the case of a disabled veteran not so trained to permit his examination; (c) criminal, infamous, dishonest, immoral, or notoriously disgraceful conduct; (d) intentionally making a false statement as to any material fact, or practicing any deception or fraud in securing examination, registration, certification, or appointment; (e) refusal to furnish testimony as required by rule XIV; and (f) the habitual use of intoxicating beverages to excess.

"Any of the reasons stated in the foregoing clauses (b) to (f), inclusive, shall also be good cause for removal from the service."

AMENDMENT

The 1940 act inserted the present paragraph (a). This paragraph appeared in the 1935 act as follows:

"(a) The Board is hereby authorized and directed to administer the provisions of this act. The Board is further authorized to employ such officers, examiners, accountants, attorneys, experts, agents, and other persons, and to make such expenditures, as may be necessary to administer this act, and to authorize any such person to do any act or acts which could lawfully be done by the Board. The Board may, in its discretion, require bond from any of its employees engaged in carrying out the provisions of this act."

§ 46-314 [8: 325]. Method of paying administrative expenses.

All moneys received by the Board from the United States under Title 42, sections 501-503, Supplement V, of the Code of the Laws of the United States or from other sources for administering this chapter shall, immediately upon such receipt, be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a special deposit to be used solely to pay such administrative expenses. All such payments of expenses shall be made by checks drawn by the Board and shall be subject to audit by the District auditor in the same manner as are payments of other expenses of the District. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 954, ch. 794, § 15.)

§ 46-315 [8: 326]. District Unemployment Compensation Board.

(a) There is hereby established the District Unemployment Compensation Board, to be composed of the Commissioners of the District as members ex officio, and one representative of employees and one representative of employers to be appointed by the Commissioners. Each such representative shall be a resident of the District and shall hold office for a term of three years from the date of his appointment; except that (1) any representative appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed, shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term, and (2) the term of office of the first representative of employees shall be two years. The chairman of the Commissioners of the District shall be chairman of the Board.

(b) The Board shall administer this chapter through an executive officer to be appointed and employed by the Board. Such executive officer shall act as secretary of the Board and is hereby authorized to act in the name of the Board in all matters specifically delegated to him by the Board.

(c) The Commissioners of the District shall serve on the Board without additional compensation, but the representatives of employees and employers, respectively, shall be paid $10 for each day of active service. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 954, ch. 794, § 16.)

§ 46-316 [8: 327]. Reciprocal agreements with States.

The Board is hereby authorized, upon such terms as in its judgment will not result in any loss to the District Unemployment Fund, to enter into agreements with the proper authorities under State unemployment-compensation laws whereby there shall be effected with respect to individuals who have removed from employment in the District to employment in the State covered by the agreement, or who have removed from employment in such State to employment in the District, an exchange of the rights acquired by such individuals with respect to unemployment benefits in the place of their former employment. The terms of all such agreements entered into by the Board shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the District. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 954, ch. 794, § 17.)

§ 46-317 [8: 328]. Records and reports.

(a) Every employer shall keep true and accurate employment records of all individuals employed by him in employment, including the hours of employment and the wages payable therefor. Such records shall be open to inspection by the Board every day except Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, between the hours of 9 o'clock antemeridian and 4 o'clock postmeridian.

(b) The Board may require from any such employer such reports in connection with his business, covering employment, employees, wages, hours, unemployment, and related matters, as the Board deems necessary to the effective administration of this chapter. Information thus obtained shall not be published or be open to the public in any manner which will reveal the employer's identity; and any person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not less than $20 nor more than $200 or imprisoned not longer than ninety days, or both.

(c) Upon request therefor, the Board shall furnish to any agency of the United States or of the District charged with the administration of public works or assistance through public employment, the name, address, ordinary occupation, and employment status of each recipient of benefits and a statement of such recipient's rights to further benefits under this chapter. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 955, ch. 794, § 18.)

§ 46-318 [8: 329]. Protection of rights and benefits.

(a) No agreement by any individual to waive any of his rights under this chapter, or to pay any part of the contribution payable by his employer with respect to his or any other individual's employment shall be valid; nor shall any employer make, require, or permit any deduction from the wages payable to his employees for the purpose of paying any part of the contributions required of the employer under this chapter, or require or attempt to induce any individual to waive any right he may acquire under this chapter. Any employer who violates any provision of this subsection shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

(b) No assignment of any right to benefits which are or may become due or payable under this chapter shall be valid or enforceable; and the right to any such benefits shall be exempt from levy, execution, attachment, and any other remedy whatsoever provided for the collection of debt; and the benefits received by any individual shall be exempt from the payment of all debts except debts accrued for necessities furnished to such individual or his spouse at a time when such individual was unemployed. Exemptions provided for in this subsection may not be waived.

(c) No individual seeking to establish a claim for benefits shall be charged any fee whatsoever by the Board; and no person who represents any such individual in any proceeding shall charge or receive for his services a sum in excess of 10 per centum of the aggregate amount of benefits received by such individual pursuant to the decision in such proceedings. Any person who violates any provision of this subsection shall, for each such offense, be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 955, ch. 794, § 19.)

§ 46-319 [8: 330]. Penalties.

(a) Whoever makes a false statement or representation, knowing it to be false, to obtain or increase any payment provided for in this chapter, for himself or any other individual, shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $20 nor more than $100 or imprisoned not more than sixty days, or both.

(b) Any employer, and any officer or agent of an employer, who furnishes a false record or makes a false statement or representation, knowing it to be false, to avoid the payment of any or all of the contributions required of such employer under this chapter, or to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any individual entitled thereto, and any employer who wilfully refuses to pay the contributions or to furnish any report required of him under this chapter, shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 20.)

§ 46-320 [8: 331]. Disposition of fines.

The amount of all fines collected pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be turned over to the Board and by it paid into the District Unemployment Fund. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 21.)

§ 46-321 [8: 332]. Representation of board in court.

(a) On the request of the board the United States district attorney for the District shall represent the Board in any action in court arising under this chapter or in connection with the administration and enforcement of its provisions, including actions for the collection of contributions due hereunder; but in any civil action the Board may be represented by its own counsel.

(b) Violations of any provision of this chapter shall be prosecuted by the United States district attorney for the District. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 22.)

§ 46-322 [8: 333]. Right to amend or repeal.

All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this chapter or by acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of Congress to amend or repeal this chapter at any time. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 23.)

§ 46-323 [8: 334]. Separability of provisions.

If any provision of this chapter, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter and the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 24.)

§ 46-324 [8: 335]. Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the "District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Act." (Aug. 28, 1935, 49 Stat. 956, ch. 794, § 25.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

U. S. C., title 31, § 665, above referred to reads as follows: "No executive department or other Government establishment of the United States shall expend, in any one fiscal year, any sum in excess of appropriations made by Congress for that fiscal year or involve the Government in any contract or other obligation for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriations unless such contract or obligation is authorized by law. Nor shall any department or any officer of the Government accept voluntary service for the Government or employ personal service in excess of that authorized by law, except in cases of sudden emergency involving the loss of human life or the destruction of property. All appropriations made for contingent expenses or other general purposes, except appropriations made in fulfillment of contract obligations expressly authorized by law, or for objects required or authorized by law without reference to the amounts annually appropriated therefor, shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, be so apportioned by monthly or other allotments as to prevent expenditures in one portion of the year which may necessitate deficiency or additional appropriations to complete the service of the fiscal year for which said appropriations are made; and all such apportionments shall be adhered to and shall not be waived or modified except upon the happening of some extraordinary emergency or unusual circumstance which could not be anticipated at the time of making such apportionment, but this provision shall not apply to the contingent appropriations of the Senate or House of Representatives; and in case said apportionments are waived or modified as herein provided, the same shall be waived or modified in writing by the head of such executive department or other Government establishment having control of the expenditure, and the reasons therefor shall be fully set forth in each particular case and communicated to Congress in connection with estimates for any additional appropriations required on account thereof. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be summarily removed from office and may also be punished by a fine of not less than $100 or by imprisonment for not less than one month. (R. S. § 3679; Mar. 3, 1905, ch. 1484, § 4, 33 Stat. 1257; Feb. 27, 1906, ch. 510, § 3, 34 Stat. 48.)"

§ 47-106 [20: 626]. Apportionment of appropriations for contingent and miscellaneous expenses.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, so apportion appropriations made for contingent and miscellaneous expenses under the Metropolitan police, fire department, electrical department, and other offices or departments of the government of the District of Columbia as to prevent deficiencies in said appropriations. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 561, ch. 1351.)

§ 47-107 [20: 627]. Appropriations for contingent expenses—Accounting.

All expenditures from appropriations made for contingent expenses of the District of Columbia shall be accounted for in the General Accounting Office as other expenditures for the District, and a detailed statement of such expenditures shall be reported to Congress in accordance with section 104 of title 5 of the Code of Laws of the United States. (Feb. 25, 1885, 23 Stat. 319, ch. 145; July 18, 1888, 25 Stat. 314, ch. 676; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1888 amendment repealed from the 1885 act the following: "That thereafter all appropriations made for contingent expenses of the District of Columbia shall be expended under the direction and in the sole discretion of the Commissioners."

The 1921 act transferred the duties of the Treasury in this matter to the General Accounting Office. The 1885 act provided for an accounting "in the Treasury Department."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

U. S. C., title 5, § 104, above referred to reads: "The head of each department shall require of the disbursing officers, acting under his direction and authority, the return of precise and analytical statements and receipts for all the moneys which may have been from time to time during the next preceding year expended by them. (R. S., § 193; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1, 45 Stat. 986.)"

NOTES TO DECISIONS

POWERS OF COMPTROLLER GENERAL

No greater powers were given to the Comptroller General than had been enjoyed by his predecessors. Mare v. Alexander ((D. C.-Mass.), 2 Fed. (2d) 895, affd. 5 Fed. (2d) 964).

SHIPPING BOARD EMERGENCY FLEET CORPORATION

The Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation organized as a private corporation under District of Columbia laws, is an entity distinct from the United States and its financial transactions are within the control of its own officers. Mandamus to subject a claim against it to the audit of the Comptroller General must therefore be refused. United States ex rel. Skinner and Eddy Corp. v. McCarl (275 U. S. 1, 72 L. Ed. 131, 48 Sup. Ct. 12)

§ 47-108 [20: 636a]. Permanent appropriations repealed.

(a) Effective July 1, 1935, such portion of any Acts as provide appropriations from the appropriation accounts appearing on the books of the Government and listed in subsection (b) of this section are hereby repealed, and any balances remaining in, or but for this provision would accrue to, such accounts shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia. Any claims accruing on or after July 1, 1935, which but for this section properly would have been charged to these appropriation accounts shall, upon proper audit, be certified to Congress for appropriation, which is hereby authorized.

(b) (1) Militia fund from fines, District of Columbia (DCs592).

(2) Industrial Home School fund, District of Columbia (DCs463).

(3) Sanitary fund, District of Columbia (DCT619).

§ 47-111 [20: 637]. Membership dues of District of Columbia employees to be specifically authorized.

No money appropriated by any Act of Congress shall be expended for membership fees or dues of any officer or employee of the District of Columbia in any society or association or for expenses of attendance of any person at any meeting or convention of members of any society or association, unless such fees, dues, or expenses are authorized to be paid by specific appropriations for such purposes or are provided for in express terms in some general appropriation. (June 26, 1912, 37 Stat. 184, ch. 182, § 8.)

§ 47-112 [20: 638]. Disbursing officer—Appointment—Bond—Duties.

The disbursing officer shall be appointed by the Commissioners, and shall give bond to the United States in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, for the benefit of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and all persons interested conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office in the disbursing and accounting, according to law, for all moneys of the United States and of the District of Columbia that may come into his hands, which bond shall be approved by the said Commissioners and the Secretary of the Treasury and be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That advances in money shall be made, on the requisition of said Commissioners, to the said disbursing officer instead of to the Commissioners, and he shall account for the same as required by section 47-309. Said disbursing officer shall be subordinate to the commissioners, and they shall in every respect be responsible to the United States, the District of Columbia, and to individuals for the acts and doings of said disbursing officer.

The disbursing officer is authorized to pay laborers and employees of the District of Columbia, and such payments shall be made upon pay rolls or other vouchers audited and approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, and certified by the Commissioners as required by section 47-309. Said pay rolls and other vouchers shall be included in the account of the Commissioners.

The accounts of the disbursing officer shall be audited by the auditor of the District of Columbia, who shall promptly forward the same to the Commissioners for their approval. (Mar. 3, 1891, 26 Stat. 1064, ch. 546; July 14, 1892, 27 Stat. 151, ch. 171; June 30, 1898, 30 Stat. 526, ch. 540.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

This section does not impose responsibility for the faults of the disbursing clerk upon the auditor. District of Columbia v. Petty (229 U. S. 593, 57 L. Ed. 1343, 33 Sup. Ct. 881).

§ 47-113 [20: 639]. Deputy disbursing officer—Duties—Bond.

The deputy disbursing officer shall, in the absence of the disbursing officer, be authorized to transact all duties pertaining to said disbursing officer, and shall be required to give bond to the said disbursing officer in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his office, but said disbursing officer to be responsible to the United States, District of Columbia, and the people whom he pays, as required by law. (June 6, 1900, 31 Stat. 555, ch. 789.)

§ 47-114 [20: 640]. Advances to the major and superintendent of police.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia may advance to the major and superintendent of the Metropolitan police, upon requisitions previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, from the appropriation for miscellaneous and contingent expenses of the Metropolitan police department of the District of Columbia, sums of money, not exceeding three hundred dollars at any one time, to be used only for the prevention and detection of crime, and to be accounted for monthly on itemized vouchers to the accounting officers of the District of Columbia. (Apr. 27, 1904, 33 Stat. 381, ch. 1628.)

§ 47-115 [20: 641]. Advances to director of public welfare.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the director of public welfare, upon requisitions previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia and upon such security as may be required of said director by the commissioners, sums of money not to exceed $400 at any one time, to be used for expenses in placing and visiting children, traveling on official business of the board, and for office and sundry expenses, all such expenditures to be accounted for to the accounting officers of the District of Columbia within one month on itemized vouchers properly approved. (Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1289, ch. 314.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is repeated in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for 1933 (47 Stat. 370, ch. 308) and in the Appropriation Act for 1934 (June 16, 1933, 48 Stat. 243, ch. 93) and thereafter, including the act for 1941 (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 326, ch. 333, § 1).

§ 47-116 [20: 642]. Advances to chief probation officer of juvenile court.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the chief probation officer of the juvenile court upon requisition previously approved by the judge of the juvenile court and the auditor of the District of Columbia, sums of money not to exceed $50 at any one time, to be expended for transportation and traveling expenses to secure the return of absconding probationers, and to be accounted for monthly on itemized vouchers to the accounting officer of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1286, ch. 314.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is repeated in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for 1933 (47 Stat. 367, ch. 308) and in the Appropriation Act for 1934 (48 Stat. 240, ch. 93) and thereafter, including the act for 1941 (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 324, ch. 333, § 1).

§ 47-117 [20: 643]. Advances to superintendent of penal institutions.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the general superintendent of penal institutions, upon requisitions previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, and upon such security as the commissioners may require of said superintendent, sums of money not exceeding $100 at one time, to be used only for expenses in returning escaped prisoners, payable from the maintenance appropriations for the workhouse and reformatory, all such expenditures to be accounted for to the accounting officers of the District of Columbia within one month on itemized vouchers properly approved. (Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1286, ch. 314.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The District of Columbia Appropriation Acts for 1933 and 1934 (47 Stat. 370, ch. 308 and 48 Stat. 244, ch. 93), repeated this authority but increased to $200 the sum that might be advanced. It was increased to $300 in the act for 1940 (July 15, 1939, 53 Stat. 1026, ch. 281) and for 1941 (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 327, ch. 333, § 1).

§ 47-118 [20: 643a]. Advances to librarian of Public Library.

The disbursing officer of the District of Columbia is authorized to advance to the librarian of the free Public Library, upon requisition previously approved by the auditor of the District of Columbia, sums of money not exceeding $25 at the first of each month, to be expended for the purchase of certain books, pamphlets, numbers of periodicals or newspapers, or other printed material, and to be accounted for on itemized vouchers. (Feb. 23, 1931, 46 Stat. 1380, ch. 282.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This provision is repeated in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for 1934, June 16, 1933 (48 Stat. 225, ch. 93) and thereafter, including the act for 1941 (June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 313, ch. 333, § 1).

§ 47-119 [20: 644]. Notification to disbursing officer of objections to allowance of disbursements.

When differences arise in the examination of the accounts of the disbursing officer of the District of Columbia, calling for the suspension of any item in said accounts, it shall be the duty of the General Accounting Office to notify the auditor of the District of Columbia in connection with the disbursing officer of the District of Columbia of the grounds of such objections resulting in said suspensions, in order that said auditor in connection with said disbursing officer may by explanation if possible remove said grounds of suspension. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 592, ch. 1352; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304.)

AMENDMENT

The 1921 act created the General Accounting Office. The 1902 act contained the words "Auditor for the State and other departments who settles said accounts" in place of the present words "General Accounting Office."

§ 47-121 [20: 646]. Auditor—Countersigning checks.

The auditor of the District of Columbia shall continue to prepare and countersign all checks issued by the disbursing officer, and no check involving disbursement of public moneys by the disbursing officer shall be valid unless countersigned by the auditor of the District of Columbia. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 592, ch. 1352.)

§ 47-122 [20: 647]. Auditor's chief clerk, duties.

The chief clerk (of the auditor's office) shall after March 2, 1911, in the necessary absence or inability from any cause of the auditor, perform his duties without additional compensation, and shall during the presence of the auditor perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the auditor; and the auditor may require the said chief clerk to give bond for the faithful performance of such duties; but the auditor shall in every respect be responsible to the United States, the District of Columbia, and to individuals, as now provided by law. (Aug. 6, 1890, 26 Stat. 295, ch. 724; Mar. 2, 1911, 36 Stat. 969, ch. 192.)

AMENDMENT

Both acts are appropriation acts. The later one merely rewords the earlier one.

§ 47-123 [20: 648]. Auditor to audit all accounts.

All accounts for the disbursement of appropriations made either from the revenues of the District of Columbia or jointly from the revenues of the United States and the District of Columbia shall be audited by the auditor of the District of Columbia before being transmitted to the General Accounting Office, unless otherwise specifically provided in the law making such appropriations: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to disbursements on account of the court of appeals and the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, and for interest and sinking fund on the funded debt of the District of Columbia, which disbursements shall continue to be audited as heretofore provided by law. (June 26, 1912, 37 Stat. 184, ch. 182, § 10; Feb. 22, 1921, 41 Stat. 1144, ch. 70, § 7; Apr. 24, 1926, 44 Stat. 322, ch. 176, § 1; June 7, 1926, 44 Stat. 697, ch. 480.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section has been reworded by the compiler to express the present state of the law. It formerly made provision for payment of fees into the Treasury to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in the same proportion as appropriations for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for such fiscal year are paid from the Treasury of the United States and the revenues of the District of Columbia. It is believed that these provisions no longer apply, see acts 1922, 42 Stat. 668, 669, ch. 249, § 1, which provided as follows:

"Annually, from and after July 1, 1922, 60 per centum of such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may appropriate for shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia derived from taxation and privileges, and the remaining 40 per centum by the United States excepting such items of expense as Congress may direct shall be paid on another basis, * * * and that after June 30, 1922, any revenue derived from any activity or source whatever, including motor-vehicle licenses, not otherwise herein disposed of, which activity or source of revenue is appropriated for by both the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be divided between the two in the same proportion that each has contributed thereto."

The appropriation act of June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 539, ch. 302, § 1, made a lump-sum appropriation as follows: "Any revenue (not including the proportionate share of the United States in any revenue arising as the result of the expenditure of appropriations made for the fiscal year 1924 and prior fiscal years) now required by law to be credited to the District of Columbia and the United States in the same proportion that each contributed to the activity or source from whence such revenue was derived shall be credited wholly to the District of Columbia, and in addition, $9,000,000 is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and all the remainder out of the combined revenues of the District of Columbia and such advances from the Federal Treasury as are authorized in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1923, namely:"

Subsequent appropriation acts contained similar provisions, changing only the amount of the appropriation and the fiscal year (see act of June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 307, ch. 333, § 1). These appropriation acts did not, however, provide for the repeal of the provisions of the 1922 act above quoted. This was done by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, § 8, which added Title 10 to the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690.

From the foregoing it would seem that there is no longer any apportionment of expenses or segregation of revenues unless specific provision is made therefor by Congress subsequent to the repeal provision.

Section 10 of the act of 1912 closed with a clause reading as follows: "and the annual wheel tax on all automobiles or other motor vehicles." This tax is no longer being collected and the above-quoted words were deleted as obsolete.

AMENDMENTS

The 1912 act provided that the payments should be credited equally to the District and the United States.

The 1921 act provided fees "paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in equal parts shall be paid for each fiscal year into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in the same proportions as appropriations for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for such fiscal year are paid from the Treasury of the United States and the revenues of the District of Columbia."

The act of Apr. 24, 1926, related to the fees of the offices of register of wills and recorder, see §§ 19-404, 45-709.

The provision of the 1912 act including "The tax of one-half of one cent paid by any street or other railroad company for each passenger carried across the Highway Bridge" was deleted by the June 7, 1926, act.

§ 47-131 [20: 656]. Working capital for industrial enterprises at workhouse and reformatory.

To provide working capital for industrial enterprises at the workhouse and the reformatory, the commissioner shall transfer to a fund, to be known as the working-capital fund, such amounts appropriated herein (45 Stat. 1262) for the workhouse and reformatory, not to exceed $50,000 as are available for industrial work at these institutions. The various departments and institutions of the District of Columbia and the federal government may purchase, at fair market prices, as determined by the commissioners, such industrial or farm products as meet their requirements. Receipts from the sale of such products shall be deposited to the credit of said working-capital fund, and the said fund, including all receipts credited thereto, may be used as a revolving fund during the fiscal year 1930. This fund shall be available for the purchase and repair of machinery and equipment, for the purchase of raw materials and manufacturing supplies, for personal services and for the payment to the inmates or their dependents of such pecuniary earnings as the commissioners may deem proper. The commissioners shall include in their annual report to Congress a detailed report of the receipts and expenditures on account of said working-capital fund. § 47-134 [20: 670b]. Annual Federal payment.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, and for each fiscal year thereafter, there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, as the annual payment by the United States toward defraying the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia, the sum of $6,000,000. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1085, ch. 367, title I; June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 307, ch. 333, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The former law, the act of June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249 (D. C. 1929, title 20, § 670a) has been repealed by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8. It provided as follows: "Annually, from and after July 1, 1922, 60 per centum of such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may appropriate for shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia derived from taxation and privileges, and the remaining 40 per centum by the United States, except such items of expense as Congress may direct shall be paid on another basis."

§ 47-201 [20: 659]. Salaries of force for protection of courthouse—Payment—Estimates.

The salaries of the force necessary for the care and protection of the courthouse in the District of Columbia and of the salary of the Superintendent of the Washington Asylum and Jail shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia and the Treasury of the United States in the manner prescribed by the District of Columbia Appropriation Acts for the respective years for which such sums are provided, and estimates for such expenses shall each year hereafter be submitted in the annual estimates for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia. (July 31, 1894, 28 Stat. 202, ch. 174; Mar. 2, 1911, 36 Stat. 1003, ch. 192; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 663, ch. 249; Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title X, as added by May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1125, ch. 681, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1911 amendment combined the Washington jail and the Washington asylum into one institution called, "Washington Asylum and Jail."

The act of June 29, 1922, cited to the text, which formed the basis for percentage liabilities, was repealed by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8, adding title X to the act of Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690. The repealing act does not provide any substitute provision, and the 1922 act contains a provision repealing all prior inconsistent acts. However, acts making appropriations for the Departments of State, Commerce, and Justice, and for the judiciary, have, since the act of Apr. 27, 1938, 52 Stat. 265 ch. 180, § 1, down to and including the act of May 14, 1940, 54 Stat. 207, ch. 139, § 1, contained the following provision: "Sixty per centum of the expenditures for the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia from all appropriations under this title and 30 per centum of the expenditures for the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia from all appropriations under this title shall be reimbursed to the United States from any funds in the Treasury to the credit of the District of Columbia."

The Deficiency Appropriation Act of June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1125, ch. 681, § 1, and other such acts including the Second Deficiency Appropriation Act of June 27, 1940, 54 Stat. 639, ch. 437, contained the following language: "The foregoing sums for the District of Columbia, unless otherwise therein specifically provided, shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia and the Treasury of the United States in the manner prescribed by the District of Columbia Appropriation Acts for the respective years for which such sums are provided."

It may also be noted that there is now made a lump-sum appropriation, July 29, 1939, 53 Stat. 1085, ch. 367, title I (§ 47-134).

§ 47-202 [20: 660]. Estimates—Repairs to schools.

A detailed statement of the expenditure of the appropriation made for repairs and improvements to school buildings and grounds and for repairing and renewing heating, plumbing, and ventilating apparatus, and installation of sanitary drinking fountains in buildings not supplied with same, and the taking down, transferring, and the re-erection of portable schools shall be submitted with the annual estimates. (Mar. 3, 1915, 38 Stat. 910, ch. 80.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 23, ch. 13, provided for the General Accounting Office.

§ 47-203 [20: 661]. Estimates for schools to be in accordance with 5-year building program.

Estimates of expenditures for buildings and grounds for the public schools of the District of Columbia, shall hereafter be prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved February 26, 1925. (Feb. 26, 1925, 43 Stat. 994, ch. 342, § 9.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of February 26, 1925, referred to in the text is omitted from the code, except § 5 which is classified as § 31-804 and § 9 which is this section.

§ 47-204 [20: 662]. Certain expenses of District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia.

Sixty per centum of the expenditures for all of the expenses of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia mentioned below, to wit, fees of witnesses, fees of jurors, pay of bailiffs and criers, including salaries of deputy marshals who act as bailiffs or criers, and all miscellaneous expenses of said court, shall be reimbursed to the United States from any funds in the Treasury to the credit of the District of Columbia: Provided, That estimates for like expenditures for each fiscal year shall be submitted to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for transmission with the annual estimates of the District of Columbia. (June 30, 1906, 34 Stat. 763, ch. 3914, § 7; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 663, ch. 249; Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title X, as added by May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1125, ch. 681, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1921 act provided for the General Accounting Office.

§ 47-205 [20: 663]. Commissioners' annual estimates—To include report of assignment of certain market employees.

The commissioners each year in the annual estimates shall report to Congress the assignment of the market masters, assistant market masters, watchmen, and laborers to the various markets and offices. (July 11, 1919, 41 Stat. 70, ch. 7.)

§ 47-206 [20: 664]. Estimates for employees and for maintenance of sewers.

Estimates in detail shall be submitted annually for the employment of mechanics, laborers, and watchmen, and the purchase of coal, oils, waste, and other supplies for the maintenance of sewers. (June 27, 1906, 34 Stat. 494, ch. 3553.)

AMENDMENTS

The salary now paid is governed by the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673).

The 1874 act vested authority in the Commissioners.

§ 47-303 [20: 630]. Deputy collector of taxes—Duties—Bond.

The deputy collector of taxes shall perform such duties as may be required of him by the collector, and the collector may require the said deputy collector to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties; but the collector shall in every respect be responsible, as now provided by law, to the United States, the District of Columbia, and to individuals, as the case may be, for all moneys collected. (June 11, 1896, 29 Stat. 394, ch. 419.)

§ 47-304 [20: 631]. Cashier in collector's office—Duties—Responsibility.

The cashier (in the collector's office) shall, in the necessary absence or inability of the collector, from any cause, perform his duties without any additional compensation; and the collector may require the said cashier to give bond for the faithful performance of such duties during the absence or inability of the collector; but the collector shall in every respect be responsible, as now provided by law, to the United States, the District of Columbia, and to individuals, as the case may be, for all moneys collected. (Aug. 6, 1890, 26 Stat. 294, ch. 724.)

§ 47-305 [20: 632]. Account books to be kept by collector.

It shall be the duty of the collector to keep in his office account books, in which shall be entered: First, the dates of payment of all taxes; second, the amounts paid; third, the names of the persons by whom payment has been made; fourth, the years paid for; fifth, the property paid on; and sixth, the names of the persons to whom assessed. His books shall at all times be open to the inspection of any officer who may be authorized by the commissioners to examine the same. (Leg. Assem., Aug. 23, 1871, ch. 103, § 1; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1874 act created and vested authority in the Commissioners.

§ 47-306 [20: 633]. Certificate of tax assessor as to taxes and assessments due—Fee.

The collector of taxes shall furnish whenever called upon, a certified statement, over his hand and official seal, of all taxes and assessments, general and special, that may be due at the time of making said certificate; and said certificate when furnished shall be a bar to the collection and recovery from any subsequent purchaser of any tax or assessment omitted from and which may be a lien upon the real estate mentioned in said certificate, and said lien shall be discharged as to such subsequent purchaser, but shall not affect the liability of the person who owned the property at the time such tax was assessed to pay the same, mentioned in said certificate. The charge for each certificate of taxes so issued shall be one dollar. (Feb. 6, 1879, 20 Stat. 283, ch. 50; May 13, 1892, 27 Stat. 37, ch. 74; Mar. 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1005, ch. 160; Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1222, ch. 477; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1262, ch. 702, § 11.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The duty to prepare list of property sold for taxes for public inspection imposed upon the collector of taxes by the act of March 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1005, ch. 160, has now been transferred to the assessor by the act of June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1202, ch. 702, § 11 (§ 47-603).

AMENDMENTS

The 1879 act provided that those duties be performed by the collector of taxes.

The 1892 act transferred these duties to the assessor.

The 1917 act transferred them back to the collector of taxes.

The 1925 act added the last sentence.

The 1938 act transferred the duties back to the assessor.

§ 47-307 [20: 746f]. Waiver of interest and penalties.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized, in their discretion, to waive, in whole or in part, interest or penalties, or both, on unpaid taxes and special assessments due the District of Columbia, when, in their judgment, such action would be equitable or just or in the public interest. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1201, ch. 702, § 7.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Refund of taxes and fees, § 47-1016 et seq.

§ 47-308 [20: 747]. Collector may omit uncollectible taxes from record of assets.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to direct the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia to omit from his records as assets of the District of Columbia any and all taxes, real and personal, and all special assessments which the Commissioners may determine are uncollectible, but such determination on the part of the Commissioners or the failure of the collector to carry such taxes on his records as assets shall not affect the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of said taxes. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1202, ch. 702, § 10.)

§ 47-309 [20: 634]. Disbursement of taxes and appropriations—Vouchers—Settlement of accounts.

All taxes collected shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and the same, as well as the appropriations made by Congress for the expenses of the District of Columbia, shall be disbursed for the expenses of said District, on itemized vouchers, which shall have been audited and approved by the Auditor of the District of Columbia, certified by said commissioners, or a majority of them; and the accounts of said commissioners, and the tax collectors, and all other officers required to account, shall be settled and adjusted by the General Accounting Office. (June 11, 1878, 20 Stat. 105, ch. 180, § 4; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 305.)

Chapter 4.—DESIGNATION OF PROPERTY FOR ASSESSMENT AND TAXATION

Sec.

- 47-401. Squares, lots, blocks, parcels, to be numbered—City of Washington.
- 47-402. Designation to be official.
- 47-403. Daily transcript from records of recorder of deeds and register of wills.
- 47-404. Designation of land for assessment—Beyond city limits.
- 47-405. Designation of land to be numbered.
- 47-406. Designation of land—Plat books to be made under authority of Commissioners—Custody of surveyor.

Sec.

- 47-407. Surveyor's office to make daily transcripts of records of deeds, wills, condemnations, and decrees.
- 47-408. Designation given to land sufficient for tax sales purposes.
- 47-409. Sale of property belonging to the United States—Report of sale.

§ 47-401 [20: 671]. Squares, lots, blocks, parcels to be numbered—City of Washington.

For the purposes of facilitating assessment and taxation of real estate in the District of Columbia, the following system of designating the several parcels of land therein is hereby prescribed, and every designation given in conformity with said system shall be a sufficient description of the parcel of land to which it relates, for all purposes of assessment and collection of taxes and assessments of every kind:

Each square in the city of Washington shall bear a number or other designation that will distinguish it from every other square in said city.

Each lot or parcel of ground in each such square shall bear a number or other designation that will distinguish it from every other lot or parcel of ground in such square.

Each block in each subdivision in said District outside of the limits of the city of Washington shall bear a number that will distinguish it from every other such block.

Each lot or parcel of land in each such block shall bear a number that will distinguish it from every other lot therein.

Each piece or parcel of unsubdivided land and each parcel of land deeded by metes and bounds in said District shall have a distinctive designation.

As nearly as practicable, in the judgment of the commissioners, the numbers in each of the aforesaid squares, blocks, or parcels of land requiring to be numbered shall be in a regularly increasing numerical sequence and order, beginning with the lowest number practicable; and, in case of the lots, shall commence at the same relative location in each of the squares, blocks, or parcels of land, and be continued in the same relative order.

It shall be the duty of the said commissioners to cause a record of the designations of the several aforesaid parcels of land to be made in accordance with the foregoing system, in the office of the surveyor of said District; and hereafter it shall be the duty of the surveyor, in giving numbers to blocks or lots of future subdivisions, to be governed by said system. (Mar. 3, 1899, 30 Stat. 1376, ch. 457, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Insofar as this section provides a numbering system for blocks, subdivisions, and parcels of land within the District but lying outside the City of Washington, it has been superseded by §§ 47-404 to 47-408.

§ 47-404 [20: 674]. Designation of land for assessment—Beyond city limits.

For the purpose of facilitating the assessment and taxation of real property in the territory within the limits of the District of Columbia lying outside of the city of Washington the following system of designating the several subdivisions, blocks, lots, and parcels of land is hereby prescribed, and each and every designation made or given in conformity with said system shall be deemed a sufficient description of the property to which it relates for all purposes of assessment and the collection of taxes and assessments of every kind. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 737, ch. 735, § 1.)

§ 47-405 [20: 675]. Designation of land to be numbered.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed to cause to be given numbers to all of said blocks or squares, lots or parcels of land as said blocks, squares, lots, or parcels of land have been formed by the highway-extension plan, of record on February 23, 1905, in the office of surveyor of the District of Columbia, and subdivisions existing on February 23, 1905, and to place the numbers so given upon the said highway-extension plan: Provided, That in all cases where two or more blocks or parts of contiguous existing subdivisions are surrounded as a group by existing streets or roads, or by proposed streets of the highway-extension plan, such group shall be numbered as a block or square upon the recorded plats of the highway-extension plan: Provided further, That where lots are numbered in duplicate in any block or square which includes parts of two or more existing subdivisions, new lot numbers shall be given said lots numbered in duplicate, and new lot numbers shall also be given to all parts of lots remaining after the extension of streets or alleys by dedication, condemnation, or purchase, whereby parts of lots have become public property: Provided further, That new lot numbers shall also be given to all parts of original and subdivided lots existing on February 23, 1905, on the records of the assessor and the surveyor of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 737, ch. 735, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SQUARE BOUNDARIES

Streets projected by the highway commission are designated as "square boundaries." Hazard v. Blessing (55 App. D. C. 114, 2 Fed. (2d) 916).

POWERS OF COMMISSIONERS

Commissioners could not open street running through corners of two squares and across proposed street. Rudo'ph v. Warwick (56 App. D. C. 128, 10 Fed. (2d) 993).

The commissioners were authorized and directed to number all the blocks or squares, lots or parcels of land which had been formed by the highway extension plan as shown by the records of the surveyor of the District of Columbia. Hazard v. Blessing (55 App. D. C. 114, 2 Fed. (2d) 916).

§ 47-406 [20: 676]. Designation of land—Plat books to be made under authority of Commissioners—Custody of surveyor.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall cause to be prepared a series of volumes of plats, on a scale of one hundred feet to the inch, embracing all the land in said District outside the city of Washington, these plats to show at all times the separate parcels of land created by subdivisions, sales, wills, condemnations, dedications, decrees of court, or otherwise, each with its distinctive number. Said books shall be kept in the office of the surveyor of said District, and shall be numbered according to the first and last page numbers of each volume, the pages being numbered continuously, and indefinitely rising in numbers as new books are opened to record changes in the outlines of parcels from any cause. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 738, ch. 735, § 3.)

§ 47-407 [20: 677]. Surveyor's office to make daily transcripts of records of deeds, wills, condemnations, and decrees.

For the purpose of keeping said books constantly current and up to date, the said commissioners shall cause an employee of the surveyor's office to make daily transcripts of all deeds of conveyance, wills, condemnations, decrees, and other instruments or proceedings by which boundaries are changed; for which purpose, such employee of the surveyor's office shall at all times during business hours have full and free access to all records of the recorder of deeds, register of wills, clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, marshal, and other officials; and the surveyor shall furnish to the assessor a copy of such transcript, from which a duplicate set of taxation and assessment plat books shall be maintained by the said assessor: Provided, That the current series of taxation and assessment plat books in the surveyor's office shall be the standard book of reference for all purposes of assessment and taxation by all departments of the government of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 738, ch. 735, § 4.)

§ 47-408 [20: 678]. Designation given to land sufficient for tax sales purposes.

The designation given as hereinbefore prescribed in section 47-404 to each block or square, lot or parcel of land, respectively appearing on the records of the assessor of the District of Columbia at the time any assessment or tax is levied for which such property may become subject to sale, shall be a complete and official designation of said block or square, lot or parcel of land, for the purpose of the collection of taxes or assessments of any kind, and the designations so given shall be considered good and sufficient descriptions in any advertisements of such property for sale for delinquent taxes or assessments. (Feb. 23, 1905, 33 Stat. 738, ch. 735, § 5.)

§ 47-409 [20: 962]. Sale of property belonging to the United States—Report of sale.

It shall be the duty of the Director of the National Park Service, within ninety days after the sale of any lots or squares belonging to the United States in the city of Washington, to report the fact to the proper officers of the District, giving the date of sale, the number of the lot and square, and the name of the purchaser; and such lots or squares shall be liable to taxation by the District from the day of sale. (R. S., D. C., § 143; Feb. 26, 1925, 43 Stat. 983, ch. 339, § 3; Mar. 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The functions of the Office of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital were transferred to the Office of National Parks, Buildings, and Reservations, and the first mentioned agency abolished by the President's Reorganization Plan No. 1, Executive Order 6166, § 2. The act of Mar. 2, 1934, 48 Stat. 389, ch. 38, § 1 provided that thereafter the Office of National Parks, Buildings and Reservations should be known as the National Park Service.

Chapter 5.—RATES, RECORDS, AND SURPLUS FUNDS

Sec.

- 47-501. Assessment of taxes on real and personal property—Rate of taxation—Collection.
- 47-502. Treasury Department to keep record of receipts and disbursements relative to District of Columbia.
- 47-503. Disposition of surplus funds—To be applied to succeeding year's expenditures.

§ 47-501 [20: 681]. Assessment of taxes on real and personal property—Rate of taxation—Collection.

For the purpose of defraying such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may from time to time appropriate for, there hereby is levied for each and every fiscal year, a tax at such rate on the real and personal property subject to taxation in the District as will, when added to the other taxes and revenues of the District, produce money enough to enable the District to pay promptly and in full all sums directed by Congress to be paid by the District, and for which appropriation has been duly made; and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia hereby are empowered and directed to ascertain, determine, and fix annually such rate of taxation as will, when applied as aforesaid, produce the money needed to defray the share of the expenses of the District during the year for which the rate is fixed; and the Commissioners of the District shall, in accordance with existing law, cause all such taxes and revenues to be promptly collected and, when collected, to be daily deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the District for the purposes herein set out. (June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

A minimum rate of 1.75 percent on real and tangible personal property for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, was set out by the act of Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 692, ch. 690, title VII, § 1. That section was amended by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, title VI, § 7, which set the minimum rate for the year ending June 30, 1939. But the act of July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 3, amended the 1937 section as amended to read, "For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, the rate of taxation imposed on real and tangible personal property in the District of Columbia shall be 1.75 per centum of the assessed value of such property." It is believed that it was an inadvertence on the part of Congress in making the $1.75 rate for the fiscal year of 1940 mandatory. In all probability it was intended to provide that the rate should not be less than $1.75, as was done in the case of the two preceding years, but even though it was intended to make the $1.75 rate mandatory for the fiscal year 1940, this would take all discretionary power from the Commission for that year only, and since, up to January 1, 1941, no rate has been fixed by Congress for any fiscal year subsequent to 1940, the rate would seem to be within the absolute discretion of the Commissioners.

The act from which this section was taken also levied a tax "on such intangible personal property as is subject to taxation in the District of Columbia, at the rate of five-tenths of one per centum on the full market value thereof" and contained a further provision, "the rate fixed herein on intangible personal property not to be made less but which may be increased by the Commissioners in their discretion to any rate not in excess of the rate imposed upon real estate." A rewording of these clauses, included in the comparable section of the 1929 Code, have been deleted because the Revenue Act of July 26, 1939 (53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 1) provided: "The tax on intangible personal property imposed by any law relating to the District shall not apply with respect to any year subsequent to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939."

§ 47-502 [20: 682]. Treasury Department to keep record of receipts and disbursements relative to District of Columbia.

The treasury department shall accurately keep an account showing all receipts and disbursements relative to the revenues and expenditures of the District of Columbia, and shall also show the sources of the revenue, the purpose of expenditure, and the appropriation under which the expenditure is made; and any and all revenue derived from property not owned wholly or in part by the District of Columbia, as between the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be the property of the United States.

(June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, title X, § 38.)

AMENDMENT

The act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, title X, § 8, repealed that part of this section reading as follows: "and where the United States is the owner of ground or the holder thereof in trust for the public, upon which improvements have been made at the joint expense of the United States and the District of Columbia, the revenues therefrom shall first be used to pay the United States 3 per centum of the full value of the ground as a ground rent, and the remainder shall be divided between them in the same proportion that each contributed to said improvements, and for such purposes the assessor for the District of Columbia shall fix the full value of the ground after he has first made oath that he will fairly and impartially appraise the same." That act also repealed the following language of the 1922 act, cited to the text: "; and that after June 30, 1922, any revenue derived from any activity or source whatever, including motor-vehicle licenses, not otherwise herein disposed of, which activity or source of revenue is appropriated for by both the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be divided between the two in the same proportion that each has contributed thereto."

§ 47-503 [20: 683]. Disposition of surplus funds—To be applied to succeeding year's expenditures.

If, for any fiscal year, the District of Columbia should raise and deposit in the treasury to its credit, more money derived from taxation, privileges, and other sources authorized in this chapter than may be necessary for the purposes therein, such excess shall be available the succeeding year, in the discretion of the Commissioners, either for the purpose of meeting the expense chargeable to the District of Columbia and/or for the further purpose of enabling the Commissioners to fix a lower rate of taxation for the year following the one in which said excess accrued than they might otherwise be able to do; and the agencies through which the District of Columbia collects its revenue derived from taxation shall also collect for the United States any revenues which by section 47-502 become the sole property of the United States, and said revenues shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as "miscellaneous receipts"; and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall not be restricted in submitting to the Bureau of the Budget their estimates of the needs of the District, but they shall, as near as may be bring them within the probable aggregate of the fixed proportionate appropriations to be paid by the United States and the District of Columbia. (June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section formerly contained the words, "but the revenues from the property known as Center Market shall not be so collected," following the words "miscellaneous receipts," but this market is no longer in existence, see Act of June 6, 1930, 46 Stat. 523, ch. 412 and note to § 10-137. For this reason that part of the section above quoted has been deleted.

Chapter 6.—TAX ASSESSOR

Sec.

- 47-601. Assessor of District of Columbia to prepare annual tax ledgers—Statement of assessment and taxes.
- 47-602. Assessor to furnish bonds.
- 47-603. Records to be kept by assessor—Duties of assessor.
- 47-604. Board of assistant assessors—Appointment—Qualifications—Clerk.

Sec.

- 47-605. Assistant assessors—Three members to assess real property and three members to assess personal property.
- 47-606. Assessor to have power to administer oaths and summon witnesses.

§ 47-601 [20: 691]. Assessor of District of Columbia to prepare annual tax ledgers—Statement of assessment and taxes.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall be charged with the duty of preparing the annual tax ledgers on a numerical system, which shall be finished or completed at such time as will allow preparation by him of tax bills for collection purposes. Upon the completion of the tax ledgers, said assessor shall prepare a statement showing the total amount of the assessment of both real and personal property, and the total amount of taxes to be collected under said assessment; which statement shall be receipted by the collector of taxes in triplicate, and said collector shall be held responsible under his bond for all such taxes, except such as he may not be able to collect after fully complying with the requirements of law. The original receipt of said assessment and taxes shall be forwarded by the assessor to the General Accounting Office, the duplicate to the auditor of the District of Columbia, and the triplicate shall be retained by the collector. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 8; Mar. 31, 1892, 27 Stat. 13, ch. 30; June 10, 1921, 42 Stat. 24, ch. 18, § 304.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1921 act provided for the creation and duties of the General Accounting Office.
The 1926 act added the first sentence.

§ 47-602 [20: 692]. Assessor to furnish bonds.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall give bond to the District of Columbia for the faithful and efficient performance of all the duties of his office in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with sureties to be approved by the commissioners of said District. (July 7, 1898, 30 Stat. 666, ch. 571.)

§ 47-603 [20: 748]. Records to be kept by assessor—Duties of assessor.

All records and accounts in any way relating or pertaining to the bookkeeping, accounting, and collection of taxes and assessments which, prior to June 25, 1938, were prepared by the assessor of the District of Columbia and kept in the office of the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia shall be transferred to and kept in the office of the said assessor. The said assessor shall be charged with the duties heretofore required of the collector of taxes in relation to the preparation and issuance of tax bills and bills for special taxes and assessments, the preparation for public inspection of lists of all real estate in the District of Columbia heretofore sold or which may hereafter be sold for the nonpayment of any general or special taxes or assessments, the furnishing of certified statements over his hand and official seal of all taxes and assessments general and special that may be due at the time of making the said certificate, and the preparation of the lists of taxes on real property in said District subject to taxation on which taxes are levied and in arrears on the 1st day of July in each year. On or before September 1 of each year the assessor shall prepare and retain in his office tax accounts in such form as shall be prescribed by the Commissioners of the District showing the assessed owners, amount, description, and value of real property listed for taxation in the District of Columbia, and on or before April 1 of each year the assessor shall prepare and retain in his office personal tax accounts in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioners of the District showing the names and addresses of assessed owners, and the location and value of the property assessed. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1202, ch. 702, § 11.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

For the duties referred to in the second sentence, see § 47-1010.

§ 47-604 [20: 693]. Board of assistant assessors—Appointment—Qualifications—Clerk.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia shall appoint six discreet persons, who shall have been bona fide residents of the District of Columbia for the period of at least five years, and conversant with real estate values therein, as a permanent board of assistant assessors. Each person so appointed on said board shall, within ten days after receiving notice thereof, take and subscribe an oath to diligently, faithfully, and impartially perform all and singular the duties imposed upon him by law. If any such appointee shall fail to qualify as aforesaid within the time prescribed, or shall fail to enter upon the discharge of his duties within fifteen days after such qualification, the appointment shall be void, and the commissioners shall forthwith appoint another suitable person, who shall qualify as above provided. And said commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to appoint a clerk for said board of assistant assessors; and said clerk shall also be the clerk for the board of equalization and review hereinafter provided for. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 282, ch. 287, § 2; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 617, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 1; Mar. 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1005, ch. 160; Mar. 4, 1923, 42 Stat. 1488, ch. 265; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 832, ch. 759, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment changed the number of persons from three to five; struck out following the words "assistant assessors", the first time they appear. The following words, "shall hold office for a term of four years, unless sooner removed by said Commissioners for cause satisfactory to them"; and inserted the following words, "the assessor of the District of Columbia and the members of the permanent board of assistant assessors shall not be removed except for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance of office," which were repealed by the 1917 act. That part of the section as it appeared in the 1894 act providing for particular revision and equalization returns to be made before the first Monday in January 1895 has now been omitted as obsolete.

The 1926 amendment raised the number of members from five to six.

The law as originally enacted provided for salary of $3,000. The salary paid is now governed by the Classification Act of 1923 (42 Stat. 1488), U. S. C., title 5, § 673.

§ 47-605 [20: 694]. Assistant assessors—Three members to assess real property and three members to assess personal property.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall designate three of the members of said Board of Assistant Assessors for the assessment of real estate, and the three other members of said board to assess personal property, in accordance with law; all members of said board, together with the assessor of the District of Columbia, as chairman, shall constitute the Board of Equalization and Review of real-estate assessments, and also the Board of Personal Tax Appeals: Provided, That the assessor of the District of Columbia shall act as chairman, ex officio, of the several boards aforesaid. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 617, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 1; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 832, ch. 759, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment provided that three members should serve on the board to assess personal property. See amendment note to preceding section (§ 47-604.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

TESTIMONY OF ASSESSOR

In appraising property for tax assessment, a district assessor may not testify as expert witness in condemnation proceedings. Johnson v. Retchelderfer (60 App. D. C. 186, 50 Fed. (2d) 336).

However, see § 14-309.

§ 47-606 [20: 695]. Assessor to have power to administer oaths and summon witnesses.

The assessor of the District of Columbia and each member of said Board of Assistant Assessors in the discharge of any of the duties devolved upon him or them, or the Board of Equalization and Review, may administer all necessary oaths or affirmations. The assessor of the District of Columbia, or in his absence the temporary chairman of said board, shall have power to summon the attendance of any person before said board to be examined under oath touching such matters and things as the Board of Assistant Assessors or the said Board of Equalization and Review may deem advisable in the discharge of their duties; and any member of the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia may serve subpoenas in his behalf. Such fees shall be allowed witnesses so examined, to be paid out of the contingent fund of the commissioners, as are allowed in civil actions before the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. Any person summoned and examined as aforesaid who shall knowingly make false oath or affirmation shall be guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof be punished according to the laws in force for the punishment of perjury. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 285, ch. 287, § 13.)

§ 47-702 [20: 697]. Assessments to be made annually.

Assessments of real estate in the District of Columbia for purposes of taxation shall be made annually in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as heretofore provided by law for making biennial assessments of real estate in said District. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 3; Sept. 1, 1916, 39 Stat. 678, ch. 433; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words "as heretofore provided by law" refer to this chapter, the basic law of which is the 1894 act, cited to the text. (See amendment note.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act provided "That real property shall be assessed and valued in the year 1896, and every third year thereafter, as herein provided."

The 1916 act provided for biennial assessments "in the same manner as is now required by law for triennial assessments."

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47-703 [20: 697a]. Assessments to be by lot and square.

Real estate in the city of Washington, except such as may be exempt by law from taxation, shall be assessed according to the number of the squares and lots thereof, or parts of lots, and upon the number of the square or superficial feet in each square or lot, or parts of a lot, and in the county the agricultural lands shall be assessed by the acre, and suburban lots by the square foot, as in the city of Washington. (Mar. 3, 1883, 22 Stat. 569, ch. 137, § 5; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

AMENDMENT

The 1895 act incorporated Georgetown into the city of Washington and directed "that the squares in Georgetown" be "renumbered, so that no square shall hereafter bear a like number to any square in the city of Washington."

FRONT-FOOT RULE

Assessment under front-foot rule held invalid. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525); Dougherty v. American Secur. & Trust Co. (59 App. D. C. 301, 40 Fed. (2d) 813, cert. den. 282 U. S. 854, 75 L. Ed. 757, 51 Sup. Ct. 31); Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

In applying this general law as to front-foot rule, which extends throughout the District, to a special assessment for street improvement not exclusively benefiting adjacent property-owners, the assessment cannot be upheld if it is in excess of the benefits and is not equal and fair in view of existing physical conditions, as where there is no relative equality in the value and depth of the abutting properties. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525).

In applying the front-foot rule under this act, the size, shape, improvements, or favorable location of property is not the test in determining validity of an assessment, but rather the relation of the property to other properties facing on the avenue and in the immediate vicinity. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

A road improvement assessment under the front-foot rule was canceled as inequitable as applied to a triangular-shaped lot. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

§ 47-704 [20: 698]. Commissioners to supply Board of Assistant Assessors with plats.

The commissioners shall furnish each member of said Board of Assistant Assessors with the necessary maps and field books, which shall contain an accurate list of each tract, together with a pertinent description of the real property situate in the District of Columbia, and, as far as may be known, the owner thereof; and also such blanks, forms, books, surveys, and plats as may be necessary for a systematic statement of the property to be assessed, and shall also furnish the said Board of Assistant Assessors with the necessary conveyance to view said property for assessment. Upon the completion of the assessment the said Board of Assistant Assessors shall deposit with the assessor of the District of Columbia all maps, field books, surveys, and plats, and all notes and memoranda thereof, and same shall be open to inspection by any taxpayer of said District. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 4.)

Said Board of Assistant Assessors shall, from actual view and from the best sources of information in its reach, determine the value of each separate tract or lot of real property in the District of Columbia in lawful money, and shall separately estimate the value of all improvements on any tract or lot, and shall note the same in the proper field book, which shall be carried out as part of the value of such tract or lot, and shall also return the dimensions of each tract or lot, and said assistant assessors shall also perform such other official duties as may be required of them by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 6.)

§ 47-706 [20: 700]. Board of Assistant Assessors to make annual tabulated report of property assessed.

Said Board of Assistant Assessors shall annually on or before the 1st Monday of January make out and deliver to the assessor of the District of Columbia a return in tabular form, contained in a book to be furnished by the commissioners, of the amount, description, and value of the real property subject to be listed for taxation in the District of Columbia. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 7; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act provided "that said board of assistant assessors shall, on or before the first Monday in January, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every third year thereafter make out etc."

The 1926 act provided that assessments be made annually (see § 47-702 and notes thereto).

§ 47-707 [20: 701]. Penalties.

Any person who shall refuse or knowingly neglect to perform any duty enjoined on him by law, or who shall consent to or connive at any evasion of the provision of sections 47-604 to 47-712 shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to removal from office and to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each offense. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 283, ch. 287, § 8.)

§ 47-708 [20: 702]. Board of Equalization and Review—To meet annually—Notice of meetings.

The assessor and deputy assessor of the District and the board of all of the assistant assessors, with the assessor as chairman, shall compose a Board of Equalization and Review, and as such Board of Equalization and Review they shall convene in a room to be provided for them by the Commissioners, on the first Monday of January of each year, and shall remain in session until the first Monday in April of each year, after which date no complaint as to valuation as herein provided shall be received or considered by such Board of Equalization and Review. Public notice of the time and place of such session shall be given by publication for two successive days in two daily newspapers in the District not more than two weeks or less than ten days before the beginning of said session. It shall be the duty of said Board of Equalization and Review to fairly and impartially equalize the value of real property made by the board of assistant assessors as the basis for assessment. Any five of said Board of Equalization and Review shall constitute a quorum for business, and, in the absence of the assessor, a temporary chairman may be selected. They shall immediately proceed to equalize the valuations made by the board of assistant assessors so that each lot and tract and improvements thereon shall be entered upon the tax list at their value in money; and for this purpose they shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments, and in determining them they may raise the valuation of such tracts or lots as in their opinion may have been returned below their value and reduce the valuation of such as they may believe to have been returned above their value to such sum as in their opinion may be the value thereof. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 9; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 5, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act contained the words "eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every third year thereafter," which have been replaced by the words "each year" at the end of the first sentence in view of the 1926 act (see § 47-702 and notes thereto).

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 law and provided for the termination of sessions, fixed the last day for receiving complaints, and changed the quorum requirement from three to five members.

The 1939 amendment added the words "and deputy assessor" and "all of the" in the first phrase.

§ 47-709 [20: 703]. Valuation of real property to be complete on the first Monday of June annually.

The valuation of the real property made and equalized as aforesaid shall be completed not later than the first Monday of May annually. The valuation of said real property made and equalized as aforesaid shall be approved by the Commissioners not later than July 1 annually, and when approved by the Commissioners shall constitute the basis of taxation for the next succeeding year and until another valuation is made according to law, except as hereinafter provided. Any person aggrieved by an assessment, equalization, or valuation made, may, within ninety days after October 1 of the year in which such assessment, equalization, or valuation is made, appeal from such assessment, equalization, or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 10; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 10; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1894 act contained the words "eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every third year thereafter" which have been replaced by the word "annually" following the word "June" in view of the 1926 act (see § 47-702 and notes thereto).

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and changed the last day for equalization from the first Monday in June to the first Monday in May, provided for the last day for valuation, set July 1 as the final day for approval by the Commissioners, and added the method of appeal.

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "pursuant to this paragraph" following the word "made" the first time it appears in the last sentence before the proviso, changed the date in the same sentence from "August 1" to "April 1," and added the proviso.

§ 47-710 [20: 704]. Real property and improvements becoming subject to taxation to be listed annually.

Annually, on or prior to July 1 of each year, the board of assistant assessors shall make a list of all real estate which shall have become subject to taxation and which is not then on the tax list, and affix a value thereon, according to the rules prescribed by law for assessing real estate; shall make return of all new structures erected or roofed, and additions to or improvements of old structures which shall not have been theretofore assessed, specifying the tract or lot of land on which each of such structures has been erected, and the value of such structure, and they shall add such valuation to the assessment made on such tract or lot. When the improvements on any lot or tract of land shall become damaged or be destroyed from any cause, the said board of assistant assessors shall reduce the assessment on said property to the extent of such damage: Provided, That the Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments between September 1 and September 30 and determine the same not later than October 15 of the same year. Any person aggrieved by any assessment or valuation made in pursuance of this section may, within ninety days after October 15 of the year in which said valuation or assessment is made, appeal from such assessment or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 11; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 5, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and changed the first proviso from "That the Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect to said assessments and determine the same between the first Monday of July of the same year" to read as it now does except that the dates were "between July 1 and July 15" and "not later than August 1" and "after August 1," and added the entire appeal method.

The 1939 amendment changed the dates in the first proviso from "July 1 and July 15" to "September 1 and September 30" and from "August 1" to "October 15" both times it appeared, and added the second proviso.

§ 47-711 [20: 705]. New buildings under roof to be included in list.

In addition to the annual assessment of all real estate made on or prior to July 1 of each year there shall be added a list of all new buildings erected or under roof prior to January 1 of each year, in the same manner as provided by law for all annual additions; and the amounts thereof shall be added as assessment for the second half of the then current year payable in the month of March. When the improvements on any lot or tract of land shall become damaged or be destroyed from any cause prior to January 1 of each year the said board of assistant assessors shall reduce the assessment on said property to the extent of said damage for the second half of the then current year payable in the month of March. The Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments for the second half of said year between March 1 and March 31 and determine said complaints not later than April 15 of the same year. Any person aggrieved by any assessment made in pursuance of this section may, within ninety days after April 15 of the year in which such assessment is made, appeal from such assessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 3; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and incorporated the second sentence in its entirety, changed the wording in the third sentence from "in respect of said assessments for the second half of said year and determine said complaints between the first and third Mondays of January of the same year" to "in respect of said assessments for the second half of said year between January 1 and January 15 and determine said complaints not later than February 1 of the same year" and added the appeal method with the date as "February 1."

The 1939 amendment changed the dates from "January 1 and January 15" to "March 1 and March 31," and from "February 1" to "April 15" both times it appeared, and added the proviso.

§ 47-712 [20: 706]. Assessment of omitted property—
Voided assessments, reassessment of property.

If said Board of Assistant Assessors shall learn that any property liable to taxation has been omitted from the assessment for any previous year or years, or has been so assessed that the assessment was void, it shall be their duty at once to reassess such property for each and every year for which it has escaped assessment and taxation and report the same, through the assessor, to the collector of taxes, who shall at once proceed to collect the taxes so in arrears as other taxes are collected: Provided, That no property which has escaped taxation shall be liable under this section for a period of more than three years prior to such assessment, except in the case of property involved in litigation.

If the board of assistant assessors shall learn that any property liable to taxation has been omitted from the assessment for any previous year or years, or has been so assessed that the assessment was void, it shall be their duty at once to reassess this property for each and every year for which it has escaped assessment and taxation, and report the same, through the assessor, to the collector of taxes who shall at once proceed to collect the taxes so in arrears as other taxes are collected: Provided, That no property which has escaped assessment and taxation shall be liable under this section for a period of more than three years prior to such assessment, except in the case of property involved in litigation. In addition to the duties of the assessor hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the assessor upon reassessment as herein provided to notify the taxpayer by writing of the fact of such reassessment. Any person aggrieved by any reassessment made in pursuance of this section may, within ninety days after notice of said reassessment, appeal from said reassessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404. (Aug. 14, 1894, 28 Stat. 284, ch. 287, § 12; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 5, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added this section to the 1937 act and deleted the word "said" after the word "if" at the beginning of the section, added the words "assessment and" after the word "escaped" in the proviso, and added the last two sentences to the proviso.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

No ASSESSMENT MADE

In the absence of statutory provision for reassessment for prior years, none can validly be made. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

THREE-YEAR PERIOD

No property which has escaped taxation shall be liable for a period of more than three years prior to such assessment. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

CROSS REFERENCE

Manner of serving notice, § 47-2411.

§ 47-713 [20: 707]. Assessments to be according to true value of the property—Taxes on subdivisions made from July to December, inclusive.

All real estate in the District of Columbia subject to taxation, including improvements thereon, shall be listed and assessed at not less than the full and true value thereof in lawful money.

Whenever a subdivision of any lot or parcel of land in the District of Columbia, or any portion of any such lot or parcel is made during the months of July, August, September, October, November, or December, the general tax due and payable upon such lot or parcel of land for prior years and for the first half of the then current fiscal year shall then be paid, and all water main and sewer assessments and special assessments of any kind thereon shall then become due and payable, and be paid before such subdivision shall be admitted to record in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia; and the general tax thereon for the last half of the then current fiscal year shall be due and payable in the following May. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 616, ch. 1352, § 5; Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1195, ch. 95, § 1; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 4.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1921 amendment added the second paragraph.

The 1922 and the 1926 acts provided for assessment of real property at not less than the full market value, whereas the 1902 act provided for assessment at not less than two-thirds of the true market value.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DUTY OF TAXPAYER

Local statute imposes on the taxpayer the duty truthfully to fill out the proper blanks in the schedule furnished by the assessor. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

§ 47-714 [20: 708]. Subdivisions made during January, February, March, April, May, or June—Taxation, special assessment.

Whenever such subdivision is made during the months of January, February, March, April, May, or June, the total general tax assessed against the original lot or parcel of land for prior years and for the then current fiscal year, and all water main and sewer assessments and special assessments of any kind thereon, shall become due and payable and be paid before such subdivision is admitted to record in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 2.)

§ 47-715 [20: 709]. Redistribution of assessment on application by owner of unsubdivided tract.

Whenever application is made in writing to the assessor of the District of Columbia by the owner of any tract of land in said District not subdivided into lots and of record as a subdivision in the office of the surveyor of said District, for the redistribution of any general or special taxes or assessments then levied or due thereon, or whenever such application is made by the owner of any parcel of such tract for such redistribution, any such general or special taxes or assessments levied or due against the entire tract of which such parcel is a part shall be redistributed so that the owner of any such parcel may pay the proportion of such entire taxes or assessments equitably chargeable thereon. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 3.)

§ 47-716 [20: 710]. Application for redistribution or reassessment—Notice—Validity.

Whenever application is made according to law for the reassessment or redistribution of taxes by reason of the subdivision of any tract of land in the District, the board of assistant assessors charged with the assessment of real estate in the District is hereby authorized and directed to reassess and redistribute any general or special assessment or tax levied or due and unpaid in accordance with provisions of laws for the assessment and equalizations of valuations of real estate in the District for taxation. The assessor shall promptly notify the owners of record of the land, the taxes of which shall be reassessed or redistributed. Notices in such case shall be served upon each lot or parcel owner if he or she be a resident of the District and his or her residence known, and if he or she be a nonresident of the District, or his or her residence unknown, such notice shall be served on his or her tenant or agent, as the case may be, and if there be no tenant or agent known to the Commissioners, then they shall give notice of such assessment by advertisement twice a week for two weeks in some newspaper published in said District. The service of such notice, where the owner or his tenant or agent resides in the District, shall be either personal or by leaving the same with some person of suitable age at the residence or place of business of such owner, agent, or tenant; and return of such service, stating the manner thereof, shall be made in writing and filed in the office of said Commissioners. Any person aggrieved by such reassessment or redistribution, may within ninety days after notice of such reassessment or redistribution, appeal from such reassessment or redistribution in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404.

Any reassessment or redistribution made under sections 47-713 to 47-716 shall be as valid and effectual upon the various parts of the property, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the tax or assessment so reassessed or redistributed had been laid originally thereon under the various laws appertaining thereto. No payment or failure to pay a tax or assessment upon any such part shall change or affect the liability of the other parts of such property for any tax or assessment so reassessed or redistributed. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 4; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 act added the first paragraph of this section to the 1937 act while the remainder of the section is as it was in the 1921 act.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47-717 [20:711]. Reassessment of real estate by Board of Assistant Assessors.

The Board of Assistant Assessors charged with the assessment of real estate in the District of Columbia is hereby authorized and directed to reassess or redistribute any such general or special assessment or tax levied or due and unpaid in accordance with the provisions of laws for the assessment and equalizations of the valuations of real estate in the District of Columbia for taxation, after notice to owners of record of the land to be assessed, with right of appeal within ten days to the Board of Equalization and Review, as prescribed in section 47-708 and the assessor of said District is hereby authorized and directed to promptly reassess or redistribute any general or special assessment of any kind levied or due and unpaid, as hereinbefore provided. (Mar. 1, 1921, 41 Stat. 1196, ch. 95, § 5.)

§ 47-718 [20:736]. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company or Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company's property—Taxation.

The property owned or occupied by the Washington Terminal Company, or by the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company, or by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company under authority of this Act, or otherwise, together with the improvements that may be put thereon, shall be subject to taxation in the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as other property in the District, and all tracks and sidings shall be taxed as real estate: Provided, That no assessment, valuation, or tax shall be made, laid, or levied on the stations, terminals, and lines of railroad located, constructed, or maintained under the authority of this Act, in excess of that which would or could be lawfully made, laid, or levied if said stations, terminals, and lines of railroad were located, constructed, and maintained without the use of bridges, tunnels, viaducts, retaining walls, or other structures necessary or properly employed to elevate or to depress the same as required by this Act; it being the true intent and meaning hereof that the lines of railroad and terminals hereby authorized shall be assessed and valued for the purpose of taxation and taxed on the same basis as if the same were not constructed and maintained by means of such bridges, tunnels, viaducts, retaining walls, and other structures: Provided, That such portions of the terminal structure or viaduct as may be constructed and used for storage or like commercial purpose shall be subject to taxation in the same manner as other property in the District of Columbia. (Feb. 28, 1903, 32 Stat. 914, ch. 856, § 6.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act referred to as "This Act" is the act cited to the text, the act of February 28, 1903, 32 Stat. 909, ch. 856 (§§ 7-1213, 7-1214, and this section). This act supplements the act referred to in the note to § 47-719 and provides for a union railroad station. The sections of the act which have been retained in the code are those providing continuing duties and privileges for the companies concerned, while the omitted sections are deemed executed.

§ 47-719 [20:737]. Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company—Terminals—Taxation.

The property occupied by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, or by the Washington Terminal Company, under authority of this Act, together with the improvements which may be put thereon, shall be subject to tax by the District of Columbia the same as other property in the District of Columbia: Provided, That no assessment, valuation, or tax shall be made or levied on the railroad or terminals located, constructed, or maintained under the authority of this Act, in excess of that which would or could be lawfully made, laid, or levied if said railroad and terminals were so located, constructed, and maintained without the use of bridges, viaducts, retaining walls, and other structures necessary or properly employed to elevate the same as required by this Act, it being the true intent and meaning hereof that the railroad and terminals hereby authorized shall be assessed and valued for purposes of taxation and taxed on the same basis as if the same were not constructed and maintained by means of such bridges, viaducts, retaining walls, and other structures. (Feb. 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 779, ch. 354, § 9.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act referred to as "this act" is the act cited to the text, act of February 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 774, ch. 354 (§ 7-1212 and this section). This act provides for the formation of a terminal company, the building of a new railroad station and joint trackage and viaducts thereto, and for eliminating certain grade crossings. The sections of the act which have been retained in the code are those providing continuing duties and privileges to the companies concerned, while the omitted sections are deemed executed.

§ 47-720 [20: 733]. Baltimore and Potomac, bridges and tunnels assessed for taxation.

The property occupied by the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company under authority of this section, together with the improvements which may be put thereon, shall be subject to tax by the District of Columbia the same as other property in the District of Columbia: Provided, That no assessment, valuation, or tax shall be made, laid, or levied on the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company on account of any bridges, tunnels, elevated tracks, or subway which shall be located, constructed, or maintained under the authority of this Act, and forming part of said railroad, in excess of that which would or could be lawfully made, laid, or levied if said railroad was wholly located and constructed on the surface of the ground; it being the true intent and meaning hereof that any such bridges, tunnels, elevated tracks, or subway forming a part of said railroad shall be assessed and valued for purposes of taxation and taxed on the same basis as any other equal portion of railroad situated within the said District of Columbia not constructed on, in, through, or upon any such bridges, tunnels, elevated tracks, or subway. (Feb. 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 773, ch. 353, § 14.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act referred to as "this act" is the act cited to the text, act of February 12, 1901, 31 Stat. 767, ch. 353 (§§ 7-507, 7-508, 7-1211, and 47-720). The act provides that the railroad company is to relocate part of its tracks, eliminate certain grade crossings, and to depress and elevate trackage. The sections of the act which have been retained in the code are those providing continuing duties and privileges, while the omitted sections are deemed executed.

§ 47-721 [20: 739]. Reassessment of taxes declared void by court.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed, in all cases where general taxes or assessments for local improvements in the District of Columbia may be quashed, set aside, or declared void by the District Court of said District, by reason of an imperfect or erroneous description of the lot or parcel of ground against which the same shall have been levied by reason of such tax or assessment not having been authenticated by the proper officer, or of a defective return of service of notice, or for any technical reason other than the right of the public authorities to levy the tax or make the improvement in respect of which the assessment was levied, to reassess the lot or parcel of ground in respect of such general taxes or the improvement mentioned in such defective assessment, with power to collect the same according to existing laws relating to the collection of assessments and taxes: Provided, That in cases where such taxes or assessments shall be quashed or declared void by said court, for the reasons hereinbefore stated, the reassessment herein provided for shall be made within ninety days after the judgment or decree of said court quashing or setting aside such taxes or assessments and any amount theretofore paid upon an assessment which has been declared void shall be credited the owner upon the reassessment made under the provision of this section. (Apr. 24, 1896, 29 Stat. 98, ch. 123.)

MANUFACTURING PROPERTY

Act exempting manufacturing property from taxation does not create a contract in the sense that it cannot be repealed. Welch v. Cook (97 U. S. 541, 24 L. Ed. 1112).

§ 47-802 [20: 713]. Property used for educational purpose.

Property used for educational purposes that is not used for private gain shall be exempt from taxation, and all other property used for educational purposes shall be assessed and taxed as other property is assessed and taxed. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 616, ch. 1352, § 5.)

EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES INCIDENTAL

Where education phase of corporation was at most incidental and collateral to the social, recreative, promotional, and propaganda phases which constituted its major reasons for existence, it was not exempt from tax under this section. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

MT. VERNON SEMINARY

Mt. Vernon Seminary in the District of Columbia was exempt from taxation as a corporation whose property was held solely for educational purposes, no income inuring to any individual, and not for private gain, even though its receipts had exceeded its expenditures, resulting in a net profit to the institution. District of Columbia v. Mt. Vernon Seminary (69 App. D. C. 251, 100 Fed. (2d) 116).

STANDARDS

If school measures up to standards of curriculum and pedagogy set by the Government it comes within the reason for the subsidy which is implicit in a tax exemption. District of Columbia v. Mt. Vernon Seminary (69 App. D. C. 251, 100 Fed. (2d) 116).

§ 47-803 [20: 714]. Property of United States, District of Columbia, and foreign legations.

No property except that of the United States or the District of Columbia and property owned by foreign governments for legation purposes shall be exempt from assessments for improvements. (Mar. 3, 1903, 32 Stat. 961, ch. 992.)

§ 47-804 [20: 715]. Orphan asylums.

Orphan asylums and the grounds actually occupied thereby shall be exempt from taxation while so occupied: Provided, That all other real estate belonging to such institutions shall still be held for assessment and taxation. (Mar. 3, 1881, 21 Stat. 513, ch. 160, § 2.)

§ 47-805 [20: 716]. Louise Home.

The buildings and grounds of the Louise Home, and all property held by the trustees thereof for the purposes of the trust contained in a certain deed from William W. Corcoran dated November 21, 1869, and recorded in liber 630 at folio 458 of the land records of the District of Columbia, on the square numbered one hundred and ninety-six shall be free from all taxes and assessment by the municipal authorities, or by the United States, so long as the same shall be held and used for the purposes of the said trust. (Mar. 3, 1875, 18 Stat. 508, ch. 168, § 2.)

§ 47-806 [20: 717]. Sheridan tapestries.

No personal taxes be levied against certain tapestries, which were presented to the late Lieutenant-General Philip H. Sheridan for gallant and meritorious services, and which were on exhibition in the National Museum on April 27, 1904, so long as they are exhibited in said museum. (Apr. 27, 1904, 33 Stat. 364, ch. 1628.)

§ 47-807 [20: 718]. Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

For and in consideration of the expenses the said stockholders will be at, not only in cutting the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, erecting locks and dams, providing aqueducts, feeders, and other works, and in improving and keeping the same in repair, the said canal and all other works aforesaid, or required to improve the navigation thereof, at any time hereafter, with all their profits, subject to the limitations herein provided, and to none other, shall be, and the same are hereby, vested in the said stockholders, their heirs and assigns, forever, as tenants in common, in proportion to their respective shares, and be forever exempt from the payment of any tax, imposition, or assessment whatsoever. (General Assembly of Virginia, Jan. 27, 1824; 4 Stat. 796, Appendix I, § 9; Mar. 3, 1825, 4 Stat. 101, ch. 52.)

AMENDMENT

The 1825 act confirms the act of the legislature of the State of Virginia entitled "An act incorporating the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company," and "An act of the State of Maryland, confirming the same." The 1825 act contains the words of this section.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

The provision in the charter which requires the jury to do what they would be competent to do without such provision, and which, in order to ascertain a compensation which should be just toward the public as well as toward the individual, they ought to do, cannot be considered repugnant to the Constitution; citing and quoting Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co. v. Key, 3 Cranch (7 U. S.) 599, 601. Bauman v. Ross (167 U. S. 548, 42 L. Ed. 270, 17 Sup. Ct. 966).

FORFEITURE FOR NONUSER

The question of forfeiture by nonuser could be established only by a direct proceeding on the part of the public authorities, and a decision to that effect in a proper tribunal, and cannot be made an issue for the first time in the trial of the question of private rights. Mackall v. Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co. (94 U. S. 308, 24 L. Ed. 161).

GENERAL CREDITORS

A general creditor of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company had notice of the statute granting said company its charter. Macalester v. Maryland (114 U. S. 598, 29 L. Ed. 233, 5 Sup. Ct. 1065).

RIPARIAN RIGHTS

The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company does not own or possess riparian rights along the line of its canal within the limits of the city of Washington. Morris v. United States (174 U. S. 196, 43 L. Ed. 946, 19 Sup. Ct. 649).

§ 47-808 [20: 719]. Oak Hill Cemetery—Property inalienable and exempt from taxation.

The property owned by "The Oak Hill Cemetery Company" shall be forever inalienable by the said corporation, and shall be exempted from all public assessments and taxes so long as the same shall remain dedicated to the purposes of a cemetery. (Mar. 3, 1849, 9 Stat. 775, ch. 128, § 10.)

§ 47-809 [20: 720]. Corcoran Gallery of Art—Real property and works of art.

The buildings described in a certain deed from William W. Corcoran to the trustees of the Corcoran

Gallery of Art, dated May 10th, 1869, and recorded May 18th, 1869, in liber D, No. 8, folio 294 et seq., one of the land records of Washington County, District of Columbia, and the grounds connected therewith, together with all of the works of art that may be contained therein, shall be free from all taxes and assessments by the municipal authorities, or by the United States, so long as the same shall be held and used for the purposes set forth in said deed. (May 24, 1870, 16 Stat. 139, ch. 111, § 4.)

§ 47-810 [20: 721]. Corcoran Gallery of Art—Endowment fund.

All property held as endowment fund by the trustees of the Corcoran Gallery of Art, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, for the purpose of revenue to support said institution, shall be, and the same is hereby, declared exempt from all taxation and assessments by the municipal authorities or by the United States so long as the same shall be so held. (Jan. 26, 1887, 24 Stat. 364, ch. 43.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act contained the following proviso which has been omitted as obsolete: "Provided, That real estate purchased prior to January 26, 1887, by said trustees in the management of the endowment fund shall be exempt from taxation only while so held, and not to exceed five years from January 26, 1887."

§ 47-811 [20: 722]. Howard University.

The property, real and personal, of the Howard University shall be exempt from taxation so long as such property shall be used only for the purposes set forth in the charter of said institution: Provided, That nothing in this section shall exempt any real estate of said university from assessment and liability for special improvements authorized by law: Provided also, That this section shall not include any real estate sold or contracted to be sold by said university to any other person than the United States, the title to which may be still in the said university. (June 16, 1882, 22 Stat. 105, ch. 222, § 3.)

§ 47-812 [20: 723]. Luther Statue Association.

The lands acquired and held by the Luther Statue Association, and the statue erected thereon, and all the improvements and appurtenances thereto, shall be entirely exempt from taxation, and shall not be chargeable or assessed for any purpose whatever: Provided, That this section may be modified, repealed or amended, whenever Congress may see fit to do so. (Mar. 3, 1885, 23 Stat. 350, ch. 334, § 4.)

§ 47-813 [20: 724]. Saint Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church.

Chapter 9.—FAMILY DWELLINGS OCCUPIED BY OWNER

Sec.

- 47-901. Quarterly payments—Statement of taxes—Interest.
- 47-902. Extension of time of payment.
- 47-903. Restrictions on sale for delinquent taxes.
- 47-904. Sales invalidated where based on errors in computation of taxes due.
- 47-905. Affidavit as to domicile and ownership.

§ 47-901 [20:740]. Quarterly payments—Statement of taxes—Interest.

Each fiscal year, commencing with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, the assessor of the District of Columbia shall send to the owner of each family dwelling-house occupied by such owner upon written application therefor an itemized statement of the taxes payable with respect to such dwelling-house not less than thirty days prior to the time when the first instalment of real-estate taxes for such fiscal year becomes due and payable. Such statement shall include all real-estate taxes which are due and payable in such fiscal year and all instalments of special assessments which have been levied, charged, or assessed prior to, and are due and payable in, such fiscal year, with respect to the family dwelling-house occupied by the owner. Such taxes and assessments shall be payable, at the election of the taxpayer, in four equal instalments, in the months of September, December, March, and June, and no interest shall be payable with respect to any such instalment unless it is unpaid after the time it is due. Any real-estate tax or special assessment or any instalment thereof with respect to any family dwelling-house occupied by the owner thereof not included in such statement shall not be due or payable during the fiscal year for which the statement is sent; and any such tax or assessment or any instalment thereof otherwise chargeable, assessable, or payable during such fiscal year shall be included in the statement for the next succeeding fiscal year. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1347, ch. 130, § 1.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Time for payment, delinquency, § 47-1209.

§ 47-902 [20:741]. Extension of time of payment.

The collector of taxes of the District of Columbia shall extend the time for the payments of real-estate taxes and special assessments payable after January 1, 1933, on any family dwelling-house occupied by the owner thereof, or any instalment of such taxes or assessments, for not more than ninety days, if written application for such extension is filed with the collector before such taxes or instalment thereof are due. Such extension shall be granted only if, in the judgment of the collector of taxes, satisfactory evidence is presented by the owner that, through unemployment or other emergency, the owner is unable to make such payment. No such application shall be granted unless the application is accompanied by the payment, to the collector, of interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum on the amount of the taxes or assessments or instalments thereof for the time of the extension applied for. In any case in which the amount of the tax or assessment or instalment due is paid prior to the expiration of the period of the extension there shall be deducted from the amount payable an amount equal to such part of the interest payable with respect thereto as represents the unexpired portion of the period of the extension. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 2.)

§ 47-903 [20:742]. Restrictions on sale for delinquent taxes.

No family dwelling-house occupied by the owner thereof shall be sold for delinquent personal or real-estate taxes or special assessments unless notice has been personally served upon such owner or sent by registered mail, addressed to him at such dwelling-house, not less than thirty days prior to the date of such sale. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 3.)

§ 47-904 [20:743]. Sales invalidated where based on errors in computation of taxes due.

No sale for delinquent personal or real-estate taxes or special assessments with respect to a family dwelling-house owned by the occupier thereof shall be valid if such sale is in consequence of an error or omission in the computation of the amount of taxes due thereon. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This is an exception from the general provision set out in § 47-1015.

§ 47-905 [20:745]. Affidavit as to domicile and ownership.

This chapter shall be deemed as applying only to such occupant and owner as shall have filed with the assessor of the District of Columbia an affidavit as to domicile and ownership. The form of the affidavit shall be prepared by the assessor of the District of Columbia, and shall show the beginning of domicile, the time when ownership began, the street number, the number of the square and lot, and all trusts, if any, against the property. (Feb. 28, 1933, 47 Stat. 1348, ch. 130, § 6.)

§ 47-1001 [20: 791]. Delinquent tax list—Publication of notice—Competitive proposals—Sale.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall prepare a list of all taxes on real property in said District subject to taxation on which said taxes are levied and in arrears on the first day of July of each year hereafter; and the commissioners of said District shall fix date of sale. The notice of sale and the delinquent tax list shall be advertised once a week for two weeks in the regular issue of one morning and one evening newspaper published in the District of Columbia; and notice shall be given, by advertising twice a week for two successive weeks in the regular issue of two daily newspapers published in the District of Columbia, that such delinquent tax list has been published in two daily newspapers, giving the name of each and the dates and the issues containing said list, and such notice shall be published in the two weeks immediately following the week in which the delinquent tax list shall have been published: Provided further, That competitive proposals shall be invited by the Commissioners from the several newspapers published in the District of Columbia for publishing the said delinquent tax list. If the taxes due, together with the penalties and costs that may have accrued thereon, shall not be paid prior to the day fixed for sale, the property will be sold, under the direction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, at public auction at the office of the said collector of taxes, commencing at least three weeks after the first publication of said notice and continuing on each following day, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, until all said delinquent property is sold; a description sufficient to identify the property shall be considered a proper description. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 1; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 632, ch. 1358, § 1; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 9; Mar. 2, 1927, 44 Stat. 1303, ch. 271; May 21, 1928, 45 Stat. 650, ch. 659; Feb. 25, 1929, 45 Stat. 1268, ch. 314.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1898, 1902, and 1926 acts contained a provision for the publication of a pamphlet and for notice of the publication thereof, the 1902 and 1926 acts altering the time and duration of the notice.

The 1927 amendment abolished this pamphlet and inserted the second sentence.

The 1928 and 1929 acts are appropriation acts that merely re-enact the provisions of the 1927 act.

§ 47-1002 [20: 792]. Sale of property—Purchase by District.

Upon the day specified in section 47-1001 the Commissioners shall proceed to sell or cause to be sold any and all property upon which such taxes remain unpaid, and continue to sell the same every secular day until all the real property as aforesaid in section 47-1001 shall have been brought to auction and sold. In case no other person bids the amount due, together with penalties and costs, on any lot, the said collector of taxes shall bid the amount due, together with penalties and costs, on the same and purchase it for the District. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 2; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 633, ch. 1358, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment inserted the words "together with penalties and costs" in both places where they appear.

§ 47-1003 [20: 793]. Deposit required—Certificate of sale—Tax deed—Redemption.

The collector of taxes shall require from every purchaser of property sold as aforesaid a deposit sufficient, in his judgment, to guarantee a full and final settlement for such purchase. Every purchaser other than the District of Columbia at any sale of property as aforesaid shall pay the full amount of his bid, including surplus, if any, to the collector of taxes within five days after the last day of sale, and in case such payment is not made within the time specified the deposit of the person so failing to make payment shall be forfeited to the District of Columbia, and said collector of taxes shall then issue the certificate of sale for such property to the next highest bidder, and if payment of the amount of the bid of said next highest bidder be not made within two days thereafter, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall set aside both sales for which the bids were made; and the said collector of taxes shall thereupon be held to have bid the amount due on the said lot and to have purchased it for the District. Immediately after the close of the sale, upon payment of the purchase money, the said collector of taxes shall issue to the purchaser a certificate of sale, and if the property shall not be redeemed by the owner or owners thereof within two years from the last day of sale, by payment to the collector of taxes of said District, for the use of the legal holder of the certificate, the amount for which it was sold at such sale, exclusive of surplus, and one per centum thereon for each month or part thereof, a deed shall be given by the Commissioners of the District, or their successors in office, to the purchaser at such tax sale, his heirs or devisees, or to the assignee of such certificates, which deed shall be admitted and held to be prima facie evidence of a good and perfect title in fee simple to any property bought at said sale herein authorized: Provided, That no deed shall be issued until all taxes and assessments appearing upon the tax books against the property are paid, with penalties, interests, and costs, including taxes for the years for which the District purchased the property at tax sale: Provided, That no property advertised as aforesaid shall be sold upon any bid not sufficient to meet the amount of tax, penalty, and costs; but in case the highest bid on any property is not sufficient to meet the taxes, penalties, and costs thereon said property shall thereupon be bid off by the said collector of taxes, in the name of the District of Columbia; but the property so bid off shall not be exempted from assessment and taxation, but shall be assessed and taxed as other property; and if within two years thereafter such property is not redeemed by the owner or owners thereof, or their legal representatives, by the payment of the taxes, penalties and costs due at the time of the sale and that may have accrued after that date, and one per centum thereon for each month or part thereof, or if any property two years after having been so bid off at any sale in the name of said District under sections 47-1001 to 47-1009 or any other law in force is not or has not been so redeemed as aforesaid (unless it shall be shown that the sale for taxes was irregular and void), then the commissioners of the District, or their successors shall in the name of and on behalf of the District of Columbia, sell said property at public or private sale and issue to any purchaser of such property a deed, which deed shall have the same force and effect as the deed hereinbefore provided for in this section for property sold at the regular annual sale: Provided, however, That no deed shall be issued until all assessments, taxes, costs, and charges due the District, of whatsoever nature, shall have been paid in full: And provided also, That minors or other persons under legal disability be allowed one year after attaining full age or after the removal of such legal disability to redeem the property so sold, or bid off by the collector of taxes in the name of the District of Columbia as aforesaid, from the purchaser or purchasers, his, her, or their assigns, or from the District of Columbia, on payment of the amount of purchase money so paid therefor, with eight per centum per annum interest thereon as aforesaid, together with all taxes and assessments that have been paid thereon by the purchaser or his assigns between the day of sale and the period of redemption with eight per centum per annum interest on the amount of such taxes and assessments. When such property is redeemed from a purchaser other than the District of Columbia, and when such property shall be redeemed from the District of Columbia, it shall, except as to the period of redemption, be upon the terms and conditions hereinabove provided for in the case of redemption by persons not under legal disability: Provided, however, That failure on the part of the District, from any cause whatsoever, to enforce the liens acquired aforesaid shall not release the property from any tax whatsoever that may be due the District: Provided further, That at any time after any property shall have been bid off as aforesaid by the collector of taxes, and before the expiration of the time allowed for the redemption thereof, the collector of taxes of said District, may issue to any person or persons, upon the payment of a sum not less than the aggregate amount of the taxes, penalties, and costs due at the time the property was bid off by the collector and that may have accrued after that date, a certificate of sale, and if the property shall not be redeemed by the owner or owners thereof within two years from the date of such certificate, by payment to the collector of taxes of said District, for the use of the legal holder of the certificate, the amount exclusive of surplus paid by the person or persons to whom such certificate was issued and one per centum thereon for each month or part thereof, a deed shall be given by the commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their successors in office, to the legal holder of such certificate, which deed shall have the same force and effect as the deed hereinbefore provided for in this section for property sold at the regular annual sale; and that the foregoing provisions in this section in reference to the sale at public or private sale of property in the District of Columbia advertised for sale for taxes and bid off by the collector of taxes be, and the same are also hereby, made applicable to all property in the District of Columbia subject to taxation where taxes levied and in arrears on July 1, 1897, or at any time prior thereto, have not been paid, and which at any sale held previous to said date were bid off in the name of the District of Columbia; and when for any reason any tax sale of real property in the District of Columbia may be set aside or canceled, such property may be readvertised and sold at the next ensuing annual sale. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 3; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 633, ch. 1358, § 3; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1201, ch. 702, § 9.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Sections 47-1011 to 47-1014 provide an alternative method to that given in this section for sale of property which has been bid in at a tax sale in the name of the District.

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment added the first sentence and the part of the section following the words "Provided further," and lowered the first percentage provision from 15% per annum to 12% per annum and the second percentage provision from 10% per annum to 8% per annum, and provided the third percentage provision should be 12% per annum.

The 1938 amendments changed these provisions to their present amount.

§ 47-1004 [20: 793a]. Changed interest rates to apply only to sales after June 25, 1938.

These amendments (of section 47-1003) shall apply only to tax sales held after June 25, 1938, and section 47-1003, without said amendments, shall remain in full force and effect as to all tax sales held prior to June 25, 1938. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1201, ch. 702, § 9 (d).)

§ 47-1005 [20: 794]. Property sold for taxes redeemable within 2 years from sale.

The owner of any property sold as aforesaid, or any other person having an interest therein at the time of redemption, may redeem the same from such sale at any time within two years after the last day of sale by paying to the collector of taxes, for the use of the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, the sum mentioned in the certificate of sale therefor, exclusive of surplus with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum after the date of such certificate of sale. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 250, ch. 32, § 4; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added the words "exclusive of surplus," reduced the percentage provision from 15% per annum to 12% per annum, and deleted the following words which appeared in the 1898 act following the present last word: "Together with any tax or assessment which the holder of said certificate shall have paid between the days of sale and redemption, with interest on the same at the rate of ten per centum per annum," and the words "or authorized agent of the owner" following the word "owner" the first time it is used.

IN GENERAL

The code provides for the sale of the real property subject to taxation on which said taxes are unpaid after the notice of sale and delinquent tax list shall have been advertised as required under the statute, and the redemption of the property so sold within two years. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

The statute supplies remedial procedure by which to obtain necessary information where there has been a refusal to file return as requested by law. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47-1006 [20: 795]. Report of tax sale to be filed with recorder of deeds—Disposition of surplus on redemption.

The collector of taxes shall, within twenty days, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, after the last day of the sale hereinbefore provided for as aforesaid, file with the recorder of deeds a written report, in which he shall give a statement of the property sold, other than that sold to the District of Columbia, to whom it was assessed, the taxes due, to whom sold, the amount paid, the date of sale, the cost thereof, and the surplus, if any. Any surplus remaining after the collection of taxes, penalties, and costs on any real estate shall be collected as hereinbefore provided for, and shall be deposited by the collector of taxes to the credit of the surplus fund, to be paid to the owner or owners, or their legal representatives, in the same manner as other payments made by the District: Provided, That if any property sold for taxes, as herein provided, is redeemed from such sale within two years from last day of sale, any surplus paid at time of sale shall be paid by the District of Columbia to the legal holder of certificate of sale. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 5; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added the words, "exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays," and the proviso; deleted the words "in sections one hundred and sixty-one and one hundred and sixty-two, chapter six, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, relating to the District of Columbia" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "as hereinbefore provided for."

§ 47-1007 [20: 796]. Commissioners not to convey any property if sale is void.

The said commissioners shall not convey any property sold for taxes if they shall discover, before the conveyance, that the sale was for any cause invalid and ineffectual to give title to the property sold; but they shall cancel the sale and cause the purchase money, together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and the surplus, if any, to be refunded to the purchaser, his representatives or assigns: Provided, That if any conveyance made by the said commissioners, of property sold for taxes, shall at any time be set aside by decree of any court as invalid, the party in whose favor the decree is rendered shall pay to the party holding such conveyance, his heirs or assigns, the amount paid for such taxes and conveyances, together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 6; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

The 1902 amendment added the words, "together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and the surplus, if any" and the proviso.

§ 47-1008 [20: 797]. Payment of expenses of advertising.

The expenses of advertising shall be paid by a charge of fifty cents for each lot or piece of property advertised. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 7; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 7; May 21, 1928, 45 Stat. 650, ch. 659.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1902 amendment reduced the charge from one dollar and twenty cents to fifty cents.

The 1928 amendment deleted the words "and the printing of said pamphlet" following the word "advertising" (see amendment note to § 47-1001).

§ 47-1009 [20: 798]. Assessor to furnish information.

The assessor of the District of Columbia shall furnish information with respect to taxes, special assessments, and valuations to any person having any interest in the property with respect to which such information is requested. (Feb. 28, 1898, 30 Stat. 252, ch. 32, § 8; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 635, ch. 1358, § 8; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1201, ch. 702, § 8.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of 1898 provided that a copy of a pamphlet listing the property on which taxes are in arrears, with notice of sale, should be delivered to any taxpayer applying therefor to the office of the collector of taxes.

The 1902 act provided: "The assessor of the District of Columbia shall have the records of his office open to inspection of the public, free of charge at such time or times as the public interest will permit."

§ 47-1010 [20: 799]. Assessor to keep list of property sold for taxes for public inspection.

It shall be the duty of the assessor for the District of Columbia to prepare and keep in his office, for public inspection, a list of all real estate in the District of Columbia heretofore sold, or which may hereafter be sold, for the nonpayment of any general or special tax or assessment levied or assessed upon the same, said list to show the date of sale and for what taxes sold; in whose name assessed at the time of sale; the amount for which the same was sold; when and to whom conveyed if deeded, or, if redeemed from said sale, the date of redemption. (Feb. 6, 1879, 20 Stat. 283, ch. 50; May 13, 1892, 27 Stat. 37, ch. 74; Mar. 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1005, ch. 160; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1202, ch. 702, § 11.)

AMENDMENTS

The duties set forth in this section were created and placed upon the collector of taxes by the 1879 act, cited to the text.

The 1892 act transferred them to the assessor.

The 1917 act transferred these duties back to the collector by the following words quoted therefrom: "and the collector of taxes shall hereafter be charged with the duties heretofore required of the assessor in relation to * * * the preparation for public inspection of lists of all real estate in the District of Columbia heretofore sold, or which may hereafter be sold, for the nonpayment of any general or special tax or assessment."

The 1938 act, cited to the text, transferred these duties back to the assessor (§ 47-603).

§ 47-1011 [20: 800a]. Liens on real estate for unpaid taxes—Enforcement—Redemption before sale.

Whenever any real estate in the District of Columbia has been, or shall hereafter be, offered for sale for nonpayment of taxes or assessments of any kind whatsoever, and shall have been bid off in the name of the District of Columbia, and more than two years shall have elapsed since such property was bid off as aforesaid and the same has not been redeemed as provided by law, the Commissioners of said District may, in the name of the District aforesaid, petition the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, sitting in equity, to enforce the lien of said District for taxes or other assessments on the aforesaid property by decreeing a sale thereof; and up to the time of the sale hereinafter provided for such property may be redeemed by the owner or other person having an interest therein by the payment of all taxes or assessments due the District of Columbia upon said property and all legal penalties and costs thereon, together with such other expenses as may have been incurred by said District prior to, and as a result of, the filing of the action herein provided for. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1153, ch. 111, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This act, §§ 47-1011 to 47-1014, repealed and superseded act of February 14, 1929, 45 Stat. 1173, ch. 197, § 1, D. C. Code 1929, title 20, § 800. Section 2 of the act of February 14, 1929, repealed all acts and parts of acts inconsistent therewith. Sections 47-1011 to 47-1014 provide an alternative method for selling property bid in for the District at tax sales. For the older method, see § 47-1003.

§ 47-1012 [20: 800b]. Real estate to be sold—Notice to owner—Parties defendant—Court order—Validity of service and sale.

Before any such action shall be instituted, the aforesaid Commissioners shall cause notice to be given in the name appearing upon the records of the assessor as the owner of such property, by registered mail directed to the last known address of such person, and by publication once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published and circulated generally in the District of Columbia, against said person and "all other persons having or claiming to have any right, title, or interest in or to the real estate proposed to be proceeded against, their heirs, devisees, executors, administrators, and assigns," by such designation, to appear before them on a day certain, which day shall be at least ten days after the last publication of said notice, and show cause, if any they have, why the said real estate should not be proceeded against. For the purpose of the proceedings herein provided for, the person appearing by the assessor's records, at the time of the first publication of notice, as the owner of such property, and any other persons who may appear in response to the publication aforesaid and claim to have an interest in such property, shall be deemed proper parties defendant in any such proceedings. Upon the filing of the petition aforesaid, the court shall enter an order directed to the person or persons named as defendants therein and "to all other persons having or claiming to have any right, title, or interest in the real estate proposed to be sold, their heirs, devisees, executors, administrators, and assigns," by such designation, directing them to appear on a day certain, which day shall be not less than thirty days after the date of the last publication of said order, and show cause, if any they have, why said real estate should not be proceeded against and sold. The said order shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some daily newspaper published and circulated generally in the District of Columbia, and such publication shall be considered as sufficient service upon such person or persons as cannot be found by the marshal within the District of Columbia or who are nonresident or unknown, their heirs, devisees, executors, administrators, and assigns; and the proceedings or sale of such real estate shall not be rendered invalid if the true owner or owners or any other person or persons having any right, title, or interest in said real estate shall not be included as a party to the suit, if it shall appear that the publication herein provided for shall have been duly made. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1154, ch. 111, § 2.)

§ 47-1013 [20: 800c]. Court to decree sale by collector of taxes—No penalty if defect in tax sale.

Upon proof in said suit of the failure of the owner of any such property to redeem the same as provided by law, the court shall, without unreasonable delay, decree a sale of the property to satisfy the lien of the District of Columbia for taxes, assessments, penalties, interest, and costs, and any other costs or expenses that have been incurred by said District prior to or after the institution of suit and in connection therewith, which said costs shall include court costs, but in no such case shall there be any allowance by the court of a docket fee, attorney's fee, or trustee's commission. All such sales shall be conducted by the collector of taxes or his deputy, by public auction either in the office of said collector or in front of the premises to be sold, as the court may determine, after advertisement for ten consecutive days in some daily newspaper published and circulated generally in the District of Columbia: Provided, That if it shall appear that there were any substantial defects in any tax sale no part of the penalties and charges incidental to such sales shall be collectible; but nothing herein contained shall in any wise affect any cost incurred by the District of Columbia in the institution and prosecution of the suit. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1154, ch. 111, § 3.)

§ 47-1014 [20: 800d]. Real estate sold—Confirmation of sale—Surplus paid into court—Delivery of deed.

Every such sale shall be reported to and confirmed by said equity court, and no sale shall be made for an amount less than such aggregate taxes, interest, and costs incurred in the institution of suit, including advertising and sale, unless by express order of the court. Any surplus remaining from sales made under sections 47-1011 to 47-1014 shall be paid by the collector of taxes into the registry of the court, to abide its further order for payment to the person or persons entitled thereto; and any such moneys remaining unclaimed for a period of five years after confirmation of any such sale shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States and credited to the revenues of the District of Columbia. Upon confirmation of such sale by order of court and payment of the purchase price, and upon full compliance with all of the terms of sale, the clerk of the court shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed to the property so sold, which deed shall convey to said purchaser all of the right, title, and estate of all persons whether named in such suit or not. (Mar. 2, 1936, 49 Stat. 1155, ch. 111, § 4.)

§ 47-1015 [20: 801]. Validity of sales not affected by certain errors in computation.

No sale of any real property for taxes shall be impaired or made void by reason of any error of the proper officers in making a computation of the amount of taxes due, the expenses attendant on the advertisement and sale, or of the purchase-money and the interest thereon, notwithstanding the sum erroneously computed may have been paid by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns; but all such sales and the deeds which may be granted on the certificates then issued shall be valid and binding as if no such error had been made. (R. S., D. C., § 173.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Family dwellings occupied by the owner are exempted from this provision, see § 47-904.

REFUND OF TAXES

§ 47-1016 [20: 821]. Taxes erroneously paid to be refunded.

The commissioners are hereby authorized and instructed to cause all taxes erroneously paid in the District of Columbia to be refunded by the proper accounting and disbursing officers of said District, upon the certificate of the collector of such erroneous payment, which certificate shall state the nature of the error, the name of the person or persons by whom such excessive payment was made, and such other particulars as may be necessary to satisfy the accounting officers that such claim for reimbursement is just and equitable; and the said accounting and disbursing officers shall pay all moneys so refunded out of, and charge the same to, the fund which was credited with the erroneous payment. (Leg. Assem., Jan. 19, 1872, ch. 31, § 1, p. 52; June 20, 1874, 18 Stat. 116, ch. 337, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1874 act vested power in the Commissioners.

47-1107. Improvements of streets about the Capitol—Assessments by Secretary of the Interior.

§ 47-1101 [20: 746]. Protest against special assessment—Hearing—Report and exceptions—Decision.

Any property owner aggrieved by any special assessment levied by the District of Columbia for any public improvement, other than a special assessment levied by a jury in a condemnation proceeding, may, within sixty days after service of notice of such assessment as provided in section 47-1103, file with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a protest in writing against such assessment setting forth specifically the grounds of such protest and may request a hearing thereon. No ground of protest not specifically set forth need be considered by the Commissioners. If a hearing is requested the same shall be held, in the discretion of the Commissioners, either before them or before one or more agents designated by them. At such hearing, physical facts which may be ascertained by view may be considered whether proved or not. If the hearing is held before an agent or agents, such agent or agents shall report in writing to the Commissioners the substance of the evidence taken and the arguments made at the hearing, together with the findings (which may include a statement of any physical facts not proved at the hearing but which may be ascertained by view) and the recommendations of such agent or agents. A copy of such report, findings, and recommendations shall be mailed to the protestant ten days before being presented to the Commissioners, and the protestant may, before such report, findings, and recommendations are presented to the Commissioners, file with such agent or agents exceptions to such report and findings, which exceptions shall be presented to the Commissioners with such report, findings, and recommendations. If the Commissioners find that the property of the owner so protesting is not benefited by the improvement for which said assessment is levied, or is benefited less than the amount of such assessment or is unequally or inequitably assessed with relation to other property abutting such improvement, said commissioners shall abate, reduce, or adjust such assessment in accordance with such findings. In computing the time hereinafter provided in which a special assessment may be paid without interest there shall be excluded therefrom the time between the date of the filing of any such protest and the date of mailing notice of the action thereon by the Commissioners. This section shall be effective only as to assessments levied for work completed subsequent to the passage and approval of sections 47-1101 to 47-1106. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1198, ch. 702, § 1.)

PAVING AND IMPROVING STREETS

A different rule prevails as to assessments for paving and improving streets than that which applies for laying water mains in the District, and the legislature may create taxing districts to meet the expense of local improvements and may fix the basis of taxation without encountering the Fourteenth Amendment unless its action is palpably arbitrary or a plain abuse. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525).

FRONT-FOOT RULE

Assessment under front-foot rule held invalid. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525); Dougherty v. American Secur. & Trust Co. (59 App. D. C. 301, 40 Fed. (2d) 813, cert. den. 282 U. S. 854, 75 L. Ed. 757, 51 Sup. Ct. 31); Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

In applying this general law as to front-foot rule, which extends throughout the District, to a special assessment for street improvement not exclusively benefiting adjacent property-owners, the assessment cannot be upheld if it is in excess of the benefits and is not equal and fair in view of existing physical conditions, as where there is no relative equality in the value and depth of the abutting properties. Johnson v. Rudolph (57 App. D. C. 29, 16 Fed. (2d) 525.)

In applying the front-foot rule, the size, shape, improvements, or favorable location of property is not the test in determining validity of an assessment, but rather the relation of the property to other properties facing on the avenue and in the immediate vicinity. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

A road improvement assessment under the front-foot rule was canceled as inequitable as applied to a triangular-shaped lot. Taliaferro v. Railway Terminal Warehouse Co. (59 App. D. C. 376, 43 Fed. (2d) 271).

REVISION OF ASSESSMENTS

The front-foot rule cannot be applied to the assessment of a lot for paving an alley, which had a boundary of 233.17 feet facing two alleys, which could not be used commercially, and when the lot is assessed 222 percent higher than average assessment of other lots bordering the alleys, the assessment must be revised. Willner v. Hazen (71 App. D. C. 373, 111 Fed. (2d) 511).

One seeking to cancel an alley-paving assessment on a lot, facing two alleys, which, under zoning regulations was limited to one-family detached house, and which was assessed 222 percent higher than other lots, was entitled to trial on the merits, and dismissal of complaint was improperly granted. Willner v. Hazen (71 App. D. C. 373, 111 Fed. (2d) 511).

§ 47-1102 [20: 746a]. Abatement, reduction, or adjustment of special assessment.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized, but not directed, whenever in their judgment and discretion any property upon which a special assessment has been levied by the District of Columbia is not benefited by the improvement for which such special assessment was levied, or is benefited less than the amount of such assessment, or is unequally or inequitably assessed with relation to other property abutting such improvement, to abate, reduce, or adjust such assessment in accordance with such finding. This section shall not apply to any assessment levied by a jury in a condemnation proceeding, or to any assessment levied for work completed subsequent to the passage and approval of sections 47-1101 to 47-1106, or to any assessment levied under sections 7-622 to 7-633: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting protests filed under the provisions of sections 7-622 to 7-633 within the time prescribed in said sections. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1199, ch. 702, § 2.)

§ 47-1103 [20: 746b]. Notice of levying of special assessment—Publication—Payment of special assessment—Interest.

(a) When any special assessment for a public improvement, with the exception of assessments levied in condemnation proceedings, is levied by the District of Columbia upon any lot or parcel of land, notice of the levying of such assessment shall be served upon the record owner thereof in the manner herein provided and if there be more than one record owner of such lot or parcel of land notice served on one of the owners shall be sufficient. If the address of the owner be unknown or if the owner be a non-resident, such notice shall be served on his tenant or agent. The service of such notice shall be either personal or by leaving the same with some person of suitable age at the residence or place of business of such owner, agent, or tenant. If there be no tenant or agent known to the Commissioners, then they shall give notice of such assessment by advertisement once a week for two successive weeks in some daily newspaper of general circulation published in the District of Columbia. The cost of such publication shall be paid out of the general revenues of the District. The notice herein provided for shall be in lieu of any and all other notice now required by law.

This section shall apply to all assessments (other than assessments in condemnation proceedings) notice of which has not been served prior to the approval of sections 47-1101 to 47-1106.

(b) All special assessments authorized to be levied by the District of Columbia for public improvements, with the exception of assessments levied in condemnation proceedings, may be paid without interest within sixty days from the date of service of notice or of the last publication of notice as the case may be. Interest of one-half of 1 per centum for each month or part thereof shall be charged on all unpaid amounts from the expiration of sixty days from the date of service or last publication as the case may be. Any such assessment may be paid in three equal installments with interest thereon. If any such assessment or any part thereof shall remain unpaid after the expiration of two years from date of service of notice or last publication of notice as the case may be, the property against which said assessment was levied may be sold for such assessment or unpaid portion thereof with interest and penalties thereon at the next ensuing annual tax sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as property sold for delinquent general taxes, if said assessment with interest and penalties thereon shall not have been paid in full prior to said sale.

This section shall apply only to assessments for public improvements completed subsequent to June 25, 1938, and assessments for public improvements completed on or before said date shall be levied and collected and bear interest as if said sections had not been passed, except that where service sewers or water mains, or both, have been laid prior to the approval of said sections, but assessments therefor have not been levied for the reason that the property abutting the street, avenue, road, or alley in which the service sewer or water main is laid has not been subdivided, assessments for such sewers or water mains, or both, levied after the approval of said sections because of the subdivision of the property or its connection with the sewer or water main or both, shall be levied, collected, and bear interest as provided in this section. (June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1199, ch. 702, § 3.)

§ 47-1104 [20: 746c]. Payment of special assessment after ratification—Sale for nonpayment.

Special assessments authorized to be levied in condemnation proceedings instituted by the District of Columbia may be paid without interest within sixty days after the ratification or confirmation of the verdict of the jury. Interest of one-third of 1 per centum for each month or part thereof shall be charged on all unpaid amounts from the expiration of sixty days from the date of the ratification or confirmation of the verdict of the jury. Any such assessment may be paid in five equal installments with interest thereon. If any such assessment or any part thereof shall remain unpaid after the expiration of four years from the date of the ratification or confirmation of the verdict of the jury the property against which said assessment was levied may be sold for such assessment or unpaid portion thereof with interest and penalties thereon at the next ensuing annual tax sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as property sold for delinquent general taxes, if said assessment with interest and penalties thereon shall not have been paid in full prior to said sale. This section shall apply only to assessments ratified or confirmed by the court after June 25, 1938 and assessments ratified or confirmed on or before June 25, 1938 shall be levied and collected and bear interest as if sections 47-1101 to 47-1106 had not been passed. All assessments authorized to be levied by the District of Columbia to reimburse it for money expended in the removal of nuisances shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or part thereof from the date such assessment was levied. If any such assessment shall remain unpaid after the expiration of sixty days from the date such assessment was levied the property against which such assessment was levied may be sold for such assessment with interest and penalties thereon at the next ensuing annual tax sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as property sold for delinquent general taxes, if such assessment with interest and penalties thereon shall not have been paid in full prior to said sale. (June 25, 1933, 52 Stat. 1200, ch. 702, § 5.)

§ 47-1106 [20: 746e]. Reassessment where special assessment set aside—Hearing—Agent's report to Commissioners.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed, in any case where a special assessment for public improvements in the District of Columbia, other than an assessment levied by a jury in a condemnation proceeding, has been or hereafter may be quashed, set aside, or declared void by any court for any reason other than the right of the public authorities to levy an assessment for such improvement, to reassess the property in accordance with the benefits received from such improvement, after notice to the owner of the property and an opportunity afforded him to be heard, the hearing to be had before such agent or agents as the commissioners may designate. At such hearing physical facts which may be ascertained by view may be considered, whether proved or not. Such agent or agents shall report in writing to the commissioners the substance of the evidence taken and the arguments made at the hearing, together with the findings (which may include a statement of any physical facts not proved at the hearing which may be ascertained by view) and the recommendations of such agent or agents. A copy of such report, findings, and recommendations shall be mailed to the protestant ten days before being presented to the commissioners, and the protestant may, before such report, findings, and recommendations are presented to the commissioners, file with such agent or agents exceptions to such report and findings, which exceptions shall be presented to the commissioners with such report, findings, and recommendations. The reassessment shall be made within one year from the date the judgment or decree quashing, setting aside, or declaring void the assessment becomes final and not subject to review. Notice of such reassessment shall be given the property-owner in the same manner as if such reassessment was an original assessment, and such reassessment shall bear interest and be collected in the same manner as if such reassessment was an original assessment. § 47-1201 [20: 751]. Three assistant assessors to assess personal property.

The three members of the permanent Board of Assistant Assessors designated by the assessor, to assess personal property, shall under the direction and supervision of the said assessor, assess personal property in the District of Columbia as follows. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 617, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 1; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 832, ch. 759, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The Revenue Act of July 26, 1939 (53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 1) provided: "The tax on intangible personal property imposed by any law relating to the District shall not apply with respect to any year subsequent to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939."

Title VII of said act of July 26, 1939, provided further: "The laws authorizing the imposition by the District of Columbia of intangible personal property taxes and business privilege taxes are hereby extended from and after June 30, 1939, for the following purposes in connection with the taxes accrued or due under such laws prior to July 1, 1939—

- "(1) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with such laws and the regulations issued thereunder;
- "(2) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such laws;
- "(3) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses; and
- "(4) For the assessment and collection of such taxes, and the filing of liens therefor."

AMENDMENT

The 1926 amendment changed the number of assistant assessors from five to six (see amendment note to § 47-604), and raised the number in this section from two to three.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CHARGE AGAINST OWNER OF PROPERTY

The personal property tax is a definite charge against the owner of the property and the real property tax is a definite charge against the property itself. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47-1202 [20: 752]. Personal property to be assessed at its full value.

All personal property in the District of Columbia subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed at not less than the full and true value thereof in lawful money. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759. § 4.)

§ 47-1203 [20: 753]. Assessor to prepare printed blank forms—Mode of assessment, returns—False affidavit, penalty.

The assessor of the District of Columbia, or his successor in office, shall annually cause to be prepared a printed blank schedule of all tangible personal property and all general merchandise or stock in trade, owned or held in trust or otherwise, subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 47-1201 to 47-1214, 47-1301 to 47-1305, 47-1701 to 47-1709, and of the classes of corporations and companies to be assessed, together with the rate of tax prescribed, to which shall be appended an affidavit in blank, setting forth that the foregoing presents a full and true statement of all such personal property, taxable capital, or other basis of assessment, or either, as the case may be. When said schedule is ready for delivery, notice thereof shall be given by the assessor by advertisement for three successive secular days in one or more of the daily newspapers published in said District, and a copy of said schedule shall be delivered to any citizen applying therefor at the office of the assessor. Every person, association, corporation, firm, or company in said District liable to taxation hereunder, and every association, company, executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee holding personal property in trust liable to taxation hereunder, shall, within thirty days after the last publication of said advertisement, as aforesaid, fill out the proper blanks in said schedule with a full and true statement, as in this section hereinbefore required, and make and sign an affidavit to the truth thereof, as aforesaid, before the assessor or one of the other members of the said board of personal-tax appraisers (and the members of the said board are hereby authorized to administer such and all oaths in connection with their duties as assessor and appraisers without charge), or before any person authorized by law to administer oaths; and the address in the District of Columbia of the person, corporation, or company making affidavit shall in each case be given below his, its, or their signature, and thereupon said board of personal-tax appraisers, or any one of the members thereof, shall assess said property at its fair cash value, and enter the same in the columns upon said blanks provided for that purpose, and the amount thus ascertained shall be entered upon the books for taxation for each fiscal year: Provided, That if any person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee shall fail to make and deliver to the assessor or one of the said appraisers, within thirty days after the date of the last advertisement of the notice hereinbefore required, the schedule of his or its said personal property owned, held in trust, or otherwise, as provided for in this section, then the said board of personal-tax appraisers hereinbefore provided for shall without delay, from the best information they can procure, make an assessment against such person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee, to which they shall add twenty per centum thereof: Provided further, That if the said board of personal-tax appraisers be not satisfied as to the correctness of the return of personal property made by any person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee, said board may reject said return, and said board, or any one of the members thereof, may, from the best information he or they can procure, or by making such examination of the personal property as may be practicable, assess the same in such amount as may to him or them seem just; and notice of the rejection of the sworn return shall be given to the party interested by leaving the same at the address given in said return, and in all such cases there shall be a right of appeal from the action taken by said appraisers to the board of personal-tax appeals, or to their successors in office, within fifteen days after delivery of said notice of rejection as aforesaid: And provided further, That if any person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee shall make a false affidavit touching the matters herein provided for, he or they shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalties for that offense now provided by section 22-2501. #### NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

This is the only power under the statute for the re-assessment of personal property except as provided in § 759 (§ 47-1212). Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

TAX RETURNS

This section and § 47-1206 require that every resident shall file with the assessor of the District a tax return as of July 1, of each year, containing a true statement of his personal property for the purpose of taxation. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10.)

VALIDITY OF ASSESSMENT

It is fundamental to tax validity that there be a valid assessment. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

It is a rule without exception that if a property tax assessment is not properly made, there is no proper basis for a tax, and a tax attempted to be collected is void. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47-1204 [20: 755a]. Tangible personal property stored in transit.

Nothing in the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1939 contained, nor shall any prior Act of Congress relating to the District of Columbia be deemed to impose upon any person, firm, association, company, or corporation a tax based upon tangible personal property owned and stored by such person in a public warehouse in the District of Columbia for a period of time no longer than is necessary for the convenience or exigencies of reshipment and transportation to its destination without the District of Columbia. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1110, ch. 367, title IV, § 6.)

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1939, see compiler's notes to § 47-1401.

§ 47-1205 [20: 756]. "Resident of the District of Columbia" defined.

Any person maintaining a place of abode in the District of Columbia on the 1st day of July of a taxable year, and for the three months prior thereto, shall be considered as a resident for the purpose of assessment on intangible property wherever located, unless evidence shall be submitted to the assessor of the District of Columbia, satisfactory to him, that such intangible personal property or the income thereof is taxed to said person in some other jurisdiction, or that the assets of a corporation or association represented by shares or certificates constituting such intangible personal property are taxed by the state in which such corporation or association is chartered or organized and in which such person has a legal residence, in lieu of a tax upon such shares or certificates: Provided, That Cabinet officers and persons in the service of the United States Government elected for a definite term of office shall not be considered as residents of the District of Columbia for the purposes of this section. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 2; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1227, ch. 259, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Insofar as any provision of this section applies exclusively to taxation of intangible personal property, it is inoperative, see Compiler's Note to § 47-1201.

AMENDMENT

The 1929 amendment deleted the words, "January 1 of any year, and for six months or more" and inserted in lieu thereof the following: "The 1st day of July of a taxable year, and for three months."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BUSINESS OF HANDLING AND INVESTING FUNDS

Handling, investment, and reinvestment of substantial funds, by what must be a considerable staff of officers, agents, and employees, clearly constitutes the carrying on of business in the District within the meaning of the statute and the applicable decisions. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

One who questions the constitutionality of this act must show that he is within the class of persons with respect to whom the act is alleged to be unconstitutional, and the alleged unconstitutional feature injures him. Heald v. District of Columbia (259 U. S. 114, 66 L. Ed. 852, 42 Sup. Ct. 434).

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE

A resident of Boston who, upon his discharge from military service, entered the Government service in Washington, D. C., always intending to return to Boston when his service had expired, was not liable to tax on his intangible personality imposed by the District, since Boston continued to be his domicile. Sweeney v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 30, 113 Fed. (2d) 25).

PAYING TAX NOT CONCLUSIVE AS TO RESIDENCE

Fact that appellant paid tax on home in District of Columbia did not create a residence there, for the statute expressly recognizes that persons "maintaining a place of abode" there may have a legal residence elsewhere. Nixon v. Nixon (329 Pa. 256, 193 Atl. 154).

"RESIDENT" CONSTRUED

"Resident" as used in this section means "domiciled," which is the normal and usual meaning of "resident." Sweeney v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 30, 113 Fed. (2d) 25).

RETURN REQUIRED

A resident of the District must file personal property return for taxation whether the taxing statute of 1926 is constitutional or not, since it would be taxable under the 1916 act. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695, Cert. den. 299 U. S. 598, 81 L. Ed. 441, 57 Sup. Ct. 191).

A report must be had of the appellant's property in order that an assessment may be made, and this is so whether it is under the act of 1916 or the amending act of 1926. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

Claim made by appellant concerning his payment of taxes upon the income of the stocks owned by him to the Federal collector at Baltimore was without merit, and it was still necessary to file a personal property return with the assessor of the District. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

§ 47-1206 [20: 757]. Returns to be made in July of each year.

Returns of all personal property other than automobiles shall be made in the month of July in the fiscal year in which the assessment is levied and the value of such property shall be made as of the first day of that month except that merchants shall continue to return their average stock in trade as provided in section 47-1212. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 6; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1227, ch. 259, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

This section in the 1926 act provided, "That the returns of personal property provided for in section 6 of the said act of July 1, 1902, shall be made during the month of March in the fiscal year preceding the one under which the assessment is to be levied, and, except as otherwise provided by law, the value of tangible and intangible property shall be taken as of January 1 for a basis of assessment for the next fiscal year."

COMPILER'S NOTE

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ERROR IN VALUATION

Taxpayer complied with his duty. He made a true statement of his investment in marginal stocks according to the legal requirement and was taxed on the item. The difference between the amount of the investment and the value of the stocks was, at most, an error in valuation and not an omission, since omitted property means property which is not assessed at all and not property which is merely undervalued. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

§ 47-1207 [20: 754]. Rate of taxation—Exceptions.

On all tangible personal property, assessed at a fair cash value (over and above the exemptions provided in section 47-1208), including vessels, ships, boats, tools, implements, horses, and other animals, carriages, wagons, and other vehicles, there shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia the rate of tax provided by law. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 618, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 2; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 669, ch. 249.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

This section formerly provided for a tax of 1½ per centum of the assessed value of the property, but the act of 1922, cited to the text, provided that the rates should be fixed annually by the Commissioners.

Acts of September 1, 1916, 39 Stat. 717, ch. 433, § 11, and March 3, 1917, 39 Stat. 1046, ch. 160, § 9, added the following paragraph: "The moneys and credits, including moneys loaned and invested, bonds and shares of stock (except the stock of banks and other corporations within the District of Columbia the taxation of which banks and corporations is herein provided for) of any person, firm, association, or corporation resident or engaged in business within said District shall be scheduled and appraised in the manner provided by paragraph one of said section six (section 47-1203) for listing and appraisal of tangible personal property and assessed at their fair cash value, and as taxes on said moneys and credits there shall be paid to the tax collector of said District not less than five-tenths of one per centum (.5%) of the value thereof: Provided, That savings deposits of individuals in a sum not in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) deposited in banks, trust companies, or building associations, subject to notice of withdrawal and not subject to check, shall be exempt from this tax: Provided, further, That such tax on moneys and credits shall not apply to bank notes or notes discounted or negotiated by any bank or banking institution, savings institution, or trust company, nor to savings institutions having no capital stock, building associations, firemen's relief associations, secret and beneficial societies, labor unions, and labor-union relief associations, nor to beneficial organizations paying sick or death benefits, or either or both, from funds received from voluntary contributions or assessments upon members of such associations, societies, or unions; nor shall the provisions of this section apply to life or fire insurance companies having no capital stock, nor to the shares of stock of business companies which by reason of or in addition to incorporation receive no special franchise or privilege, but all such corporations shall be rated, assessed, and taxed as individuals conducting business in similar lines are rated, assessed, and taxed: And provided further, That corporations, limited partnerships, and joint-stock associations within said District liable to tax under the laws of said District on earnings or capital stock shall not be required to make any report or pay any further tax under this section on the mortgages, bonds, and other securities owned by them in their own right, but such corporations, partnerships, and associations holding such securities as trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, or in any other manner shall return and pay the tax imposed by this section upon all securities so held by them as in the case of individuals." The provisions of this paragraph expired as of June 30, 1939, under act of July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 1, except for the purposes set out in the compiler's note under § 47-1201.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BOND EXEMPTIONS

Considering the sweeping language of exemption in the bonding acts, there is no difficulty in holding that they apply to the District of Columbia as well as all other portions of the United States. District of Columbia v. Riggs Nat. Bank (58 App. D. C. 349, 30 Fed. (2d) 873).

CONSTITUTIONALITY

Federal taxation of the District of Columbia is valid even though residents have not the suffrage and may not vote on the expenditure of money raised. Heald v. District of Columbia (259 U. S. 114, 66 L. Ed. 852, 42 Sup. Ct. 434).

Should it ultimately be determined that Congress, disregarding the authoritative rulings of the Supreme Court, intended in this act to tax here property located elsewhere, it would by no means follow that as to persons and property clearly subject to taxation here the act would be void. Heald v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 231, 269 Fed. 1015).

Constitutionality of section which levies tax on intangible personal property cannot be questioned in a mandamus proceeding to compel the District resident to file a return of his personal property. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

ENGAGING IN BUSINESS

The handling, investment, and reinvestment of substantial funds, by what must have been a considerable staff of officers, agents, and employees, clearly constitutes the carrying on of business in the District of Columbia within the meaning of this section. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

RESIDENTS OF DISTRICT

As appellants are residents of the District and the property taxed is within the District, they are clearly subject to the provisions of this act. Heald v. District of Columbia (50 App. D. C. 231, 269 Fed. 1015).

REVIEW BY SUPREME COURT

Where the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia attempts to interpret this statute it is not entitled to certify questions to the Supreme Court as to the validity of the statute, in view of prior decisions of this court holding that such interpretation would be subject to review by appeal to this court. Heald v. District of Columbia (254 U. S. 20, 65 L. Ed. 106, 41 Sup. Ct. 42).

§ 47-1208 [20:755]. Personal property exempt from taxation.

The following personal property shall be exempt from taxation.

First. The personal property of all library, benevolent, charitable, and scientific institutions incorporated under the laws of the United States or of the District of Columbia and not conducted for private gain.

Second. Libraries, schoolbooks, wearing apparel, and all family portraits.

Third. Household and other belongings, not held for sale, to the value of one thousand dollars, owned by the occupant of any dwelling-house or other place of abode, in which such household and other belongings may be located.

Fourth. Household and other belongings not held for sale and owned by any person in the public service temporarily residing in the District of Columbia who is a citizen of any state or territory and who is taxed on such personal property in such state or territory. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 620, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 10; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815; Mar. 4, 1913, 37 Stat. 1006, ch. 150, § 10.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1904 amendment deleted the words "articles of personal adornment" preceding and "and heirlooms" following the words "all family portraits" in the second subsection.

The 1913 amendment added the fourth subsection.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RETURN BY STATUTORY ASSIGNEE

Inasmuch as the statute imposes duty on bank president to file return, the receiver being the statutory assignee said duty devolves upon him. Hazen v. Hardee (64 App. D. C. 346, 78 Fed. (2d) 230).

§ 47-1209 [20: 758]. Payment of taxes—To be made semiannually—Mandamus to compel filing sworn return—Expenses.

Real-estate taxes and personal taxes of all kinds, excepting the tax on motor vehicles as herein provided, shall hereafter be payable semiannually in equal instalments in the months of September and March. If either of said instalments on real or personal property shall not be paid within the months when the same is due, said instalments shall thereupon be in arrears and delinquent, and there shall be added and collected with said tax a penalty of 1 per centum per month upon the amount thereof for the period of such delinquency, and such instalment or instalments, with the penalties thereon, shall constitute a delinquent tax to be collected in the manner now provided by law.

If any person neglects or refuses to file a return of personal property as required by law, and the assessor certifies to the Board of Commissioners that, in his opinion, the best information obtainable does not afford a satisfactory basis for assessment, the Board of Commissioners may, by petition to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia for mandamus against such person, compel the filing of a sworn return, and in such case the court shall require the person at fault to pay all expenses of the proceeding. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 833, ch. 759, § 5; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1227, ch. 259, § 5.)

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Writs of mandamus have been abolished in District Courts, similar relief may be obtained by appropriate action on motion, rule 81 (b).

AMENDMENT

The 1929 amendment added the first sentence of the first paragraph and the second paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RETURNS

Receiver of insolvent bank is obligated to file tax return, although 100 percent assessment on stock had been levied. Hazen v. Hardee (64 App. D. C. 346, 78 Fed. (2d) 230).

Claim made by appellant concerning his payment of taxes upon the income of the stocks owned by him to the Federal collector at Baltimore was without merit, and it was still necessary to file a personal property return with the assessor of the District. Cogger v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 196, 85 Fed. (2d) 695).

Commissioners are specifically authorized to compel the filing of a sworn return by any person required by law to file such a return. Hazen v. National Rifle Assn. (69 App. D. C. 339, 101 Fed. (2d) 432).

VOID ASSESSMENT

A tax based upon a void assessment may be questioned or attacked wherever found. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47-1210 [20: 758a]. Assessment of motor vehicles—Dealers' stock excepted—Enforcement.

Motor vehicles taxable by the District of Columbia shall be assessed at their value as of April 1, each year, by the Board of Personal Tax Appraisers, subject to revision on appeal by the Board of Personal Tax Appeals, at the rate fixed for the taxation of other tangible personal property for the fiscal year ending the following June 30. The tax so assessed shall constitute the personal-property tax on such vehicles for the ensuing calendar year, and no motor vehicle registration tag for any tax year shall be issued for motor vehicles subject to taxation on April 1 each year by the District of Columbia until the amount of such tax has been paid in full: Provided, That this section shall not apply to motor vehicles constituting the stock in trade of dealers, which shall be taxed as now provided by law. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary or desirable to enforce the provisions of this section. (Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1226, ch. 259, § 3; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section is not affected by the motor vehicle fuel tax, § 47-1915.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act changed the date in this section from "January first" to "April first."

§ 47-1211 [20: 758b]. Taxable status of motor vehicles as tangible personal property.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the tangible personal-property tax on motor vehicles, except when consisting of stock in trade of merchants, shall be prorated according to the number of months such property has a situs within the District; and all such motor vehicles shall be assessed at their value as of April 1 each year: Provided, however, That where a motor vehicle shall be registered in the District of Columbia for the first time on a date between April 1 of one year and April 1 of the succeeding year, such motor vehicle shall be assessed, for taxation for the period ending with the succeeding April 1, at its value as of date of application for such first registration. § 47-1212 [20: 759]. Mercantile establishments and carriers by water.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons entering the District of Columbia subsequent to June 30th in each year and establishing a place of business for the sale of goods, wares, or merchandise, either at private sale or at auction, or engaging in the business of common carrier by vessels, ships, or boats, to conduct such business until a sworn statement of the value of such stock, vessels, ships, and boats has been filed with the assessor of the District of Columbia, who shall thereupon render a bill for the unexpired portion of the fiscal year at the same rate as other personal taxes are levied: Provided, That this shall not apply to vessels, ships, or boats if it shall be made to appear by affidavit that any vessel, ship, or boat has been assessed for taxation and the taxes paid elsewhere.

The assessor is hereby authorized to reassess said stock whenever in his judgment it has been undervalued. The goods, wares, and merchandise of any person or persons who shall fail to pay the tax required by this section within three days after beginning business shall be subject to distraint, and it shall be the duty of the assessor to place bills therefor in the hands of the collector of taxes, who shall seize sufficient of the goods of the delinquent to satisfy said tax: Provided, That said owner shall have the right of redemption within thirty days on payment of said tax, to which shall be added a penalty of one per centum, together with the cost of seizure. The collector shall sell such goods as are not redeemed at public auction, after advertisement for the three days preceding said sale. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 618, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 3; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 563, ch. 1815, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1904 amendment added words: "or engaging in the business of common carrier by vessels, ships, or boats" after the word "auction" as it appears in the first paragraph; the words "vessels, ships, and boats" after the word "stock" as it appears in the first paragraph; and, the proviso in the first paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

MERCHANDISE TAXABLE

This section relates to the assessment of merchandise belonging to persons who enter the District subsequent to June 30th and establish a place of business for the sale of goods, wares, and merchandise either at private sale or at auction. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47-1213 [20: 769]. Board of Personal Tax Appeals—Constitution—Proceedings.

The Board of Assistant Assessors hereinbefore provided for, with the assessor of the District of Columbia as chairman, shall compose a Board of Personal Tax Appeals, and as such Board of Personal Tax Appeals shall convene in a room, to be provided therefor by the said assessor, on the first Monday of September each year and shall continue in session to and including the first Monday of March of the following year, or until such time as their work shall have been completed, and public notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given by advertisement for two consecutive secular days in two daily newspapers published in the District of Columbia. All appeals to said board shall be made within thirty days after notice of fixing an assessment. It shall be the duty of the Board of Personal Tax Appeals to hear all appeals made by any person or persons against the assessments made by the Board of Personal Tax Appraisers and to impartially equalize the value of said personal property as a basis for assessment. Any four members of the said board shall constitute a quorum for business, and in the absence of the assessor a temporary chairman shall be selected. They shall be empowered to diminish or increase such assessments as they may believe to have been returned at other than their true value to such amount as, in their opinion, may be the value thereof, and the action of said board in such cases shall be final. Said board of assistant assessors shall also perform such other official duties as may be required of them by the assessor of the District of Columbia: Provided, That in case the personal tax appraisers shall fail to complete any of the duties in sections 47-1201 to 47-1214, 47-1301 to 47-1305, 47-1701 to 47-1709 to be by them performed within the time provided therefor the taxation provided by this section shall not by reason thereof be invalid; but such appraisers shall proceed with all reasonable diligence to complete such duties, and their acts shall be valid as if performed within the time fixed therefor. If, at any time within any current year, property subject to taxation under the provisions of sections 47-1201 to 47-1214, 47-1301 to 47-1305, 47-1701 to 47-1709 shall have been omitted from assessment, said Board of Personal Tax Appraisers shall immediately proceed to assess the same for the then current year, giving notice in writing to the persons or corporations so assessed, who shall have a right of appeal within ten days from date of said notice. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 620, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 11; July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 834, ch. 759, § 7; Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1223, ch. 259, § 7.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1926 amendment added the second sentence of the first paragraph.

The 1929 amendment changed the time for convening and continuing in session in the first paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NOTICE

The statute provides that notice must be given and the opportunity presented to be heard in respect to the assessment of omitted property. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

The admission of the District that no such notice of the assessments was ever given to the company is fatal to the entire claim of the District. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

REASSESSMENT

It is not the policy of the law to favor reassessments. Unless the taxing statute expressly provides for a reassessment, such action is void. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

When taxpayer complied with the duty and made a true statement of his investment in marginal stocks according to the legal requirement and was taxed on the item, the tax authorities could not reassess on a new basis on the theory that the shares of stock were omitted property, since omitted property means property which is not assessed at all and not property which is merely undervalued. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

§ 47-1214 [20: 770]. Clerk of Board of Personal Tax Appraisers—Appointment.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed to appoint a clerk and assistant clerk to said Board of Personal Tax Appraisers, and three inspectors, all of whom shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the chairman of said board. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 19; Mar. 4, 1923, 42 Stat. 1488, ch. 265.)

AMENDMENT

The law as enacted provided for salaries for these employees. Their salaries are now governed by the Classification Act of 1923.

Chapter 13.—ENFORCEMENT OF PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX BY DISTRAINT OR LEVY

Sec.

- 47-1301. Distraint of property for nonpayment of taxes—Sale—Disposition of surplus.
 47-1302. Sale of distrained goods for nonpayment of taxes.
 47-1303. Penalties.
 47-1304. Remedies for collection of intangible tax—Common law and equitable remedies available for collection of all taxes and assessments.
 47-1305. Sale of real estate to satisfy personal tax.

§ 47-1301 [20: 771]. Distraint of property for nonpayment of taxes—Sale—Disposition of surplus.

When the taxes on personal property due and payable in each year shall not be paid as provided in section 47-1209, then and in that event the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, or his deputy, may distrain sufficient goods and chattels found within the District of Columbia and belonging to the person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee charged with such tax to pay the taxes remaining due, under the provisions of this law, from such person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee, together with the penalty thereon and the costs that may accrue; and for want of such goods and chattels said collector of taxes may levy upon and sell at auction the estate and interest of such person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee in any parcel of land in said District; and in the case of the levy on any estate or interest in land the proceedings subsequent to sale thereof shall be the same as provided by law in the case of sales for arrears of taxes against real estate; and in the case of distraint of personal property or the levy upon real estate as aforesaid the collector of taxes shall immediately proceed to advertise the same by public notice to be posted in the office of said collector and by advertisement, three times within one week, in one or more of the daily newspapers published in said District, stating the time when and the place where such property shall be sold, the last publication to be at least six days before the date of sale, and if the said taxes and penalty thereon, and the costs and expenses which shall have accrued thereon, shall not be paid before the day fixed for such sale, which shall not be less than ten days after said levy or taking of said property, the collector shall proceed to sell at public auction, such property, or so much thereof as may be needed to pay such taxes, penalty, and accrued costs and expenses of such distraint and sale. Said collector shall report in detail, in writing, every distraint and sale of personal property to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their successors in office, and his accounts in respect to every such distraint or sale shall forthwith be submitted to the auditor of the District of Columbia and be audited by him. Any surplus resulting from such sale over and above such taxes, costs, and expenses shall be paid into the Treasury, and upon being claimed by the owner or owners of the goods and chattels aforesaid shall be paid to him or them upon the certificate of the collector of taxes stating in full the amount of such excess. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 621, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 12.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This chapter is not repealed by the provisions of chapter 14 of this title, § 47-1409.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

There is no provision in the statute for a lien on personal property; there is no provision of the statute to assess taxes on personal property when the owner is unknown; and there is no provision for the assessing of personal property taxes after the end of the current fiscal year. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

PROPERTY TO BE DISTRAINED

Any goods and chattels of the person charged with the taxes may be distrained. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47-1302 [20: 772]. Sale of distrained goods for nonpayment of taxes.

When the collector of taxes shall distrain any goods and chattels in order to enforce payment of such taxes, the goods and chattels so seized shall be kept in a safe and convenient place until the day of the sale thereof; and the sale of said goods and chattels shall be at public auction, at such place as the collector of taxes may designate: Provided, however, That no such goods and chattels shall be sold upon any bid not sufficient to meet the amount of tax, penalty, and costs; but in case the highest bid therefor is not sufficient to meet the amount of tax, penalty, and costs thereon, said property thereupon shall be bid off by the said collector of taxes in the name of and by the District of Columbia, and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may sell the same at private sale to satisfy the tax penalty, and cost thereafter without further notice. (Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

§ 47-1303 [20: 773]. Penalties.

Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of sections 47-1201 to 47-1214, 47-1301 to 47-1305, and 47-1701 to 47-1709 shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding five hundred dollars for each offense, said penalty to be imposed, upon conviction in the police court of the District of Columbia, as other fines and penalties are imposed, and said court is hereby invested with jurisdiction thereof; and in default of the payment of said penalty the person or persons so convicted shall be imprisoned, in the discretion of the court, not exceeding six months. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 18.)

CROSS REFERENCE

False returns, penalties, § 47-1203.

§ 47-1304 [20: 774]. Remedies for collection of intangible tax—Common-law and equitable remedies available for collection of all taxes and assessments.

The remedies provided in sections 47-1201 to 47-1214, 47-1301 to 47-1305, 47-1701 to 47-1709 for the collection of taxes on tangible personal property, shall be available also for the collection of taxes on intangible property.

In addition to the statutory remedies, all common-law and all equitable remedies shall also be available, either separately or concurrently with statutory remedies, as may be deemed advisable, for the collection of all taxes and special assessments of any kind whatsoever. (Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1226, ch. 259, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The first paragraph of this section will become obsolete when all intangible personal property taxes accrued or due prior to July 1, 1939, are collected. See note to § 47-1201. It is retained here because it indicates the law applicable to the collection of such prior taxes.

§ 47-1305 [20: 775]. Sale of real estate to satisfy personal tax.

Where real estate is levied upon for the nonpayment of personal taxes of any kind, and the best price offered at an auction sale is not sufficient to pay taxes, interest, and penalties, said real estate may be sold under decree of the equity court as provided by law. (Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1226, ch. 259, § 2.)

- 47-1410. Collection of personal property taxes—Failure to file return—Penalty.
- 47-1411. Collection of personal property taxes—Definitions.
- 47-1412. Collection of personal property taxes—Secrecy of returns.

§ 47-1401 [20: 965]. Examinations and hearings by assessor—Examination of books—Proceedings brought in police court.

The assessor of the District of Columbia or any person designated by him for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return of personal property, tangible or intangible, for taxation or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear before him and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the assessor, or assistant assessor, shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person, having been personally summoned, shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then in that event the assessor, or any assistant assessor, may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witness may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $300. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the police court of the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title I, § 1; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 356, ch. 223, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The first sentence of the act of August 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690 (cited to the text) provided that "This Act divided into titles and sections may be cited as the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937." That act is set forth in §§ 40-101 to 40-105, 47-1401 to 47-1412, 47-1601 to 47-1629, 47-1801 to 47-1808, 47-1901 to 47-1903, 47-1905, 47-1907, 47-1908, 47-1911, 47-2501 to 47-2504.

The first sentence of the act of July 26, 1939 (53 Stat. 1085-1119, ch. 367) provided that "This Act divided into titles and sections may be cited as the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1939." That act is set forth in sections 11-332, 47-134, 47-1204, 47-1211, 47-1501 to 47-1543, 47-1601 to 47-1629, 47-1701, 47-2402, 47-2403, 47-2405, 47-2412, 47-2501, 47-2503.

Section 47-2501 (part of the revenue acts of 1937 and 1939) provides for the advancement of funds on requisition of commissioners, notwithstanding provisions of the District Appropriation Act of June 29, 1922.

Section 47-2502 gives the Commissioner authority to make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the revenue acts of 1937 and 1939.

Section 47-2503 provides as follows: "If any provision of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937 and the Revenue Act of 1939, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby."

AMENDMENT

The 1938 amendment added the words "of any person" after the word "memoranda" the first time it appears, and the last two sentences.

CROSS REFERENCE

Provisions of this chapter apply to collection of income taxes, § 47-1527.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

In exercising its power to legislate for the District of Columbia, Congress acts as a legislature of national character and is not subject to constitutional limitations imposed on State legislatures, and, therefore, this statute (50 Stat. 673, 688) is not invalid as a violation of the commerce clause or the 14th amendment. Neild v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 306, 110 Fed. (2d) 246).

This statute (50 Stat. 673, 688) is an exercise of the power of Congress to legislate for the District of Columbia and not an exercise of its power to regulate commerce, and, therefore, is not invalid on the theory that the burden imposed must be uniform throughout the Nation, or that the exercise of this power is improvident. Neild v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 306, 110 Fed. (2d) 246).

LIEN FOR DELINQUENT TAXES

Congress took notice of the problem of taxes on personality and among other things provided a method for the obtainment of a lien against a taxpayer delinquent in the payment of personal property taxes. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

POWER TO TAX

The delegation to Congress of power to exercise exclusive legislation in all cases over the District of Columbia, includes the power to tax. Neild v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 306, 110 Fed. (2d) 246).

§ 47-1402 [20: 965a]. Collection of personal property taxes—Neglect or refusal to pay, collection by distraint—Levy—Public notice of intended sale—Sale to be public—Report—Disposition of surplus above taxes.

If any person liable to pay any personal property tax to the District of Columbia neglects or refuses to pay the same within ten days after notice and demand, it shall be lawful for the collector of taxes for the District of Columbia, or any person designated by him, to collect the said taxes, with interest and penalties thereon, by distraint and sale in the manner hereinafter provided, of the goods, chattels, or effects, including stocks, securities, bank accounts, evidences of debt, and credits of the person delinquent as aforesaid. In case of such neglect or refusal of the person delinquent as aforesaid the collector, or the person designated by him, may levy upon all such property and rights to such property belonging to such person for the payment of the sum due with interest and penalties thereon and the costs that may accrue and the collector of taxes shall immediately proceed to advertise the same by public notice to be posted in the office of said collector and by advertisement three times in one week in one or more daily newspapers in said District, stating the time when and the place where such property shall be sold, the last publication to be at least six days before the date of sale and if the said taxes, with interest and penalties thereon, and the costs and expenses which shall have accrued thereon, shall not be paid before the date fixed for such sale, which shall not be less than ten days after said levy or taking of said property, the collector shall proceed to sell at public auction such property or interest therein or so much thereof as may be needed to pay such taxes, interest, penalties, and accrued costs and expenses of such distraint and sale. Said collector shall report in detail in writing every distraint and sale of personal property to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and his accounts in respect of every such distraint or sale shall forthwith be submitted to the auditor of the District of Columbia and shall be audited by him. Any surplus resulting from such sale over and above such taxes, interest, penalties, costs, and expenses shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, and upon being claimed by the owner or owners of the property aforesaid shall be paid to him or them by the accounting officers of said District upon the certificate of the collector of taxes stating in full the amount of such excess. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title I, § 2.)

§ 47-1408 [20: 965g]. Collection of personal property taxes—Time limitations—False returns—Delinquency.

Taxes on property reported in any return filed by a taxpayer shall be assessed within two years after the filing of such return; and such taxes may be collected by distraint or by proceeding in court within three years after the date of the assessment of such taxes. In the case of a false or incorrect return, whether in good faith or otherwise, or of a failure to file a return within the time prescribed by law or of a failure to include taxable property or assets belonging to the taxpayer in any return filed by such taxpayer, whether in good faith or otherwise, the tax may be assessed at any time, and the tax may be collected by distraint or by proceeding in court within three years after the assessment of such tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title I, § 8; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 357, ch. 223, § 1 (b).)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 act provided, "The taxes to which this title relates shall be assessed within four years after such taxes became due and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of five years after such taxes became due. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, or of a failure to file a return within the time required by law, the tax may be assessed or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment at any time. Where the assessment of any tax to which this title relates has been made within such statutory period of limitation, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court only if begun within six years after the assessment of the tax."

§ 47-1410 [20: 965i]. Collection of personal property taxes—Failure to file return—Penalty.

Any person required to file a return or schedule, by the terms of an act entitled "An Act making appropriation[s] to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, and for other purposes," approved July 1, 1902, as amended, who shall fail or refuse to file the same within the time required by said Act as amended shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure or refusal and each and every day that such failure or refusal continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the police court of the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia. The penalty herein provided shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in said Act of July 1, 1902, as amended. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 10, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 357, ch. 223, § 1 (c).)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The Act of July 1, 1902, as amended, appears in this code as §§ 1-237, 7-211, 7-507, 11-206, 22-702, 22-1208, 26-318, 28-2701, 35-105, 43-1105, 47-119, 47-121, 47-211, 47-604, 47-605, 47-709, 47-801, 47-802 47-1001 to 47-1009, 47-1201, 47-1203, 47-1207 to 47-1209, 47-1212 to 47-1214, 47-1301 to 47-1303, 47-1701 to 47-1704, 47-1706 to 47-1709, 47-2301 to 47-2350.

§ 47-1411 [20: 965j]. Collection of personal property taxes—Definitions.

As used in this chapter—

(a) The term "person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation (domestic or foreign), trust, trustee, estate, or receiver.

(b) The term "return" means any return required to be filed by said sections of this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 11, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 357, ch. 223, § 1 (c).)

§ 47-1412 [20: 965k]. Collection of personal property taxes—Secrecy of returns.

Except in accordance with proper judicial order and as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or any persons having an administrative duty under this title to divulge or make known in any manner any information contained in any return required under this chapter. The persons charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required to produce any of them in any action or proceeding in any court except on behalf of the United States or the District of Columbia or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter, when the returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which events the court may require the production of and may admit in evidence so much of such returns or the facts shown thereby as are pertinent to the action or proceeding, and no more. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or his duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return filed by him in connection with his tax, nor prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants of the return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted for the collection of a tax or penalty and failure to file any return or schedule required by law. Any violator of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the punishment provided by section 47-1410 of this title. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 12, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 357, ch. 223, § 1 (c).)

§ 47-1501 [20: 980]. Application of law.

The provisions of this chapter shall apply to the taxable year 1939 and succeeding taxable years, except that in the case of a taxable year beginning in 1938 and ending in 1939 the income taxable under said sections shall be that fraction of the income for the entire fiscal year equal to the number of days remaining in the fiscal year after January 1, 1939, divided by three hundred and sixty-five: Provided, however, That if the taxpayer's records properly reflect the income for that part of the fiscal year falling in the calendar year 1939, then the portion of the fiscal year's income taxable hereunder shall be the portion received or accrued during the calendar year 1939. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1087, ch. 367, title II, § 1.)

§ 47-1502 [20: 980a]. Imposition of tax rate—Individuals—Corporations—Taxable income—Exemptions.

(a) Tax on individuals.—There is hereby levied for each taxable year upon the taxable income of every individual domiciled in the District of Columbia on the last day of the taxable year a tax at the following rates:

One per centum on the first $5,000 of taxable income.

One and one-half per centum on the next $5,000 of taxable income.

Two per centum on the next $5,000 of taxable income.

Two and one-half per centum on the next $5,000 of taxable income.

Three per centum on the taxable income in excess of $20,000.

(b) Tax on corporations.—There is hereby levied for each taxable year upon the taxable income from District of Columbia sources of every corporation, whether domestic or foreign (except those organizations expressly exempt under paragraph (d) of this section), a tax at the rate of 5 per centum thereof.

(c) Definition of "taxable income."—As used in this section, the term "taxable income" means the amount of the net income in excess of the credits against net income provided in section 47-1509.

(d) Exemptions from tax.—There shall be exempt from taxation under this chapter the following organizations: Corporations, including any community chest, fund, foundation, cemetery association, teachers' retirement fund association, church, or club, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, educational, or social purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; and labor organizations, trade associations, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, citizens' associations, or organizations, not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, farmers' associations organized and operated on a co-operative basis exempt from income tax under section 101 (12) and (13) of the Internal Revenue Code (U. S. C., title 26, § 101); banks, insurance companies; building and loan associations, and companies, incorporated or otherwise, which guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, all of which pay taxes upon gross premiums or earnings under existing laws of the District of Columbia; voluntary employees' beneficiary associations providing for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such association or their dependents, if (1) no part of their net earnings inures (other than such payments) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and (2) 85 per centum or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of making such payments and meeting expenses; and corporations organized under Act of Congress, if such corporations are instrumentalities of the United States. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1087, ch. 367, title II, § 2; July 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 734, ch. 524, title II.)

AMENDMENT

The 1940 amendment deleted a comma following the word "cemetery" and added the words "farmers' associations organized and operated on a co-operative basis exempt from income tax under section 101 (12) and (13) of the Internal Revenue Code" following the word "individual" the second time said word appears.

§ 47-1503 [20: 980b]. Net income.

The term "net income" means the gross income of a taxpayer less the deductions allowed by this chapter. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1088, ch. 367, title II, § 3.)

§ 47-1504 [20: 980c]. Gross income and exclusions therefrom—Of individuals—Of corporations.

(a) Of individuals.—The words "gross income," as used in this chapter include gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal services of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, including salaries, wages, and compensation paid by the United States to its officers and employees to the extent the same is not immune from taxation under the Constitution, or income derived from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, or sales or dealings in property, whether real or personal, growing out of the ownership, or use of, or interest in, such property; also from rent, royalties, interest, dividends, securities, or transactions of any business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits, and income derived from any source whatever.

(b) Of corporations.—In the case of any corporation, gross income includes only the gross income from sources within the District of Columbia. The proper apportionment and allocation of income with respect to sources of income within and without the District may be determined by processes or formulas of general apportionment under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner.

(c) Exclusions from gross income.—The following items shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from taxation under this chapter:

(1) Life insurance.—Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or otherwise (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income).

(2) Annuities, and so forth.—Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts and other than amounts received as annuities) under a life insurance or endowment contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the taxable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year) then the excess shall be included in gross income. Amounts received as an annuity under an annuity or endowment contract shall be included in gross income; except that there shall be excluded from gross income the excess of the amount received in the taxable year over an amount equal to 3 per centum of the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity (whether or not paid during such year), until the aggregate amount excluded from gross income under this chapter in respect to such annuity equals the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be exempt from taxation under paragraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) Gifts, bequests, and devises.—The value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance (but the income from such property shall be included in gross income).

(4) Tax-free interest.—Interest upon (A) the obligations of a State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; or (B) obligations of a corporation organized under Act of Congress, if such corporation is an instrumentality of the United States; or (C) the obligations of the United States or its possessions.

(5) Compensation for injuries or sickness.—Amounts received, through accident or health insurance or under Workmen's Compensation Acts, as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, plus the amount of any damages received, whether by suit or agreement on account of such injuries or sickness.

(6) Ministers.—The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation.

(7) Income exempt under treaty.—Income of any kind to the extent required by any treaty obligation of the United States.

(8) Dividends from China trade act corporations.—In the case of a person, amounts distributed as dividends to or for his benefit by a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, if, at the time of such distribution, he is a resident of China, and the equitable right to the income of the shares of stock of the corporation is in good faith vested in him.

(9) Income of foreign governments.

(10) Payments of benefits made to or on account of a beneficiary under any of the laws relating to veterans. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1088, ch. 367, title II, § 4; Mar. 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 39, ch. 37, § 4.)

§ 47-1505 [20: 980d]. Deductions from gross income.

(a) Items of deduction.—In computing net income there shall be allowed as deductions:

(1) Expenses.—All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered; traveling expenses (including the entire amount expended for meals and lodging) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity.

(2) Interest.—All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness.

(3) Taxes.—Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year, except—

(A) income taxes;

(B) estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes;

(C) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed; but this paragraph shall not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of such taxes as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges; and

(D) taxes paid to any State or Territory on property, business, or occupation the income from which is not taxable under this chapter;

(4) Losses in trade or business.—Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, if incurred in trade or business, the income from which is subject to taxation under this chapter.

(5) Losses in transactions for profit.—Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, if incurred in any transaction entered into for profit which would be subject to taxation under this chapter, though not connected with the trade or business.

(6) Intercompany dividends.—In the case of a corporation, the amount received as dividends from a corporation which is subject to taxation under this chapter.

(7) Bad debts.—Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year or, in the discretion of the assessor, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts; and when satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the assessor may allow such debt, in an amount not in excess of the part charged off within the taxable year, as a deduction.

(8) Insurance premiums.—All fire, tornado, and casualty insurance premiums paid during the taxable year in connection with property held for investment or business.

(9) Depreciation.—A reasonable allowance for exhaustion, wear, and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence; and including in the case of natural resources allowances for depletion as permitted by reasonable rules and regulations which the Commissioners are hereby authorized to promulgate.

(10) Charitable contributions.—Contributions or gifts actually paid within the taxable year to or for the use of any corporation, or trust, or community fund, or foundation, maintaining activities in the District of Columbia and organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, military, or educational purposes, no part of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual: Provided, That such deductions shall be allowed only in an amount which in all of the above cases combined does not exceed 15 per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of this subparagraph.

(11) Wagering losses.—Losses from wagering transactions shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such transactions.

(b) Allocation of deductions.—In the case of a taxpayer, other than an individual, the deductions allowed in this section shall be allowed only for and to the extent that they are connected with income arising from sources within the District and taxable under this title to a nonresident taxpayer; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources of income within and without the District shall be determined by processes or formulas of general apportionment under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioners. The so-called charitable contribution deduction allowed by subparagraph (10) of paragraph (a) of this section shall be allowed whether or not connected with income from sources within the District.

(c) Corporations to file return of total income.—A corporation shall receive the benefits of the deductions allowed to it under this chapter only by filing or causing to be filed with the assessor a true and accurate return of its total income received from all sources, whether within or without the District. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1039, ch. 367, title II, § 5.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The word "which" has been inserted in the paragraph headed "Losses in transactions for profit" to make it correspond to the preceding paragraph.

§ 47-1506 [20: 980e]. Gains or losses from sale of assets.

(a) No gain or loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset shall be recognized in the computation of net income under this chapter. For the purposes of this chapter, "capital assets" means property held by the taxpayer for more than two years (whether or not connected with his trade or business) but does not include stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of a taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

(b) Gains or losses from the sale or exchange of property other than a capital asset shall be treated in the same manner as other income or deductible losses, and the basis for computing such gain or loss shall be the cost of such property or, if acquired by some means other than purchase, the fair market value thereof at the date of acquisition. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1091, ch. 367, title II, § 6.)

§ 47-1507 [20: 980f]. Exchanges.

Where property is exchanged for other property, the property received in exchange for the purpose of determining the gain or loss shall be treated as the equivalent of cash to the amount of its fair market value; but when in connection with the reorganization, merger, or consolidation of a corporation a taxpayer receives, in place of stock or securities owned by him, new stock or securities of the reorganized, merged, or consolidated corporation, no gain or loss shall be deemed to occur from the exchange until the new stock or securities are sold or realized upon and the gain or loss is definitely ascertained, until which time the new stock or securities received shall be treated as taking the place of the stock and securities exchanged; provided such reorganization, merger, or consolidation is a "reorganization" within the meaning of the term "reorganization" as defined in section 112 (g) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1936. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1091, ch. 367, title II, § 7.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

Section 112 (g) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 is found as § 112 (g) of the Internal Revenue Code, U. S. C., title 26, § 112 (g).

§ 47-1508 [20: 980g]. Deductions not allowed.

(a) General rule.—In computing net income no deductions shall be allowed in any case in respect to—

- (1) personal, living, or family expenses;
- (2) any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments, made to increase the value of any property or estate;
- (3) any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; and
- (4) premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy.

(b) Holders of life or terminable interest.—Amounts paid under the laws of any State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country as income to the holder of a life or terminable interest acquired by gift, bequest, or inheritance shall not be reduced or diminished by any deduction for shrinkage (by whatever name called) in the value of such interest due to the lapse of time, nor by any deduction allowed by this chapter (except the deductions provided for in subsections

(l) and (m) of section 23 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 as amended) for the purpose of computing the net income of an estate or trust but not allowed under the laws of such State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country for the purpose of computing the income to which such holder is entitled. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1091, ch. 367, title II, § 8.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The act of July 26, 1939, read "subsections (l) and (m) of section 23 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1926 as amended." The Revenue Act of 1926 contained no § 23. The Federal Revenue Act of 1936 does contain a § 23 which contains subsections (l) and (m) and these subsections contain subject matter which is pertinent. See U. S. C., title 26, § 23, Internal Revenue Code. The various Federal Revenue Acts from 1928 on contained a § 23, similar to that found in the 1936 act. For these reasons the words "Act of 1926" have been changed to read "Act of 1936."

CROSS REFERENCE

Allowance for depreciation, see § 47-1505 (9).

§ 47-1509 [20: 980h]. Personal exemptions and credit for dependents.

(a) Credits.—There shall be allowed to individuals the following credits against net income:

(1) Personal exemption.—In the case of a single person or married person not living with husband or wife, a personal exemption of $1,000; in the case of the head of a family or a married person living with husband or wife, a personal exemption of $2,500; a husband and wife living together shall receive but one personal exemption, the amount of such personal exemption shall be $2,500. If such husband and wife make separate returns the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

(2) Credit for dependents.—$400 for each person (other than husband or wife) dependent upon and receiving his chief support from the taxpayer if such dependent person is under eighteen years of age or is incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective.

(b) Change of status.—If the status of the taxpayer, insofar as it affects personal exemption or credit for dependents, changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional portion of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it shall be considered as a month.

(c) In return for fractional part of year.—In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, the personal exemption and credit for dependents shall be reduced respectively to amounts which bear the same ratio to the full credits provided as the number of months in the period for which the return is made bears to twelve months. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1092, ch. 367, title II, § 9.)

§ 47-1510 [20: 980i]. Accounting periods.

The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the assessor does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in section 47-1543 or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year. If the taxpayer makes a Federal income-tax return, his income shall be computed, for the purposes of this title on the basis of the same calendar or fiscal year as in such Federal income-tax return. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1092, ch. 367, title II, § 10.)

§ 47-1511 [20: 980j]. Period in which items of gross income included.

The amount of all items of gross income shall be included in the gross income for the taxable year in which received by the taxpayer unless, under methods of accounting permitted under section 47-1510, any such amounts are to be properly accounted for as of a different period. In the case of the death of a taxpayer there shall be included, in computing net income for the taxable period in which falls the date of his death, amounts accrued up to the date of his death if not otherwise properly includible in respect to such period or a prior period. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1092, ch. 367, title II, § 11.)

§ 47-1512 [20: 980k]. Period for which deductions and credits taken.

The deductions and credits provided for in this chapter shall be taken for the taxable year in which "paid or accrued" or "paid or incurred," dependent upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed unless, in order to clearly reflect the income, the deductions or credits should be taken as of a different period. In the case of the death of a taxpayer there shall be allowed as deductions and credits for the taxable period in which falls the date of his death, amounts accrued up to the date of his death if not otherwise properly allowable in respect to such period or a prior period. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1093, ch. 367, title II, § 12.)

§ 47-1513 [20: 980l]. Instalment basis.

(a) Dealers in personal property.—Under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, a person who regularly sells or otherwise disposes of personal property on the instalment plan may return as income therefrom in any taxable year that proportion of the instalment payments actually received in that year which the gross profit realized or to be realized when payment is completed bears to the total contract price.

(b) Sales of realty and casual sales of personalty.—In the case of (1) a casual sale or other casual disposition of personal property (other than property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year) for a price exceeding $1,000, or (2) of a sale or other disposition of real property, if in either case the initial payments do not exceed 30 per centum of the selling price, the income may, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, be returned on the basis and in the manner above prescribed in this section. As used in this section the term "initial payments" means the payments received in cash or property other than evidences of indebtedness of the purchaser during the taxable period in which the sale or other disposition is made.

(c) Change from accrual to instalment basis.—If a taxpayer entitled to the benefits of subsection (a) elects for any taxable year to report his net income on the instalment basis, then in computing his income for the year of change or any subsequent year, amounts actually received during any such year on account of sales or other disposition of property made in any prior year shall not be excluded.

(d) Gain or loss upon disposition of instalment obligations.—If an instalment obligation is satisfied at other than its face value or distributed, transmitted, sold, or otherwise disposed of, gain or loss shall result to the extent of the difference between the basis of the obligation and (1) in the case of satisfaction at other than face value or a sale or exchange—the amount realized, or (2) in case of a distribution, transmission, or disposition otherwise than by sale or exchange—the fair market value of the obligation at the time of such distribution, transmission, or disposition. Any gain or loss so resulting shall be considered as resulting from the sale or exchange of the property in respect to which the instalment obligation was received. The basis of the obligation shall be the excess of the face value of the obligation over an amount equal to the income which would be returnable were the obligation satisfied in full. This paragraph shall not apply to the transmission at death of instalment obligations if there is filed with the assessor, at such time as he may by regulation prescribe, a bond in such amount and with such sureties as he may deem necessary, conditioned upon the return as income, by the person receiving any payment in such obligations, of the same proportion of such payment as would be returnable as income by the decedent if he had lived and had received such payment. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1093, ch. 367, title II, § 13.)

§ 47-1514 [20: 980m]. Inventories.

Whenever in the opinion of the assessor the use of inventories is necessary in order clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the assessor may prescribe as conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and as most clearly reflecting the income. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1094, ch. 367, title II, § 14.)

§ 47-1515 [20: 980n]. Individual returns—Husband and wife—Persons under disability—Fiduciaries.

(a) Requirement.—The following individuals shall each make under oath a return stating specifically the items of his gross income and the deductions and credits allowed under this chapter and such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter as the Commissioners may by regulations prescribe:

(1) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(2) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife; and

(3) Every individual having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income.

(b) Husband and wife.—If a husband and wife living together have an aggregate net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, or an aggregate gross income for such year of $5,000 or over—

(1) Each shall make a return, or

(2) The income of each shall be included in a single joint return, in which case the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income.

(c) Persons under disability.—If the taxpayer is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by the guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayer.

(d) Fiduciaries.—For returns to be made by fiduciaries, see section 47-1523. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1094, ch. 367, title II, § 15.)

§ 47-1516 [20: 980o]. Corporation returns.

Every corporation not expressly exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter shall make a return and pay a filing fee of $25 which shall be credited against the tax. Such returns shall state specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions and credits allowed by this chapter, and such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter as the Commissioners may by regulations prescribe. The return shall be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer, and by the treasurer, assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. In cases where receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees are operating the property or business of corporations, such receivers, trustees, or assignees shall make returns for such corporations in the same manner and form as corporations are required to make returns. Any tax due on the basis of such returns made by receivers, trustees, or assignees shall be collected in the same manner as if collected from the corporations of whose business or property they have custody and control. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1095, ch. 367, title II, § 16.)

§ 47-1517 [20: 980p]. Taxpayer to make return whether return form is sent or not.

Blank forms of returns for income shall be supplied by the assessor. It shall be the duty of the assessor to obtain an income tax return from every taxpayer who is liable under the law to file such return; but this duty shall in no manner diminish the obligation of the taxpayer to file a return without being called upon to do so. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1095, ch. 367, title II, § 17.)

§ 47-1518 [20: 980q]. Time for filing returns.

All returns of income for the preceding taxable year shall be made to the assessor on or before the 15th day of April in each year, except that such returns, if made on the basis of a fiscal year shall be made on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of such fiscal year, unless such fiscal year has expired in the calendar year 1939 prior to the approval of this chapter, in which event returns shall be made on or before the 15th day of the third month following the approval of this chapter. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1095, ch. 367, title II, § 18; Mar. 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 38, ch. 37, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1940 amendment deleted the word "March" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "April," and deleted the word "third" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "fourth" as it now appears.

§ 47-1519 [20: 980r]. Extension of time for filing returns.

The assessor may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing income returns whenever in his judgment good cause exists and shall keep a record of every such extension. Except in case of a taxpayer who is abroad, no such extension shall be granted for more than six months, and in no case for more than one year. In the event time for filing a return is deferred, the taxpayer is hereby required to pay, as a part of the tax, an amount equal to 6 per centum per annum on the tax ultimately assessed from the time the return was due until it is actually filed in the office of the assessor. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1095, ch. 367, title II, § 19.)

§ 47-1520 [20: 980s]. Allocation of income and deductions.

In any of two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not incorporated, whether or not organized in the District of Columbia, and whether or not affiliated) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the assessor is authorized to distribute, apportion, or allocate gross income or deductions between or among such organizations, trades, or businesses, if he determines that such distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any of such organizations, trades, or businesses. The provisions of this section shall apply, but shall not be limited in application to any case of a common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act (U. S. C., title 49, §§ 1-27 and jointly owned or controlled directly or indirectly by two or more common carriers by railroad subject to said act. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1095, ch. 367, title II, § 20.)

§ 47-1521 [20: 980t]. Publicity of returns—Statistics—Penalties.

(a) Secrecy of returns.—Except to any official of the District, having a right thereto in his official capacity, it shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the District to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of income or any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return under this chapter.

(b) When copies may be furnished.—Neither the original nor a copy of the return desired for use in litigations in court shall be furnished where the District of Columbia is not interested in the result whether or not the request is contained in an order of the court: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the furnishing to a taxpayer of a copy of his return upon the payment of a fee of $1.

(c) Reciprocal exchange of information with the United States and the several States.—Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the assessor may permit the proper officer of the United States or of any State imposing an income tax or his authorized representative to inspect income tax returns, file with the assessor or may furnish to such officer or representative a copy of any such income tax returns provided the United States or such State grant substantially similar privileges to the assessor or his representative, or to the proper officer of the District charged with the administration of this chapter.

(d) Publication of statistics.—Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports and the items thereof, or of the publication of delinquent lists showing the names of taxpayers who have failed to pay their taxes at the time and in the manner provided by law, together with any relevant information which in the opinion of the assessor may assist in the collection of such delinquent taxes.

(e) Penalties for violation of this section.—Any offense against the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1096, ch. 367, title II, § 21; Aug. 7, 1939, 53 Stat. 1248, ch. 546.)

AMENDMENT

The August 7, 1939, amendment amended paragraph (c) by inserting the words "the United States or" both times they now appear, the word "such" in the phrase "any such income tax returns" as it now appears and added the letter "s" to word "return" in said phrase.

§ 47-1522 [20: 980u]. Returns to be preserved.

Reports and returns received by the assessor under the provisions of this chapter shall be preserved for six years and thereafter until the assessor orders them to be destroyed. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1096, ch. 367, title II, § 22.)

§ 47-1523 [20: 980v]. Fiduciary returns.

(a) Requirement of return.—Every fiduciary (except a receiver appointed by authority of law in possession of part only of the property of an individual) shall make under oath a return for any of the following individuals, estates, or trusts for which he acts, stating specifically the items of gross income thereof and the deductions and credits allowed under this chapter and such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter as the Commissioners may by regulations prescribe:

(1) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(2) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife;

(3) Every individual having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income;

(4) Every estate or trust the net income of which for the taxable year is $1,000 or over;

(5) Every estate or trust the gross income of which for the taxable year is $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of the net income.

(b) Joint fiduciaries.—Under such regulations as the Commissioners may prescribe, a return by one of two or more joint fiduciaries and filed in the office of the assessor shall be sufficient compliance with the above requirement. Such fiduciary shall make oath (1) that he has sufficient knowledge of the affairs of the individual, estate, or trust for which the return is made, to enable him to make the return, and (2) that the return is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, true and correct.

(c) Law applicable to fiduciaries.—Any fiduciary required to make a return under this chapter shall be subject to all the provisions of law which apply to individuals. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1096, ch. 367, title II, § 23.)

§ 47-1524 [20: 980w]. Estates and trusts—Application—Computation—Net income—Different taxable year—Revocable trusts—Income to grantor—Definitions—Intangibles.

(a) Application of tax.—The taxes imposed by this chapter upon individuals shall apply to the income of estates, or of any kind of property held in trust, including—

(1) income accumulated in trust for the benefit of unborn or unascertained person or persons with contingent interests, and income accumulated or held for future distribution under the terms of the will or trust;

(2) income which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct;

(3) income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate; and

(4) income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiaries or accumulated.

(b) Computation of tax.—The tax shall be computed upon the net income of the estate or trust, and shall be paid by the fiduciary, except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section (relating to revocable trusts) and paragraph (f) of this section (relating to income for benefit of the grantor).

(c) Net income.—The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual, except that—

(1) there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under subsection (2) of this section in the same or any succeeding taxable year;

(2) in the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary;

(3) there shall be allowed as a deduction (in lieu of the deductions for charitable contributions authorized by section 47-1505 (a) (10)) any part of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the will or deed creating a trust, is during the taxable year paid or permanently set aside for the purposes and in the manner provided in section 47-1505 (a) (10) or is to be used exclusively for the purposes enumerated in section 47-1505 (a) (10).

(d) Different taxable year.—If the taxable year of a beneficiary is different from that of the estate or trust, the amount which he is required, under subparagraph (1) of paragraph (c) of this section, to include in computing his net income, shall be based upon the income of the estate or trust for any taxable year of the estate or trust ending within or with his taxable year.

(e) Revocable trusts.—Where at any time the power to revest in the grantor title to any part of the corpus of the trust is vested—

(1) in the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom; or

(2) in any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom, then the income of such part of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor.

(f) Income for benefit of grantor.—Where any part of the income of a trust—

(1) is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be, held or accumulated for future distribution to the grantor; or

(2) may, in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income, be distributed to the grantor; or

(3) is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in section 47-1505 (a) (10), relating to the so-called "charitable contribution" deduction); then such part of the income of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor.

(g) Definition of "in discretion of grantor."—As used in this section, the term "in the discretion of the grantor" means "in the discretion of the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of the part of the income in question."

(h) Income from intangible personal property held by trust.—Income from intangible personal property held by any trust company or by any national bank situated in the District (with or without an individual trustee, resident or nonresident) in trust to pay the income for the time being to, or to accumulate or apply such income for the benefit of any nonresident of the District, shall not be taxable hereunder if—

(1) such beneficial owner or cestui que trust was at the time of the creation of the trust a nonresident of the District; and

(2) the testator, settlor, or grantor was also at the time of the creation of the trust a nonresident of the District. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1097, ch. 367, title II, § 24.)

§ 47-1525 [20: 980x]. Partnerships.

(a) Partners only taxable.—Individuals carrying on business in partnership shall be liable for income tax only in their individual capacity, and no income tax shall be assessable hereunder upon the net income of any partnership. All such income shall be assessable to the individual partners; it shall be reported by such partners as individuals upon their respective individual income returns; and it shall be taxed to them as individuals along with their other income at the rate and in the manner herein provided for the taxation of income received by individuals. There shall be included in computing the net income of each partner his distributive share, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the partnership for the taxable year; or if his net income for such taxable year is computed upon the basis of a period different from that upon the basis of which the net income of the partnership is computed, then his distributive share of the net income of the partnership for any accounting period of the partnership ending within the taxable year upon the basis of which the partner's net income is computed.

(b) Partnership return.—Every partnership shall make a return for each taxable year stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions allowed by this chapter, and shall include in the return the names and the addresses of the individuals who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed, and the amount of the distributive share of each individual. The return shall be sworn to by any one of the partners. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1099, ch. 367, title II, § 25.)

§ 47-1526 [20: 980y]. Payment of tax—Extension—Advance payments—Fractional part of cent—Collector.

(a) Time of payment.—One-half of the total amount of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid on the 15th day of April following the close of the calendar year and the remaining one-half of the tax shall be paid on the 15th day of October following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then one-half of the total amount of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year and the remaining one-half of said tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the tenth month following the close of the fiscal year, except a fiscal year which expired in the calendar year 1939 prior to the approval of this chapter, in which event the tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the third month following the approval of this chapter.

(b) Extension of time for payments.—At the request of the taxpayer the assessor may extend the time for payment by the taxpayer of the amount determined as the tax, for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax or an instalment thereof. In such case the amount in respect to which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(c) Voluntary advance payment.—A tax imposed by this chapter, or any instalment thereof, may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(d) Fractional part of cent.—In the payment of any tax under this title a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent.

(e) Payment to collector and receipts.—The tax provided under this chapter shall be collected by the collector and the revenues derived therefrom shall be turned over to the treasury of the United States for the credit to the District in the same manner as other revenues are turned over to the United States treasury for the credit to the District. The collector shall, upon written request, give to the person making payment of any income tax a full written or printed receipt therefor. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1099, ch. 367, title II, § 26; Mar. 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 39, ch. 37, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1940 amendment amended subsection (a) to read as it now appears. This subsection in the 1939 act provided that the entire tax be paid on the 15th day of March following the close of the calendar year or the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxpayer's fiscal year.

§ 47-1527 [20: 980z]. Tax a personal debt.

Every tax imposed by this chapter, and all increases, interest, and penalties thereof, shall become, from the time it is due and payable, a personal debt, from the person or persons liable to pay the same to the District, and shall be entitled to the same priority as other District taxes, and the taxes levied hereunder and the interest and penalties thereon shall be collected by the collector of taxes in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1100, ch. 367, title II, § 27.)

§ 47-1528 [20: 980aa]. Information from the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Commissioners relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1100, ch. 367, title II, § 28.)

Secrecy of information, § 47-2504.

§ 47-1529 [20: 980bb]. Assessor to administer.

(a) Duties of assessor.—The assessor is hereby required to administer the provisions of this chapter. The assessor shall prescribe forms identical with those utilized by the Federal Government, except to the extent required by differences between this chapter and its application and Federal Act and its application. He shall apply as far as practicable the administrative and judicial interpretations of the Federal income tax law so that computations of income for purposes of this chapter shall be, as nearly as practicable, identical with the calculations required for Federal income tax purposes. As soon as practicable after the return is filed the assessor shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax.

(b) Statements and special returns.—Every taxpayer liable to any tax imposed by this chapter shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Commissioners from time to time may prescribe. Whenever the assessor judges it necessary he may require any taxpayer, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as he deems sufficient to show whether or not such taxpayer is liable to tax under this chapter and the extent of such liability.

(c) Examination of books and witnesses.—The assessor, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed hereunder, or for the purpose of making an estimate of the taxable income of any taxpayer, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the assessor shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then, and in that event, the assessor may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to such summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $300. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the police court of the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia.

(d) Return by assessor.—If any person fails to make and file a return at the time prescribed by law or by regulations made under authority of law, or makes, wilfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the assessor shall make the return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise. Any return so made and subscribed by the assessor shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1100, ch. 367, title II, § 29.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47-1530 [20: 980cc]. Definition of "deficiency."

Definition of "deficiency."—As used in this chapter in respect of a tax imposed by this chapter "deficiency" means—

(1) the amount by which the tax imposed by this chapter exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return; but the amount so shown on the return shall first be increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or

(2) if no amount is shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return, or if no return is made by the taxpayer, then the amount by which the tax exceeds the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency; but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall first be decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1101, ch. 367, title II, § 30.)

§ 47-1531 [20: 980dd]. Determination and assessment of deficiency—Protest—Appeal.

If a deficiency in tax is determined by the assessor, the taxpayer shall be notified thereof and given a period of not less than thirty days, after such notice is sent by registered mail, in which to file a protest and show cause or reason why the deficiency should not be paid. Opportunity for hearing shall be granted by the assessor, and a final decision thereon shall be made as quickly as practicable. Any deficiency in tax then determined to be due shall be assessed and paid, together with any addition to the tax applicable thereto, within ten days after notice and demand by the collector. The taxpayer may appeal from such assessment to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47-2403, 47-2404, 47-2407 to 47-2412. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1101, ch. 367, title II, § 31.)

§ 47-1532 [20: 980ee]. Jeopardy assessment—Bond to stay collection.

(a) Authority for making.—If the assessor believes that the collection of any tax imposed by this chapter will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties, the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful.

(b) Bond to stay collection.—The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount, the collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for this section, such amount would be due. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1102, ch. 367, title II, § 32.)

§ 47-1533 [20: 980ff]. Period of limitation upon assessment and collection—Waiver—Collection after assessment.

(a) General rule.—Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section—

(1) The amount of income taxes imposed by this chapter shall be assessed within two years after the return is filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period.

(2) In the case of income received during the lifetime of a decedent, or by his estate during the period of administration, or by a corporation, the tax shall be assessed, and any proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such tax shall be begun, within twelve months after written request therefor (filed after the return is made) by the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary representing the estate of such decedent, or by the corporation, but not after the expiration of two years after the return is filed. This subparagraph shall not apply in the case of a corporation unless—

(A) such written request notifies the assessor that the corporation contemplates dissolution at or before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(B) the dissolution is in good faith begun before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(C) the dissolution is completed.

(3) If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 25 per centum of the amount of gross income stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time within five years after the return was filed.

(4) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3), a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(b) False return.—In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(c) Waiver.—Where before the expiration of the time prescribed in paragraph (a) for the assessment of the tax, both the assessor and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

(d) Collection after assessment.—Where the assessment of any income tax imposed by this chapter has been made within the period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, but only if begun (A) within three years after the assessment of the tax or (B) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the assessor and the taxpayer before the expiration of such three-year period. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1102, ch. 367, title II, § 33.)

§ 47-1534 [20: 980gg]. Refunds.

Except as otherwise provided in section 47-1531 of this title, where there has been an overpayment of any tax imposed by this chapter, the amount of such overpayment shall be refunded to the taxpayer. No such refund shall be allowed after two years from the time the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. The amount of the refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the two years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or, if no claim was filed, then during the two years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund. Every claim for refund must be in writing, under oath; must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded, and must be filed with the assessor.

If the assessor disallows any part of a claim for refund, he shall send to the taxpayer by registered mail a notice of the part of the claim so disallowed. Within ninety days after the mailing of such notice, the taxpayer may file an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47-2403, 47-2404, 47-2407 to 47-2412. The remedy provided to the taxpayer under this section shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law; but no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of such tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal in accordance with this section. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1103, ch. 367, title II, § 34.)

§ 47-1535 [20: 980hh]. Closing agreements.

The assessor is authorized to enter into an agreement with any person relating to the liability of such person (or of the person or estate for whom he acts) in respect of any income tax for any period ending prior to the date of the agreement. If such agreement is approved by the Commissioners within such time as may be stated in such agreement, or later agreed to, such agreement shall be final and conclusive and except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact—the case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon or the agreement modified; and in any suit or proceeding relating to the tax liability of the taxpayer such agreement shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1103, ch. 367, title II, § 35.)

§ 47-1536 [20: 980ii]. Compromises — Concealment of assets—Penalties.

(a) Authority to make.—Whenever in the opinion of the commissioners there shall arise with respect of any tax imposed under this chapter any doubt as to the liability of the taxpayer or the collectibility of the tax for any reason whatsoever the commissioners may compromise such tax.

(b) Concealment of assets.—Any person who, in connection with any compromise under this section or offer of such compromise or in connection with any closing agreement under this chapter or offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully (1) conceals from any officer or employee of the District of Columbia any property belonging to the estate of the taxpayer or other person liable with respect of the tax, or (2) receives, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record or makes under oath any false statement relating to the estate or the financial condition of the taxpayer or to the person liable in respect of the tax, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

(c) Of penalties.—The commissioners shall have the power for cause shown to compromise any penalty arising under this chapter. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1103, ch. 367, title II, § 36.)

§ 47-1537 [20: 980jj]. Failure to file return.

In case of any failure to make and file a return required by this chapter, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the commissioners in pursuance of law, 25 per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to reasonable cause and not due to wilful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax. The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 37.)

§ 47-1538 [20: 980kk]. Interest on deficiencies.

Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of 1 per centum per month from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in instalments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first instalment) to the date the deficiency is assessed. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 38.)

§ 47-1539 [20: 980ll]. Additions to the tax in case of deficiency—Penalty for fraud.

(a) Negligence.—If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

(b) Fraud.—If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be so assessed, collected, and paid. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 39.)

§ 47-1540 [20: 980mm]. Additions to the tax in case of nonpayment.

(a) Tax shown on return.—

(1) General rule.—Where the amount determined by the taxpayer as the tax imposed by this chapter, or any instalment thereof, or any part of such amount or instalment, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(2) If extension granted.—Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any instalment thereof, has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under section 47-1541 is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Deficiency.—Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith under section 47-1538, or under section 47-1539, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in section 47-1537 is not paid in full within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

(c) Fiduciaries.—For any period an estate is held by a fiduciary appointed by order of any court of competent jurisdiction or by will, there shall be collected interest at the rate of 1 per centum per month in lieu of the interest provided in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this section. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 40.)

§ 47-1541 [20: 980nn]. Time extended for payment of tax shown on return.

If the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any instalment thereof, is extended under the authority of section 47-1526 (c), there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of 1 per centum per month from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the expiration of the period of the extension. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1105, ch. 367, title II, § 41.)

§ 47-1542 [20: 980oo]. Penalties—"Person" defined.

(a) Negligence.—Any person required under this chapter to pay or collect any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply information, who fails to pay or collect such tax, to make such return, to keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations shall, upon conviction thereof (in addition to other penalties provided by law), be fined not more than $300 for each and every such failure, and each and every day that such failure continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this paragraph shall be brought in the police court of the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel or his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia.

(b) Wilful violation.—Any person required under this chapter to pay or collect any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of this chapter, who wilfully refuses to pay or collect such tax, to make such returns, to keep such records, or to supply such information, or who wilfully attempts in any manner to defeat or evade the tax imposed by this chapter shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with costs of prosecution.

(c) Definition of "person."—The term "person" as used in this section includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1105, ch. 367, title II, § 42.)

§ 47-1543 [20: 980pp]. Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter and unless otherwise required by the context—

(1) The word "person" means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, or a corporation.

(2) The word "taxpayer" means any person subject to a tax imposed by this title.

(3) The word "partnership" includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint adventure, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of this chapter, a trust or estate or a corporation; and the word "partner" includes a member in such a syndicate, group, pool, joint adventure, or organization.

(4) The word "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

(5) The word "domestic" when applied to a corporation other than an association, means created under the law of United States applicable to the District of Columbia; and when applied to an association or partnership means having the principal office or place of business within the District of Columbia.

(6) The word "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is not domestic.

(7) The word "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(8) The word "individual" means all natural persons, whether married or unmarried; and also all trusts, estates, and fiduciaries acting for other persons; it does not include corporations or partnerships acting for or in their own behalf.

(9) The words "taxable year" mean the calendar year or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this chapter. The term "taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this chapter, the period for which such return is made.

(10) The words "fiscal year" mean an accounting period of twelve months and ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(11) The words "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this chapter.

(12) The words "trade or business" include the engaging in or carrying on of any trade, business, profession, vocation or calling, or commercial activity in the District of Columbia; and include the performance of the functions of a public office.

(13) The word "stock" includes a share in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(14) The word "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(15) The words "United States" when used in a geographical sense include only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(16) The word "dividend" means any distribution made by a corporation out of its earnings or profits to its stockholders or members whether such distribution be made in cash, or any other property, other than stock of the same class in the corporation. It includes such portion of the assets of a corporation distributed at the time of dissolution as are in effect a distribution of earnings.

(17) The word "include," when used in a definition contained in this chapter, shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined.

(18) The word "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

(19) The word "District" means the District of Columbia.

(20) The word "assessor" means the assessor of the District of Columbia.

(21) The word "collector" means the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1106, ch. 367, title II, § 43.)

ARTICLE I—INHERITANCE TAX

§ 47-1601 [20: 969]. Imposition of tax.

Taxes shall be imposed in relation to estates of decedents, the shares of beneficiaries of such estates, and gifts as hereinafter provided:

(a) All real property and tangible and intangible personal property, or any interest therein, having its taxable situs in the District of Columbia, transferred from any person who may die seized or possessed thereof, either by will or by law, or by right of survivorship, and all such property, or interest therein, transferred by deed, grant, bargain, gift, or sale (except in cases of a bona fide purchase for full consideration in money or money's worth), made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the decedent, or made in contemplation of death, to or for the use of, in trust or otherwise (including property of which the decedent has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from such property or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom), to the father, mother, husband, wife, children by blood or legally adopted children, or any other lineal descendants or lineal ancestors of the decedent, shall be subject to a tax as follows: 1 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $5,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 2 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 3 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 4 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000 and not in excess of $1,000,000; 5 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $1,000,000.

(b) So much of said property so transferred to each of the brothers and sisters of the whole or half blood of the decedent shall be subject to a tax as follows: 3 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $2,000 and not in excess of $25,000; 4 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $25,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 6 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 8 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 10 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000.

(c) So much of said property so transferred to any person other than those included in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section and all firms, institutions, associations, and corporations shall be subject to a tax as follows: 5 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $1,000 and not in excess of $25,000; 7 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $25,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 9 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 12 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 15 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000.

(d) Executors, administrators, trustees, and other persons making distribution shall only be discharged from liability for the amount of such tax, with the payment of which they are charged, by paying the same as hereinafter described.

(e) Property transferred exclusively for public or municipal purposes, to the United States or the District of Columbia, or exclusively for charitable, educational, or religious purposes within the District of Columbia, shall be exempt from any and all taxation under the provisions of this section.

(f) Where any beneficiary has died or may hereafter die within six months after the death of the decedent and before coming into the possession and enjoyment of any property passing to him, and before selling, assigning, transferring, or in any manner contracting with respect to his interest in such property, such property shall be taxed only once, and if the tax on the property so passing to said beneficiary has not been paid, then the tax shall be assessed on the property received from such share by each beneficiary thereof, finally entitled to the possession and enjoyment thereof, as if he had been the original beneficiary, and the exemptions and rates of taxation shall be governed by the respective relationship of each of the ultimate beneficiaries to the first decedent.

(g) The provisions of sections 47-1601 to 47-1607 shall apply to property in the estate of every person who shall die after this chapter becomes effective.

(h) The transfer of any property, or interest therein, within 2 years prior to death, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death.

(i) All property and interest therein which shall pass from a decedent to the same beneficiary by one or more of the methods specified in this section, and all beneficial interests which shall accrue in the manner herein provided to such beneficiary on account of the death of such decedent, shall be united and treated as a single interest for the purpose of determining the tax hereunder.

(j) Whenever any person shall exercise a general power of appointment derived from any disposition of property, made either before or after the passage of this chapter, such appointment, when made, shall be deemed a transfer taxable, under the provisions of said sections, in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power; and whenever any person possessing such power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same, within the time provided therefor, in whole or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of said sections shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omissions or failure in the same manner as though the person or persons thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related had succeeded thereto by the will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the time of such omission or failure.

(k) The doctrine of equitable conversion shall not be invoked in the assessment of taxes under sections 47-1601 to 47-1607. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 1; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 360, ch. 223, § 5 (a); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1111, ch. 367, title V, art I, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added paragraphs (j) and (k).

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "and upon" following the word "decedents" the first time it appears, added the word "to" following the parenthetical statement in paragraph (a) and changed the rate provisions to that which now appears. The former rates provided in paragraph (a), 1% on the amount in excess of $5,000; in paragraph (b), 3% on the amount in excess of $3,000; and 5% on the amount in excess of $1,000.

§ 47-1602 [20: 969a]. Based on market value—Appraisal.

The tax provided in section 47-1601 shall be paid on the market value of the property or interest therein at the time of the death of the decedent as appraised by the assessor or, in the discretion of the assessor, upon the value as appraised by the probate court of the District. The taxable portion of real or personal property held jointly or by the entireties shall be determined by dividing the value of the entire property by the number of persons in whose joint names it was held. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 2; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1112, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "assessor" the first time said word appears, and deleted the word "said" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "the" following the words "probate court of."

§ 47-1603 [20: 969b]. Appraisal deemed true value—Tax to be lien—Exceptions.

The appraisal thus made shall be deemed and taken to be the true value of the said property or interest therein upon which the said tax shall be paid, and the amount of said tax and the tax imposed by sections 47-1608 to 47-1615 shall be a lien on said property or interest therein for the period of ten years from the date of death of the decedent: Provided, however, That such lien shall not attach to any personal property sold or disposed of for value by an administrator, executor, or collector, of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or by a trustee appointed under a will filed with the register of wills for the District or by order of said court, or his successor approved by said court, but a lien for said taxes shall attach on all property acquired in substitution therefor for a period of ten years after the acquisition of such substituted property: And provided further, That such lien upon such substituted property shall, upon sale by such personal representatives, be extinguished and shall reattach in the manner as provided with respect of such original property. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 684, ch. 690, title V, § 3; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5 (b); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the two proviso clauses.

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "for the District" following the word "wills."

§ 47-1604 [20: 969c]. Report by decedent's personal representative—Contents—Payment.

The personal representative of every decedent, the gross value of whose estate is in excess of $1,000 shall, within fifteen months after the death of the decedent, report under oath to the assessor, on forms provided for that purpose an itemized schedule of all the property (real, personal, and mixed) of the decedent, the market value thereof at the time of the death of the decedent, the name or names of the persons to receive the same and the actual value of the property that each will receive, the relationship of such persons to the decedent, and the age of any persons who receive a life interest in the property, and any other information which the assessor may require. Said personal representative shall, within eighteen months of the date of the death of the decedent and before distribution of the estate, pay to the collector of taxes the taxes imposed by section 47-1601 upon the distributive shares and legacies in his hands and the tax imposed by section 47-1601 against each distributive share or legacy shall be charged against such distributive share or legacy unless the will shall otherwise direct. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 684, ch. 690, title V, § 4; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the word "gross" before the word "value" the first time said word appears, and deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the words "collector of taxes."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

There is no conflict between this section and 47-2403; they are merely alternative. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 346, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

TIME OF PAYMENT

Section 47-2403 requires payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of assessment as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal although this due date falls before the end of the eighteen months provision of this section. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 346, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

§ 47-1605 [20: 969d]. Collection of distributive share.

The personal representative of the decedent shall collect from each beneficiary entitled to a distributive share or legacy the tax imposed upon such distributive share or legacy in section 47-1601, and if the said beneficiary shall neglect or fail to pay the same within fifteen months after the date of the death of the decedent such personal representative shall, upon the order of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, sell for cash so much of said distributive share or legacy as may be necessary to pay said tax and all the expenses of said sale. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 5; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act reenacted this section without change.

§ 47-1606 [20: 969e]. Property not under control of personal representative.

Every person entitled to receive property taxable under section 47-1601, which property is not under the control of a personal representative, and is over $1,000 in value, shall, within six months after the death of the decedent, report under oath to the assessor, on forms provided for that purpose an itemized schedule of all property (real, personal, and mixed) received or to be received by such person; the market value of the same at the time of the death of the decedent and the relationship of such person to the decedent; and any other information which the assessor may require. The tax on the transfer of any such property shall be paid by such person to the collector of taxes within nine months after the date of the death of the decedent: Provided, however, That with respect to real estate passing by will or inheritance such report shall be made within fifteen months after the death of the decedent, and the tax on the transfer thereof shall be paid within eighteen months after the date of the death of the decedent. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, § 7; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5 (c); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 6.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the proviso.

The 1939 act reenacted this section as it appeared in the 1937 act, amended by the 1938 act.

§ 47-1607 [20: 969f]. Life and future estates—Payment of tax—Lien.

In the case of any grant, deed, devise, descent, or bequest of a life interest or term of years, the donee for life or years shall pay a tax only on the value of his interest, determined in a manner as the Commissioners by regulation may prescribe, and the donee of the future interest shall pay a tax only on his interest as based upon the value thereof at the time of the death of the decedent creating such interest. The value of any future interest shall be determined by deducting from the market value of such property at the time of the death of such decedent the value of the precedent life interest or term of years. Where the future interest is vested the donee thereof shall pay the tax within the time in which the tax upon the precedent life interest or term of years is required to be paid under the provisions of sections 47-1604 and 47-1606, as the case may be. Where the future interest is contingent the personal representative of such decedent or the persons interested in such contingent future estate shall have the option of (1) paying, within the time herein provided for the payment of taxes due upon vested future interests, a tax equal to the mean between the highest possible tax and the lowest possible tax which could be imposed under any contingency or condition whereby such contingent future interest might be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended, or abridged; or (2) paying the tax upon such transfer at the time when such future interest shall become vested at rates and with exemptions in force at the time of the death of the decedent: Provided, That the personal representative or trustee of the estate of the decedent or the persons interested in the future contingent interest shall deposit with the assessor a bond in the penal sum of an amount equal to twice the tax payable under option (1) hereof. Such bonds shall be payable to the District and shall be conditioned for the payment of such tax when and as the same shall become due and payable. The tax upon the transfer of future interests or remainders shall be a lien upon the property or interest transferred from the date of the death of the decedent creating the interests and shall remain in force and effect until ten years after the date when such remainder or future interest shall become vested in the donee thereof. If the tax upon the transfer of a contingent future interest is paid before the same shall become vested, such tax shall be paid by the personal representative out of the corpus of the estate of the decedent, otherwise by the person or persons entitled to receive the same. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, § 10; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5 (d); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 7.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the words "determined in a manner as the Commissioners by regulation may prescribe" following the word "interest" the second time said word appears; deleted, following the "tax" the second time it appears, the following words "when his right of possession and enjoyment accrues. In the case of a decree, descent, bequest, or grant to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the expiration of one or more life estates or a term of years, the tax shall be assessed on the value of the property or interest therein coming to the beneficiary at the time when he becomes entitled to the same in possession or enjoyment. Said tax shall be a lien for the period of ten years on the property or interest therein from the date when said beneficiary becomes entitled to the same in possession or enjoyment" and inserted in lieu thereof the present remainder of the section.

The 1939 amendment deleted the word "such" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "the" before the word "decedent" immediately before the proviso and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District".

ARTICLE II—ESTATE TAX

§ 47-1608 [20: 969g]. Imposition of tax—Additional levy on transfers.

In addition to the taxes imposed by sections 47-1601 to 47-1607, there is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the estate of every decedent who, after this chapter becomes effective, shall die a resident of the District, a tax equal to eighty per centum of the Federal estate tax imposed by section 810, Title 26,

U. S. Code, as amended, or as hereafter amended or reenacted. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 18; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District."

§ 47-1609 [20: 969h]. Credits—Restriction.

There shall be credited against and applied in reduction of the tax imposed by section 47-1601 the amount of any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession tax lawfully imposed by any State or Territory of the United States, in respect of any property included in the gross estate for Federal estate-tax purposes as prescribed in U. S. Code, title 26, chapter 3 (subchapter A), and section 3655, as amended, or as hereafter amended or reenacted: Provided, however, That only such taxes as are actually paid and credit therefor claimed and allowed against the Federal estate tax may be applied as a credit against and in reduction of the tax imposed by section 47-1608. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 19; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 2.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

The words "U. S. Code, title 26, chapter 3 (subchapter A), and section 3655" are substituted for the words "Title III of the Revenue Act of 1926" used in the original enactment. Said chapter, with the exception of section 840 thereof is derived from title III of said Revenue Act, and comprises Chapter 3, subchapter A of the Internal Revenue Code.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act reenacted the section as it appeared in the 1937 act making internal cross-reference changes.

§ 47-1610 [20: 969i]. Not to exceed difference between maximum credit and levy by States.

In no event shall the tax imposed by section 47-1608 of this chapter exceed the difference between the maximum credit which might be allowed against the Federal estate tax imposed by U. S. Code, title 26, chapter 3 (subchapter A) and section 3655, as amended, or as hereafter amended or re-enacted, and the aggregate amount of the taxes described in section 47-1609 (but not including the tax imposed by section 47-1608) allowable as a credit against the Federal estate tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 20; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 3.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See note to § 47-1609.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act reenacted this section as it appeared in the 1937 act making only internal cross reference changes.

§ 47-1611 [20: 969j]. Benefits to District.

The purpose of section 47-1608 is to secure for the District the benefit of the credit allowed under the provisions of U. S. Code, title 26, section 810, as amended, or as hereafter amended or re-enacted, to the extent that the District may be entitled by the provisions of said section, by imposing additional taxes, and the same shall be liberally construed to effect such purpose: Provided, That the amount of the tax imposed by section 47-1608 shall not be decreased by any failure to secure the allowance of credit against the Federal estate tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 21; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words of the original enactment "credit allowed under the provisions of section 301 (c) of title III of the Revenue Act of 1926" have been translated to "U. S. Code, title 26, § 813 (b)," the section where such credit is now provided for.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" both times it appears.

§ 47-1612 [20: 969k]. Tax on transfer of nonresidents' real and personal property.

A tax is hereby imposed upon the transfer of real property or tangible personal property in the District of every person who at the time of death was a resident of the United States but not a resident of the District, and upon the transfer of all property, both real and personal, within the District of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the amount by which the credit allowable under the applicable Federal Revenue Act for estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes actually paid to the several States exceeds the amount actually so paid for such taxes, exclusive of estate taxes based upon the difference between such credit and other estate taxes and inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes, as the value of the property in the District bears to the value of the entire estate, subject to estate tax under the applicable Federal Revenue Act. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 27, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 363, ch. 223, § 5 (g); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

Every executor or administrator of the estate of a decedent dying a resident of the District or of a non-resident decedent owning real estate or tangible personal property situated in the District, or of an alien decedent owning any real estate, tangible or intangible personal property situated in the District, or, if there is no executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting, then any person in actual or constructive possession of any property forming a part of an estate subject to estate tax under this chapter shall, within sixteen months after the death of the decedent file with the assessor a copy of the return required by U. S. Code, title 26, sections 820, 821 (a) (b) (c), and 864 (a) (b) (c), verified by the affidavit of the person filing said return with the assessor, and shall, within thirty days after the date of any communication from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, confirming, increasing, or diminishing the tax shown to be due, file a copy of such communication with the assessor. With the copy of the Federal estate tax return there shall be filed an affidavit as to the several amounts paid or expected to be paid as taxes within the purview of section 47-1609: Provided, however, That in any case where the time for the filing of such return as required by U. S. Code, title 26, sections 820, 821 (a) (b) (c), and 864 (a) (b) (c), is extended without penalty by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, then the copy thereof verified as aforesaid may be filed with the assessor within thirty days after the expiration of said extended period. The 1939 amendment inserted the words "the estate of" following the words "administrator of" the first time said words appear; deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" the first time said word appears and inserted in lieu thereof the next 34 words; deleted the words "within the District of Columbia" following the word "acting"; deleted the words "the gross" following the words "forming a part of" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "an"; inserted, following the word "estate" the fourth time the said word appears, the words "subject to estate tax under this title shall, within sixteen months after the death of the decedent"; and added the proviso.

§ 47-1614 [20: 969m]. Assessment on basis of return.

The assessor shall, upon receipt of the return and accompanying affidavit, assess such amount as he may determine, from the basis of the return, to be due the District. Upon receipt of a copy of any communication from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, herein required to be filed, the assessor shall make such additional assessment or shall make such abatement of the assessment as may appear proper. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 23; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "assessor" the first time the said word appears, and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District."

§ 47-1615 [20: 969n]. Tax payable within 17 months.

The estate taxes imposed by sections 47-1608 to 47-1615 shall be paid to the collector of taxes within seventeen months after the death of the decedent: Provided, however, That in any case where the time for the payment of taxes imposed by U. S. Code, Title 26, sections 810, 813 (a) (2), and 860, is extended by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, then the tax imposed by sections 47-1608 to 47-1615 shall be paid within sixty days after the expiration of such extended period, together with interest as provided in section 47-1619: Provided further, That any additional assessment found to be due under section 47-1614 shall be paid to the collector of taxes within thirty days after the determination of such additional assessment by the assessor. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 24; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 8.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act deleted the section as it appeared in the 1937 act and inserted in lieu thereof the section as it now appears. The former section read as follows: "The tax imposed by this article shall be paid to the collector of taxes within thirty days after the determination of said taxes by the assessor of the District of Columbia."

ARTICLE III—GENERAL

§ 47-1616 [20: 969o]. Liability of bond for assessments—Limitation.

The bond of the personal representative of the decedent shall be liable for all taxes and penalties assessed under this chapter, except inheritance taxes and penalties imposed in relation to the transfer of property not under the control of such personal representative: Provided, That in no case shall the bond of the personal representative be liable for a greater sum than is actually received by him. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, § 6; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act added the exception.

§ 47-1617 [20: 969p]. Monthly report of names of decedents by register of wills.

The register of wills of the District shall report to the assessor on forms provided for the purpose every qualification in the District upon the estate of a decedent. Such report shall be filed with the assessor at least once every month, and shall contain the name of the decedent, the date of his death, the name and address of the personal representative, and the value of the estate, as shown by the petition for administration or probate. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" both times said word appears.

§ 47-1618 [20: 969q]. Administration — Rules — Appeal—Hearing—Decision—Testimony—Production of books and records.

The commissioners shall have supervision of the enforcement of this chapter and shall have the power to make such rules and regulations, consistent with said sections, as may be necessary for enforcement of said sections and efficient administration and to provide for the granting of extension of time within which to perform the duties imposed by this chapter. The assessor shall determine all taxes assessable under this chapter, and immediately upon the determination of same, shall forward a statement of the taxes determined to the person or persons chargeable with the payment thereof and shall give advice thereof to the collector of taxes.

The assessor is hereby authorized and empowered to summon any person before him to give testimony on oath or affirmation or to produce all books, records, papers, documents, or other legal evidence as to any matter relating to this chapter and the assessor is authorized to administer oaths and to take testimony for the purposes of the administration of this chapter. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the assessor may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, § 9; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "commissioners" in the first paragraph and the word "assessor" the first time said word appears in the second paragraph; deleted the words "or any member of the Board of Assistant Assessors or Board of Personal Tax Appeals" in the second paragraph following the word "him" the first time said word appears and following the word "assessor" the second time said word appears; and, deleted three sentences from the end of the first paragraph which provided for an appeal to the Board of Personal Tax Appeals.

§ 47-1619 [20: 969r]. Arrears.

If the taxes imposed by this chapter are not paid when due, 1 per centum interest for each month or portion of a month from the date when the same were due until paid shall be added to the amount of said taxes and collected as a part of the same, and said taxes shall be collected by the collector of taxes in the manner provided by the law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection: Provided, however, That where the time for payment of the tax imposed by this chapter is extended by the assessor or where the payment of the tax is lawfully suspended under the regulations for the administration of this chapter interest shall be paid at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date on which the tax would otherwise be payable. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 11; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the words "collector of taxes," and the words "of Columbia" following the word "District," and added the proviso.

§ 47-1620 [20: 969s]. Enforcement.

If any person shall fail to perform any duty imposed upon him by the provisions of this chapter or the regulations made hereunder the Commissioners may proceed by petition for mandamus to compel performance and upon the granting of such writ the court shall adjudge all costs of such proceeding against the delinquent. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 12; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "commissioners."

CROSS REFERENCE

Writ of mandamus has been abolished in District Courts, similar relief may be obtained by appropriate action on motion, rule 81 (b).

§ 47-1621 [20: 969t]. Failure to file return—False return—Penalty.

Any person required by this chapter to file a return who fails to file such return within the time prescribed by this chapter, or within such additional time as may be granted under regulations promulgated by the commissioners, shall become liable in his own person and estate to the District in an amount equal to 10 per centum of the tax found to be due. In case any person required by this chapter to file a return knowingly files a false or fraudulent return, he shall become liable in his own person and estate to the said District in an amount equal to 50 per centum of the tax found to be due. Such amounts shall be collected in the same manner as is herein provided for the collection of the taxes levied under this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, § 13; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 362, ch. 223, § 5 (e); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 6.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment reduced the first penalty from 25% per annum to 10% per annum.

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "Commissioners," and the words "of Columbia" following the word "District."

§ 47-1622 [20: 969u]. Wilful failure to pay taxes, make return—Penalty.

Any person required by this chapter to pay a tax or required by law or regulation made under authority thereof to make a return or keep any records or supply any information for the purposes of computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this chapter, who wilfully fails to pay such tax, make any such return, or supply any such information at the time or times required by law or regulation shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 14; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act re-enacted this section as it appeared in the 1937 act.

§ 47-1623 [20: 969v]. Release of lien.

When the assessor is satisfied that the tax liability imposed by this chapter has been fully discharged or provided for, he may, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, issue his certificate, releasing any or all property from the lien herein imposed by this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 15; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 8.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of any estate" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "imposed by this title" following the word "liability," deleted the words "of said District" following the word "Commissioners," and deleted the words "of such estate" following the word "property."

§ 47-1624 [20: 969w]. Transfers of assets—Notice—Portion retained to pay tax—Assessor to examine assets—Issuance of certificate.

No person holding, within the District tangible or intangible assets of any resident or nonresident decedent, of the value of $300 or more, shall deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, unless notice of the date and place of such intended transfer be served upon the assessor of the District of Columbia at least ten days prior to such delivery or transfer, nor shall any person holding, within the District of Columbia, any assets of a resident or nonresident decedent, of the value of $300 or more, deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by said District Court without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax which may be assessed on account of the transfer of such assets under the provisions of sections 47-1601 to 47-1624 without an order from the assessor of the District of Columbia authorizing such transfer. It shall be lawful for the assessor of the District, personally, or by his representatives, to examine said assets at any time before such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or to allow such examination or to retain as herein required a sufficient portion or amount to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter shall render such person liable to the payment of such taxes. The assessor of the District may issue a certificate authorizing the transfer of any such assets whenever it appears to the satisfaction of said assessor that no tax is due thereon: Provided, however, That any corporation, foreign or domestic to the District having outstanding stock or other securities registered in the sole name of a decedent whose estate or any part thereof is taxable under this chapter may transfer the same, without notice to the assessor and without liability for any tax imposed thereon under this chapter, upon the order of an administrator, executor, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or by a trustee appointed under a will filed with the register of wills of the District, or appointed by said court, or his successor approved by said court: Provided further, That the lessor of a safe-deposit box standing in the joint names of a decedent and a survivor or survivors may deliver the entire contents of such safe-deposit box to the survivor or survivors, after examination of such contents by the assessor or his representative, without any liability on the part of the said lessor for the payment of such tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 687, ch. 690, title V, § 16; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 362, ch. 223, § 5 (f); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 9.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the second proviso.

The 1939 amendment added the first proviso, and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" the first time the said word appears in the first, second, and fourth sentences and added the words "of the value of $300 or more" both times they appear.

§ 47-1625 [20: 969x]. Bureau of Internal Revenue to supply information to Commissioners.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Commissioners relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed under this chapter or relative to any person whose estate is subject to the provisions of said sections. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 26, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 363, ch. 223, § 5 (g); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 10.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment re-enacted the section as it appeared in the 1938 act.

CROSS REFERENCE

Secrecy of information, § 47-2504.

§ 47-1626 [20: 969y]. Assessor to determine tax if return not filed when due.

If any return required by this chapter is not filed with the assessor when due, the assessor shall have the right to determine and assess the tax or taxes from such information as he may possess or obtain. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 11.)

§ 47-1627 [20: 969z]. Assessor may compound and settle tax.

The assessor is authorized to enter into an agreement with any person liable for a tax on a transfer under sections 47-1601 to 47-1607, in which remainders or expectant estates are of such nature or so disposed and circumstanced that the value of the interest is not ascertainable under the provisions of this chapter, and to compound and settle such tax upon such terms as the assessor may deem equitable and expedient. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 12.)

§ 47-1628 [20: 969aa]. Definitions.

In the interpretation of this chapter unless the context indicates a different meaning the term "tax" means the tax or taxes mentioned in this title.

(a) The term "District" means the District of Columbia.

(b) The term "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

(c) The term "assessor" means the assessor of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(d) The term "collector of taxes" means the collector of taxes for the District of Columbia, or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(e) The term "Metropolitan Police Department" means the Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia.

(f) The term "include" when used in a definition contained in this chapter shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined.

(g) The term "resident" means domiciled and the term "residence" means domicil. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 17; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 13.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act deleted the section of the 1937 act and inserted in lieu thereof the section as it now appears. The former section read, "The word 'person' when used in this title shall include individuals, partnerships, associations, and corporations."

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 14 of article III, title V, of the act of July 26, 1939, cited to the text provided that the provisions of this title should become effective at 12:01 antemeridian, the day immediately following its approval.

§ 47-1629. Situs of intangibles—Trust estates—Aliens.

Credits, securities, and other intangible personal property within the District not employed in carrying on any business therein by the owner shall be deemed to be located at the domicil of the owner for purposes of taxation under this chapter, and, if held in trust, shall not be deemed to be located in the District for purposes of taxation under this chapter solely because of the trustee being domiciled in the District: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to property owned by alien decedents, and that nothing herein contained shall affect the taxation by the District of any property owned by alien decedents which, at the time of the death of such decedents, shall be under the jurisdiction of the District or over which the District has control. (July 26, 1939, ch. 367, title V, § 15, as added July 10, 1940, 54 Stat. 747, ch. 568.)

Chapter 17.—FINANCIAL INSTITUTION, GUARANTY COMPANY AND PUBLIC UTILITY TAXES

Sec.

- 47-1701. Banks, gas, electric-lighting, and telephone companies.
- 47-1702. Bonding, title guaranty and fidelity companies.
- 47-1703. Savings banks.
- 47-1704. Building associations.
- 47-1705. Insolvent building or homestead associations.
- 47-1706. Private banks.
- 47-1707. Washington Stock Exchange.
- 47-1708. Note brokers.
- 47-1709. Private banks and note brokers to pay annual tax on the first day of July each year.

§ 47-1701 [20: 760]. Banks, gas, electric-lighting, and telephone companies.

Each national bank as the trustee for its stockholders, through its president or cashier, and all other incorporated banks and trust companies in the District of Columbia, through their presidents or cashiers, and all gas, electric lighting, and telephone companies, through their proper officers, shall make affidavit to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August each year as to the amount of its or their gross earnings or gross receipts, as the case may be, for the preceding year ending the 30th day of June, and each national bank and all other incorporated banks and trust companies respectively shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia per annum 6 per centum on such gross earnings and each gas company, electric-lighting company, and telephone company shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia per annum 4 per centum on such gross receipts, from the sale of public utility commodities and services within the District of Columbia. And in addition thereto the real estate owned by each national or other incorporated bank, and each trust, gas, electric-lighting, and telephone company in the District of Columbia shall be taxed as other real estate in said District: Provided, That street railroad companies shall pay 3 per centum per annum on their gross receipts and other taxes as provided by existing law, and insurance companies shall continue to pay the 2 per centum on premium receipts as provided by existing law. Each gas, electric-lighting, telephone and street railroad company shall pay, in addition to the tax herein mentioned, the corporate income tax imposed by sections 47-1501 to 47-1543, and the personal property tax on merchandise stock in trade. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 5; April 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815, § 2; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 2.)

TAX ON PRIVILEGE OF DOING BUSINESS

The District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, August 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 688, ch. 690, title VI, § 16, as added by act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, § 6 (a), provided that the entire title VI, imposing a tax on the privilege of doing business, should expire June 30, 1939. This title appeared as sections 970 to 970r of title 20 of the 1929 District of Columbia Code, Supp. V, Title VII of the Revenue Act of 1939, July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1119, ch. 367, provided that "The laws authorizing the imposition by the District of Columbia of intangible personal property taxes and business privilege taxes are hereby extended from and after June 30, 1939, for the following purposes in connection with the taxes accrued or due under such laws prior to July 1, 1939—

"(1) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with such laws and the regulations issued thereunder;

"(2) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such laws;

"(3) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses; and

"(4) For the assessment and collection of such taxes, and the filing of liens therefor."

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 2 (b) of title IV of the 1939 act, cited to the text, provided as follows: "This section shall not apply to gross earnings or gross receipts for any fiscal year ending the 30th day of June prior to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940. Taxes shall be levied and collected for the fiscal years preceding the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, under said paragraph 5 of section 6 of said act of July 1, 1902, as if this title had not been enacted."

AMENDMENTS

The 1904 amendment provided that that part of the section as it appeared in the 1902 act "shall be construed to mean that all street railroad companies shall pay four per centum per annum on their gross receipts within the District of Columbia and other taxes as provided by existing law."

The 1939 amendment added the words "or gross receipts, as the case may be" following the words "gross earnings" the first time said words appear; added after the word "June" in the first paragraph the words "and each national bank and all other incorporated banks and trust companies respectively shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia per annum 6 per centum on such gross earnings and each gas company, electric lighting company, and telephone company"; changed the percentages in the proviso of the first paragraph; added the words "existing law" in the first sentence of the proviso; and, deleted the words added by and above quoted from the 1904 act.

REPEAL

The final sentence of (a) of act of July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 2, read: "So much of the act approved October 1, 1890, entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation of trust, loan, mortgage, and certain other corporations within the District of Columbia' as is inconsistent with the provisions of this section is hereby repealed." 26 Stat. 625, ch. 1246, D. C. Code, 1901, §§ 715-748, D. C. Code, 1940, §§ 26-301, 26-304 to 26-336.

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1939, see Compiler's Notes to § 47-1401.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

This statute is all inclusive covering gross earnings from whatever source. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Hazen (67 App. D. C. 161, 90 Fed. (2d) 406).

This being a measure to tax the gross earnings of gas, electric and telephone companies, said tax is merely franchise in nature and therefore is not a burden on commerce. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Hazen (67 App. D. C. 161, 90 Fed. (2d) 406).

ELECTRIC COMPANY

FRANCHISE TAX

Franchise tax distinguished from property tax. Potomac Electric P. Co. v. Rudolph (58 App. D. C. 261, 29 Fed. (2d) 634, cert. den. 278 U. S. 656, 73 L. Ed. 565, 49 Sup. Ct. 185).

GAS COMPANY

A company engaged in the manufacture and supplying of gas may deduct from gross receipts the amount expended for raw materials from which gas is manufactured when the money that was spent for the raw materials had been taken from the capital of the company. District of Columbia v. Georgetown Gas-Light Co. (45 App. D. C. 63).

INTEREST ON GOVERNMENT BONDS

The act of April 24, 1917, § 1 (U. S. C., title 31, § 746) exempting interest on government bonds, etc., from taxation, held applicable to the tax imposed by this paragraph. District of Columbia v. Riggs Nat. Bank (58 App. D. C. 349, 30 Fed. (2d) 873, cert. den. 279 U. S. 846, 73 L. Ed. 991, 49 Sup. Ct. 343).

§ 47-1702 [20: 761]. Bonding, title, guaranty and fidelity companies.

All companies, incorporated or otherwise, who guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, and all companies who furnish abstracts of titles to real property, or who insure real estate titles, shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia one and one-half per centum of their gross receipts in the District of Columbia. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 6; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

The 1904 amendment struck out the 1902 section and inserted in lieu thereof the section as it now appears.

§ 47-1703 [20: 762]. Savings banks.

Savings banks having no capital stock and paying interest to their depositors shall, through their president or cashier, make affidavit to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August in each year as to the amount of their surplus and undivided profits, and shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum equal to one and one-half per centum on the amount of their surplus and undivided profits on the 30th day of June preceding.

Incorporated savings banks paying interest to their depositors shall, through their president or cashier, make report under oath to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August in each year as to the amount of their gross earnings, less the amount paid as interest to their depositors for the preceding year ending June 30th, and shall pay thereon to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia four per centum per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 7; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

The 1904 amendment added the second paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FRANCHISE TAX

The tax imposed by this statute is clearly a franchise tax, and not a property tax on the earnings of banks as such. Security Sav. & Commercial Bank v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 316, 279 Fed. 185).

§ 47-1704 [20: 764]. Building associations.

Building associations in the District of Columbia shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia two per centum per annum on their entire gross earnings for the preceding year ending June 30th. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 620, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 9; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

In the 1902 act this section read as follows: "Building associations shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia four per centum per annum on their gross earnings for the preceding year ending June thirtieth."

§ 47-1705 [20: 764a]. Insolvent building or homestead associations.

Whenever and after any building or homestead association, which was incorporated or doing business under the law of the District of Columbia, has ceased to do business by reason of insolvency no tax on personal property, either tangible or intangible, shall be levied, assessed, or collected by the District of Columbia against or from such association if such tax shall diminish the assets of such association necessary for the payment of the full amount due on share accounts in, or on shares of, such association to the holders thereof, and such tax, if heretofore levied, shall be abated as against any such associations as are or have been found by the comptroller of the currency to be insolvent. (Aug. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 1210, ch. 446.)

§ 47-1706 [20: 765]. Private banks.

Private banks or bankers not incorporated shall pay a tax of five hundred dollars per annum. Every person, firm, company, or association not incorporated having a place of business where credits are opened by the deposit or collection of moneys or currency subject to be paid or remitted upon draft, check, or order, or where money is advanced or loaned on stocks, bonds, bullion, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or where stocks, bonds, bills of exchange or promissory notes are received for discount or for sale, shall be regarded as a private bank or banker. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 621, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 14.)

§ 47-1707 [20: 766]. Washington Stock Exchange.

The Washington Stock Exchange, through its president or treasurer, shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum equal to five hundred dollars per annum in lieu of tax on the members thereof for business done on said exchange. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 15.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

That part of section 6, par. 15, of the 1902 act, cited to the text, which imposed a tax of $250 per annum upon general brokers, and of $100 per annum upon any broker who is a member of a regularly organized stock exchange outside of the District, has been omitted in view of the case cited below holding in effect that the statute, by imposing an unreasonable burden on the right of a citizen to pursue a lawful occupation open to his competitors upon less onerous terms operates substantially as the taking of property without due process of law, and was therefore within the prohibition of the 5th Amendment of the Constitution. Lappin v. District of Columbia (22 App. D. C. 63, 80).

§ 47-1708 [20: 767]. Note brokers.

Note brokers shall pay a tax of one hundred dollars per annum. Every person, firm, company, or association not incorporated (except private banks and bankers) that loans money on promissory notes without real estate or collateral security or advances money on personal property as security without possession of said personal property shall be deemed a note broker: Provided, That exception shall be made of cooperative associations whose business is restricted to the members of such association. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 16.)

§ 47-1709 [20: 768]. Private banks and note brokers to pay annual tax on the first day of July each year.

The taxes for said private banks and bankers, and note brokers shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, and shall date from the 1st day of July in each year and expire on the 30th day of June following. Said taxes shall date from the 1st day of the month in which the liability begins, and payment shall be made for a proportionate amount. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 17.)

- 47-1808. Exemption of nonprofit relief associations.

§ 47-1801 [20: 966]. Taxes on insurance companies.

Every domestic, foreign, or alien company organized as a stock, mutual, reciprocal, Lloyd's, fraternal, or any other type of insurance company or association, before issuing contracts of insurance against loss of life or health, or by fire, marine, accident, casualty, fidelity and surety title guaranty, or other hazard not contrary to public policy, shall obtain from the superintendent of insurance of the District of Columbia an annual license or certificate of authority, upon payment of a fee of $25 to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. All licenses for insurance companies who may apply for permission to do business in the District of Columbia shall date from the first of the month in which application is made, and expire on the 30th day of April following, and payments shall be made in proportion. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The original act contains these words before the present first word, "On and after the first day of September 1937."

This chapter superseded in whole or in part §§ 35-406 to 35-409, which relate to annual statements by life insurance companies.

This chapter partially supersedes § 35-202.

This chapter supersedes in whole or in part § 35-402 which requires life insurance companies and agents to pay certain fees.

§ 47-1802 [20: 966a]. Penalty clause.

Any such company issuing contracts of insurance in the District of Columbia, without first having obtained license or certificate of authority from the superintendent of insurance so to do, shall upon conviction be subject to a fine of $100 per day for each day it shall engage in business without such license or certificate of authority. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 2.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See notes to § 47-1801.

§ 47-1803 [20: 966b]. Prosecutions in police court.

All prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be in the police court of the District of Columbia by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 3.)

§ 47-1804 [20: 966c]. Annual statements required—Filing fee.

Each of such companies shall file an annual statement, in the form prescribed by the superintendent of insurance, before March 1 of each year, of its operations for the year ending December 31 immediately preceding. Such statement shall be verified by the oath of the president and secretary or in their absence by two other principal officers. The fee for filing said statement shall be $20 and payment therefor shall be made to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This chapter supersedes, in whole or in part, §§ 35-103 to 35-105.

CROSS REFERENCE

Annual statement by fire, casualty, and marine insurance companies, § 35-1311.

§ 47-1805 [20: 966d]. Revocation of license if statement not filed.

If any such company shall fail to file the annual statement herein required, the superintendent of insurance may thereupon revoke its license or certificate of authority to transact business in the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 5.)

§ 47-1806 [20: 966e]. Rates on insurance companies—Exceptions—Definitions—Marine insurance excluded.

All such companies, including companies which issue annuity contracts, shall also pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum of money as taxes equal to 2 per centum of their policy and membership fees and net premium receipts or consideration received on all insurance and annuity contracts on risks in the District of Columbia, said taxes to be paid before the 1st day of March of each year on the amount of such income for the year ending December 31, next preceding. Such tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes except (1) taxes upon real estate and (2) fees and charges provided for by the insurance laws of the District including amendments made to such laws by this title.

Net premium receipts or consideration received means gross premiums or consideration received less the sum of the following:

1. Premiums received for reinsurance assumed and premiums or consideration returned on policies or contracts canceled or not taken.

2. Dividends paid in cash or used by the policyholders in payment of renewal premiums.

Nothing contained in this section or in sections 47-1801, 47-1807 shall apply with respect to marine insurance written within the said District and reported, taxed, and licensed under the provisions of sections 35-1101 to 35-1132. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 6; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 358, ch. 223, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1938 amendment added the words "including companies which issue annuity contracts" following the word "companies" the first time said word appears; the words "or consideration" following the word "receipts" the first time said word appears; the words "and annuity" following the word "insurance" the first time said word appears; the words "or consideration received" and "or consideration" in the second paragraph; the words "received for reinsurance assumed and premiums or consideration returned" and "or contracts" in the third paragraph (numbered (1)); and deleted the words "Premiums paid for reinsurance where the same are paid to companies duly licensed to do business in the District, and."

§ 47-1807 [20: 966f]. Penalty.

If any such company shall fail to pay the tax herein required, it shall be liable to the District of Columbia for the amount thereof, and in addition thereof a penalty of 8 per centum per month thereafter until paid. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 7.)

§ 47-1808 [20: 966g]. Exemption of nonprofit relief associations.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall apply to any relief association, not conducted for profit, composed solely of officers and enlisted men of the United States Army or Navy, or solely of employees of any other branch of the United States Government service or solely of employees of the District of Columbia government, or solely of employees of any individual, company, firm, or corporation or to any fraternal organization which issues contracts of insurance exclusively to its own members. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GROUP HEALTH ASSOCIATION

Group Health Association falls within exempting proviso of statute. Jordan v. Group Health Assn. (71 App. D. C. 38, 107 Fed. (2d) 239).

The word "corporation" as used in the exemption obviously refers to private concerns, not governmental agencies, and Group Health is relieved from the requirements of this section. Jordan v. Group Health Assn. (71 App. D. C. 38, 107 Fed. (2d) 239).

- 47-1918. Revenue and disbursements.
- 47-1919. Continuation of uncompleted projects at end of fiscal year.

§ 47-1901 [20: 831]. Rate—Use restricted.

A tax of 2 cents per gallon on all motor-vehicle fuels within the District of Columbia, sold or otherwise disposed of by an importer, or used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes, shall be levied, collected, and paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

All proceeds of the taxes imposed under the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, except as otherwise provided in section 47-1910, and all moneys collected from fees charged for the registration and titling of motor vehicles including fees charged for the issuance of permits to operate motor vehicles, shall be deposited in a special account in the treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia, and shall be appropriated and used solely and exclusively for the following purposes:

(1) For the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of public highways, including the necessary administrative expenses in connection therewith;

(2) For the expenses of the office of the director of vehicles and traffic incident to the regulation and control of traffic and the administration of the same; and

(3) For the expenses necessarily involved in the police control, regulation, and administration of traffic upon the highways: Provided, however, That the total amount to be expended under this item shall not exceed 15 per centum of the total amount appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan police force. For the fiscal year 1938 all moneys appropriated for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of highways and administrative expenses in connection therewith, all moneys appropriated for the department of vehicles and traffic, and 15 per centum of all moneys appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan police force shall be paid from and chargeable against the fund hereby created. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 106, ch. 131, § 1; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title III, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment deleted the following sentence from the first paragraph: "The proceeds of the tax, except as provided in section 10, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia and shall be available for appropriation by the Congress exclusively for road and street improvement and repair," and added the second and following paragraphs of the section.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

A special repaving assessment under acts authorizing assessments on frontage basis was invalid. Reichelderfer v. Hechinger (61 App. D. C. 104, 57 Fed. (2d) 943).

§ 47-1902 [20: 832]. Definitions.

As used in sections 47-1901—47-1916—

(a) The term "motor vehicle" means all vehicles propelled by internal-combustion engines, electricity, or steam, except traction engines, road rollers, and vehicles propelled only upon rails and tracks.

(b) The term "motor vehicle fuels" means gasoline and other volatile and inflammable liquid fuels produced or compounded for the purpose of operating or propelling internal-combustion engines: Provided, That kerosene shall not be considered to be a motor-vehicle fuel in the meaning of this chapter.

(c) The term "importer" means any person who brings into, or who produces, refines, manufactures, or compounds, in the District of Columbia motor-vehicle fuel to be used by him or to be sold, kept for sale, bartered, delivered for value, or exchanged for goods. The term "distributor" means any person other than an importer, who purchases motor-vehicle fuel for sale to another person for resale.

(d) The term "person" includes individual, partnership, corporation, and association.

(e) The term "commissioners" means the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

(f) The term "highways" means the right of way of streets, avenues, and roads, bridges, viaducts, underpasses, drainage structures, guard rails, signs, signals, curbing, and dikes, fills, and retaining walls necessary to support or protect the highway.

(g) The term "construction" means the supervising, inspecting, actual building, and all expenses incidental to the construction of a highway, including the acquisition of the necessary rights of way.

(h) The term "reconstruction" means a widening or a rebuilding of the highway or any portion thereof and of sufficient width and strength to care adequately for traffic needs, including all expenses incidental to the reconstruction of a highway and the acquisition of the necessary rights of way.

(i) The term "maintenance" means the constant making of needed repairs to preserve the highway.

(j) The term "improvement" means the betterment of a highway by construction, reconstruction, or resurfacing. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 106, ch. 131, § 2; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 677, ch. 690, title III, § 2; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 358, ch. 223, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1937 amendment deleted from subsection (c) the words "or otherwise disposed of by him or to be used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes" and inserted in lieu thereof the words which follow the word "sold" to the end of the subsection, and added subsections (f), (g), (h), and (i).

The 1938 amendment in subsection (f) deleted the words "and protective structures in connection with highways" and inserted in lieu thereof the words following the word "signals," and added subsection (j).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GASOLINE IMPORTED BY UNITED STATES

United States is not an "importer" or "person" within the meaning of the act. District of Columbia v. American Oil Co. (59 App. D. C. 260, 39 Fed. (2d) 510).

§ 47-1903 [20: 833]. Importers — License — Application for—Contents—Fee—Bond—Issuance—Revocation.

(a) No person shall bring into, or produce, refine, manufacture, or compound in the District of Columbia motor-vehicle fuel to be used by him or to be sold, bartered, delivered for value, or exchanged for goods, and no person shall engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels in the District of Columbia unless such person is the holder of an unrevoked license authorizing him so to do issued by the commissioners. The application for such license shall contain (1) the name of the applicant; (2) the name under which the applicant intends to transact business and the name and place of business of the local representative; (3) the location of the applicant's place of business; (4) the date such business was established; and (5) any other information required under regulations promulgated by the commissioners of the District of Columbia. In case the applicant is a corporation, the application shall also contain the corporate name, place, and time of incorporation, and the names of the officers and directors, and, if a foreign corporation, the name of its resident general agent, and in case the applicant is a partnership the names and addresses of the several persons constituting the partnership. Such application shall be signed and sworn to by the owner of such business, if owned by an individual; by the partners, if owned by a partnership; or by the president and secretary of the corporation, or by its manager or resident general agent, if owned by a corporation. At the time of applying for such license the applicant shall pay to the collector of taxes as an annual license fee the sum of $5 and shall file with the commissioners of the District of Columbia a bond in the form to be prescribed by said commissioners, in the approximate sum of three times the average monthly motor-fuel tax due from said such importer during the next preceding twelve months, or estimated to be so due in the next succeeding twelve months, to be executed by a surety company duly licensed to do business under the laws of the District of Columbia, payable to the District of Columbia and conditioned upon the prompt payment of any and all taxes and penalties, levied and imposed in sections 47-1901 and 47-1903 to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, and generally upon faithful compliance with the terms of sections 47-1901 to 47-1916 by such importer: Provided, That in no case shall such bond be less than $5,000 nor more than $20,000.

(b) Upon filing such application and bond and the payment of the fee, the assessor shall issue to such applicant a license which shall authorize the applicant to engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels for one year unless such license is sooner revoked.

(c) If any importer fails, refuses, or neglects to file the monthly report within the time required by section 47-1904, or to pay the tax within the time required by section 47-1906 there shall be added to such tax an amount equal to the sum of 20 per centum of the amount of such tax, and the assessor shall promptly notify the importer and the bonding company by notice sent by registered mail to such importer requiring him to show cause why the license should not be revoked. If in the opinion of the assessor the importer fails within ten days after the mailing of such notice to show that failure to file the monthly report or to pay the tax as the case may be within the time required was due to accident or justifiable oversight, the assessor shall forthwith revoke such license. Any importer whose license has been revoked shall not be issued another license for twelve months following the date of said revocation.

(d) Before any person whose license has been revoked may obtain another license to engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels, such person shall pay all delinquent taxes and penalties due hereunder remaining unpaid by him. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 3; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 678, ch. 690, title III, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment is, in effect, a new enactment superseding this section as contained in the 1924 act.

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1937, see Compiler's Note to § 47-1401.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SALE TO UNITED STATES

Congress did not intend to permit the United States to import gasoline, tax-free, and yet impose a tax if delivery to the United States by the vendor should be made in the District instead of across the line in Virginia. District of Columbia v. American Oil Co. (59 App. D. C. 260, 39 Fed. (2d) 510).

§ 47-1904 [20: 834]. To render monthly report to assessor of amount of fuel sold.

Each importer engaged in the District of Columbia in the sale or other disposition or use of motor-vehicle fuel shall render to the assessor of the District of Columbia, on or before the last day of each calendar month, on forms prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the said assessor, a sworn report of the total number of gallons of motor-vehicle fuel within the District of Columbia sold or otherwise disposed of by such importer or used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes, and of the number of gallons of such fuel so sold or otherwise disposed of for exportation from and resale without the District of Columbia, during the preceding calendar month. Such report shall be sworn to by one of the principal officers in case of a domestic corporation, by the resident general agent, or attorney in fact, or by a chief accountant or officer in case of a foreign corporation, or by the managing agent or owner in case of a partnership or association. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 4.)

§ 47-1905 [20: 835]. Invoices to be rendered by importers to all purchasers except in cases of retail sales.

Invoices shall be rendered by importers and distributors to all purchasers from them of motor-vehicle fuel within the District of Columbia except in case of retail sales. Said invoices shall contain a statement, printed thereon in a conspicuous place, that the liability to the District of Columbia for the tax herein imposed has been assumed by a licensed importer named in said statement and that the importer has paid the tax or will pay it on or before the last day of the calendar month next succeeding the purchase. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 5; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title III, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment inserted the words "and distributors" after "importers," and the words "by a licensed importer named in said statement" were inserted after the word "assumed."

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1937, see Compiler's Notes to § 47-1401.

§ 47-1906 [20: 836]. Tax to be paid to collector not later than last day of next succeeding calendar month.

The tax in respect to motor-vehicle fuel so sold or otherwise disposed of or used in any calendar month shall be paid by the importer on or before the last day of the next succeeding calendar month to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, who shall issue a receipt to the importer therefor. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 6.)

§ 47-1907 [20: 837]. Importer's records of transactions subject to inspection of assessor and collector.

The records of all purchases, receipts, sales, other dispositions, and uses of motor-vehicle fuel of every importer, distributor, or dealer shall, at all times during the business hours of the day, be subject to inspection by the assessor and the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, or by their duly authorized agents or by any other agent duly authorized by the Commissioners to make such inspection. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 7; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title III, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment added the words "distributor, or dealer."

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1937, see Compiler's Notes to § 47-1401.

§ 47-1908 [20: 838]. Penalty for accepting fuel from importer without an itemized sale statement.

It shall be unlawful for any person to accept or receive from any importer or distributor, except in cases of retail sales, any motor-vehicle fuel unless the statement provided for in section 47-1905 appears upon the invoice for the fuel. If any such motor-vehicle fuel is received and accepted by any person upon the invoice of which said statement does not appear, such person shall pay to the collector of taxes the tax herein imposed. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 8; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 679, ch. 690, title III, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment added the words "or distributor" and deleted following the word "imposed" the words "or be liable to the District of Columbia for double the amount of the said tax, which amount may be recovered by civil suit or action in any court of competent jurisdiction."

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1937, see Compiler's Notes to § 47-1401.

§ 47-1909 [20: 839]. Fuel to be exported from District of Columbia exempted from taxation.

No tax on motor-vehicle fuels exported or sold for exportation from the District of Columbia to any other jurisdiction or nation shall be imposed. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 9.)

§ 47-1910 [20: 840]. Motor fuel used for any purpose other than motor vehicle—Refund of tax payment.

Any person who purchases any motor-vehicle fuel in the District of Columbia to be used for operating or propelling any stationary gas engine, tractor used for agricultural purposes, motor-boat, aeroplane, or aircraft of any character, or for cleaning or dyeing, or for any other purpose other than use in a motor vehicle operated, or intended to be operated, in whole or in part upon any of the public highways of the District of Columbia, on which motor-vehicle fuel the tax imposed by sections 47-1901 to 47-1916 shall have been paid, shall be refunded the amount of such tax so paid by the importer, upon presenting to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sworn statement accompanied by the invoices showing such purchase, which statement shall set forth the total amount of such motor-vehicle fuel so purchased and used by such consumer other than in motor vehicles operated, or intended to be operated, on any of the public highways of the District of Columbia. Such refunds shall be made by check by the collector of taxes from moneys paid for taxes on motor-vehicle fuels and retained on deposit as hereinafter in this section provided. For the purpose of such refunds the collector of taxes is authorized at all times to retain in a special fund on deposit in a Government depository moneys paid him for such taxes, the total amount so retained on deposit not to exceed $1,000 at any one time. Applications for refunds as provided herein, must be filed with the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia within sixty days from the date of purchase: Provided, That before any refund shall be made the applicant shall furnish to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia satisfactory evidence by sworn statement of the exempted use of such fuel purchased by him. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 10; Aug. 11, 1939, 53 Stat. 1409, ch. 692.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the word "thirty" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "sixty."

CROSS REFERENCE

Refund of taxes, § 47-1017 and notes.

§ 47-1911 [20: 841]. Violations—Penalty.

Any person violating any provision of sections 47-1903 to 47-1906 inclusive, or section 47-1908, or refusing or obstructing inspection under section 47-1907, or falsely making any statement or report required by sections 47-1901 to 47-1916, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 11; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 679, ch. 690, title III, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment added the words "or section 8 (§ 47-1908)," and deleted the words "Any person who fails to pay any tax upon motor-vehicle fuels imposed by this act shall be liable to the District of Columbia for a penalty equal to twice the amount of such tax. Such penalty may be collected in a civil suit in any court of competent jurisdiction."

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1937, see Compiler's Notes to § 47-1401.

§ 47-1912 [20: 844]. Tax on fuel sold by United States agency in the District of Columbia.

When under authority of law gasoline or other motor-vehicle fuel is sold by an agency of the United States within the District of Columbia, for use in privately owned vehicles, such agency of the United States shall, by agreement with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, arrange for the collection of the tax of 2 cents per gallon herein authorized to be imposed, and for accounting to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia for the proceeds of such tax collections. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 14.)

§ 47-1913 [20: 845]. Violations to be prosecuted by corporation counsel.

All prosecution for violations of the provisions of sections 47-1901 to 47-1906 or regulations prescribed thereunder may be in the police court of the District of Columbia, upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants; and all suits for the collection of any tax or penalty under sections 47-1901 to 47-1906 or such regulations shall be instituted by the corporation counsel or any of his assistants. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 15.)

§ 47-1914 [20: 846]. Construction—Not to affect public hackers.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed in any wise to affect the provisions of sections 47-2331 to 47-2333. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 16.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The paragraphs of the 1902 act referred to appeared in D. C. 1929 as sections 879, 881, and 882 of title 20. The act of July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 550, ch. 366, purported to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. The 1932 act appeared in Supplement V to D. C. 1929 as chapter 10 of title 20 and appears in this code as chapter 23 of this title. Paragraphs 11, 13, and 14 of the 1902 act contain subject matter closely akin to paragraphs 31, 32, and 33 of the 1932 act, which appear in this code, as they are now amended, as §§ 47-2331 to 47-2333.

§ 47-1915 [20: 847]. Construction—Personal tax laws not affected.

Nothing in sections 47-1901 to 47-1916 shall be construed as affecting the application to motor vehicles of the personal-property tax in force on May 3, 1924, which personal-property tax shall continue to be levied, assessed, and collected on motor vehicles. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 110, ch. 131, § 17.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Taxation of motor vehicles, § 47-1210.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

This act should be considered as a whole, and, if possible, given an interpretation that will harmonize and accord full force and effect to all of its provisions. District of Columbia v. Bailey (57 App. D. C. 151, 18 Fed. (2d) 387).

§ 47-1916 [20: 848]. Commissioners to make necessary regulations.

The commissioners may make such regulations as in their judgment are necessary for the administration of this chapter and may affix thereto such fines and penalties as in their judgment are necessary to enforce such regulations (in cases in which a penalty is not otherwise provided by law). (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 110, ch. 131, § 18.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Rules and regulations, § 47-2502 and notes.

§ 47-1917. Street paving—Assessments.

Assessments in accordance with existing law shall be made for paving and repaving roadways, where such roadways are paved or repaved, with funds derived from the collection of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels. (Mar. 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 167, ch. 44, § 1.)

§ 47-1918 [20: 849]. Revenue and disbursements.

All moneys derived from assessments for paving and repaving roadways under provisions of existing law arising from the expenditure of the fund created by the tax on motor-vehicle fuels, shall be paid into the treasury of the United States and be credited to and constitute a part of said fund and shall thereafter be available for appropriation in the same manner as the proceeds of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels. (June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 550, ch. 302.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PROVIDED BY EXISTING LAW

Term "provided by existing law" should be held to refer to the provision of the statute relating to the paving, and not to the assumed principle of common law relating to the relocation of the tracks. District of Columbia v. Georgetown & T. R. Co. (59 App. D. C. 335, 41 Fed. (2d) 424).

§ 47-1919 [20: 850]. Continuation of uncompleted projects at end of fiscal year.

Any projects or portions of projects chargeable to the gasoline-tax road and street improvement fund during the fiscal year 1925 and subsequent fiscal years and uncompleted at the close of those years shall be a continuing charge upon the fund until completed and shall, except in so far as conditions beyond the control of the commissioners prevent, be given priority over projects subsequently made a charge upon such fund. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1226, ch. 477.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

INVALIDITY

A special repaving assessment under acts authorizing assessments on frontage basis was invalid. Reichelderfer v. Hechinger (61 App. D. C. 104, 57 Fed. (2d) 943).

Chapter 20.—DOG TAX

Sec.

- 47-2001. Dog tax.
- 47-2002. Collector to furnish metallic tag.
- 47-2003. Impounding of dogs found at large without tag.
- 47-2004. Dogs wearing tag permitted to run at large—Exception.
- 47-2005. Owner of dog liable to civil action for damages caused by the dog.
- 47-2006. Dogs must wear collar with owner's name and tag.
- 47-2007. Removing dog's collar, insignia, or tag—Penalty.
- 47-2008. Poundmaster given power to make arrest.

§ 47-2001 [20: 915]. Dog tax.

There shall be levied a tax of two dollars each per annum upon all dogs owned or kept in the District of Columbia; said tax to be collected as other taxes in said District are or may be collected. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 1.)

§ 47-2002 [20: 916]. Collector to furnish metallic tag.

It shall be the duty of the collector of taxes, upon receipt of said tax, to give to the person paying the same, for each dog so paid for, a suitable metallic tag, stamped with the year, showing that said tax has been duly paid; and he shall keep a record of all such payments, with the date thereof, and the name, color, and sex of such dog, and the name of the person claiming any dog so paid for; and a copy of such record, certified under the hand and official seal of the said collector, which shall be given to any person demanding the same, upon payment of twenty-five cents therefor, shall be prima-facie evidence of such payment in any court of the District of Columbia. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 2.)

§ 47-2003 [20: 917]. Impounding of dogs found at large without tag.

The pound master of the District of Columbia shall, during the entire year, seize all dogs found running at large without the tax tag issued by the collector aforesaid attached, and all female dogs in heat found running at large, and shall impound the same; and if within forty-eight hours the same are not redeemed by the owners thereof by the payment of two dollars they shall be sold or destroyed, as the poundmaster may deem advisable; and any sale made by virtue hereof shall be deemed valid to all intents and purposes in all courts of the District of Columbia. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 3; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 547, ch. 1332.)

CROSS REFERENCE

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT

The amendment of this act without changing the particular provision that had previously been construed by the court does not modify the judicial interpretation previously given the act, as it will be presumed that such construction was in accordance with the legislative intent. Bardwell v. Petty (52 App. D. C. 310, 286 Fed. 772).

§ 47-2004 [20: 918]. Dogs wearing tag permitted to run at large—Exception.

Any dog wearing the tax tag hereinbefore provided for, except female dogs in heat, shall be permitted to run at large within the District of Columbia, and any dog wearing the tax tag hereinbefore provided for shall be regarded as personal property in all the courts of said District, and any person injuring or destroying the same shall be liable to a civil action for damages, which, upon proof of said injuring or killing, may be awarded in a sum equal to the value usually put upon such property by persons buying and selling the same, subject to such modifications as the particular circumstances of the case may make proper. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 4; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 547, ch. 1332.)

§ 47-2005 [20: 919]. Owner of dog liable to civil action for damages caused by the dog.

Any person owning any dog so recorded in the collector's office shall be liable in a civil action for any damage done by said dog to the full amount of the injury inflicted. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 5.)

§ 47-2006 [20: 920]. Dogs must wear collar with owner's name and tag.

It shall be the duty of any person owning or possessing a dog to place, or cause to be placed and kept, around the neck of such dog, a collar, on which shall be marked and engraved, in legible and durable characters, the name of the owner or possessor, and the letters "D. C.," and to which collar must be attached the insignia or tax-tag furnished by the District tax-collector, in accordance with sections 47-2001, 47-2002, under the penalty of not less than five nor more than ten dollars; and if any person shall put, or cause to be put, a collar, with the insignia or tax-tag, around the neck of any dog owned or possessed by any person or persons residing in the District, without having obtained a license for keeping such animal, he, she, or they shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than five nor more than ten dollars for each and every offense. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 6.)

§ 47-2007 [20: 921]. Removing dog's collar, insignia, or tag—Penalty.

Any person who shall remove, or cause to be removed, the collar and insignia or tax-tag from the neck of any dog, or entice any properly licensed dog into any inclosure for the purpose of taking off its collar or insignia, or shall for such purpose decoy or entice any animal out of the inclosure or house of its owner or possessor, or shall seize or molest any dog while held or led by any person, or shall bring any dog into the District for the purpose of taking up and killing the same, shall forfeit and pay a sum of not more than twenty dollars. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 8.)

§ 47-2008 [20: 921a]. Poundmaster given power to make arrest.

In order to carry out properly and effectively the duties imposed upon him by Congress the poundmaster is hereby given authority as a special police officer of the Metropolitan police department of the District of Columbia, with authority to make arrests in the performance of his duty. (June 6, 1930, 46 Stat. 522, ch. 411, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section as enacted contained the clause, "and he shall receive a salary at the rate of $3,080 per annum." That portion has been deleted because subsequent appropriation acts have provided a different salary.

Chapter 21.—PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT AGENCY LICENSES

Sec.

- 47-2101. Employment agencies—License required—Definitions.
- 47-2102. Bond.
- 47-2103. Registers.
- 47-2104. Receipts.
- 47-2105. Location of place in which conducted.
- 47-2106. Application of minor.
- 47-2107. Inspection.
- 47-2108. False information.
- 47-2109. Exceptions from license requirements.
- 47-2110. Employment contract.
- 47-2111. Character of employer—Fraud.

§ 47-2101 [20: 1742]. Employment agencies — License required—Definitions.

It shall be unlawful for any person to open, keep, operate, maintain, or carry on any private employment agency without first having obtained a license from the District of Columbia so to do. The fee for such license shall be $100 per annum. Any license may be denied, revoked, or suspended for cause by the said commissioners: Provided, That any person whose license shall be denied, revoked, or suspended by the commissioners may, within thirty days after such denial, revocation, or suspension, apply to any justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for a writ of error to review such action. Such application shall not operate as a stay of any order issued in connection with such denial, revocation, or suspension.

(a) The term "private employment agency" means any business, enterprise, or undertaking that procures, offers to procure, promises to procure, attempts to procure, or aids in procuring, either directly or indirectly, help or employment for another, for any fee, remuneration, profit, or any consideration whatsoever, promises, paid, or received therefor, either directly or indirectly. It shall also include domestic, commercial, clerical, executive, professional, and general employment bureaus, and shall apply to theatrical employment agencies and nurses' registry conducted for profit or gain.

(a-1) The term "nurses' registry" means and includes the business of conducting an agency, bureau, office, or other place for the purpose of procuring, offering to procure, promising to procure, attempting to procure, or aiding in procuring employment or engagements for nurses of any kind.

(a-2) The term "theatrical employment agency" includes the business of conducting any agency, bureau, office, or other place providing engagements for circus, vaudeville, theatrical, and other entertainments or exhibitions or performances, or of giving information as to where such engagements may be procured or provided, but does not include the business of managing the artists or the attraction constituting such performances, where such business only incidentally involves the seeking of employment therefor.

(a-3) The term "applicant for employment" means any person seeking work, employment, or engagement of any character.

(a-4) The term "applicant for help" means any person seeking help, employees, or performers.

The singular shall include the plural and the masculine the feminine. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 559, ch. 366, par. 42.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This chapter sets out that part of the 1932 License Law that deals with employment agencies. Penalties for violating §§ 47-2101 to 47-2109 are set out by § 47-2347.

AMENDMENT

Prior to amendment by the 1932 act, this paragraph provided as follows: "Proprietors or owners of intelligence offices, information bureaus, registries, or employment offices, by whatsoever name called, shall pay a license tax of ten dollars per annum."

See Compiler's Note to § 47-1201.

§ 47-2102 [20: 1743]. Bond.

No license shall become effective under section 47-2101 until bond in due form in the penal sum of $1,000, or such lesser amount as the commissioners may determine with two or more sureties or a duly authorized surety company to be approved by the commissioners, shall have been deposited with the commissioners. The bond shall be payable to the District of Columbia and shall be conditioned that the person applying for the license will comply with this chapter and shall pay all damages occasioned to any person by reason of any misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud, or deceit, or any unlawful act or omission of any licensed person, made, committed, or omitted in the business conducted under such license, or caused by any other violation of this chapter in carrying on the business for which such license is granted. One or more recoveries upon such bond shall not vitiate the same, but it shall remain in full force and effect: Provided, however, That the aggregate amount of all such recoveries shall not exceed the full amount of the bond. Upon the commencement of any action or actions against the surety upon any such bond for a sum or sums aggregating or exceeding the amount of such bond the commissioners may require a new and additional bond in like amount as the original one which shall be filed with the commissioners within thirty days of the demand therefor. Failure to file such bond within the prescribed time shall constitute cause for the revocation of the license therefor issued. Any suit or action against the surety on any bond required by the provisions of this section shall be commenced within one year from the accruing of the cause of action thereon.

If at any time, in the opinion of the commissioners, the sureties, or any of them, shall become irresponsible, the person holding such license shall, upon notice from the commissioners, give a new bond, and the failure to give a new bond within ten days after such notice, in the discretion of the commissioners, shall operate as a revocation of such license.

The commissioners shall furnish to anyone applying therefor a certified copy of any such bond filed in their office upon the payment of a fee of $1, and such certified copy shall be prima facie evidence in any court that such bond was duly executed and delivered by the person or corporation whose name appears therein. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42b, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 560, ch. 366.)

§ 47-2103 [20: 1744]. Registers.

It shall be the duty of every licensee to keep a register, approved by the commissioners, in which shall be entered, in the English language, the date of the application for employment, the name and address of the applicant to whom employment is promised or offered, the amount of the fee received, and, whenever possible, the names and addresses of former employers or persons to whom such applicant is known. Such licensee shall also enter in a separate register, approved by the commissioners, in the English language, the name and address of every applicant accepted for help, the date of such application, kind of help requested, the names of the persons sent, with the designation of the one employed, and the amount of the fee received. The aforesaid registers of applicants for employment and help shall be open during office hours to inspection by the said commissioners. No such licensee shall make any false entry in such registers. It shall be the duty of every licensee, whenever possible, to communicate orally or in writing with at least one of the persons mentioned as references for every applicant for work in private families or employed in a fiduciary capacity, and the result of such investigation shall be kept on file in such agency: Provided, That if the applicant for help voluntarily waives in writing such investigation of references by the licensee, failure on the part of the licensee to make such investigation shall not be deemed a violation of this section. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42c, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47-2104 [20: 1745]. Receipts.

It shall be the duty of such licensee to give to every applicant for employment from whom a fee shall be received a receipt in which shall be stated the name of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the purpose for which it was paid, and to every applicant for help a receipt stating the name and address of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the kind of help to be provided. Every receipt given by such licensee shall bear the name and address of such licensee printed in large type thereon. Every receipt shall have printed on the back thereof a copy of § 47-2108 in the English language. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42d, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47-2105 [20: 1746]. Location of place in which conducted.

No private employment agency licensed under section 47-2101 shall be located in rooms used for living purposes, or in rooms where boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served or persons sleep, or in any building or on premises wherein rooms are located and used for living purposes, or wherein boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served, or persons sleep, or in any building wherein such rooms are located; nor shall any such private employment agency be located in any such building where the entrance thereto is not separate and apart from the entrance to the building proper, or where there is any entrance into the building proper from said private employment agency: Provided, That no one shall be precluded from keeping an employment agency in an office building by reason of there being a cafe or restaurant in another part of said building. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42e, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47-2106 [20: 1747]. Application of minor.

No licensee shall accept any application for employment made by or on behalf of any child, or shall place or assist in placing any such child in any employment whatever in violation of any compulsory education or child labor laws. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42f, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47-2107 [20: 1748]. Inspection.

All registers, books, records, and other papers required to be kept pursuant to this chapter in any private employment agency shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the commissioners, and every licensee shall post in a conspicuous place in such agency the license certificate. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42g, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See notes to § 47-2101.

§ 47-2108 [20: 1749]. False information.

No licensee conducting any private employment agency shall publish or cause to be published any false or fraudulent or misleading information, representation, notice, or advertisement, nor shall he give any false information, or make any false promise or false representation concerning an engagement or employment to any applicant who shall register or apply for an engagement or employment or help. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42h, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

§ 47-2109 [20: 1750]. Exceptions from license requirements.

This chapter shall not apply to employment bureaus conducted by registered medical institutions, duly incorporated hospitals, or duly incorporated alumni associations of registered nurses, or to any bureau maintained by persons for the purpose of securing help or employees where no fee is charged. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42i, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

§ 47-2110 [20: 949]. Employment contract.

No such person shall induce or attempt to induce any domestic employee to leave his employment with a view to obtaining other employment through such agency. Whenever any licensed person, or any other acting for him, agrees to send one or more persons, to work as contract laborers in any one place outside the city in which such agency is located, the said licensed person shall give to the applicant for employment, in writing, the name and address of the employer, name and address of the employee, nature of the work to be performed, wages offered, destination of the person employed, and terms of transportation. (June 19, 1906, 34 Stat. 308, ch. 3438, § 9.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This is a section of the prior law which was deemed not to be in conflict with the foregoing sections of this chapter and hence not repealed.

§ 47-2111 [20: 950]. Character of employer—Fraud.

No such licensed person shall send, or cause to be sent, any female as a servant or inmate or performer to enter any place of bad repute, house of ill fame, or assignation house, or to any house or place of amusement kept for immoral purposes, or place resorted to for the purpose of prostitution, or gambling house, the character of which such licensed person could have ascertained upon reasonable inquiry. No such licensed person shall knowingly permit any person of bad character, prostitutes, gamblers, intoxicated persons, or procurers, to frequent such agency. No such person shall procure or offer to procure help or employment in rooms or on premises where intoxicating liquors are sold to be consumed on the premises, whether or not dues or a fee or privilege is exacted, charged, or received directly or indirectly: Provided, That it shall be unlawful for employment agents or agencies to send applicants for employment to employers other than those who have applied to such agents or agencies for help or labor. For the violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this section the penalty shall be a fine of not more than two hundred dollars and in default in payment thereof by imprisonment in the workhouse for a period of not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. No such licensed person shall publish or cause to be published any false or fraudulent or misleading notice or advertisement. All advertisements of such employment agency by means of cards, circulars, or signs, and in newspapers and other publications, and all letter heads, receipts, and blanks shall contain the name and address of such employment agency, and no such licensed person shall give any false information, or make any false promise or false representation concerning employment to any applicant who shall register for employment or help. (June 19, 1906, 34 Stat. 308, ch. 3438, § 10.)

§ 47-2201 [20: 869]. Public auction—Auction of merchandise without permit from Commissioners prohibited.

Excepting sales made under authority of law, it shall be unlawful in the District of Columbia for any person, firm, or corporation, either for himself or itself, or for another, or for any firm, or corporation to sell or offer at public auction any stock or stocks of merchandise, in whole or in part, without first obtaining from the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia a written or printed permit so to do; and the said board of commissioners shall not issue a permit for any such sale or sales until they are satisfied that neither fraud nor deception of any kind is contemplated or will be practiced, and that neither the sale, the reasons therefor nor the goods to be sold have not already been or will not thereafter be fraudulently or falsely advertised or in any wise whatsoever misrepresented. (Sept. 8, 1916, 39 Stat. 846, ch. 473, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Sections 47-2201 to 47-2208 were saved from repeal by the act of July 1, 1932, ch. 366, par. 9, 47 Stat. 552, (§ 47-2309).

§ 47-2301 [20: 1701]. Licenses required for business or profession—Application—Transfer of license—Signing and sealing.

No person shall engage in or carry on any business, trade, profession, or calling in the District of Columbia for which a license fee or tax is imposed by the terms of this chapter without having first obtained a license so to do. Applications for licenses shall be made to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent, and no license shall be granted until payment for the same shall have been made. Every license shall specify by name the person, firm, or corporation to which it shall be issued, the business, trade, profession, or calling for which it is granted, and the location at which such business, trade, profession, or calling is to be carried on. Licenses granted under the terms of this chapter may be assigned or transferred on application upon the conditions applicable to granting the original licenses, and the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent shall issue a certificate of such assignment or transfer upon the payment to the District of Columbia of a fee of $1 therefor. All licenses and transfers issued or granted shall be signed by the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent and impressed with a seal to be adopted by the commissioners of the District of Columbia. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 1; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 550, ch. 366.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The enacting clause of the act cited to the text provided: "That section 7 of an act entitled 'An Act making appropriations to provide for the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, and for other purposes,' approved July 1, 1902, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:"

The second paragraph of that act reads: "Applications for licenses shall be made to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress, approved March 3, 1917, and no license shall be granted until payment for the same shall have been made."

The act of March 3, 1917 (39 Stat. 1006, ch. 160), to which reference was made was as follows: "All the authority, duties, discretion, and powers now vested by law in the assessor of the District of Columbia with respect to licenses and the issuance thereof, shall, on and after July first, nineteen hundred and seventeen, be transferred to and vest in the superintendent of licenses provided for in this act."

The superintendent of licenses was provided for in the act by merely appropriating one year's salary for the office.

The provision of the act of 1932 that application for licenses shall be made to and granted by "the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their designated agent" renders superfluous the following language in this section: "in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1917," and the same was accordingly eliminated.

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect it is a new enactment superseding § 7 of the prior act. (See also compiler's note hereto.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Some portions of D. C. 1929, title 20, §§ 907-910, may still be in effect. For this reason they are set out herein as notes. They read as follows:

"907. Billiard, pool, bagatelle tables, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep any billiard table, bagatelle table, shuffleboard, jenny-lind table, pool table, or any table upon which legitimate games are played, in any saloon, room, or place of business within the District of Columbia for public use or for profit or gain, without a license therefor first had and obtained from the superintendent of licenses of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 1.)"

"908. Same; date of license.—Every person taking out such license shall pay to the collector of taxes of said District a license fee of twelve dollars per annum for each table. Said license may be granted or refused in the discretion of the superintendent of licenses of said District, and all licenses so granted shall date from the first day of the month in which the liability began and expire on the thirty-first day of October in each year: Provided, That in all cases of refusal of said superintendent of licenses to grant said license, or upon written protest of a majority or more of the property owners or residents of the block in which it is proposed to grant such license, an appeal may be taken to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, whose decision shall be final. Proprietors of bowling alleys in the District of Columbia shall pay to the collector of taxes of said District an annual license tax of twelve dollars for each alley. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 2; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 45; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 565, ch. 1815.)"

"909. Same; penalty for failure to procure license.—Every person who shall own, keep, or use any billiard table, bagatelle table, pool table, or any table or board of the kind mentioned in section 907 of this title, for public use or profit without such license first had and obtained, shall, on conviction in the police court, be fined twenty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding three months for each offense, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 3.)"

"910. Same; to be closed twenty-four hours every Sunday.—It shall not be lawful for the proprietors of billiard tables, pool tables, bagatelle tables, jenny lind tables, or other tables of the kind mentioned in section 907 of this title, shuffleboards and bowling alleys, kept for public hire and gain in the District of Columbia to sell or to allow to be sold in the same room, spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, and all such places shall be closed during the entire twenty-four hours of each and every Sunday, and also between twelve o'clock midnight and four o'clock in the morning. And it shall be unlawful for the proprietor or proprietors of any billiard or pool room or billiard or pool table operated in connection with a bar-room or other place where intoxicating liquors are sold to suffer or permit any minor under eighteen years of age to frequent, visit, or patronize the same.

"Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than forty dollars, and shall in addition forfeit his or her license, in the discretion of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1893, 27 Stat. 565, ch. 204, § 6; Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 595, ch. 315, § 4; May 22, 1902, 32 Stat. 202, ch. 819.)"

AMENDMENTS

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2301.)

The 1937 amendment added the second proviso.

§ 47-2322 [20: 1722]. Shooting galleries.

Owners or managers of shooting galleries shall pay a license fee of ten dollars per annum. No shooting gallery shall be licensed until the inspector of buildings for the District of Columbia shall furnish a certificate that suitable precautions have been taken for the public safety by the erection of suitable shields and such appliances as, in his judgment, may be necessary. Before such license shall be issued the proprietor shall furnish to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent the written consent of a majority of the occupants and residents on the same side of the square or block in which the proposed gallery is to be located and also on the confronting side of the square fronting opposite to the same. The major and superintendent of police is hereby authorized to prescribe the caliber of firearms and kind of cartridges to be used in such licensed places. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366, par. 22.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PAYMENT UNDER PROTEST

Fact that a party pays a license fee for an apartment house under protest does not make the payment involuntary. Blanks v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 118, 85 Fed. (2d) 284).

§ 47-2330 [20: 1730]. Lodging houses.

Owners or managers of lodging houses shall pay a license fee of $15 per annum. Within the meaning of this section a lodging house shall be a building in which sleeping quarters are provided to accommodate ten or more transients. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366, par. 30.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2301.)

§ 47-2331 [20: 1731]. Routed passenger vehicles, vehicles for hire—Hackers' licenses—Identification tags on vehicles.

(a) Every passenger vehicle for hire licensed under this section shall be considered a public vehicle.

(b) Any person, partnership, association, trust, or corporation operating or proposing to operate any vehicle or vehicles not confined to rails or tracks for the transportation of passengers for hire over all or any portion of any defined route or routes in the District of Columbia, except when such vehicle or vehicles are to be operated solely for sight-seeing purposes, shall, on or before the 1st day of October in each year, or before commencing such operation, submit to the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia, in triplicate, an application for license, stating therein the name of such person, partnership, association, trust, or corporation, the number and kind of each type of vehicle to be used in such operation, the schedule or schedules and the total number of vehicle-miles to be operated with such vehicles within the District of Columbia during the twelve month period beginning with the 1st day of November in the same year. The Public Utilities Commission shall thereupon verify and approve, or return to the applicant for correction and resubmission, each such statement, and when approved, forward one copy thereof to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agents and return one copy to the applicant. Upon receipt of the approved copy, and prior to the 1st day of November in the same year, or before commencing such operation, each such applicant shall pay to the collector of taxes, in lieu of any other franchise, personal or license tax, in connection with such operation, the sum of eight-tenths of 1 cent for each vehicle-mile proposed to be operated in the District of Columbia in accordance with the application as approved. Upon presentation of the receipt for such payment, the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent shall issue a license authorizing the applicant to carry on the operations embodied in the approved application. No increase of operations shall be commenced or continued unless and until an application similar to the original and covering such increase in operation shall have been approved and forwarded in the same manner and the corresponding additional payment made and license issued. No license shall be issued under the terms of paragraph (b) of this section without the approval of the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia.

(c) Owners of passenger vehicles for hire having a seating capacity of eight passengers or more, in addition to the driver or operator, other than those licensed to the preceding paragraph, shall pay a license tax of $100 per annum for each vehicle used. No such vehicle shall be operated unless there shall be conspicuously displayed therein a license issued under the terms of this paragraph. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 15 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly.

(d) Owners of passenger vehicles for hire, whether operated from a private establishment or from public space, other than those licensed in the two preceding paragraphs, shall pay a license tax of $25 per annum for each such vehicle used in the conduct of their business. Stands for such vehicles upon public space, adjacent to hotels or otherwise, may be established in the manner provided in section 40-603. The Public Utilities Commission is hereby authorized to make and enforce all such reasonable and usual police regulations as it may deem necessary for the proper conduct, control, and regulation of all vehicles described in this and the preceding paragraphs and section 47-2333. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 15 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly.

(e) No person shall engage in driving or operating any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section without having procured from the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent a license and a badge numbered to correspond with the number of said license, neither of which shall be issued except upon evidence satisfactory to the director of motor vehicles under the direction of the commissioners of the District of Columbia that the applicant is a person of good moral character and is qualified to operate such vehicle, and upon payment of an annual license fee of $5. Such license shall be displayed within the vehicle and such badge prominently worn upon the driver's breast at all times while engaged in driving any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraphs (c) and (d). Application for such license shall be made in such form as shall be prescribed to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent. Each annual license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be numbered, and there shall be kept in the Department of Vehicles and Traffic a record containing the name of each person so licensed, his annual license number, and all matters affecting his qualifications to be licensed hereunder. No license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be assigned or transferred.

(f) All vehicles licensed under this section shall bear such identification tags as the commissioners of the District of Columbia may from time to time direct; and nothing herein contained shall exempt such vehicles from compliance with the traffic and motor-vehicle regulations of the District of Columbia, nor shall it deprive the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia from assuming control over such vehicles, under such regulations as the Public Utilities Commission may from time to time adopt and promulgate: Provided, That nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed so as to diminish the powers conferred on the commissioners of the District of Columbia under the provisions of sections 40-301 to 40-303, 40-601 to 40-605, 40-609 to 40-611, and 40-613 to 40-615, nor to diminish the powers conferred on the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia by said sections and by sections 40-1001 to 40-1007 creating the Public Utilities Commission. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366, par. 31; Apr. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 570, ch. 41; July 17, 1939, 53 Stat. 1046, ch. 313, § 3.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The reference to the various sections of chapters 3 and 6 of title 40 (District of Columbia Traffic Acts) should be read to include the powers conferred upon the Commissioners by the Act of Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, where such act amends §§ 11-601, 11-616, 11-621, 11-623, and 11-1407.

AMENDMENTS

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2401.)

The April 5, 1939, amendment added the last sentence of (c) and the July 17, 1939 amendment changed the dates therein provided as follows: March 1 to April 1; February 15 to March 15; March 1, 1940, to April 1, 1940; and, February 29, 1940, to March 31, 1940.

The April 5, 1939, amendment deleted the words "Licenses issued under this subparagraph shall date from July 1, in each year. There shall be carried on each such vehicle a number corresponding to the number of the license issued therefor, in such place and of such character and dimensions as may be prescribed by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia. Said commission is hereby authorized to establish stands upon the public space, adjacent to hotels, or otherwise for occupancy by said vehicles, and is further authorized" and inserted in lieu thereof in (d) the second sentence and the first seven words of the third sentence; deleted the words "subject to the approval of the joint board created by section 6 (e) of the act entitled 'An act to amend the acts approved March 3, 1925, and July 3, 1926,' known as the District of Columbia Traffic Acts, and so forth, approved February 27, 1931" and inserted in lieu thereof in (d) the last eleven words of the third sentence thereof and the last sentence.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BUSSES

Statute requires, in respect of bus transportation, the licensing of vehicles rather than uses or businesses, and contemplates but one license for such a vehicle, which, under the stipulated facts operates primarily in regularly-routed passenger service and but occasionally in charter-bus and sight-seeing service. If the drafters intended to require a separate license for occasional charter-bus and sight-seeing service, they did not provide for it. Capital Transit Co. v. District of Columbia (66 App. D. C. 351, 87 Fed. (2d) 748)

PASSENGER VEHICLES FOR HIRE

Vehicles are "passenger vehicles for hire" when hired by an undertaker or lodge as clearly as when hired by individual passengers, and subject to tax. Cave v. District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 138, 90 Fed. (2d) 383).

Unless a restricted meaning is to be given to the word "passenger," it follows that ambulances are "passenger vehicles for hire." Hazen v. Chambers (71 App. D. C. 220, 108 Fed. (2d) 741).

Sick or well, one who is carried, for hire, through the streets in a vehicle kept and driven by another for such purposes is considered a passenger in the ordinary sense of the word, and whether the hire is greater or less than the cost of the service is not material. Hazen v. Chambers (71 App. D. C. 220, 108 Fed. (2d) 741).

§ 47-2332 [20: 1732]. Rental or leasing of motor vehicle without driver.

The owners or managers of establishments where automobiles or other motor vehicles are kept for rent or lease without a driver shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum for each such establishment: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to exempt such owners or managers from paying additional license taxes required by this chapter. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366, par. 32.)

§ 47-2336 [20: 1736]. Sales on streets or public places.

No person shall sell any article of merchandise, or anything whatever, excepting newspapers sold at large and not from a fixed location, upon the public streets, or from public space in the District of Columbia, without a license first having been obtained under this section. Persons so licensed shall be considered as venders, whether selling from a fixed location, on foot from house to house, or from a vehicle of any description, and shall pay a license tax of $12 per annum. Every vender so licensed shall be furnished with a badge corresponding to the number of his license, which badge shall be worn conspicuously whenever transacting business, and where sales are made from a vehicle such vender shall be provided with a metal plate containing a number similar to the number of his license, which plate shall be conspicuously attached to the vehicle at all times when such vender is transacting business: Provided, That no license shall be required of any person bringing to and selling at the several markets produce of his own raising: And provided further, That raisers of produce shall not be exempt from the license tax imposed unless they sell such produce at the several markets or by the wholesale in cart, wagon, or carload lots. The commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make, modify, and enforce necessary regulations governing the conduct upon the public streets and public spaces of venders licensed hereunder, including the power to locate the places where licensed venders on the public streets and public spaces shall stand, and to change them as often as the public interests require. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366, par. 36.)

§ 47-2337 [20: 1737]. Solicitors.

Solicitors shall pay a license fee of five dollars per annum. Any person who goes from house to house, or place to place, within the District of Columbia, selling or taking orders for or offering to sell or take orders for goods, wares, merchandise, or any article or thing of value for future delivery, or for services to be performed in the future or for the making, manufacturing, or repairing of any article or thing whatsoever for future delivery, and requiring or accepting a deposit for such future delivery or service, shall be deemed to be a "solicitor," within the meaning of this section: Provided, however, That this definition shall not apply to persons selling goods, wares, merchandise, or any article or thing of value for resale to retailers in that commodity. Any person desiring a solicitor's license shall make application to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent on forms to be provided for that purpose, stating the name of the applicant, the name and address of the person whom he represents, the class and kind of goods offered for sale, or the kind of service to be performed. Such application shall be accompanied by a bond in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, running to the District of Columbia, conditioned upon the making of final delivery of the goods ordered, or services to be performed, in accordance with the terms of such order, or failing therein, that the advance payment on such order be refunded. Any person aggrieved by the action of any such solicitor shall have the right of action on the bond for the recovery of money, or damages, or both. All orders taken by licensed solicitors shall be in writing in duplicate, stating the terms thereof and the amount paid in advance, and one copy shall be given to the purchaser. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366, par. 37.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2301.)

§ 47-2338 [20: 1738]. Guides.

No person shall, for hire, guide or escort any person through or about the District of Columbia, or any part thereof, unless he shall have first secured a license so to do. The fee for each such license shall be ten dollars per annum. No license shall be issued hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police. The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make reasonable regulations for the examination of all applicants for such licenses and for the government and conduct of persons licensed hereunder, including the power to require said persons to wear a badge while engaged in their calling. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366, par. 38.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2301.)

§ 47-2339 [20: 1739]. Secondhand dealers.

Dealers in secondhand personal property, including the return or other unused portion of any ticket, order, or token purporting to evidence the right of the holder or possessor thereof to be transported by any railroad or other common carrier, however operated, from one state or territory of the United States, or from the District of Columbia, to any other state or territory of the United States or to the District of Columbia, shall pay a license tax of fifty dollars per annum. Every person engaged in the business of buying, selling, trading, exchanging, or dealing in secondhand personal property of any description, including the return or unused portion of any such ticket, order, or token, shall be regarded as a secondhand dealer. When any piping or other household fixtures or secondhand goods of any description whatever have been stolen and sold to a dealer in junk, or secondhand dealer, in the District of Columbia, under such circumstances that the commissioners of the District of Columbia, after hearing granted, are satisfied that said dealer should have had reasonable ground to believe, or could have ascertained by reasonable inquiry or investigation, that the goods were stolen, and that the dealer did not make reasonable inquiry or investigation as to the title of the seller before making the purchase, the commissioners are authorized and directed to revoke the license of said dealer; and this action shall not be a bar to criminal prosecution for receiving stolen goods. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366, par. 39.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

UNDER 1902 LAW

Provision in paragraph 27 of § 7 of the act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626 requiring consent of property-owners to issuance of licenses to conduct enumerated businesses is not applicable to junk dealers' licenses under paragraphs 27, 43. Coombe v. United States ex rel. Selis (55 App. D. C. 190, 3 Fed. (2d) 714).

SALES WITHOUT LICENSE

Engaging in the business of selling secondhand property without a license was not indictable at common law. Today it is at most but an infringement of local police regulations, and its moral quality is relatively inoffensive. District of Columbia v. Clawans (300 U. S. 617, 81 L. Ed. 843, 57 Sup. Ct. 660, affg. 66 App. D. C. 11, 84 Fed. (2d) 265).

§ 47-2340 [20: 1740]. Dealers in dangerous weapons.

Dealers in dangerous or deadly weapons shall pay a license tax of $50 per annum. No license shall issue hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police, and the commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make and promulgate regulations for the conduct of the business of persons licensed hereunder, including the power to require a record to be kept of all sales of deadly or dangerous weapons, to prescribe a form therefor, and to require reports of all such sales to the major and superintendent of police at such time as the Commissioners may deem advisable. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366, par. 40.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section may be superseded by § 22-3209 et seq.

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2301.)

CROSS REFERENCE

On the authority of section 22-3210, it would appear that the prior approval of the major and superintendent of police is unnecessary.

§ 47-2341 [20: 1741]. Private detectives.

(a) Private detectives, or detective agencies, by whatsoever name called, shall pay a license tax of $100 per annum: Provided, That no license shall be issued under this section without the approval of the major and superintendent of police.

(b) For the purpose of this section, the term "detective" or "detective agency" shall mean and include any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of, or advertising, or representing himself, or itself, as being engaged in the business of detecting, discovering, or revealing crime or criminals, or securing information for evidence relating thereto, or discovering or revealing the identity, whereabouts, character, or actions of any person or persons, thing or things.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of detective, or operate, manage, or conduct a detective agency, for profit or gain, or to advertise or represent his business to be that of a detective, or that of conducting, managing, or operating a detective agency, without first obtaining a license so to do.

(d) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make such reasonable regulations as they deem advisable for the government and conduct of the business of private detectives licensed hereunder, and are further authorized and empowered to revoke the license of a private detective when in their judgment such is deemed advisable in the public interest.

(e) All laws which govern the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia in the matters of persons, property, or money shall be applicable to all private detectives licensed hereunder, and such detectives shall make like returns and dispositions of such matters as is required by existing law and the rules of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia governing the Metropolitan police department. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 559, ch. 366, par. 41.)

§ 47-2342 [20: 1751]. Fortune telling.

Mediums, clairvoyants, soothsayers, fortune tellers, palmists, or phrenologists, by whatsoever name called, conducting business for profit or gain, directly or indirectly, shall pay a license tax of $250 per annum. No license shall be issued hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police, nor shall any license be issued hereunder to any person not an actual resident of the District of Columbia for two years next preceding his date of application: Provided, That no license shall be required of persons pretending to tell fortunes or practice palmistry, phrenology, or any of the callings herein listed, in a regular licensed theater, or as a part of any play, exhibition, fair, or show presented or offered in aid of any benevolent, charitable, or educational purpose: And provided further, That no license shall be required of any ordained priest or minister, or accredited representative of any such priest or minister, the fees for whose ministrations are not the private property of such ordained priest, minister, or accredited representative of such priest or minister. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366, par. 43.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2301.)

§ 47-2343 [20: 1752]. Exposing persons or animals as targets prohibited.

No person shall set up, operate, or conduct any business or device by or in which any person, animal, or living object shall act or be exposed as a target for any ball, projectile, missile, or thing thrown or projected for or in consideration of profit or gain, directly or indirectly. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366, par. 44.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47-2301.)

§ 47-2344 [20: 1753]. Commissioners may regulate, modify, or eliminate license requirements.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered, when in their discretion such is deemed advisable, to require a license of other businesses or callings not listed in this chapter and which, in their judgment, require inspection, supervision, or regulation by any municipal agency or agencies and to fix the license fee therefor in such amount as, in their judgment, will be commensurate with the cost to the District of Columbia of such inspection, supervision, or regulation, and are further authorized and empowered in their discretion to modify any of the provisions of this chapter so far as eliminating therefrom any business or calling in this chapter required to be licensed, or to raise or lower the amount of the license fee provided in this chapter, as the cost of inspection, supervision, or regulation is raised or lowered. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366, par. 45.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY

The penalty imposed by this section is not one as to which there is a constitutional right to a trial by jury. District of Columbia v. Clawans (300 U. S. 617, 81 L. Ed. 843, 57 Sup. Ct. 660, affg. 66 App. D. C. 11, 84 Fed. (2d) 265).

§ 47-2348 [20: 1757]. Saving clause.

Any violation of any provision of law or regulation issued hereunder which is repealed by this chapter and any liability arising under such provisions or regulations may, if the violation occurred or the liability arose prior to such repeal, be prosecuted to the same extent as if this chapter had not been enacted. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366, par. 49.)

Sec.

- 47-2401. Tax appeals—Definitions.
- 47-2402. Board of Tax Appeals.
- 47-2403. Appeal from assessment—Payment under protest—Hearing and decision.
- 47-2404. Review by court—Procedure—Decision of board, when final—Modification or reversal.
- 47-2405. Appeals of real estate assessments.
- 47-2406. Appeal from imposition of tax involuntarily paid—Suit.
- 47-2407. Refund of erroneous collections.
- 47-2408. Rules of procedure.
- 47-2409. Summons—Authority to take testimony.
- 47-2410. Certain suits forbidden.
- 47-2411. Manner of serving notices.
- 47-2412. Reference by Commissioners to the Board.

§ 47-2401 [20: 972]. Tax appeals—Definitions.

In the interpretation of this chapter, unless the context indicates a different meaning—

The word "tax" means the tax or taxes mentioned in this chapter.

The word "appeal" means the appeal provided in this chapter.

The word "board" means the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia created by this chapter.

The word "commissioners" means the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

The word "District" means the District of Columbia.

The word "person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation (domestic or foreign), trust, estate, or receiver.

The word "court" shall mean the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

The word "assessor" shall mean the assessor of the District of Columbia.

The words "Board of Equalization and Review" shall mean the Board of Equalization and Review of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 1, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47-2402 [20: 973]. Board of Tax Appeals.

The commissioners shall appoint a board of one person, subject to removal by the commissioners, to be called the "Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia," which person shall be a citizen of the United States. Such person shall be appointed for a term of four years, except such appointment as may be made for the remainder of an unexpired term. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, or otherwise shall be filled by the commissioners only for an unexpired term. Such person shall be eligible for reappointment. Such person shall be an attorney and in active practice of law for at least ten years next preceding his appointment.

The salary of such person so appointed shall be $8,000 per annum. The commissioners are authorized to employ such other personal services as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title and to provide for the expenses of the board. The salaries of employees other than the board shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673), as amended, but such employees shall be appointed without regard to civil-service requirements. The commissioners shall include in their annual estimates such amounts as may be required for the salaries and expenses herein authorized. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 2, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (a).)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment raised the salary from $7,500 to $8,000.

CROSS REFERENCE

The sections of this chapter are part of the Revenue Act of 1939, see Compiler's Notes to § 47-1401.

§ 47-2403 [20: 974]. Appeal from assessment—Payment under protest—Hearing and decision.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment by the District against him of any personal-property, inheritance, estate, business-privilege, gross-receipts, gross-earnings, insurance-premiums, or motor-vehicle-fuel tax or taxes, or penalties thereon, may, within ninety days after notice of such assessment, appeal from such assessment to the board, provided such person shall first pay such tax, together with penalties and interest due thereon, to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia under protest in writing. The mailing to the taxpayer of a statement of taxes due shall be considered notice of assessment with respect of such taxes. The board shall hear and determine all questions arising on said appeal and shall make separate findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall render its decision thereon in writing. The board may affirm, cancel, reduce, or increase such assessment. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 3, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the word "or" before the words "insurance-premiums" and added thereafter the words "or motor-vehicle-fuel," and hyphenated the following pairs of words, "personal property," "business privilege," "gross receipts," "gross earnings," and "insurance premiums" as they appear.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

There is no conflict between this section and § 47-1604; they are merely alternative. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 386, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

TIME OF PAYMENT

The statute requires payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of assessment as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal although this due date falls before the end of the 18 months provision fixed by § 47-1604. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 386, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

§ 47-2404 [20: 975]. Review by court—Procedure—Decision of board, when final—Modification or reversal.

(a) The decision of the board may be reviewed by the court as hereinafter provided if a petition for such review is filed by either the District or the taxpayer within thirty days after the decision is rendered. Such petition for review shall be filed with the board, and shall be in such form as the board by regulation shall provide. Upon such review the court shall have the power to affirm, or if the decision of the board is not in accordance with law, to modify or reverse the decision of the board, with or without remanding the case for hearing, as justice may require. The court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to review the decisions of the board, and the judgment of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari in the manner provided in section 347, Title 28, U. S. Code. The court is authorized to adopt rules for the filing of the record on review, the preparation of the record for review, and the conduct of the proceedings upon such review and, until the adoption of such rules, the rules of the court relating to appeals in cases in equity, so far as applicable, shall govern. The findings of fact by the board shall have the same effect as a finding of fact by an equity court or a verdict of a jury.

(b) The board is authorized to fix a fee, not in excess of the fee usually charged and collected therefor by the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, for comparing and preparing the transcript of record, and to fix charges for supplying copies of testimony or copies of other documents and papers. The fees and charges so fixed shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District and deposited in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia.

(c) The decision of the board shall become final (1) upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for review, if no such petition be duly filed within such time; or (2) upon the expiration of time allowed for filing of petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court, or no petition for certiorari has been filed; or (3) upon denial of a petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court; or (4) upon the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of the mandate of the Supreme Court, if such Court directs that the decision of the board be affirmed or the petition for review dismissed.

(d) If the Supreme Court directs that the decision of the board be modified or reversed, the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the Supreme Court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time it was rendered unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected to accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the Board shall become final when so corrected.

(e) If the decision of the board is modified or reversed by the court and if (1) the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been filed, or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied, or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time such decision of the board was rendered, unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected so that it will accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the board shall become final when so corrected.

(f) If the Supreme Court orders a rehearing, or if the case is remanded by the court for rehearing and if (1) the time allowed for filing of a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been duly filed; or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied; or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered upon such rehearing shall become final in the same manner as though no prior decision of the board had been rendered.

(g) As used in this section the term "mandate," in case a mandate has been recalled prior to the expiration of thirty days from the date of the issuance thereof, means the final mandate. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 4, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PAYMENT UNDER PROTEST

When taxpayer who had been previously taxed on basis of his equitable interest in marginal stocks but is then reassessed by tax authorities for full value, a payment under protest raises the question whether such new assessment was without authority of law. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 103 Fed. (2d) 10).

§ 47-2405 [20: 976]. Appeals of real estate assessments.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment, equalization, or valuation made pursuant to sections 47-708, 47-709, may, within ninety days after October 1 of the year in which such assessment, equalization, or valuation is made, appeal from such assessment, equalization, or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as therein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment or valuation made in pursuance of section 47-710 may, within ninety days after October 15 of the year in which said valuation or assessment is made, appeal from such assessment or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment made in pursuance of section 47-711 may, within ninety days after April 15 of the year in which such assessment is made, appeal from such assessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any reassessment made in pursuance of section 47-712, may within ninety days after notice of said reassessment, appeal from said reassessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404.

Any person aggrieved by a reassessment or redistribution made pursuant to section 47-716, may within ninety days after notice of such reassessment or redistribution, appeal from such reassessment or redistribution in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47-2403, 47-2404. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act changed the date in paragraph (a) from "August 1" to "October 1" and added the proviso to that paragraph; changed the date in paragraph (b) from "August 1" to "October 15" and added the proviso to that paragraph; and changed the date in paragraph (c) from "February 1" to "April 15" and added the proviso to that paragraph.

§ 47-2406 [20: 977]. Appeal from imposition of tax involuntarily paid—Suit.

Any taxpayer who shall have paid within three years immediately preceding the approval of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937 any tax to the District involuntarily, and under circumstances which according to law would entitle such taxpayer to the right to sue at law for the recovery of such tax, may within ninety days from May 16, 1938, appeal from the imposition of such tax in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47-2403, 47-2404. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 6, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 374, ch. 223, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PAYMENT TO AVOID REVOCATION OF LICENSE

A corporation licensed to do business in the district which is assessed a tax on its earnings and fails to pay the sum until it receives from the assessor a rule to show cause why their license should not be revoked, and then pays the tax and penalty under protest to avoid revocation of their license, pays the tax involuntarily, entitling it to sue for the recovery of the tax under this act. Panitz v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 131, 112 Fed. (2d) 39).

A claim for refund of taxes filed on the ninety-first day was on time, where the ninetieth day fell on Sunday. Sherwood Bros., Inc. v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 155, 113 Fed. (2d) 162).

§ 47-2409 [20: 979a]. Summons—Authority to take testimony.

The board is hereby authorized and empowered to summon any person before it to give testimony on oath or affirmation or to produce all books, records, papers, documents, or other legal evidence as to any matter relating to sections 47-2401 to 47-2412; and the board is authorized to administer oaths and to take testimony for the purposes of the administration of sections of this chapter. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the board may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 9, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47-2410 [20: 979b]. Certain suits forbidden.

No suit shall be filed to enjoin the assessment or collection by the District of Columbia or any of its officers, agents, or employees of any tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 10, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47-2411 [20: 979c]. Manner of serving notices.

Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended, addressed to such person at the address given in any return filed by him, or, if no return has been filed, then to his last-known address. The proof of mailing of any notice mentioned in this chapter shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which must be determined under the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 11, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47-2501 [20: 971a]. Authorization for advance of funds by Secretary of Treasury.

Until and including June 30, 1942, the Secretary of the Treasury, notwithstanding the provisions of the District of Columbia Appropriation Act, approved June 29, 1922, is authorized and directed to advance, on the requisition of the commissioners of the District of Columbia, made in the manner now prescribed by law, out of any money in the treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary, from time to time, to meet the general expenses of said District, as authorized by Congress, and such amounts so advanced shall be reimbursed by the said commissioners to the treasury out of taxes and revenue collected for the support of the government of the said District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 692, ch. 690, § 2, title VII; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, § 7; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title VI; March 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 39, ch. 37, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The date in the first phrase of the first sentence, appeared in the 1937 act as June 30, 1938, in the 1938 act as June 30, 1939, in the 1939 act as June 30, 1940, and in the 1940 act as June 30, 1942.

The 1938 act deleted the word "the" from the phrase "of the taxes" in the last clause.

The 1939 act deleted the words "during said fiscal year" following the words "from time to time."

Except as shown by this amendment note, this section has been re-enacted in each act cited to the text.

§ 48-202 [19: 162]. Using registered container of another.

Whoever shall by himself or his agent fill, use, sell, offer for sale, give, buy, traffic in, or shall have in his possession with intent to fill, use, sell, offer for sale, give, buy, or traffic in any registered milk bottle or bottles, can or cans, crate or crates, or other containers on which appears the name, mark, or device, registered by another person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties in section 48-210. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 2.)

§ 48-203 [19: 163]. Wilfully defacing name registered by another.

Whoever shall by himself or his agent wilfully deface, erase, alter, obliterate, cover up, or otherwise remove or conceal any registered name, mark, or device registered by another and being on any milk bottle, can, crate, or other container, or shall willfully break, destroy, or otherwise injure any registered milk bottle, can, crate, or other container which has been registered by another shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 48-210. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 3.)

§ 48-204 [19: 164]. Refusal to surrender to registrant a registered container prima facie evidence of unlawful use.

In any prosecution under sections 48-201 to 48-211, inclusive, the refusal of any person having possession of any registered milk bottle, can, crate, or other container to surrender possession of the same to the registrant of the name, mark, or device appearing thereon, after notice and demand by said registrant or his agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the unlawful use or traffic in the same contrary to the provisions of sections 48-201 to 48-211, inclusive. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 4.)

§ 48-205 [19: 165]. Proceeding in police court to ascertain violations—Search warrant.

Whenever any person who has registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers in accordance with the provisions of section 48-201 shall by himself or his agent make oath before the clerk of the police court of the District of Columbia that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that any of his registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, are being filled, used, bought, trafficked in, held, sold, offered for sale, broken, injured, or destroyed within the District of Columbia contrary to the provisions of sections 48-201 to 48-211, inclusive, by any person without the written consent of the registrant the judge of the police court to whom said complaint under oath is made may forthwith issue a search warrant directed to any police officer or other proper officer to search the premises whereon or wherein said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers are unlawfully held and may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person complained against; and if any one or more of such registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, or any parts of the same, shall be found upon the premises by the officer executing the said search warrant, he shall seize and take possession of all such registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, or parts thereof, and shall cause the same to be brought before the judge of the police court, who shall award the said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, and other containers to the person entitled to the same. #### Chapter 4.—REGISTRATION OF LABOR UNION LABELS

Sec.

48-401. Adoption of label authorized—Registration—Assignment prohibited.

48-402. Use of registered label restricted.

48-403. Penalties.

§ 48-401 [19: 191]. Adoption of label authorized—Registration—Assignment prohibited.

A union or association of employees in the District of Columbia may adopt a device in the form of a label, brand, mark, name, or other character for the purpose of designating the products of the labor of the members thereof. A drawing of such device may be filed in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia and the clerk shall register same in a book to be provided for such purpose and be entitled to collect $1 for each registration. A certified copy of the drawing so registered may be obtained from the clerk upon the payment of $1 for each certification. Such certificate shall not be assignable by the union or association to whom it is issued. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 50, ch. 47, § 1.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

Registration of prints and labels, U. S. C., title 17, §§ 63, 64.

§ 48-402 [19: 192]. Use of registered label restricted.

No person shall in any way use or display the label, brand, mark, name, or other character adopted by any such union or association as provided in section 48-401 without the consent or authority of such union or association; or counterfeit or imitate any such label, brand, mark, name, or other character, or knowingly sell, dispose of, keep, or have in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of any goods, wares, merchandise, or other products of labor, upon which any such counterfeit or imitation is attached, affixed, printed, stamped, or impressed, or knowingly sell, dispose of, keep, or have in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of any goods, wares, merchandise, or other products of labor contained in any box, case, can, or package, to which or on which any such counterfeit or imitation is attached, affixed, printed, painted, stamped, or impressed. If copies of such device have been filed, the union or association may maintain an action in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia to enjoin the manufacture, use, display, or sale of counterfeit or colorable imitations of such device, or of goods bearing the same, or the unauthorized use or display of such device or of goods bearing the same, and the court may restrain such wrongful manufacture, use, display, or sale, and every unauthorized use or display by others of the genuine devices so registered and filed, if such use or display is not authorized by the owner thereof, and may award to the plaintiff such damages resulting from such wrongful manufacture, use, display, or sale as may be proved, together with the profits derived therefrom. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 50, ch. 47, § 2.)

§ 48-403 [19: 193]. Penalties.

A person violating any of the provisions of section 48-402 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, or by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 51, ch. 47, § 3.)

49-103.	Copies of code and supplements conclusive evidence of original.
49-104.	Distribution of code—Slip and pamphlet copies.
49-105.	Additional quotas to Congress.
49-106.	Further quotas to Congress for personal use—Distribution of code to new members.
49-107.	Committee on Revision of the Laws to prescribe form and style of code and ancillaries.
49-108.	Curtailment of number of copies of code to be printed—Printing and distribution of supplements may be dispensed with.
49-109.	Functions of Committee on Revision of Laws may be vested in other agency.
49-110.	Exchange and sale of building, police, plumbing, and municipal regulations.
49-111.	Disposition of compilation of laws affecting District of Columbia.

§ 49-101 [1:1]. The Code of the District of Columbia—Preparation and publication—Supplements.

There shall be prepared and published under the supervision of the Committee on Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives—

A consolidation and codification of the laws, general and permanent in their nature, relating to or in force in the District of Columbia, except such laws as are of application in the District of Columbia by reason of being laws of the United States general and permanent in their nature. Such Code shall be designated "The Code of the District of Columbia";

A supplement for each session of the Congress to the then current edition of the Code of the District of Columbia, cumulatively embracing the legislation of the then current supplement, and correcting errors in such edition and supplement;

New editions of the Code of the District of Columbia, correcting errors and incorporating the then current supplement. New editions shall not be published oftener than once in each five years. Copies of each such edition shall be distributed in the same manner as provided in the case of supplements to the code of which it is a new edition. Supplements published after any new edition shall not contain the legislation of supplements published before such new edition. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1007, ch. 910, § 2; Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1541, ch. 586, § 2.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 52.

§ 49-102 [1:2]. Laws set forth as establishing prima facie the laws of the District of Columbia.

In all courts, tribunals, and public offices of the United States, at home or abroad, of the District of Columbia, and of each state, territory, or insular possession of the United States—

The matter set forth in the edition of the Code of the District of Columbia current at any time shall, together with the then current supplement, if any, establish prima facie the laws, general and permanent in their nature, relating to or in force in the District of Columbia on the day preceding the commencement of the session following the last session the legislation of which is included, except such laws as are of application in the District of Columbia by reason of being laws of the United States general and permanent in their nature.

The Code of the District of Columbia may be cited as "D. C. Code."

Supplements to the Code of the District of Columbia may be cited as "D. C. Code, Sup. ,," the blank in each case being filled with Roman figures denoting the number of the supplement.

New editions of such code may be cited as "D. C. Code, ed.," the blank in each case being filled with figures denoting the last year the legislation of which is included in whole or in part. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1007, ch. 910, § 4; Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1541, ch. 586, § 3.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 54.

§ 49-103 [1:3]. Copies of code and supplements conclusive evidence of original.

Copies of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and copies of the supplements provided for by section 49-101, printed at the Government Printing Office and bearing its imprint, shall be conclusive evidence of the original of such code and supplements in the custody of the Secretary of State. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1007, ch. 910, § 5.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 55.

§ 49-104 [1:4]. Distribution of code—Slip and pamphlet copies.

Copies of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and of the supplements provided for by section 49-101 shall be distributed by the Superintendent of Documents in the same manner as bound volumes of the Statutes at Large: Provided, That no slip or pamphlet copies of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and of the supplements provided for by section 49-101 need be printed or distributed: And provided further, That the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and the supplements provided for by section 49-101 shall, upon enactment, be published as separate parts of the Statutes at Large. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1007, ch. 910, § 6.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 56.

§ 49-105 [1:5]. Additional quotas to Congress.

In addition to quotas provided for by section 49-104 there shall be printed, published, and distributed of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, with tables, index, and other ancillaries, suitably bound and with thumb inserts and other convenient devices to distinguish the parts, and of the supplements thereto as provided for by section 49-101, ten copies of each for each member of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Congress in which the original authorized publication is made, for his use and distribution, and in addition for the Committee on Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate a number of bound copies of each equal to ten times the number of members of such committees, and one bound copy of each for the use of each committee of the Senate and House of Representatives. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1008, ch. 910, § 7.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 57.

§ 49-106 [1:6]. Further quotas to Congress for personal use—Distribution of code to new Members.

In addition the Superintendent of Documents shall, at the beginning of the first session of each Congress, supply to each senator and representative in such Congress, who may in writing apply for the same, one copy each of the Code of Laws relating to the District of Columbia, when and if completed, and the latest supplement thereto: Provided, That such applicant shall certify in his written application for the same that the volume or volumes for which he applies is intended for his personal use exclusively: And provided further, That no senator or representative during his term of service shall receive under this section more than one copy each of the volumes enumerated herein. (May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1008, ch. 910, § 8.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 58.

§ 49-107 [1:7]. Committee on Revision of the Laws to prescribe form and style of code and ancillaries.

The publications provided for in section 49-101, shall be printed at the Government Printing Office, and shall be in such form and style and with such ancillaries as may be prescribed by the Committee on Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives. The Librarian of Congress is directed to cooperate with such committee in the preparation of such ancillaries. Such publications shall be furnished with such thumb inserts and other devices to distinguish parts, with such facilities for the insertion of additional matter, and with such explanatory and advertising slips, and shall be printed on such paper and bound in such material, as may be prescribed by such committee. (Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1542, ch. 586, § 4; June 13, 1934, 48 Stat. 948, ch. 483, § 1, 2.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 54a.

§ 49-108 [1:8]. Curtailment of number of copies of code to be printed—Printing and distribution of supplements may be dispensed with.

In order to avoid duplication and waste—

Curtailment of the number provided by law to be printed and distributed of the volumes or publications enumerated in section 49-101 may be directed by such committee, except that the Public Printer shall print such numbers as are necessary for depository library distribution and for sale; and

Such committee may direct that the printing and distribution of any supplement to the Code of the District of Columbia be dispensed with entirely, except that there shall be printed and distributed for each Congress at least one supplement to such code, containing the legislation of such Congress. (Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1540, ch. 586, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words "such committee" should probably read "the Committee on Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives."

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 51a.

§ 49-109 [1:9]. Functions of Committee on Revision of Laws may be vested in other agency.

The functions vested by sections 49-101 to 49-108, inclusive, in the Committee on Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives may from time to time be vested in such other agency as the Congress may by concurrent resolution provide: Provided, That the printing, binding, and distribution of the volumes and publications enumerated in section 49-101 shall be done under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing. (Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1542, ch. 586, § 7.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 54d.

§ 49-110 [20:42]. Exchange and sale of building, police, plumbing, and municipal regulations.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to issue in their discretion, without charge, to officers and the judiciary of the government of the District of Columbia, and to other officers of the government, and to institutions of learning, and to state and city officials, by way of documentary exchange, copies of building, police, plumbing, and other municipal regulations made and published by them in their official capacity, not exceeding in all one hundred copies, and the remainder of such publications shall only be disposed of by sale at not less than the cost price and ten per centum thereof; and all moneys received from the sale of said regulations shall be paid for each fiscal year into the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia unless otherwise provided by law. (Feb. 25, 1910, 36 Stat. 208, ch. 62; Mar. 4, 1911, 36 Stat. 1299, ch. 240; Feb. 22, 1921, 41 Stat. 1144, ch. 70, § 7; acts 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Acts 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249, § 1, provided as follows: "Annually, from and after July 1, 1922, 60 per centum of such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may appropriate for shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia derived from taxation and privileges, and the remaining 40 per centum by the United States excepting such items of expense as Congress may direct shall be paid on another basis, * * *; and that after June 30, 1922, any revenue derived from any activity or source whatever, including motor-vehicle licenses, not otherwise herein disposed of, which activity or source of revenue is appropriated for by both the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be divided between the two in the same proportion that each has contributed thereto."

The appropriation act of June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 539, ch. 302, § 1, made a lump-sum appropriation as follows: "Any revenue (not including the proportionate share of the United States in any revenue arising as the result of the expenditure of appropriations made for the fiscal year 1924 and prior fiscal years) now required by law to be credited to the District of Columbia and the United States in the same proportion that each contributed to the activity or source from whence such revenue was derived shall be credited wholly to the District of Columbia, and in addition, $9,000,000 is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and all the remainder out of the combined revenues of the District of Columbia and such advances from the Federal Treasury as are authorized in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1923, namely:"

Subsequent appropriation acts contained similar provisions, changing only the amount of the appropriation and the fiscal year (see act of June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 307, ch. 333, § 1). These appropriation acts did not, however, provide for the repeal of the provisions of the 1922 act above quoted. This was done by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, § 8, which added Title 10 to the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690.

From the foregoing it would seem that there is no longer any apportionment of expenses or segregation of revenues unless specific provision is made therefor by Congress subsequent to the repeal provision.

§ 49-111 [20:43]. Disposition of compilation of laws affecting District of Columbia.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia, after supplying each of the heads of the several departments and offices of the government and the judiciary of said District with the necessary copies of the bound editions of the laws affecting said District, which are prepared in the office of the secretary of the board at the close of each session of Congress, may sell the surplus volumes at a rate per volume to be fixed by them, approximating but not less than the pro rata cost of compilation, and deposit all money so received to the credit of the appropriation out of which such cost is paid. (Mar. 1, 1901, 31 Stat. 826, ch. 670.)

Chapter 2.—RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

Sec.

- 49-201. Rules stated.
- 49-202. Words importing singular number to include plural.
- 49-203. Masculine gender to include all genders.
- 49-204. Person to include partnerships and corporations.
- 49-205. Executor to include administrator.
- 49-206. Oath to include affirmation.
- 49-207. Insane person and lunatic.

§ 49-201 [1:11]. Rules stated.

In the interpretation and construction of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1189) the following rules shall be observed, namely: (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The rules of construction contained in sections 49-202 to 49-207 are applicable only to that portion of this code that was included in the District of Columbia Code of 1901 (act of Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854).

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT

The amendment of an act without changing the particular provision that had previously been construed by the court does not amend away or modify the judicial interpretation previously given the act, as it will be presumed that such construction was in accordance with the legislative intent. Bardwell v. Petty (52 App. D. C. 310, 286 Fed. 772).

PARTICULAR AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Upon appeal to decide conflict between two sections, held that, "where there is in the same statute, a particular enactment, and also a general one, which in its most comprehensive sense, would include what is embraced in the former, the particular enactment must be operative, and the general enactment must be taken to affect only such cases within its general language as are not within the provisions of the particular enactment." Tri-State Motor Corp. v. Standard Steel Car Co. (51 App. D. C. 109, 276 Fed. 631).

§ 49-202 [1:12]. Words importing singular number to include plural.

Words importing the singular number shall be held to include the plural, and vice versa, except where such construction would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49-203 [1:13]. Masculine gender to include all genders.

Words importing the masculine gender shall be held to include all genders, except where such construction would be absurd or unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49-204 [1:14]. Person to include partnerships and corporations.

The word "person" shall be held to apply to partnerships and corporations, unless such construction would be unreasonable, and the reference to any officer shall include any person authorized by law to perform the duties of his office, unless the context shows that such words were intended to be used in a more limited sense. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49-205 [1:15]. Executor to include administrator.

Wherever the word "executor" is used it shall include "administrator," and vice versa, unless such application of the term would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49-206 [1:16]. Oath to include affirmation.

Wherever an oath is required an affirmation in judicial form, if made by a person conscientiously scrupulous about taking an oath, shall be deemed a sufficient compliance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49-207 [1:17]. Insane person and lunatic.

The words "insane person" and "lunatic" shall include every idiot, non compos, lunatic, and insane person. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

Chapter 3.—LAWS REMAINING IN FORCE

Sec.

- 49-301. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.
 49-302. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.
 49-303. Vestries.
 49-304. Repeal provisions of 1901 Code.

§ 49-301 [1: 21]. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.

The common law, all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the principles of equity and admiralty, all general Acts of Congress not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia, and all Acts of Congress by their terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, in force in the District of Columbia on March 3, 1901, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with, or are replaced by, subsequent legislation of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

This section is affected by § 1640 of the act of March 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1436, ch. 854, which saved from repeal any municipal ordinance or regulation in force on January 1, 1902, except in so far as the same were inconsistent with or replaced by some provisions of that act.

In accord with this section, a number of early British statutes have been incorporated in this Code.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

Act of January 15, 1897 (29 Stat. 487) and § 330 of ch. 14 of the Federal Penal Code permitting jury to qualify verdict of guilty in cases of murder and rape are superseded by code. Johnson v. United States (38 App. D. C. 347, affd. 225 U. S. 405, 56 L. Ed. 1142, 32 Sup. Ct. 748).

IN GENERAL

This section is a general legislative declaration in affirmation of preexisting decisions upon the subject. Moss v. United States (23 App. D. C. 475).

Act of Maryland Legislative Assembly of 1723, ch. 16, § 10 (Abert's Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 176), relative to Sunday work does not apply in District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. Robinson (30 App. D. C. 283).

Section 1 of D. C. 1901 provided as judicial bases for determination of District of Columbia laws, British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the common law, and principles of equity. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

ARREST WITHOUT WARRANT

In the District, and at common law, an officer may not arrest for misdemeanor without warrant unless it is committed in his presence or within his view. Maghan v. Jerome (67 App. D. C. 9, 88 Fed. (2d) 1001).

BRITISH STATUTES

The provision of D. C. 1901, relating to British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, was intended by Congress to mean those British statutes to the benefit of which Maryland inhabitants were entitled under the Maryland Declaration of Rights of 1776, and did not incorporate in the District of Columbia law, as amending the common law or otherwise, British statutes enacted between 1776 and 1801. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

COMMON LAW

As to common-law crimes and jurisdiction to try the same, see Palmer v. Lenovitz (35 App. D. C. 303).

Common law as to surface waters prevails. Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. Thomas (37 App. D. C. 255).

Common-law method of procuring talesman in capital cases when regular panel is exhausted. Milano v. United States (40 App. D. C. 379).

"Except as 'repealed by express statutory provision, or modified by inconsistent legislation, or where it has become obsolete or unsuited to our republican form of government, the common law of England in all its branches, both civil and criminal, remains to-day the law of the District of Columbia * * *.'" Lisner v. Hughes (49 App. D. C. 40, 258 Fed. 512) citing De Forest v. United States (11 App. D. C. 466).

Common law held to prevail in the District of Columbia as to descent of property. Cunningham v. Rodgers (50 App. D. C. 51, 267 Fed. 609).

The common law, insofar as it permits accumulation of income from a testamentary trust which is to terminate with the death of the testator's two nieces, involving the accumulation of a huge sum of money for a period probably in excess of sixty years, is obsolete and repugnant to our conditions, and therefore not applicable to the District of Columbia. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

The provision in § 1 of the D. C. 1901, that the common law shall remain in force in the District of Columbia, intended the common law of England as it existed in Maryland on Feb. 27, 1801, and so far as it had not become obsolete or unsuited to our conditions, and it was not identical with the common law of England. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.-D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921); United States v. Griffith (55 App. D. C. 123, 2 Fed. (2d) 925).

COMPACT BETWEEN MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA

The compact between Maryland and Virginia as to shores of the Potomac River is not in force in District. United States ex rel. Greathouse v. Hurley (61 App. D. C. 360, 63 Fed. (2d) 137).

CONSPIRACY AGAINST UNITED STATES

The Supreme [District] Court of the [United States for the] District of Columbia sitting as a criminal court had jurisdiction to try an indictment for conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States. Pitts v. Peak (60 App. D. C. 195, 50 Fed. (2d) 485).

DECISIONS OF MARYLAND COURTS

Decisions of Maryland courts, being founded upon general principles, and made since the organization of the District of Columbia, are not binding upon the courts of the District as authorities, though entitled to all the respect due to the opinions of the highest court of the State. Phillips v. Negley (117 U. S. 665, 29 L. Ed. 1013, 6 Sup. Ct. 901).

Decisions of Maryland, giving to the statutes of that state a construction at variance with that which prevailed at the time of the cession of the District of Columbia, does not control the decision of Supreme [District] Court of the [United States for the] District as to the effect of those statutes on the territory within the District. Morris v. United States (174 U. S. 196, 43 L. Ed. 946, 19 Sup. Ct. 649).

ESPIONAGE ACT

Provisions of the Espionage Act apply in the District of Columbia in a case of a violation of a United States statute applicable only to the District. Nuckols v. United States (69 App. D. C. 120, 99 Fed. (2d) 353).

FULL FAITH AND CREDIT

When rights have ripened into a judgment of a court in another state, the full faith and credit clause applies and courts of the District are bound, equally with courts of the states, to observe the command of the full faith and credit clause, wherever applicable. Loughran v. Loughran (292 U. S. 216, 78 L. Ed. 1219, 54 Sup. Ct. 684).

LAWS OF MARYLAND

Laws of Maryland derive their force, in this district, under 2 Stat. 103, ch. 15, §§ 1, 3, 5. But this section which gives effect to those laws, does not amount to a reenactment of them, so as to sustain them, under the powers of exclusive legislation, given to Congress over this district. This act could only give to those laws that force which they previously had in this tract under the laws of Maryland. Bank of Columbia v. Okely (4 Wheat. (17 U. S.) 235, 4 L. Ed. 559).

By this act it is provided that the laws of the State of Maryland, as they then existed, should be and continue in force in that part of the district which was ceded by that State to the United States. Lee v. Lee (8 Pet. (33 U. S.) 44, 8 L. Ed. 860).

Congress by this act provided that the laws of Maryland shall be and continue in force in that part of the District which was ceded by that State to the United States. Clawans v. Sheetz (67 App. D. C. 366, 92 Fed. (2d) 517).

LAWS OF VIRGINIA

Under this act the laws of Virginia, as they then existed, were declared to be and continue in force in that part of the District of Columbia which was ceded by that State to the United States, and by them accepted for the permanent seat of government; and all suits, process, etc., depending in the court of hustings for the town of Alexandria, were transferred to the circuit court of the District. Turner v. Fendall (1 Cranch. (5 U. S.) 117, 2 L. Ed. 53).

Right of Virginia to legislate for the District did not cease or determine until 27th of February 1801. Young v. Bank of Alexandria (4 Cranch. (8 U. S.) 384, 2 L. Ed. 655).

PENDING SUITS

In the matter of procedure or practice, pending suits must be governed by the provisions of the code where the procedure does not affect the substantial rights of parties, but where the procedure does affect the substantial rights of parties, the code shall not apply as to the pending suits, but only the old law. Thus, U. S. C., title 28, §§ 512 and 513, relating to District of Columbia, were kept in force by § 1638 of the code of 1901. Costello v. Palmer (20 App. D. C. 210).

SELECTION OF JURORS

The code supersedes prior law relative to selection of grand and petit jurors. Clark v. United States (19 App. D. C. 295).

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Statute of limitations, R. S. § 1044, held applicable to contempts in the District of Columbia. Gompers v. United States (233 U. S. 604, 58 L. Ed. 1119, 34 Sup. Ct. 693, rev'g 40 App. D. C. 293).

TRIAL BY JURY

Common-law offense of reckless driving is a crime within the constitutional provision for a trial by jury. Colts v. District of Columbia (59 App. D. C. 224, 38 Fed. (2d) 535).

WRIT OF CERTIORARI

No statute has been passed enlarging the scope of the common-law writ of certiorari in the District, and when sought between private persons, the writ will be granted or denied, in the sound discretion of the court. United States ex rel. Eure v. Borden (65 App. D. C. 84, 80 Fed. (2d) 527).

§ 49-302 [1: 22]. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.

All laws and ordinances of the City of Washington, and of the levy court of the District of Columbia, except as modified or repealed by Congress or the legislative assembly of the District since June 1, 1871, or until so modified or repealed, remain in full force. (R. S., D. C., § 91; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 338, § 4; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Act of legislative assembly, D. C., August 23, 1871, for prevention of cruelty to animals, was not repealed by section 1636 (§ 49-304) as "that section expressly saves from repeal all acts of the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia relating to 'police regulations.'" Johnson v. District Court (30 App. D. C. 520).

§ 49-303 [1: 23]. Vestries.

All acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 1636, par. 9, as added June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 546, ch. 1329.)

§ 49-304. Repeal provisions of 1901 Code.

"Sec. 1636. All acts and parts of the general assembly of the State of Maryland general and permanent in their nature, all like acts and parts of acts of the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia, and all like acts and parts of acts of Congress applying solely to the District of Columbia in force in said District on the day of the passage of this act are hereby repealed, except:

"First. Acts and parts of acts relating to the rights, powers, duties, or obligations of the United States.

"Second. Acts and parts of acts relating to the Court of Claims.

"Third. Acts and parts of acts relating to the organization of the District government, or to its obligations, or the powers or duties of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their subordinates or employees, or to police regulations, and generally all acts and parts of acts relating to municipal affairs only, including those regulating the charges of public-service corporations.

"Fourth. Acts and parts of acts relating to the militia.

"Fifth. All penal statutes authorizing punishment by fine only or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

"Sixth. Acts and parts of acts of Congress relating solely to the Departments of the General Government in the District of Columbia, or any of them.

"Seventh. Acts or parts of acts authorizing, defining, and prescribing the organization, powers, duties, fees, and emoluments of the register of wills of the District of Columbia and his office.

"Eighth. An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy in the District of Columbia, approved June fifteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight; an act for the regulation of the practice of dentistry in the District of Columbia, and for the protection of the people from empiricism in relation thereto, approved June sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two; an act regulating the construction of buildings along alleyways in the District of Columbia, approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and ninety-two; an act for the promotion of anatomical science, and to prevent the desecration of graves in the District of Columbia, approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five; an act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of medical and dental colleges in the District of Columbia, approved May fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; an act relating to the testimony of physicians in the courts of the District of Columbia, received by the President May thirteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; an act to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery, to license physicians and surgeons, and to punish persons violating the provisions thereof in the District of Columbia, approved June third, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; and, generally, all acts or parts of acts relating to medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, the commitment of the insane to the Government Hospital for the Insane in the District of Columbia, the abatement of nuisances, and public health.

"Ninth. Acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination.

"All acts and parts of acts included in the foregoing exceptions, or any of them, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this code."

"Sec. 1637. The incorporation into this code of any general and permanent provision taken from an act making appropriations, or from an act containing other provisions of a private or temporary character, shall not repeal nor in any way affect any appropriation or any provision of a private or temporary character contained in any of said acts, but the same shall remain in force."

"Sec. 1638. The repeal by the preceding section of any statute, in whole or in part, shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil cause before such repeal, but all rights and liabilities under the statutes or parts thereof so repealed shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if such repeal had not been made: Provided, That the provisions of this code relating to procedure or practice and not affecting the substantial rights of parties shall apply to pending suits or proceedings civil or criminal."

"Sec. 1639. The enactment of this code is not to affect or repeal any act of Congress which may be passed between the date of this act and the date when this act is to go into effect; and all acts of Congress that may be passed hereafter are to have full effect as if passed after the enactment of this code, and, so far as such acts may vary from or conflict with any provision contained in this code, they are to have effect as subsequent statutes and as repealing any portion of this act inconsistent therewith."

"Sec. 1640. Nothing in the repealing clause of this code contained shall be held to affect the operation or enforcement in the District of Columbia of the common law or of any British statute in force in Maryland on the twenty-seventh day of February, eighteen hundred and one, or of the principles of equity or admiralty, or of any general statute of the United States not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia or by its terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or of any municipal ordinance or regulation, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with, or is replaced by, some provision of this code."

"Sec. 1641. All offenses committed and all penalties or forfeitures incurred in the District prior to the date on which this code is to take effect may be prosecuted and punished in the same manner and with the same effect as if this code had not been enacted."

"Sec. 1642. Where any action or proceeding by the provisions of chapter forty-one of this code would be barred at the time it goes into effect, or within one year thereafter, which would not be so barred by prior laws, such action or proceeding may be brought or instituted within such period of one year, anything in said chapter to the contrary notwithstanding."

"Sec. 1643. That nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the term of office of any judicial or other officer holding office when this code goes into effect and operation, except when, as in the case of the present justices of the peace and constables, a contrary intention is manifested."
